THE ADVENTURES OF LITTLE MAN-CHESTER

or Recollections of the ROYAL JUBILEE EXHIBITION.

By
E. Ellen Houghson.
1887

This is little Man-Chester, setting off
in search of adventure.

E.E.H

E.E.H

He comes to a strange city!

He pauses for
refreshment,
& for

once
finds

a chilly welcome
very pleasant

Then feeling fortified, he marches up to a huge Gateway, determined to enter.

First he meets
a giant ~
who

however proves

friendly ~

&
says
his name

is Cassius
Pompey
Robinson.

E.E.H

They part on the best of terms.

He waits
for
the coach

but
is advised
to walk.

NOTE.
IT NEVER COMES (6)

E.E.H.

E.E.H

so he goes on whistling -
and makes new friends

He meets many
strange people

H.3.H

and is quite puzzled as to the Time!

He
learns
where

DEF
GHI

lesson books
are made

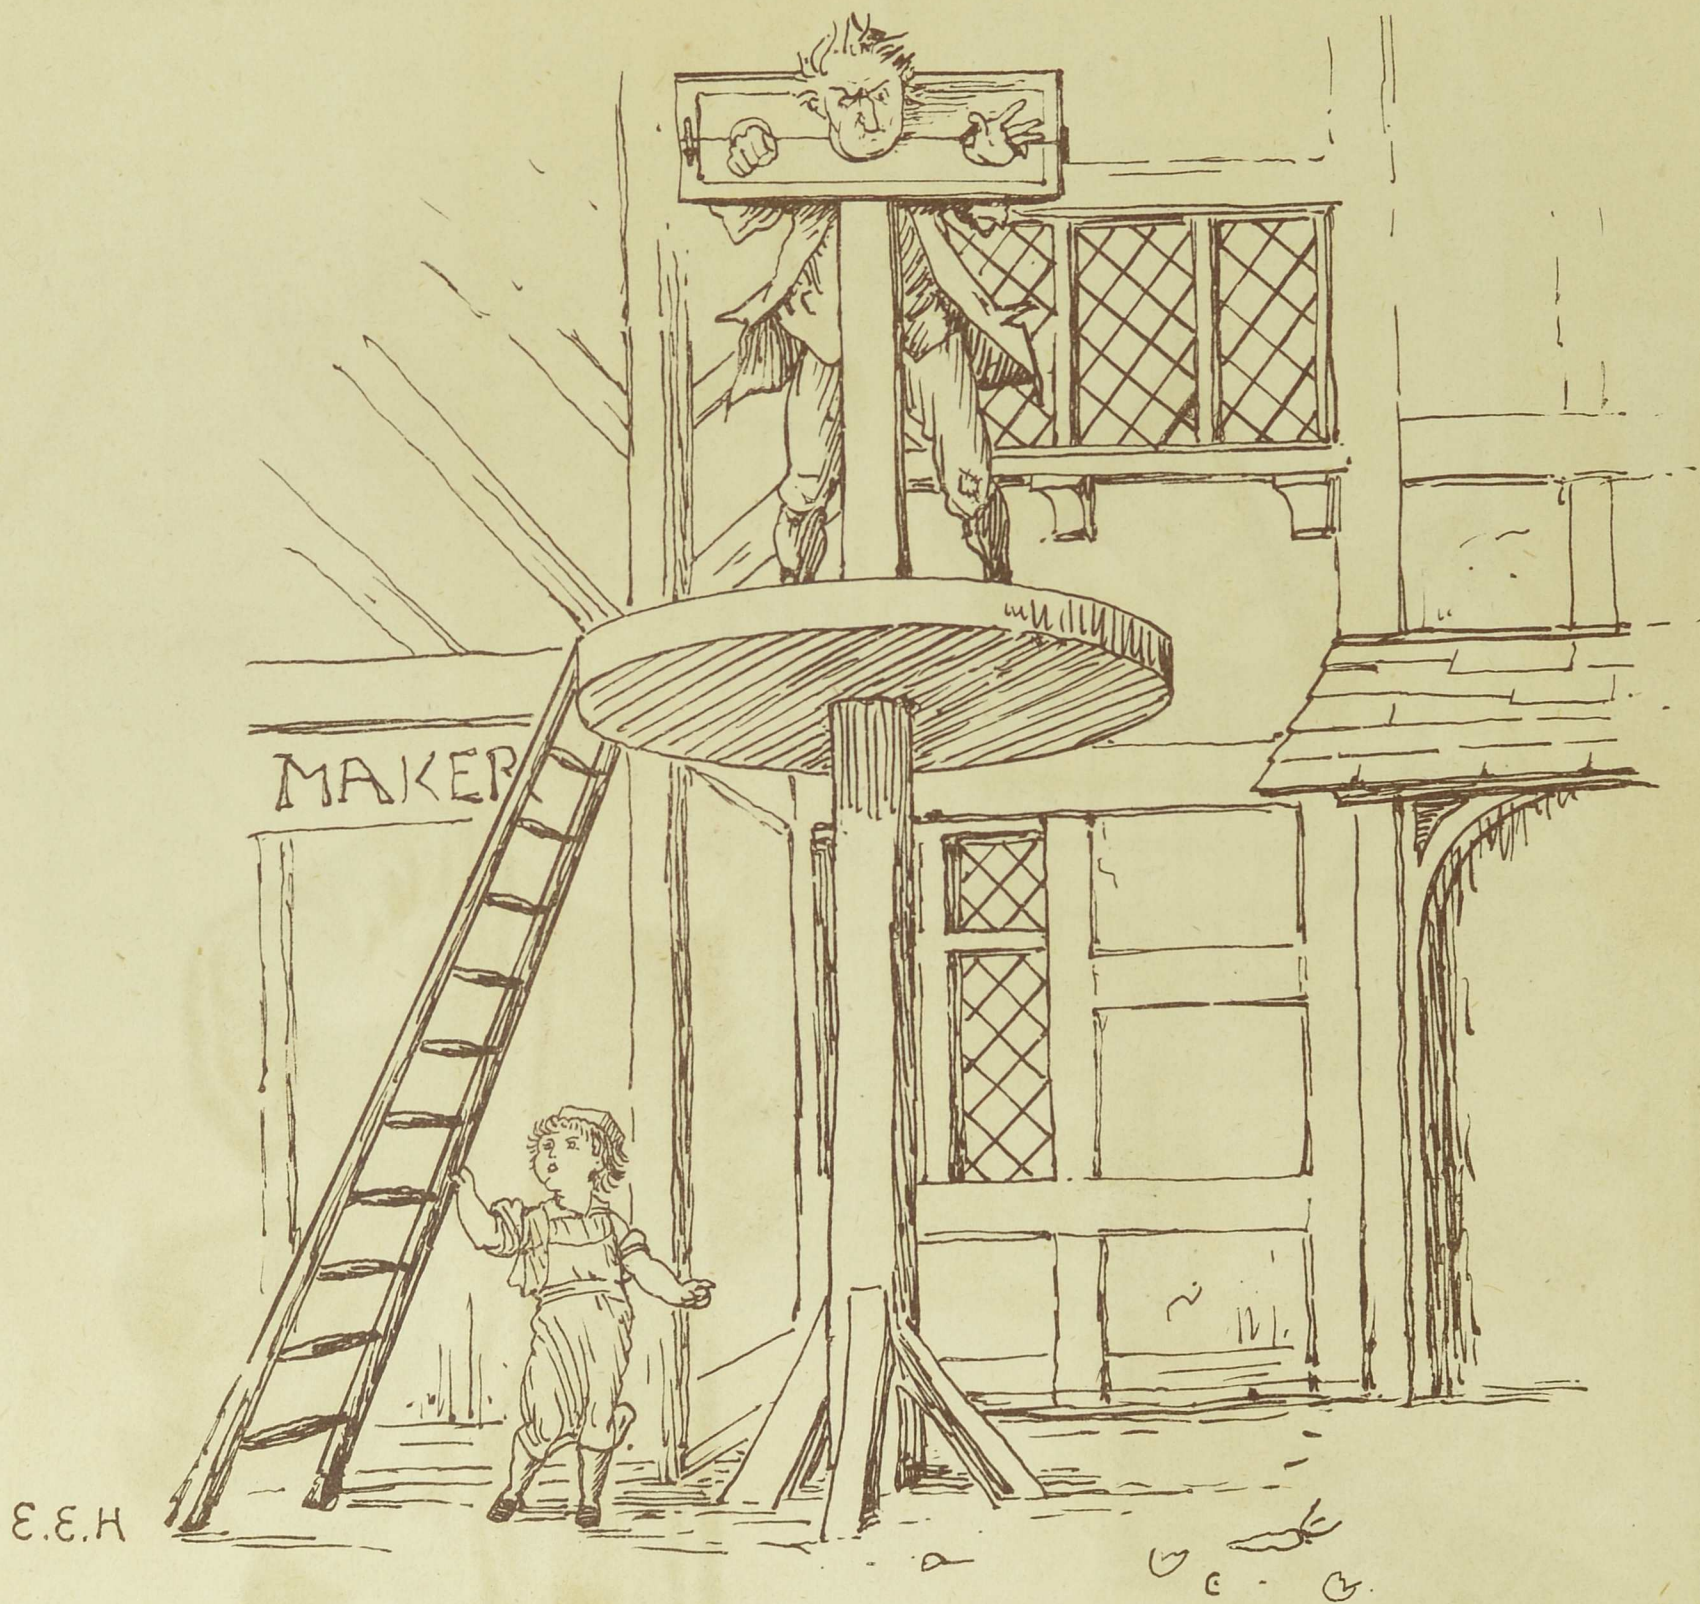

E.E.H

But not liking dry subjects, he seeks other amusement

He is rescued from an awkward position
by a kind man (who has helped many little boys before)

E.E.H

He wonders if this is the ladder of Fame.

But
the Curfew
rings ~
and all little
boys must go
home
to bed ~

On waking next morning he thinks it
E.E.H must have been all a dream!
