SUPPOSE

Suppose the twinkling stars should strike
And turn their silvery gleams
From earth to other planets where
They get more for their beams;
Do you suppose the soldier boys,
When going into camp,
Would miss the simple starlight, if
They had

The Pittsburgh
Lamp?

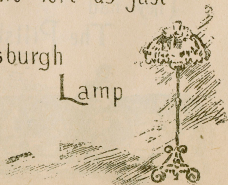

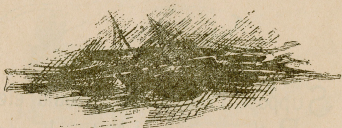

Suppose the moon should cease to shine
Suppose her "man" should say
"I've been night-watchman long enough
I'll turn off every ray;"

Would we regret the action of
That chalky-faced old scamp?
I guess not, if he left us just
A single

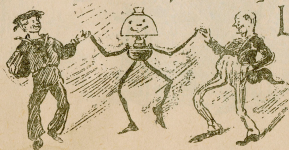

Pittsburgh
Lamp

Suppose the sun should hide its face
In permanent eclipse
And sailor-folk sailed stormy seas
In dark and dreary ships;
What difference would it make to earth
Tho' densely dark and damp,
If sailor-folk, and landsmen, too
Possessed

The Pillsburgh
Lamp?

Suppose Gas Trusts should elevate

Both made and Natural gas,

In price, beyond all reason —

Way beyond the common mass:

Would that our happiness destroy? —

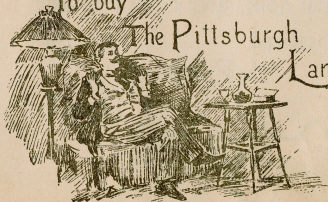

Our privileges cramp?

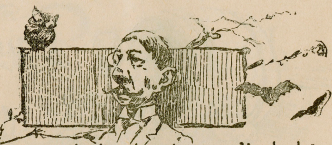

I guess not, if we knew enough

To buy

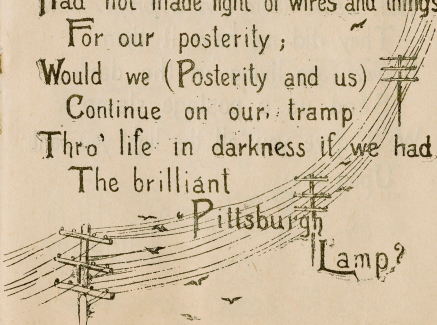

The Pittsburgh

Lamp.

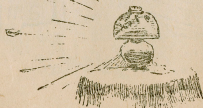

Suppose a dude's head weren't light
And electricity
Had not "made light" of wires and things
For our posterity ;
Would we (Posterity and us)
Continue on our tramp
Thro' life in darkness if we had
The brilliant
"Pittsburgh
Lamp?"

Diogenes, in early days,
In search of honest men,
Had found them -- in a proper light,
They did not have it then.
If you are living "in the dark"
Send us a postage stamp --
We'll give you all the light you want
Upon the

Pittsburgh
Lamp.

The Pittsburgh

Is made in all shapes and sizes of vase

Piano
Banquet
Hanging and Mammoth

Lamps
