N. B. It is expected that Children should be able to repeat their Catechism perfectly before this is put into their hands; and it may be considered as a proper Introduction to Lewis's Explanation of the Church Catechism; or Crossman's Introduction to the Knowledge of the Christian Religion.—And it is used as such by many Clergymen, who catechise their Children in their Churches. The great advantage of these questions is, to try whether Children repeat their Catechism by rote, to engage their attention, and to imprint the sense of it on their minds. The answers to most of them are given in the very words of the Church Catechism.

A short Prayer for Children, when they first come into their Seat at Church.

Lond, I am now in thy house; Accept, I beseech thee, me and my services. Let thy Holy Spirit help my infirmities, disposing my heart to seriousness, attention, and devotion, to the honour of thy holy name, and the benefit of my own soul, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Before they leave their Seat at Church.

BLESSED be thy name, O Lord, for this opportunity of attending thee in thy house and service. Make me, I pray thee, a door of thy Word, not a hearer only. Accept both me and my services, through Jesus Christ our Mediator and Advocate.

A Grace before Meat.

BLESS, O Lord, these thy good creatures to our use, and by them fit us for thy service, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Grace after Meat.

Accept our thanks, O Lord, for these, and all thy other mercies, and may we shew our gratitude by our lives, through Jesus Christ.

A MORNING PRAYER,

To be used daily by every Child at Home.

GLORY be to Thee, O Lord, who hast preserved me from the perils of the night past, who hast refreshed me with sleep, and raised me up again to praise thy holy name.

I humbly worship Thee, O God, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, my Redeemer; and I again devote myself to Thee, desiring to serve Thee faithfully this, and all the days of my life.

I was made thy child, and the disciple of thy Son Jesus Christ, by Baptism, and then received the promise of thy Holy Spirit. Let that good Spirit thoroughly cleanse me from all the corruption of my nature.

Help me to remember Thee, my Creator, in the days of my youth.

Preserve me from those errors and follies to which, by the frailty of my tender age, I am most exposed, and keep me from every great offence.

Deliver me from the vanity of mine own heart, and from the temptations of evil company.

Incline my heart to all which is good, that I may be modest and humble, true and just, temperate and diligent, respectful and obedient to my superiors; that I may fear and love Thee above all; that I may love my neighbour as myself, and do to every one as I would they should do unto me.

Let Thy good providence defend me this day from all evil: let the grace of Thy Holy Spirit continually prevent and assist me. Bless me, I pray Thee, in my learning; and help me daily to increase in knowledge, and wisdom, and all virtue.

I humbly beg Thy blessings upon all our spiritual pastors and masters, all my relations and friends, (particularly* my father and mother, my brothers and sisters; and every one in this house.) Grant to them whatsoever may be good for them in this life, and guide them to life everlasting.

I humbly commit myself to Thee, O Lord, in the name of Jesus Christ, my Saviour, and in the words which He himself hath taught us:

Our Father, &c.

AN EVENING PRAYER,

To be used daily by every Child at Home.

GLORY be to Thee, O Lord, who hast preserved me the day past; who hast defended me from all the evils to which I am constantly exposed in this uncertain life; who hast continued my health, who hast bestowed upon me all things necessary for life and godliness.

I humbly beseech Thee, heavenly Father, to pardon whatsoever Thou hast seen amiss in me this day, in my thoughts, words, or actions,

(particularly+)

+ Here let the child be instructed to confess and bewail in particular every sin which may have been committed by him or her in the day past; whether lying, taking God's name in vain, stealing, quarrelling, stubbornness, or any other sin.

Make me, O Lord, thoroughly sensible of the great wickedness and corruption of my nature, and the many errors of my life.

Assist me, I pray Thee, in making it my constant endeavour to resist and conquer every evil inclination within me, and every temptation from without.

Help me daily to increase in the knowledge and love of Thee, my God, and of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Shew me the way in which I should walk. whilst I am young, and grant that I may never depart from it.

Bless to me, I pray, whatsoever good instructions have been given me this day; he'p me carefully to remember them, and duly to improve them, that I may be ever growing in knowledge. wisdom, and goodness.

I humbly beg Thy blessing upon all our spiritual pastors and masters, all my relations and friends, (particularly* my father and mother, my sisters and brothers; and every one in this house.) Let it please Thee to guide us all in this present life, and to conduct us to Thy heavenly kingdom.

I humbly commit my soul and body to Thy care this night, begging thy gracious protection and blessing, through Jesus Christ, our only Lord and Saviour; in whose words I conclude my prayers:

Our Father, &c.

ENGLISH SPELLING BOOK IMPROVED,

BY J. G. RUSHER, BANBURY;

Containing, in a progressive Series, a variety of Tables of Spelling, instructive Lessons, and entertaining Stories, adapted to the Capacities of Youth; to which are added a correct Set of improved Arithmetical Tables, according to the late Act of Parliament, a concise English Grammar, Chronological Tables, &c.

No pains have been spared to render this book an easy Introduction to Orthography; it is well printed on good Paper, and bound; with a Frontispiece, engraved on steel, drawn by Corbould; and it is recommended by many who have spent years in communicating instruction to the rising generation. The Conductors of Schools and Seminaries in Oxford, Reading, Banbury, and other places, have introduced this Book into their Establishments, and have conveyed to the Publisher their approbation of its contents. Entered at Stationers' Hall, London.

The following has appeared in a periodical recently published:—

"We have much pleasure in calling the attention of the Instructors of Youth to an advertisement in our present number, announcing the publication of a most valuable book for the use of Schools and for private instruction, entitled "THE ENGLISH SPELLING BOOK IMPROVED," intended as a Sequel to that universally approved little work, " RUSHER'S READING MADE MOST EASY." It is compiled and published by Mr J. G. Rusher, Printer, Banbury, the eldest Son of the Writer of the Reading Made Easy. We have been favored with a sight of the publication, and can assure our readers it eminently deserves its title of "Improved." It is a decided improvement on the Elementary Spelling Books generally used in our Schools; and we confidently predict it will have, as it well deserves to have, a rapid and extensive sale; and that every Proprietor of a School, having once used this book, will continue to use and to recommend it, in preference to every other Orthograph ical Instructor hitherto published for the improvement of Youth-"
