J. W. SOMERS,
City Clerk.

The Service

¶ The people shall sit during the singing of the Introit by the Choir.

To Thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul:
My God, I trust in Thee.

¶ The people shall sit during the reading of words from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

¶ The people shall stand and sing:

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with mirth, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? The Lord our God is good;
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

¶ The people shall stand in silence during the reading of the Bidding Prayer, and shall join with their voices in the saying of the Lord's Prayer.

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN.

Fellow Citizens, we are gathered together to give public thanks to Almighty God for His blessing bestowed upon our City during the hundred years of its history, to beseech His pardon for our sins and shortcomings, to implore His guidance for the future.

To this end I call upon you to pray most especially for our Sovereign Lord George, of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India; over all estates of men in these his dominions supreme.

Let us pray for the Governor-General of this Dominion, the Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, the Legislatures of the Empire, and especially for the Parliament of this Dominion and the Legislature of this Province.

Let us likewise pray for all municipal authorities, especially those who bear office in this city, that they may devote themselves to the common good.

Let us seek the divine pardon for the negligences and ignorances, the sins and selfishnesses of the past; let us pray that God may grant us His guidance through the years that are to come, bestowing upon us the hearing ear and the ready will to obey His commandments.

Let us give hearty thanks to the Almighty Father, the Lover of men, for His gracious goodness vouchsafed to this our City during the hundred years of its corporate life. Let us praise Him for His gifts of the field and of the market; for the produce of the hand of man; for protection from disease and pestilence, from war and famine.

But chiefly let us glorify His name that He has granted unto us to make progress in the things of the mind; that He has increased among us concern for the needs of others; that He has kept alight in this place a candle of the Lord, a spirit which forgets not the things eternal.

Finally, let us pray to Him that He would grant us such a sense of these His mercies that we may shew forth our thanks, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to His service, and by walking before Him in holiness and righteousness all our days.

These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up before the throne of Heaven, in the words which Christ Himself has taught us, saying:

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever AMEN.

¶ The people shall stand and sing:

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home:

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

¶ The people shall stand during the reading of the words of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,
Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: they they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:
for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

¶ The people shall sit during the singing of the Anthem by the Choir.

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us,
The Lord hath wrought great glory through them by His great power from the beginning.

Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms were renowned for their power, giving counsel by their understanding, and declaring prophecies.

Leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge of learning meet for the people; wise and eloquent in their instructions.

All these were honoured in their generations, and were the glory of their times.

There be of them that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been, and are become as though they had never been born.

But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten.

With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance, and their children are within the covenant.

Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes.

Their seed shall remain forever and their glory shall not be blotted out.

Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth evermore.

The people will tell of their wisdom, and the congregation will shew forth their praise.

¶ The people shall sit during the Sermon.

¶ The people shall stand to make their pledge to the Covenant.

The Minister shall say: To maintain our allegiance to this our City:
The people shall answer: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To hold unbroken the fellowship of those who labour for its perfecting:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To defend it from the disgrace of cowardice and of dishonesty:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To guard it from the shame of unrighteous greed and self seeking:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To encourage within it the spirit of brotherly love and of kindness:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To revere and observe the City's laws:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To hand on undimmed its best traditions:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To keep the annals of our City pure and honourable:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

Minister: To work and pray that Toronto may become in very truth a City of God:

People: We pledge ourselves by the help of God.

C The people shall stand and sing:

City of God, how broad and far
Outspread thy walls sublime!
The true thy chartered freemen are,
Of every age and clime.

How purely hath thy speech come down
From man's primeval youth!
How grandly hath thine empire grown,
Of freedom, love, and truth!

How gleam thy watch-fires through the night
With never-fainting ray!
How rise thy towers, serene and bright,
To meet the dawning day!

In vain the surge's angry shock,
In vain the drifting sands:
Unharm'd upon the eternal Rock
The eternal City stands.

C The people shall sit in meditation during the silence.

¶ The people shall stand during the singing of the Te Deum.

We praise Thee, O God, we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship Thee, the Father everlasting.
To Thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens, and all the Powers therein.
To Thee Cherubin and Seraphin continually do cry,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of Thy Glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles praise Thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise Thee.
The noble army of Martyrs praise Thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge Thee;
The Father of an infinite Majesty;
Thine honourable, true, and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
When Thou tookest upon Thee to deliver man,
Thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
When Thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death,
Thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God in the Glory of the Father.
We believe that Thou shalt come to be our Judge.
We therefore pray Thee, help Thy servants, whom Thou has redeemed with Thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with Thy Saints in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save Thy people, and bless Thine heritage.
Govern them, and lift them up forever.
Day by day, we magnify Thee;
And we worship Thy Name, ever world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us;
O Lord, let Thy mercy lighten upon us, as our trust is in Thee.
O Lord, in Thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

¶ The people shall sit during the singing of the Hallelujah Chorus.

¶ The people shall stand for the Benediction.

Unto God's gracious mercy and protection we commit you.
The Lord bless you, and keep you. The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace, both now and evermore.
Amen.
