37 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

More Than 4,500 Homes

in St. Thomas and Elgin receive a copy of The Journal every day.

To carry your store news to each of these 4,500 homes by mail would cost $45 a day for postage alone.

For less than $45 The Journal will carry it in a small space every day for a year.

Every home The Journal goes into is a potential factor in the growth of St. Thomas stores, and a reasonable investment in the service it is giving advertisers is every whit as important to the merchant who expects to stay in business as his expenditure for rent and clerk's salaries.

You may not be able to judiciously use as large space as some merchants who have proved for themselves the value of Journal space in building trade, but you can't afford to ignore it.

People are today reading store news nearly as keenly as other news, and the merchant who gives them no news is working under a big handicap.

Phone 94 and our representative will show you more particularly how The Journal can serve you effectively.

Fashions Change

There was a time when even particular merchants could afford to use "any old thing" for stationery---but that day is gone in the business world.

DIGNIFIED STATIONERY

well printed and suited in style to the business house using it, is an earmark of the worth-while merchant today.

THE JOURNAL PRESS

is supplying the bulk of the business stationery used in St. Thomas today because it's product has the distinctive touch that is appreciated by the most particular, and costs no more than the other kinds.

Attractive Type Faces
Careful Presswork
Good Paper

make up the combination. If we are not already serving you, it will be worth your while to send us your next order.

Call 'Phone 525 Next Time

The same careful attention that gives our office stationery that touch of distinctiveness, is given to all printing entrusted to us.
