Printed at Amsterdam about 1651 8 8 0

This Map extends from Chesapeake Bay to the Gulf of St. Lawrence. In a compartment (12 by 24 in.) at the bottom is the earliest engraved view of New York as it appeared within thirty years of its foundation by the Dutch. A conspicuous object in the foreground is that mark of civilization—the gibbet. This map has a very special interest and value. "The Map by which the Privy Council, 1683, settled the bounds between Lord Baltimore and I, and Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Territories or annexed Countys.—WILLIAM PENN."
