

A NEW STORY OF THE GOLLYWOCS.

10

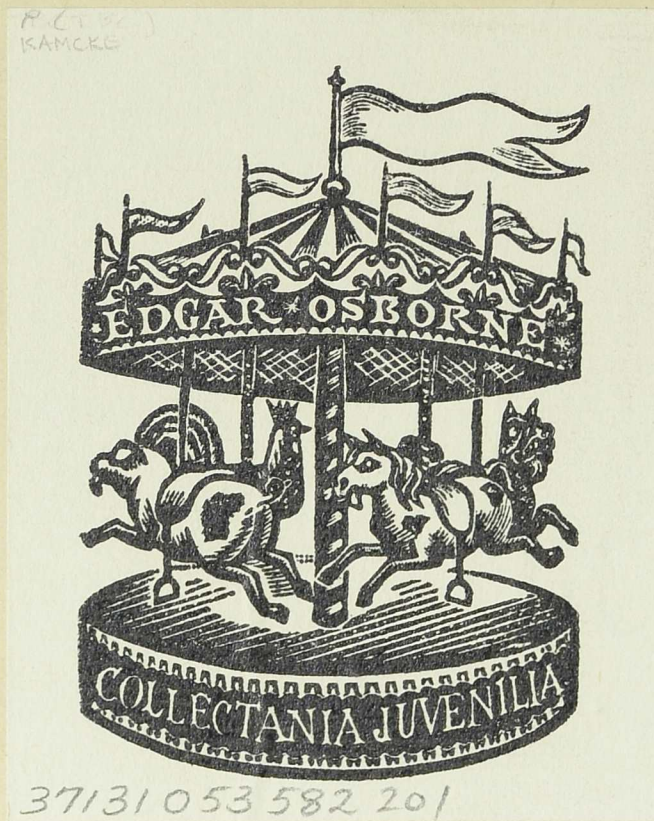

LITTLE

by J.T. Kamcke & J.G.

To dear Alfie, with much love from Miss Gravel.

Xmas. 09.

10 LITTLE- GOLLYWOGS

A NEW STORY
OF THE GOLLYWOGS

by J. T. Kamcke & J. C.

Ten little gollywogs hanging
on a line,

A clothespin fell out and then there were nine.

Nine little gollywogs learning
how to skate,

One broke through the ice and then there were eight.

Eight little gollywogs gazing
up to heaven,

One thought he'd go there
and then there were seven.

Seven little gollywogs playing
on some ricks,

A haystack fell on one and then there were six.

Six little gollywogs going
for a dive,

One stuck in seaweed and then there were five.

Five little gollywogs pushing
through a door,

One got crushed flat and then there were four.

Four little gollywogs fishing
in the Dee,

One got a big bite and then there were three.

Three little gollywogs round
a pot of glue,

One got stuck there and then there were two.

Two little gollywogs playing
with a gun,

One pulled the trigger and then there was one.

One little gollywog, lonely
was he,

Till he married Midget and sailed across the sea.

