

THE BOOK OF HORSES

REUBEN RACER'S
BOOK OF HORSES

MILLER'S HORSE.

And here you have Miller's horse

Proceeding on his way,
And bringing us a pack of flour
To make our bread to-day.

HUNTING-HORSE.

Hurra ! the hunter clears the gate

Without a single fall ;
He would have leap'd it quite
as well,

If it had been a wall.

BOOK OF HORSES.

SOLDIER'S HORSE.

This is the Soldier's horse, which throws
Its noble feet so far ;
'Twill bear him in the battlefield,
And stand the brunt of war.

HORSE IN TRAINING.

The horse above is training,
now,

To gallop in a race;
And during summer it will run
At York, or some such place.

BOOK OF HORSES.

READY FOR STARTING.

The owner of this useful beast
Is ready for a ride ;
And so it is equipped with reins
And everything beside.

RACE-HORSE.

How gallantly it flies along,
Amid the shouts of men !
It's pretty certain you'll ne'er see
So fine a horse again.

HORSE EXERCISING.

To give a nag an appetite,
And make him tall and strong,
A boy will oft lead him about
And trot him fast along.
