THE BUTTER TRADE.

It will be admitted, that in these hard times it is peculiarly necessary to turn attention to every article which enters into the cost of the necessities of life, not only as a means of paying debts, but of purchasing such goods and the population require. The butter industry of Canada is one of our great resources of Canada, and the butter industry of Canada is one of our great resources of Canada. It is peculiarly the ranch with respect to butter, which is a staple product of the country, and is capable of indefinite extension, has been, perhaps, the most successful of our staple products, and is particularly so owing to the excellent duty of 50s. per cwt., which the mother country formerly granted to the colonies. It is estimated that the butter industry of Canada is worth $200,000,000 per year, which is now modified to 5s. sterling per cwt., or rather more than 1d. per lb. on the average. The butter industry of Canada is worth $200,000,000 per year, which is now modified to 5s. sterling per cwt., or rather more than 1d. per lb. on the average.
