“The SOAP BOILERS.”

THE ABOVE FIRM started in business in 1866, succeeding Mr. Wm. Schultz, under whom they had grown up from boyhood. They first made some stir in the Western markets with their “Star” brand, which was different from any thing else offered to the public in the soap line. Next came the great “Irish Soap,” which gave them a national reputation. In the Centennial year, 1876, they made a great hit with “Gold,” a superior family soap, and one of the most successful advertisements ever used in this country.

THE SCHULTZ & CO. Now offer Star Soap as the most desirable on the market for family use, and dealers are authorized to take it back at their expense in case it does not give perfect satisfaction.

THEY ALSO MAKE_____

DUCK,

A pure. white Floating Soap.

STAR SOAP POWDER,

For Scrubbing, Scouring and Cleaning.

The above articles are all that are needed in the way of Soap in any household. Their good quality is warranted, and satisfaction guaranteed in their use.

Old Mother Hubbard,
She went to the cupboard
To get her poor dog a bone,
But when she got there
The cupboard was bare,
And so the poor dog had none.

Dickory, dickory, dock.

STAR SOAP—The Perfection of Family Soaps.

Old Mother Goose,
When she wanted to wander,
Would ride through the air
On a very fine gander.

Once a beanstalk grew,
 Near the home of Jack,
 Until it reached the sky.
 He climbed to the top,
 Found a country strange,
 Where none but giants lived.
 While hiding one night,
 In a castle great,
 A fierce giant came,
 Took from his strong box
 A great bag of gold,
 And counted it all o'er.
 Jack, watching his chance
 While the giant slept,
 Grabbed up the bag and ran.
 He climbed down the stalk,
 And seizing his axe,
 Quick cut the beanstalk down.
 So the giant fell
 To the ground, quite dead,
 And so my story ends.

STAR is the Standard Soap to-day.

Bye, baby, bunting,

Sing a song of sixpence,
A pocket full of rye;
Four and twenty blackbirds
Baked in a pie.

When the pie was opened,
The birds began to sing;
Was not that a dainty dish
To set before the king?

Try STAR SOAP and you will use no other.

There was a man in our town,
And he was wondrous wise;
He jump'd into a bramble bush,
And scratch'd out both his eyes.

And when he saw his eyes were out,
With all his might and main,
He'jump'd into another bush
And scratch'd them in again.
STAR SOAP has come to stay.

Männchen, Männchen, geig' mir mal,

Old King Cole
Was a merry old soul,
And a merry old soul was he;
And he called for his pipe,
And he called for his bowl,
And he called for his fiddlers three.

Humpty-Dumpty sat on a wall.
Humpty-Dumpty had a great fall ;
All the king's horses, and all the king's men
Can not put Humpty-Dumpty together again.

STAR SOAP is the Housekeeper's Friend.

Hey diddle diddle, the cat and the fiddle,
The cow jumped over the moon,
The little dog laughed to see such sport,
And the dish ran after the spoon.

The king was in his counting-house,
 Counting out his money;
 The queen was in the parlor,
 Eating bread and honey.

The maid was in the garden,
 Hanging out the clothes:
 Down came a blackbird
 And pecked off her nose.

Smart Housekeepers use STAR SOAP.

Little Robin Redbreast jumped upon a wall,
Pussy Cat jumped after him and got a little fall.
Little Robin chirped and sung, and what did
Pussy say?
Pussy Cat said mew, mew, mew—and Robin flew away.

STAR SOAP has no superior.

This little girl wore a hood all red,
And when she played in the wood,
It was always tied on her curly head,
So they called her Red Riding Hood.

One day she met this hungry wolf,
Who'd have eaten her up, but he,
In the open glen, too near by far,
The wood-choppers could see.

STAR SOAP is a Family Necessity.

Little boy blue, come blow your horn;
 The sheep's in the meadow, the cow's in the corn.

Where's the little boy that looks after the sheep?

He's under the hay-cock, fast a-sleep.

Will you wake him? No, not I;

For if I do, he'll be sure to cry.

Girls and boys, come out to play,
The moon doth shine as bright as day;
 Leave your supper, and leave your sleep,
 And meet your playfellows in the street.
Come with a whoop, and come with a call,
And come with a good will, or not at all.

STAR SOAP is always in the lead.

Jack and Jill went up the hill,
To fetch a pail of water;
Jack fell down and broke his crown,
And Jill came tumbling after.

My mother always uses STAR SOAP at home.

Now I lay me down to sleep;
I pray thee, Lord, my soul to keep.
If I should die before I wake,
I pray thee, Lord, my soul to take.

STAR SOAP,

Best for Family Use.

Ask Your Grocer for It.

STAR SOAP Was our first great hit, and was put on the market in 1864, almost forty years ago. The name "Star," for soap, was original with us; the trademark was patented in 1866, and all others using it are infringers. . . .

STAR SOAP Has been remodeled to suit the times, and is on the market to stay. For style, shape, price, quality, and general worth, there is no Family Soap that excels, if any that equals it. . . .

STAR SOAP Will do anything that any other good soap will do. "It is not too good; just good enough." Of course this little book is only an advertisement to help attract attention to . . .

STAR SOAP We are confident that after "Star" has once been tried, consumers will find that our claim is true, viz.: That it is the best Soap on the market for the price, and that you will not only use it, but recommend it to your friends. . . .
