

2
Terms of Capitulation entered into on the 27th April One Thousand eight Hundred & thirteen for the Surrender of the Town of York in upper Canada to the ~~Army~~^{Army} & ~~Naval~~^{Naval} of the United States under the Command of Major Genl. Denigau & Commodore Chauncey of ~~the Army~~ and of Colonel Tice of the Army

1st That the Troops Regular and Militia at this Post and that the Seamen of His Britannic Majesty at the Port be surrendered Prisoners of War The Troops Regular and Militia to ~~stand~~ their arms immediately on Parade and with the Seamen ~~this evening~~^{and in the morning}

That all public Stores ordnance and Ordnance Stores be surrendered immediately to the Commanding Officers of the ~~Army~~^{Army} & ~~Naval~~^{Naval} of the United States - that all private property be considered sacred - and Guaranteed by the Commanding Officers of the Army & Navy of the United States to the Citizens of the Town of York - That the Papers belonging to any of the Civil public Officers be considered in the same light as private property -

That such Surgeons as may be procured to attend the Sick & Wounded may not be considered prisoners of war -

The above terms subject to the Ratification or refusal of the Commanding Officers of the Army & Navy

Witness my hand & seal of Ad^t Col. 3^d Albany

USA
Willm^g

May 15th 1777

W. Chittenden 1st Col^t

Comd^t 3^d Reg^t N.Y. Militia

W. A. M. M. M.
3^d Reg^t N.Y. Militia

Terms of Capitulation of the Town of York, 27 April, 1813, 1st draft, 1813

Transcription by Toronto Public Library

Terms of Capitulation entered into on the 27th April one Thousand eight Hundred & thirteen for the Surrender of the Town of York in Upper Canada to the Army & Navy of the United States under the command of Major Genl Dearborn and Comodore [sic] Chauncey of the Navy and of Colonel Pierce of the Army.

1st That the Troops Regular and Militia at this Post and that the Seamen of his Britanic [sic] Majesty at this port be surrendered prisoners of war. The Troops Regular and Militia to ground their arms immediately on Parade and with the Seamen be surrendered immediately.

That all public store ordinance and ordinance stores be surrendered immediately to the Commanding Officer of the Army & Navy of the United States.

That all private property be considered sacred and Guaranteed by the Commanding Officers of the Army & Navy of the United States to the Citizens of the Town of York.

That the Papers belonging to any of the Civil public officers be considered in the same light as private property.

That Such Surgeons as may be procured to attend the sick & wounded may not be considered prisoners of War.

The above terms subject to the Ratification or refusal of the Commanding Officers of the Army & Navy.

CG. E. Mitchell of Md
Lt. Col. 3^d Artillery
USA

Will King
Maj. 15 U. S. Infy.

W. Chewett Lt Col
Commd 3rd Reg York Militia

W. Allan Major
3^d Regt York Militia