Tom the Piper's Son.

Tom he was a Piper's Son,
He learned to play when he was young,
But the only tune that he could play
Was "Over the hills and far away."

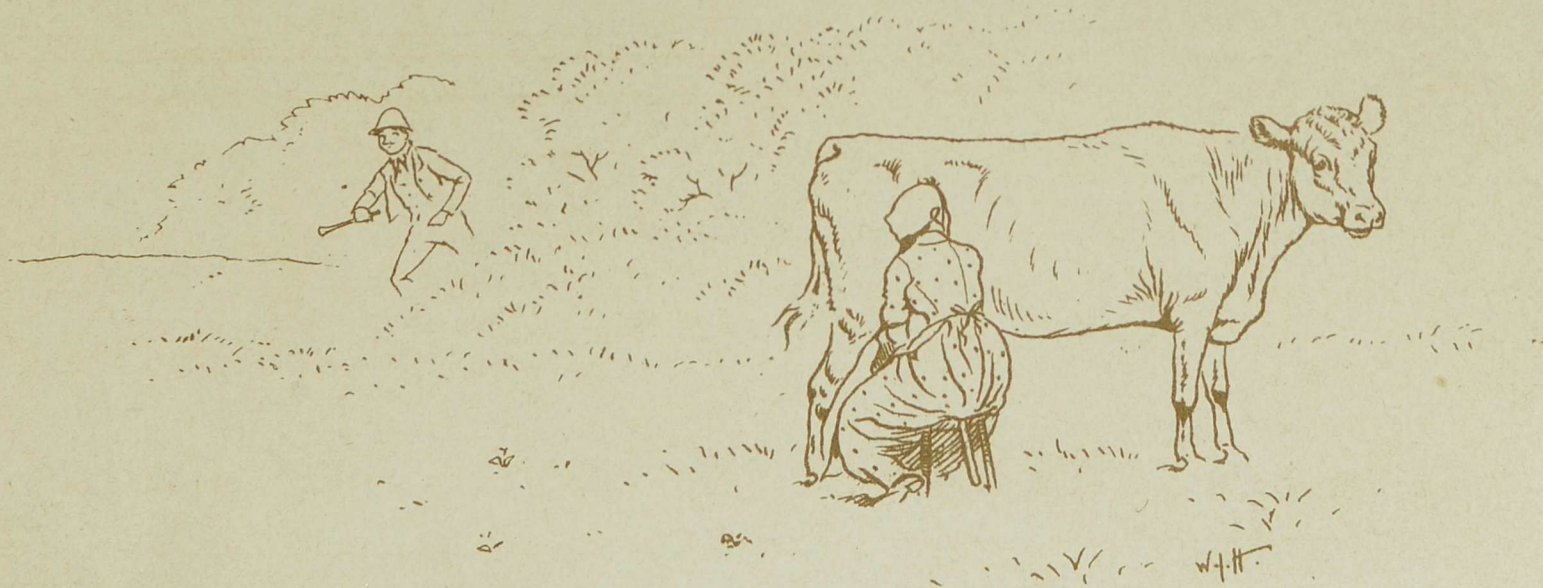

Tom with his pipe did play with such skill,
That those who heard could never stand still,
Whenever they heard they began to dance,
Even pigs on their hind legs would after him prance.

As Dolly

Was milking her cow one day,
Tom took out his pipe and began to play,

So doll and the cow danced the "Cheshire round,"

Till the pail
was broke,

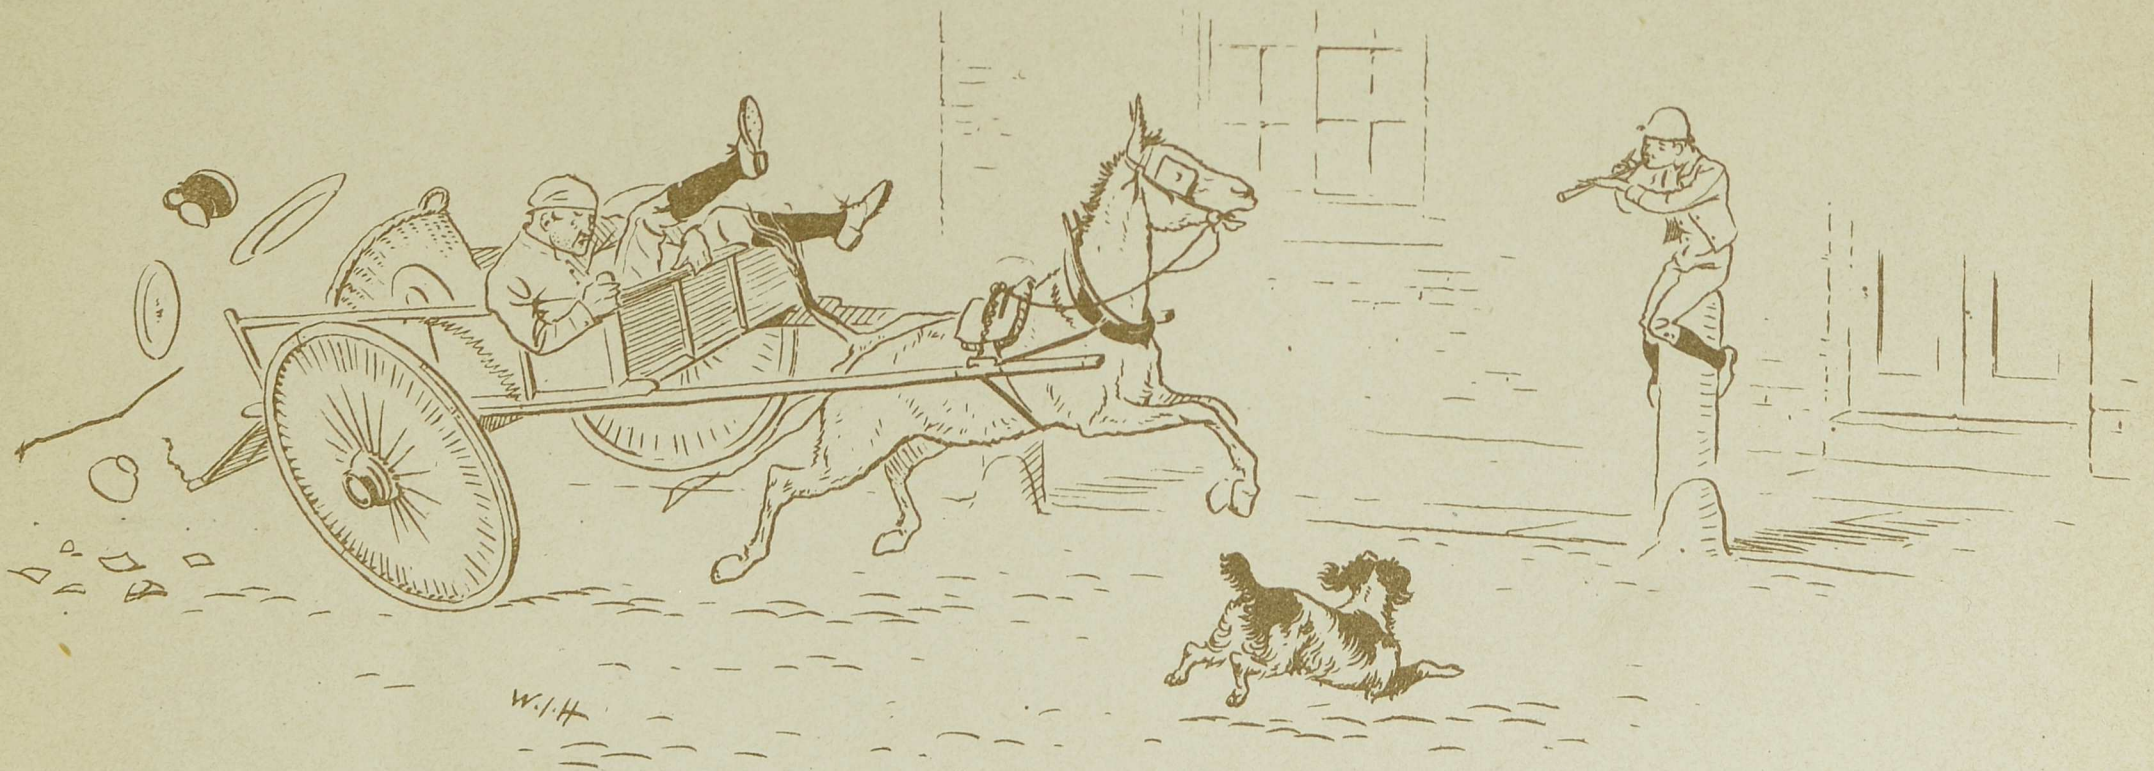

And the milk ran on the ground.

W.H.

He saw a cross fellow
was beating an ass,
heavy laden with pots, pans, dishes and glass;

He took out his pipe and played them a tune,
And the jackass's load was lightened full soon.

He met old Dame Trot with a basket of eggs,
He used his pipe and she used her legs;

She danced about
till the eggs were broke,

She began to fret,
but he laughed at the joke.

There Was a Little Man.

There was a little man
and he had a little gun,

And his bullets were made of lead. O!

He shot John Sprigg through the middle of his wig
And knocked it off his head, O !

See — Saw.

See — saw, Marjory Daw,

Oh! don't let us go any faster,

If we do little Johnnie will get a bad fall,

And have to be bound up with plaster.

Simple Simon.

Simple Simon

Went a fishing
For to catch a whale.

And all the water he had got

Was in his mother's pail.
