Hats, Millinery and similar articles should be packed in rigid boxes of wood or other material or in stout "leatherboard" boxes with lids extending about two-thirds of the depth of the box, or in boxes protected on all sides by light crossbars of wood. Such packages should be marked "Fragile-with care."

Pictures, Drawings, Paintings, Maps, etc.-Pictures in frames should be protected front and back by stout wooden boards each rather larger than the frame, and soft packing should be placed firmly between the corners of the frame and the boards, but not so as to press on the glass. Drawings, paintings, maps, etc., if transmitted flat should be protected by layers of corrugated cardboard; otherwise they should be rolled around a stout stick and carefully wrapped or enclosed in a strong cardboard tube. These packages should be marked "Fragilewith care."

Canes, Fishing Rods, Golf Sticks, Umbrellas, etc., should be protected by two stout pieces of wood, each a little longer and wider than the article to be protected.

Address Plainly.-Address must in all cases be written plainly on the parcel itself and not only on an attached tag or label. It is desirable that the sender's address should appear either on the cover or inside of the parcel.
