

Dean's New and Amusing Series of Dissolving Views, coloured changing Scenes, three different kinds, 2s. each.

Twelve Sorts.

Dean's New Galanti Show, Parlour Magic, Blondin's Wondrous Feats, Coloured Moveable Pictures, 2s. each.

DEAN'S UNTEARABLE CHILDREN'S COLORED STORY BOOKS.

New Editions of the Old Favourite Tales.

Each embellished with numerous Colored Engravings.

The New Story of

Little Tommy Tucker.

LONDON: DEAN & SON,

Juvenile and Educational Book Publishers, Ludgate Hill.

For other Children's Untearable Books, see List, back of Cover.

1464

NEW STORY ABOUT

LITTLE TOMMY TUCKER :

A MERRY little boy was Tom,
Whose other name was Tucker;
He might have been the very one
Who once sang for his supper.

LITTLE TOM TUCKER.

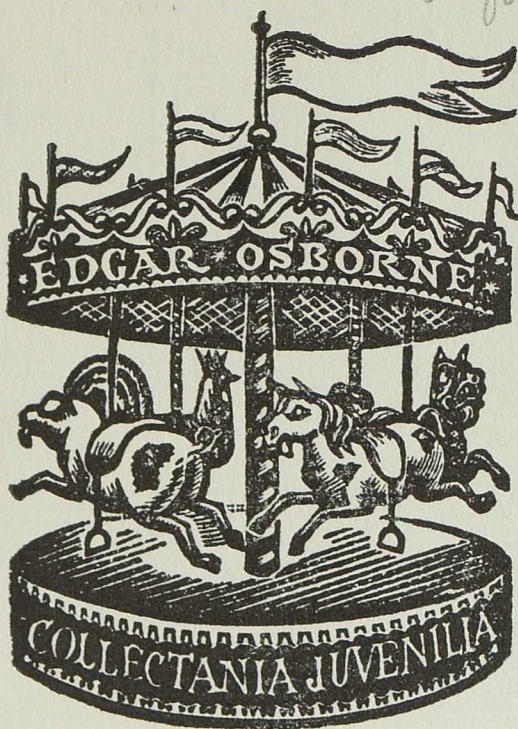

The kindest parents Tom possessed,
And, as we see above,
Sisters and brothers, five, he had,
Who shared with him their love.

Well pleased was Tom in seeking out
Occasion to do good;
His halfpence to the poor he gave,
To furnish them with food.

P

de fol

37131053 581 468

LITTLE TOM TUCKER.

In kindly acts to animals,
The same delight he found;
And often brought the horses hay,
While they were in the pound.
And oft would strew the ground with crumbs,
And other grateful fare,
To feast the hungry little birds
Which thither would repair,

LITTLE TOM TUCKER.

And chirp, and peck, and little heed
The peacock at their side,
Which would not even notice them,
So full was he of pride.

At home he gained his parents' love,
In all he said and did;
And never murmured nor refused
To do as he was bid.

LITTLE TOM TUCKER.

Of time he soon the value learned,
And as we've heard him state,
Would lessons learn, or read his book,
Whilst he his supper ate.

And when he'd said his task, and when
His time for play had come,
He oft would visit cousin Joe,
And tempt him out from home,

LITTLE TOM TUCKER.

Over the fields to stroll with him,
Or, over the hills away,
Or, through the woods to gather nuts,
Or, through the corn-fields stray.

His industry and cleverness
In after life displayed,
Was evidenced in all he did,
And helped him on in trade.

Dean's New Royal Golden Series.

The most attractive Series of Sixpenny Coloured Toy Books ever published; or, 1s. on Untearable Cloth. 8 different, viz.

- 1 The Merry Old Dame who sang "Fiddle-de-dee."
A new and original Tale, just adapted for Singing, to almost any tune, in the Nursery. Eight large Coloured Pictures, and brilliant cover in Colour and Gold. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.
- 2 Marriage of Mr. Punch and Miss Judy.
(New and Original.) All about the Courtship, Marriage, Honeymoon, dear Baby, &c. With six large, and one double page picture, brightly coloured, in dazzling cover of Colour and Gold. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.
- 3 Daddy Hubbard and his Cat.
(New and Original.) A delightful companion to our old friend, Mother Hubbard. All the little boys and girls will be amused with this tale. Richly illustrated with large Coloured Pictures, and cover resplendent in Gold and Colour. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.
- 4 The Pet Lamb that lost its Dam.
A very sweet little story in rhyme, after the style of the "House that Jack built." With extra large Coloured Pictures, and rich cover of Colour and Gold. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.
- 5 The A B C of Familiar Objects.
In fine bold Letters, accompanied by a profusion of familiar objects, well drawn and brightly coloured, in splendid cover of Gold and Colour. The most effective Alphabet out. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.
- 6 The Frog that would a-Wooing go.
Showing how he at last got gobbled up by a Lily White Duck, and all through disobedience to his Mamma. Large finely Coloured Pictures, and a truly-startling cover in Colour and Gold. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.
- 7 The Ugly Duckling.
Showing how the poor despised little henpecked Bird became at last a stately Swan. Large Coloured Pictures, and showy cover of Gold and Colour. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.
- 8 The Sly Tricks of Master Fox.
(New and Original.) Very funny and sly tricks too,—only such as a Fox would do. Eight large brilliantly Coloured Pictures, and gorgeous cover in Colour and Gold. 6d. or 1s. untearable cloth.

LONDON: DEAN & SON, 65, LUDGATE HILL, E. C.