The Vulture is a very cruel, unclean, and indolent bird, and though unknown in England, is common in many parts of Europe.

The pig is a sloathful animal, and delights to wallow in its own mire.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven, give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever, Amen.

GRACE BEFORE MEAT.

Give me a grateful heart O Lord, to remember that the provisions now set before me comes from thy bountiful goodness, and make me truly thankful.

EVENING PRAYER.

ALMIGHTY GOD ! who dwelleth above,
In regions of eternal love ;
Again I bow before thy throne,
My wants to tell, my sins to own.
To ask thy mercies God of heaven,
And thank thee for the blessings given.

To ask thy favor and thy grace,
All sin from my young heart to erase ;
O ! let " wisdom be my guide,
And suffer not my feet to slide ;"
Lead me by thy powerful hand,
To a safer, happier land ;

Where all sins and sorrows cease,
And all is love, and joy, and peace ;
My parents, friends, and neighbours bless,
Lead them all in righteousness :
Let thy truth be in them sown,
And in their lives its fruit be shewn.

THE SCHOOL.

WHEN you are at school sit still in your place,
Do not trifle and play or make any grimace,
Let your mind on your task be intent,
And endeavour to learn as much as you can,
You'll find its use when you're grown up a man,
And be glad that your youth was well spent

At all times be ready at school to attend,
Nor think it unwise in your parents to send
You thither, your minds to improve;
For be sure that they'll never do ought for your hurt,
But on the contrary they'll strive to avert
All harm from the child that they love.
