

GOOD FRIENDS

Said the Elephant to his friend the Giraffe, If only I had such a fine, long neck.
Your taster's so long it makes me laugh. I'd eat Kellogg's Corn Flakes by the peck

QUEER FELLOWS

If you wish to see something queer, Change their feet, too, try it and see
Put other heads on the Cow, Horse and Deer How very funny they all will be

AN OLD RHYME AND ITS SEQUEL

There was an old woman
Who lived in a shoe,
She had lots of children
But knew what to do.

She gave them
Kellogg's Corn Flakes
Three times a day,
And they thrived and grew
In a marvelous way.

4-B

Copyright 1909. by W. K. Kellogg

Patented Jan. 13 1907

Copyright 1909 by
W. K. Kellogg

BLOWING BUBBLES

Bubbles, bubbles, who has troubles?
That's a case of what to eat?

Eat the flakes as light as bubbles,
Give yourself a treat.

THREE YOUNG MEN

Three young men all out together,
Dressed in suits and hats so fine.

Turn this leaf and you'll see whether
These young men would like to dine.

MUSICIANS

Let your life be good and funny,
Let your food be light and sunny.

Sing a song of little money,
Get a food as sweet as honey.

AT SINGING SCHOOL

Sing from daylight until night
Sing from dark until its light

"Kellogg's Corn Flakes every morn
It's the sweet heart of the corn."

JUNGLE QUEEN

In Jungle Land, so far away,
These funny people live and play

They roam at will and rule supreme.
They have crowned Miss Hippo, Queen

HAVING FUN

As change about, the Lion said,
Suppose we take the feet and heads

Of the Camel, Donkey and Kangaroo,
Our friends won't know us then, would you?

BLOWING BUBBLES

Bubbles, bubbles, who has troubles?
That's a case of what to eat?

Eat the flakes as light as bubbles,
Give yourself a treat.

Copyright 1909 by
W. K. Kellogg.

A GOOD TIME

What are we so happy about?
Turn this page and you'll find out.

I know that you'd be happy, too.
If such a lunch was spread for you.

DANCING

Very happy and full of glee
Because we're dressed like men, you see

Turn these two top leaves if you please
We can sing, play and dance with ease

Copyright 1909 by
W. K. Kellogg.

AUTOMOBILING

If there is any place you wish to go
Tortoise-mobiling is sure but slow.

Get them started they'll travel all day.
They never get frisky or run away

ROLLER SKATING

We whiz along at a rapid pace.
Because we three are running a race

The fun of skating nobody knows
Until he himself skating goes.

HAVING FUN

Let's change about, the Lion said,
Suppose we take the feet and heads

Of the Camel, Donkey and Kangaroo.
Our friends won't know us then, would you?

ON PARADE
 A Flamingo, Boar and Ixodex
 They astonished the natives of Jungeland
 By the funny antics they had planned

AT LUNCH
 "My, but they're good," the Lion said.
 Kellogg's Corn Flakes, delicious, sweet
 He smacked his lips and wagged his head.
 The nicest thing that you could eat.

DANCING
 Very happy and full of glee
 Because we're dressed like men, you see
 Turn these two top leaves, if you please
 We can sing, play and dance with ease

AUTOMOBILING
 If there is any place you wish to go
 Tortoise-mobiling is sure but slow.
 Get them started they'll travel all day
 They never get frisky or run away

AT SCHOOL
 Teacher teaches Golden Rule
 Follow it who can.
 Give your guests the best you have
 "The Kellogg Corn Flake Plan."

THE SERENADE
 Sir Donkey thought to serenade
 His friends, the Camel and Kangaroo
 But they seem very much dismayed
 And don't stay till he's through