FIRST SET OF CATECHISMS AND PRAYERS.

PRICE ONE PENNY.

HAPPY the child whose youngest years
Receive instructions well ;
Who hates the sinner's path, and fears
The road that leads to hell.

When we devote our youth to God
'Tis pleasing in his eyes ;
A flow'r when offer'd in the bud,
Is no vain sacrifice.

'Tis easier work if we begin
To fear the Lord betimes ;
While sinners that grow old in sin
Are harden'd in their crimes.

PREFACE.

THESE are two books which I have lately composed for the instruction and assistance of childhood and youth in the knowledge and practice of the Christian religion, according to their different ages. The one is a large collection of PRAYERS for their use and imitation; and the other is a book of CATECHISMS, or a whole course of instructions in the principles of the Christian religion, and the history of Scripture.

I have been engaged, by the request of many of my friends, to print the several Catechisms, suited to each several stages of childhood and youth, separate by themselves, and I have added some very short prayers also out of the book of prayers.

This first set of catechisms and prayers is composed as follows:

The first thing is, the young Child's Catechism of the principles of religion, from three or four years old to seven or eight, which contains twenty-four short questions.

In the second place, I have put the Catechism of Scripture names for young children. that they may be early acquainted with some slight sketches of the Scripture history, which are necessary in order to understand the Christian religion the better. This may be learnt at the same time with the foregoing Catechism, so that they may be carried on together.

At the end there are inserted the morning and evening prayers for very young children, and graces before and after meat, from three or four years old to seven or eight, taken out of the same book of prayers which is mentioned before.

In all these Catechisms and Prayers, if parents or teachers dislike any word or expression, they may change it at pleasure, or put a better in the room of it. But there are three proposals or requests that I would here make to them.

First, though the Catechisms, and a few Prayers, which children should learn by heart in the first stages of their childhood, are now printed by themselves, yet it would be a considerable advantage to have the other Catechisms and Prayers put into their hands, that they might read those which are designed for the instruction of children who are a few years older, as lessons at home or at school; hereby they will be rendered familiar to their minds beforehand, and they will learn them afterwards with much more ease and speed. For this purpose I have continued to publish them all together in a new edition.

Secondly, that they would take all due pains to make their children understand every word and sentence of the Catechisms and Prayers, if possible, before they learn them by heart, or at least while they are learning them; that they may not gabble over mere sounds and syllables, and pronounce them as parrots do, without a meaning, which practice hath neither reason nor religion in it.

Thirdly, that they would not only pray for their children daily themselves, but appoint them proper seasons and places in the morning and evening to address themselves to God in prayer, and teach the young creatures to do it with all seriousness and solemnity, that religion may begin betimes in their hearts and practice.

THE

OF THE

Principles of Religion.

1 QUEST. CAN you tell me, child, who made you?

ANS. The great God, who made heaven and earth.

2 Q. What doth God do for you?

A. He keeps me from harm by night and by day, and is always doing me good.

3 Q. And what must you do for this great God who is so good to you?

A. I must learn to know him first, and then I must do every thing to please him.

4 Q. Where doth God teach us to know him and to please him?

A. In his holy word, which is contained in the bible.

5 Q. Have you learned to know who God is?

A. God is a spirit; and though we cannot see him, yet he sees and knows all things, and he can do all things.

6 Q. What must you do to please God?

A. I must do my duty both towards God and towards man.

7 Q. What is your duty to God?

A. My duty to God is to fear and honour him, to love and serve him, to pray to him, and to praise him.

8 Q. What is your duty to man?

A. My duty to man, is to obey my parents, to speak the truth always, and be honest and kind to all.

9 Q. What good do you hope for by seeking to please God?

A. Then I shall be a child of God, and have God for my father and my friend for ever.

10 Q. And what if you do not fear God, nor love him, nor seek to please him?

A. Then I shall be a wicked child, and the great God will be very angry with me.

11 Q. Why are you afraid of God's anger?

A. Because he can kill my body, and he can make my soul miserable after my body is dead.

12 Q. But have you never done any thing to make God angry with you already?

A. Yes, I fear I have too often sinned against God and deserved his anger.

13 Q. What do you mean by sinning against God?

A. To sin against God, is to do any thing that God forbids me, or not to do what God commands me.

14 Q. And what must you do to be saved from the anger of God which your sins have deserved?

A. I must be sorry for my sins, I must pray to God to forgive me what is past, and serve him better for the time to come.

15 Q. Will God forgive you if you pray for pardon?

A. I hope he will forgive me, if I trust in his mercy, for the sake of what Jesus Christ has done, and what he has suffered.

16 Q. Do you know who Jesus Christ is?

A. He is God's own Son, who came down from heaven, to save us from our sins and from God's anger.

17 Q. What has Christ done towards the saving of men?

A. He obeyed the law of God himself, and has taught us to obey it also.

18 Q. And what has Christ suffered in order to save men?

A. He died for sinners who have broken the laws of God, and who deserved to die themselves.

19 Q. Where is Jesus Christ now?

A. He is alive again, and gone to heaven to provide a place there for all that serve God, and love his Son Jesus.

20 Q. Can you of yourself love and serve God and Christ?

A. No, I cannot do it of myself; but God will help me by his own Spirit, if I ask him for it.

21 Q. Will Jesus Christ ever come again?

A. Christ will come again, and call me and all the world to account for what we have done.

22 Q. For what purpose is this account to be given?

A. That the children of God, as well as the wicked, may all receive according to their works.

23 Q. What must become of you if you are wicked?

A. If I am wicked, I shall be sent down to everlasting fire in hell, among wicked and miserable creatures.

24 Q. And whither shall you go, if you are a child of God?

A. If I am a child of God, I shall be taken up to heaven, and dwell there with God and Christ for ever. Amen.

ADVERTISEMENT TO TEACHERS.

The following Catechism of Scripture Names is to be taught at the same time with the foregoing Catechisms of the Principles of Religion.

You will find here that the name of the person is always contained in the question, and the answer declares his character; but in order to teach children to pronounce the name right, as well as to learn the character and persons, parents or teachers may ask the same question backward or forward, viz. Who was Adam? Ans. The first man that God made, &c. And then, Q. Who was the first man that God made? A. Adam. By learning this both ways, children will be better acquainted with the names as well as the characters and actions of the persons mentioned.

Prayers for Little Children.

Note. As soon as children begin to learn these catechisms, they should also learn the following prayers.

The Infant's, or young Child's Morning Prayer.

ALMIGHTY God, the Maker of every thing in heaven and earth; the darkness goeth away, and the daylight cometh again at thy command: thou art good and thou doest good continually,

I thank thee that thou hast taken such care of me this night, and that I am alive and well this morning.

Save me, O God, from evil all this day long, and let me love and serve thee for ever, for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son. Amen.

Note. The word Amen signifies, that I believe all that I speak, and that I desire from my heart all that I pray for with my lips.

Note. When the child is five or six years old, he may leave out this Amen, and enlarge this morning prayer a little by adding the two following paragraphs:

Bestow on me every good thing that I have need of for my body and my soul: assist me by thy Holy Spirit to do thy will: make me always afraid to offend thee, and let me live and die in thy favour.

Hear the prayer of a child, O Lord, and pardon all my sins, because thy beloved Son died once on earth for sinful creatures, though he never sinned himself, and now he lives in heaven to pray for them, and save them; let his name be praised for ever and ever. Amen.

The Infant's or young Child's Evening Prayer.

O LORD God, who knowest all things, thou seest me by night as well as by day.

I pray thee, for Christ's sake, forgive me whatsoever I have done amiss this day, and keep me safe all this night while I am asleep.

I desire to lie down under thy care, and to abide for ever under thy blessing, for thou art a God of all power and everlasting mercy. Amen.

Note. When the child is five or six years old, he may leave out this Amen, and enlarge this evening prayer, by adding the two following paragraphs:

Bless all (my friends)* as well as myself: do good to them at all times and in all places, and help me always to serve them in love.

And when I have done thy will

* Here the child may mention father and mother, and other relations.

here, by thy grace assisting me, and enjoyed thy blessing on earth, then give my soul a place in heaven, to dwell with thee there, and with thy Son Jesus Christ; for heaven and earth, and all things in them, are thine for ever and ever. Amen.

The young Child's Prayer for the Lord's Day, to be added to the Morning Prayer.

SUFFER me not, O Lord, to waste this thy day in sin and folly; but let me worship thee with much delight. Teach me to know more of thee, and to serve thee better than ever I have done before, that I may be fitter to dwell in heaven where thy worship and service are everlasting. Amen.

The young Child's Prayer for the Lord's Day, to be added to the Evening Prayer.

O MOST gracious God, let me never forget the many good things that I have heard this day; but let them abide in my heart so as to amend my life, that I may be able to give a good account of them to Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour, when he comes to judge the world at the last day. Amen.

The Infant's Grace before Meat.

BLESS me, O Lord, and let my food strengthen me to serve thee, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

The Infant's Grace after Meat.

I DESIRE to thank God, who gives me food to eat every day of my life. Amen.

The young Child's Grace before Meat.

I ENTREAT thee, O Lord, that the good things which I eat and drink may keep me alive, and make me able to do thee some service, for the sake of Jesus Christ thy Son and our Saviour. Amen.

The young Child's Grace after Meat.

I THANK thee, O heavenly Father, for my daily food, and for every blessing thou bestowest on me; accept my thanksgiving for Christ's sake. Amen.
