

UNTEARABLE, MOUNTED ON BOARDS.

THE HOME OBJECT BOOK

7

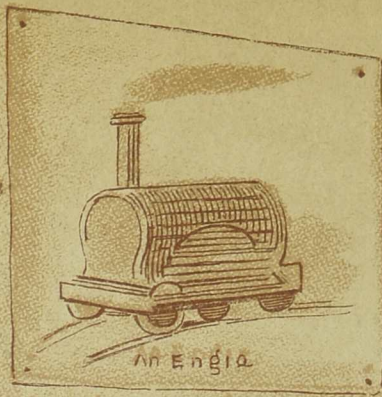

LONDON
FREDERICK WARNE & CO.
AND NEW YORK.

Designed in England

Printed in Bavaria

Look at our NURSERY, bright and snug!

These are our PICTURES;

That's BABY'S MUG;

Our ROCKING-HORSE

CUPBOARD

and BABY'S CHAIR

Peep in the cupboard—
The cake is there!

Here's a picture of the Kitchen and what you there will find:

THE COOK with all her

SAUCE

PANS of every size and kind;

THE DRESSER

with its dishes, plates,
and pitchers in a row;

And what is this? a Rolling pin,

For rolling out
The dough.

May I help you, dear Mamma, with your letter to papa?

Here are

ENVELOPES

and INK;

This the PEN
you like,
I think

Whilst you write upon the PAPER

TAPER.

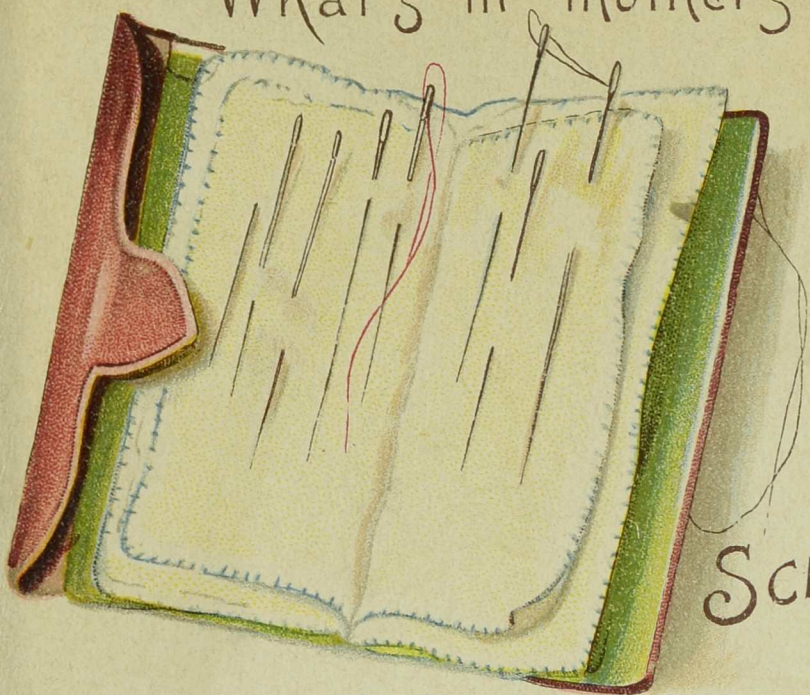

I'll get

SEALING-WAX and

What's in mother's basket?

May I look and see?

NEEDLES,

SCISSORS,

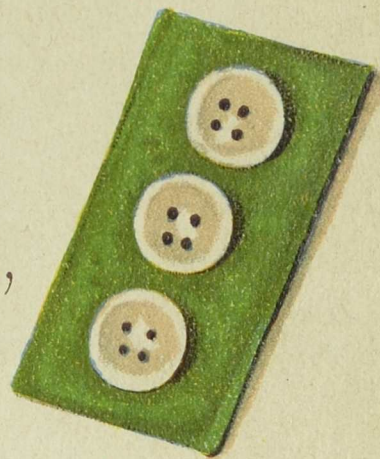

COTTON,

and this

FROCK for me—!

Here are BUTTONS,

this is LACE

and a pretty

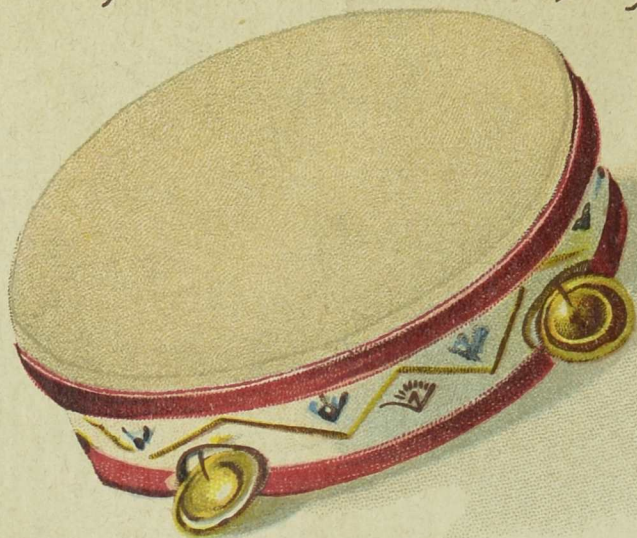

Bow

I may make a frock one day
if I learn to sew.

Have you heard our Nursery band?

Millie's TAMBOURINE is grand!

TOM on his BANJO
TING-Plays
TUM

And baby's beating on the DRUM.

BABY'S CART and GEE - GEE, and his

GOLLIWOG

Our PEG-TOP

and MARBLES

and the little DOG.

CHOCOLATES, SWEETS, and CRACKERS
bright,

For Charley's birthday tea to-night.

The BIRTHDAY CAKE, and here is too

An INVITATION CARD for you.

The SHEARS to clip the garden hedge, and a

WATERING POT
you see.

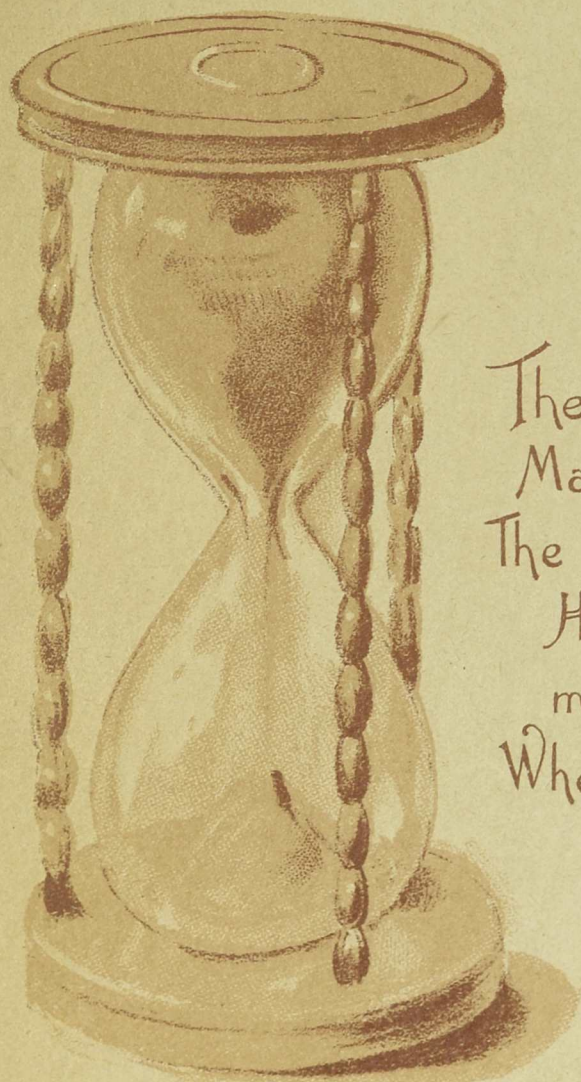

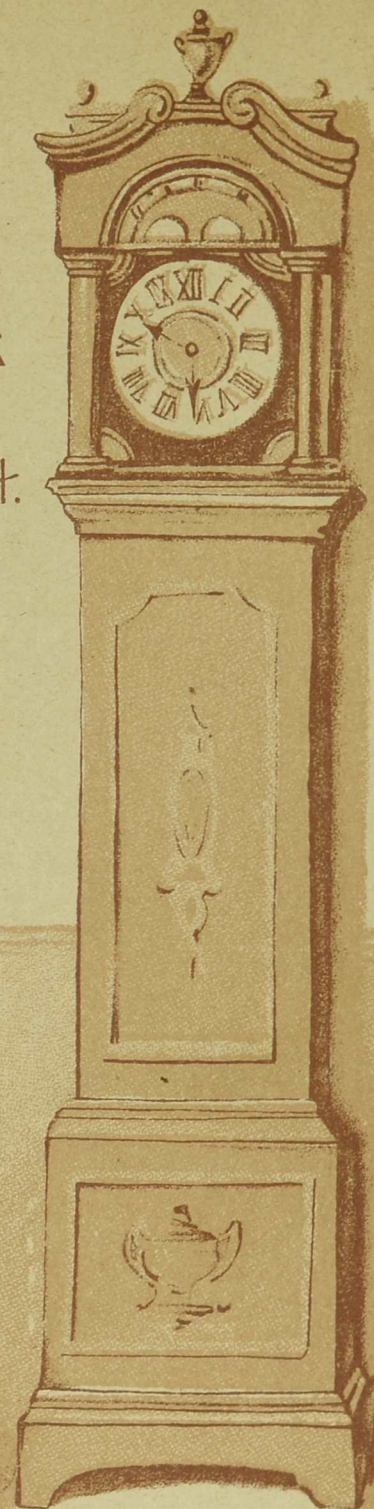

A ROLLER here to roll the grass

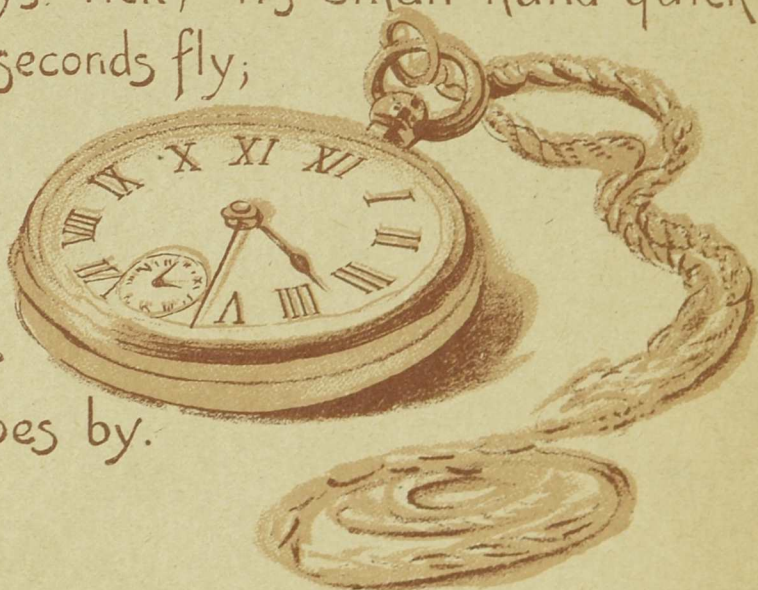

But it will not move for me.

The CLOCK in the TOWER
each hour will chime
All through the day and night;
And GRANDFATHER'S clock
will tell us the time,
And always tell it right.

The WATCH says "tick;" its small hand quick
Marks how the seconds fly;
The ancient HOUR-GLASS must be turned Whene'er an hour goes by.

SARNIA
ONTARIO
Black Lead and BRUSHES

CARROLL LAWRENCE

an

OIL FLASK

and

GLUE.

A POT OF PAINT,
Such a brilliant blue.

But these things
Children should not touch,
Though they want to ever so much.

