THE Publisher places this first edition of his Toronto Directory in the hands of the public with some confidence that it will be found a serviceable work, and that the constant use of it as a book of reference will establish its thorough accuracy.

A glance at the work itself will show that its arrangement for reference is complete, and that the fullest details have been furnished as regards public and local Institutions.

An entirely new edition of the Directory will be issued annually, each house in the City being visited as if for a new work ; and the Publisher confidently trusts that when his canvassers come round in succeeding years, no further recommendation will be needed than the useful purposes which Caverhill's Toronto City Directory for 1859-60 will then have served.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO.

(Head of College avenue, off Yonge st.)

The University of Toronto was established by Royal charter in the year 1827, under the title of "King's College," and in the year 1828 was endowed by patent with a grant of the lands which had been set apart by the crown for that purpose. It was opened in the year 1844. In the year 1853, the rights and privileges of the convocation, as guaranteed in the original charter were abolished by Act of Parliament. Under this present act, the University is modelled after the University of London, England, and is governed by a senate appointed by the crown. There are no professorships in the University, but examiners are annually appointed by the senate.

LAW SOCIETY OF UPPER CANADA.

The Law Society of Upper Canada was first established in 1797 by the 37 Geo. III., cap. 13, which enabled the Practitioners of the Law to form themselves into a society, and make rules for its government, under the inspection of the judges as visitors. The Act of 1822 (Geo. IV. cap. 5) incorporated the "Treasurer and Benchers of the Law Society," giving a perpetual succession and a common seal, in the usual manner of Acts of Incorporation.

Under these statutes the Society is governed by the Board of Benchers much in the same manner as the Inns of Court in London, England. The Benchers sit in Convocation every Term, and admit Students, Barristers and Attorneys. The examination for Students, which is a Scholastic examination, is conducted in the presence of the Benchers; and the examination of Barristers at the end of the term of five years after admission, and of Attorneys after a term of five years' service, is conducted by the Benchers in Convocation. This examination is in the various branches of legal learning. Each student on admission is a member of the Society and entitled to the use of the library. The revenue of the Society consists of the fees paid by Students, Barristers and Attorneys on their admission, and the fees, called Term fees, charged to practising Barristers and Attorneys. By an agreement with the Government, the Society furnish the Superior Courts with suitable accommodation forever for the sum of £6000 currency. The library of the Society is of considerable value, and is of great service to the students and practitioners. The treasurer is elected annually in Michaelmas Term, and enters upon his duties on the first day of the following term.

MEDICAL.MEDICAL DEPARTMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF VICTORIA COLLEGE (COBOURG).

ESTABLISHED AT TORONTO.

(Lately styled "Toronto School of Medicine," and commonly known as "Rolph's School.")

In the autumn of 1854, the Board of Victoria college accepted a proposition from W. T. Aikins, M.D., to constitute as its Medical department the Toronto School of Medicine, which was founded by the hon. Dr. Rolph in 1843, and for which he procured an act of incorporation in 1851. The Board accordingly passed a by-law, "That the said Toronto School of Medicine be, and is hereby constituted, the Medical Department of Victoria College."

At that time the hon. Dr. Rolph, and doctors Aikins, Wright, and Barrett, hitherto lecturers in the Toronto School of Medicine, were by the College appointed professors in the department thus formed, and continued to discharge the duties of their respective professorships till the autumn of 1856.

Immediately after the commencement of the session of 1856 (under some misunderstanding with the college), doctors Aikins, Wright, and Barrett sent in their resignations, which were accepted; and they forthwith opened an adverse school under the name of the "Toronto School of Medicine," to which the Chancellor of Upper Canada decided they were entitled. The session, however, was completed by Drs. Rolph, Geikie, and others. The department, which has ever since been fully sustained, is now composed of the following faculty: hon. John Rolph, M.D., M.R.C.S., Eng., LL.D., dean, &c., principles and practice of medicine and obstetrics; Walter B. Geikie, M.D., anatomy and principles and practice of surgery; John A. Mullin, M.D., demonstrator of anatomy; Charles V. Berryman, M.D., materia medica, therapeutics, and medical jurisprudence; William Canniff, M.D., M.R.C.S. Eng., pathology; John A. Reid, M.D., physiology; Walter A. Watts, M.A., chemistry and botany.

Attendance daily at the Toronto General hospital, by one or more of the professors.

The regular winter sessions of this department commence on the 1st of October, and close on the 31st of March. For further particulars, application may be made to hon. John Rolph, 20 Gerrard st., Toronto.
