INSTRUCTIONS FOR ORDERING AND OUR TERMS

A DEPOSIT REQUIRED with All C.O.D. Orders

CONCESSIONAIRES AND NON-RATED MERCHANTS must accompany all orders with a deposit of 25%, or sufficient to cover the expressage both ways. As no order will be shipped without a deposit, we ask that transients please adhere to this rule and avoid disappointments.

PERSONAL CHEQUES MUST BE CERTIFIED BY YOUR BANK, otherwise they are only accepted for collection through our bank, which procedure usually means a delay in shipment of goods. Please include 25c to cover bank collection on all cheques.

REMITTANCES should always be sent in the form of bank draft, postal or express money orders. Do not send cash through the mails; we are not responsible if lost. SAFEGUARD YOUR REMITTANCES. There are no bank collection charges on this form of remittance.

STANDING DEPOSITS—A remittance to apply as a standing deposit will insure prompt shipment at all times. This form of deposit is most advantageous, particularly to customers ordering goods frequently or by telegraph.

TELEGRAPHIC ORDERS must also be accompanied by a deposit. Telegraph Companies will transmit deposit and order almost at the same rate that it would cost to send the order alone.

REVEREND CLERGY and ESTABLISHED MERCHANTS

REVEREND CLERGY, churches, institutions, societies and all permanently established organizations may also have goods charged, if orders are properly countersigned by an officer of responsibility. When orders are under $5.00 please have full remittance accompany same.

ESTABLISHED MERCHANTS, rated in Dun and Bradstreets may have their goods shipped on open credit if satisfactory references have been established. The names of wholesale firms with whom they transact business must accompany the first order. To credit accounts, our terms are 30 days NET. Orders under $5.00 will not be charged. We ask for remittance with order or it will be shipped C.O.D.

will not be complete without this new game of skill.

At the Toronto Exhibition this game proved the best moneymaker and the most interesting game on the large exclusive midway.

Mechanically Perfect Attractively Painted Nothing to get out of order

In conjunction with this game large prizes, such as lamps, blankets, clocks, etc., can be used. Such merchandise when displayed will induce the playing public to stay and play. Another interesting point is that the person in charge of the game or the playing public may operate the skill-o-bump themselves, overcoming any possibility of this game being classed as anything but a game of skill.

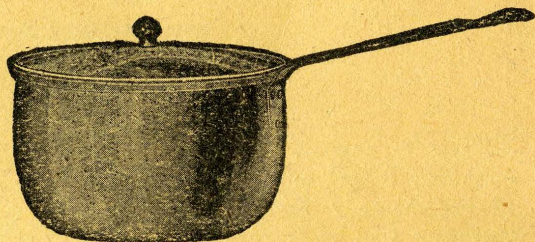

Full directions for operating sent with each game.
