WORDS OF ONE SYLLAB

LESSON 1.

A mad ox	A wild colt	A live calf
An old man	A tame cat	A gold ring
A new fan	A lean cow	A warm muff

LESSON 2.

A fat duck	A lame pig	A good dog
He can call	You will fall	He may beg
You can tell	He must sell	I will run
I am tall	I shall dig	Tom was hot

LESSON 3.

She is well	He did laugh	He is cold
You can walk	Ride your nag	Fly your kite
Do not slip	Ring the bell	Give it me
Fill that box	Spin the top	Take your bat

LESSON 4.

Take the book	Toss that ball	A new whip
A good boy	A sad dog	Buy it for me
A bad man	A soft bed	Go to the door
A dear girl	A nice cake	Get your book
A fine lad	A long stick	Learn to read

LESSON 5.

Speak out	Be a good girl	Do you love me
Do not cry	Come and read	Hear what I say
I love you	Mind the stops	I like good boys

LESSON 3.

The lit-tle boy then met a dog: he said, Dog, will you play with me? But the dog said, No, I must not be i-dle, I am going to watch my mas-ter's house, and must make haste for fear bad men get in. Then the lit-tle boy saw a bird pulling hay out of a hay-rick: he said, Bird, will you come and play with me? But the bird said, No, I must not be i-dle: I must get some hay to build a nest with, and some moss and wool. And the bird flew a-way.

LESSON 4.

Then the lit-tle boy saw a horse: and he said, Horse, will you play with me? The horse said, No, I must not be i-dle: I must go to plough, or there will be no corn. The lit-tle boy then thought he must not be i-dle either, so he went to school, learnt his lesson well, and be-came a ve-ry good boy.

EAST LESSONS IN WORDS OF TWO SYLLABLES.

LESSON I.

I WAIT-ED for the Lord, and he did in-cline un-to me and hear my call-ing.

He brought me al-so out of the pit, out of the mire and clay; and set my feet up-on the rock, and did or-der my go-ings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth; e-ven a giv-ing of thanks un-to our God.

Ma-n-y shall see it and fear, and shall put their trust in the Lord.

Bles-sed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord, and tur-ned not un-to the proud, and to such as go a-bout with lies.

LESSON II.

O Lord, my God, great are the won-drous works which thou hast done: like as be al-so thy thoughts, which are to us-ward; and yet there is no man that or-ders them un-to thee.

If I should de-clare them, and speak of them, they would be more than I am a-ble to ex-press.

In the vol-ume of the book it is writ-ten of me, That I should ful-fil thy will, O my God; I am con-tent to do it; yea, thy law is with-in my heart.

LESSON III.

Like as the hart de-sires the wa-ter-brook, so long-eth my soul af-ter thee, O God.

My soul is a-thirst for God, yea, e-ven for the liv-ing God; when shall I come and ap-pear be-fore the pres-ence of God?

My tears have been my meat day and night; while they dai-ly say un-to me, Where is now thy God?

LESSON 6.

Come John, make haste. Now read your book. Here is a pin to point with. Do not tear the book. Spell that word. That is a good boy. Now go play till I call you.

LESSON 7.

A cat has soft fur and a long tail. She looks meek, but she is sly; and if she finds a rat or mouse, she will fly at it, and soon kill it. She will also catch and kill birds.

LESSON 8.

When you have read your book you shall play. Will you have a top, a ball, or a kite to play with? If you have a top, you must spin it; if a ball, you must toss it; if you have a kite, you ought to fly it.

LESSON 9.

The sun shines. Open your eyes, good girl. Get up. Maid, come and dress Jane. Boil some milk for breakfast. Hold the spoon in your right hand. Do not waste the milk.

LESSON 10.

What are eyes for? To see with.
What are ears for? To hear with.
What is a tongue for? . . . To talk with.
What are teeth for? To eat with.
What is a nose for? To smell with

AND TWO SYLLABLES.

LESSON 1.

My son, slight not my law, but let thine heart keep my words.

For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

So shalt thou find love in the sight of God and man.

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not to thine own ways.

LESSON 2.

The tongue of the just is a choice thing; the heart of a bad man is not much worth.

He that speaks truth, shows forth right; but a false heart doth not so.

There shall no harm be to the just; but hurt shall come on the bad man.

In the way of the just there is life; and in the path of him there is no death.

LESSON 3.

When a man's ways please God, he makes his foes be at peace with him.

The rich and poor meet in one place, the Lord made them all.

Thorns and snares are in the path of bad men: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

Boast not thyself of the time to come. for thou dost not know what a day may bring forth.

CHILD'S MORNING HYMN

Gracious God of truth and light,
Thou hast kept me through the night :
And my soul to thee shall rise :
Bend and see my sacrifice.

I'm a weak and sinful child,
Thou canst make me meek and mild .
Jesus in a manger lay :
Take, oh take, my sins away.

To my parents let me be
Fill'd with sweet humility,
And to every friend around,
Kind, and good, and gentle found.

Wash my every sin away,
And preserve me through the day :
At thy feet, great God, I fall,
Be my Saviour and my all.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And for give us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil, For thine is the kingdom. The power, and the glory, For ever and ever Amen.
