NIAGARA FALLS HOTEL.

By J. CHELTON.

Five Minutes Walk from Public Road.

THE Proprietor has made large additions and improvements to his Hotel, a new fire, with columns, balustrades, &c. by which a fine view of the FALLS, RAYDS, NAVY Island, and the picturesque Scenery of the country can be obtained. The rooms are large and commodious, with beds attached to the walls. The house has been recently painted and furnished in a genteel manner; and the property feels confident that, although his house is not so large as some other establishments, yet it is so arranged as to be comfortable and convenient to all who visit the Falls.

The house is well suited for Families or Individuals, being in fact as quiet as a private residence, and sufficiently distant from the spray of the Falls to insure the advantage of enjoying a residential Province.
