

PLAYFUL

PLAYMATES

Playful Playmates.

I have so many
Pets my dears,
I love them all
so well

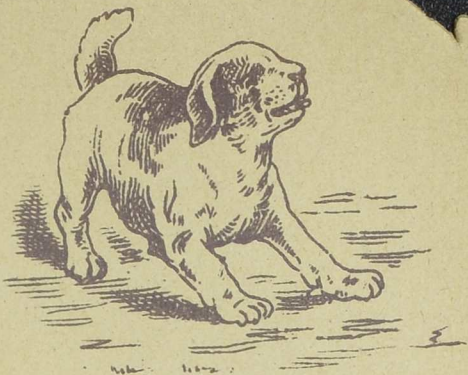

But into Loro's long sleek ears

I all my secrets tell.

We'll have some for dinner

My Naughty Puppies.

Three pups I have, Daph, Vick
and Brand,

They know a clever trick,
For Daph, and Brand together stand,
And on their heads stands Vick.

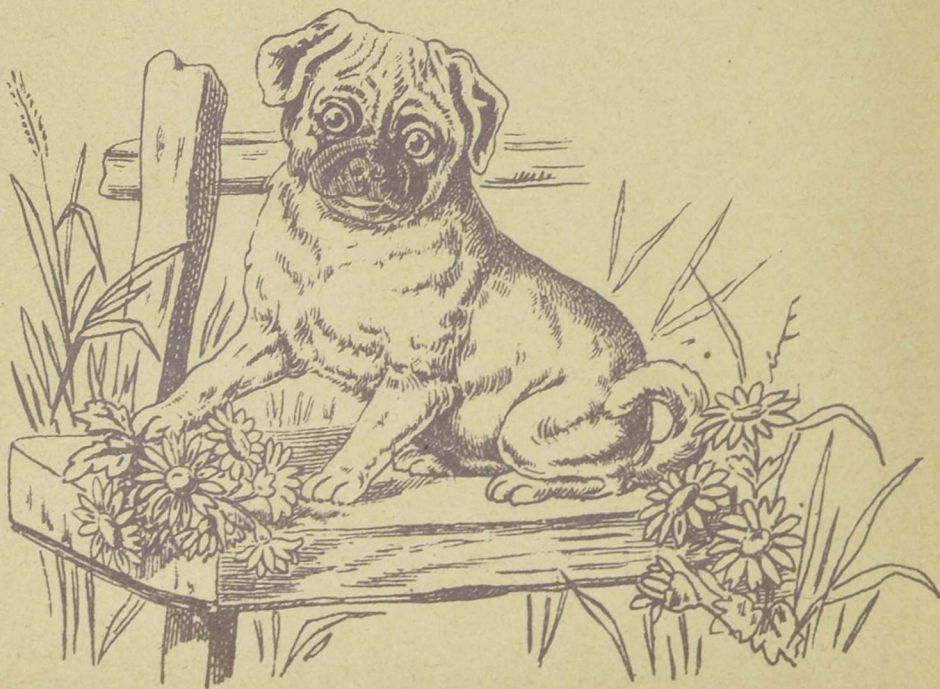

But sad to say my Vick one day,
A fine fat goose had found,
— Which on the larder shelf did lay. —
And dragged it to the ground.

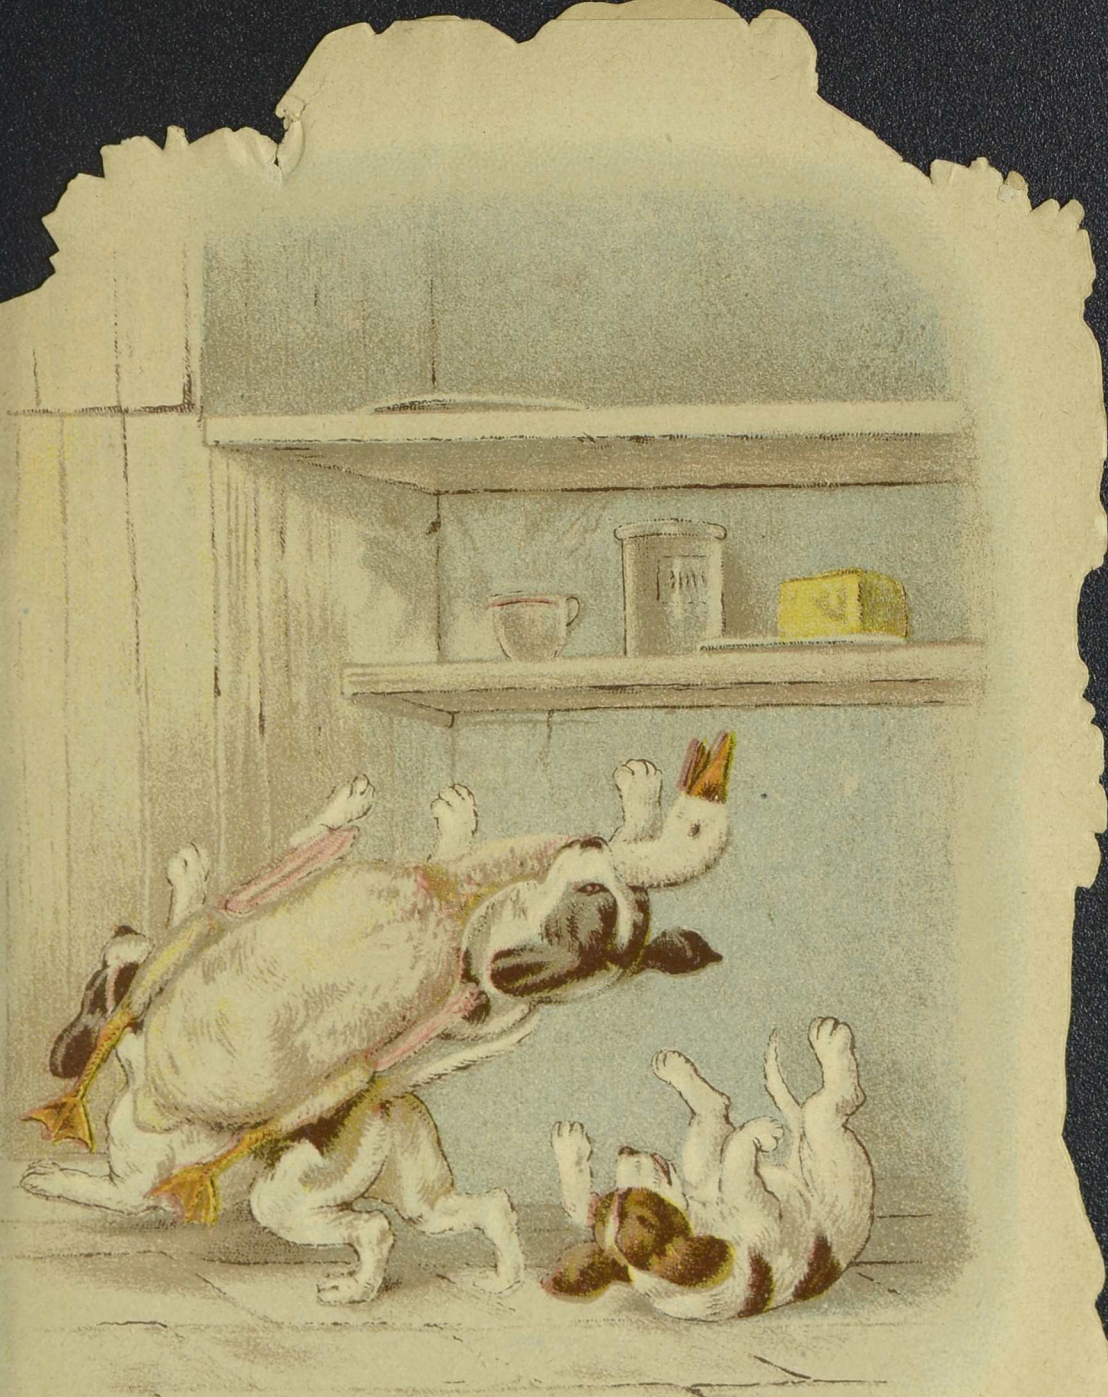

Waiting for dinner.

Vick's Punishment.

I made Vick sit so very still
Upon a garden seat,
That the should know that he'd done ill
In stealing that good meat.

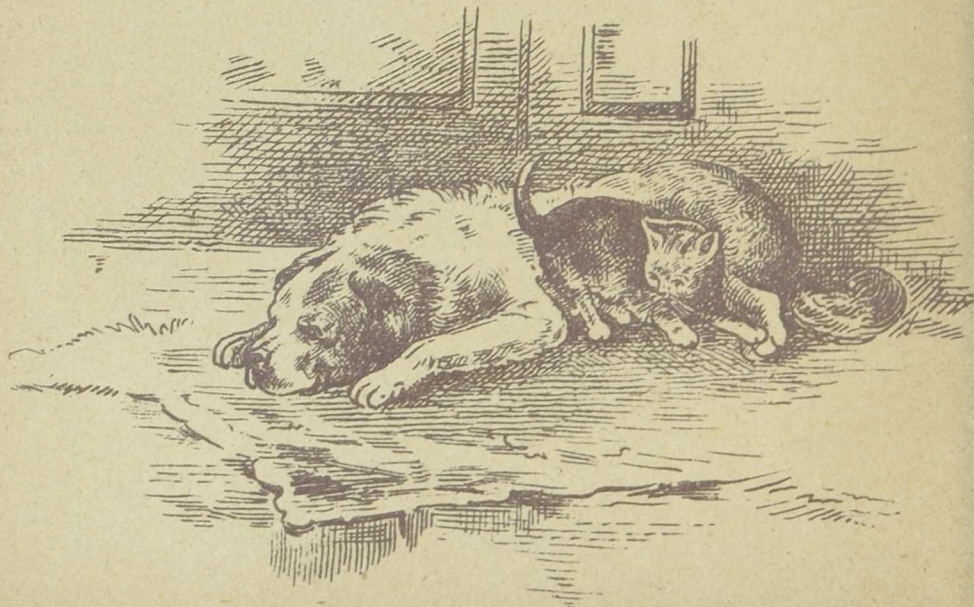

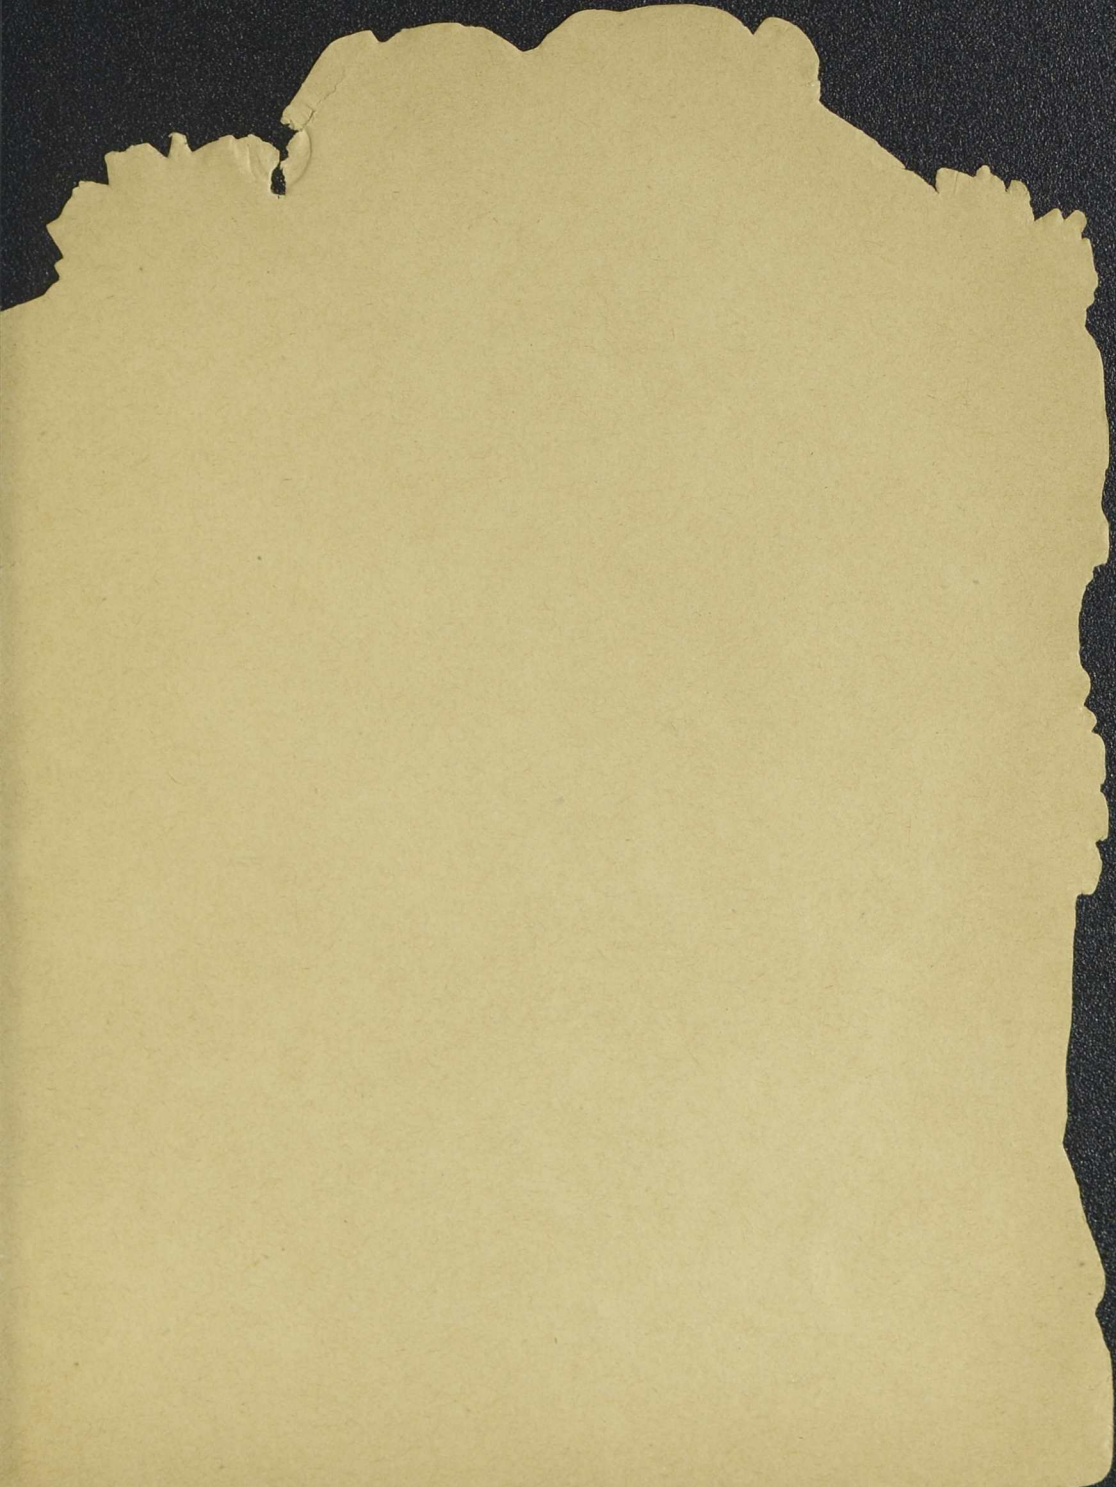

Much too much goose.

My Pets.

My darling Pets they all love me,
Jack, Kits, and Laddie too,
We play together happily
As all good Playmates do.

Grace C. Floyd.

RAPHAEL TUCK & SONS, London, Paris & New-York No 822
Designed at the Studios in England and printed in Germany.

37131 132 471 087