"O, go not yet."—Henry VI.

Toasts

THE KING

"Eminence, wealth, sovereignty, which to say sooth are blessings."—Henry VIII.

ALPHA SIGMA

"What, do we meet together?
Aye! And I think one business doth command us all."
—Timon of Athens.

THE OLD GIRLS

"More is thy due than more than all can pay."
—Macbeth.

MISS MASSON

"I love her heartily;
For she is wise, if I can judge of her;
And fair she is, if that mine eyes be true;
And true she is, as she has proved herself;
And, therefore, like herself, wise, fair and true,
Shall she be placed in my constant soul."
—Merchant of Venice.

GENTLEMEN

"With all thy faults we love thee still."—Couper.

"'Tis grievous parting with good company."
—George Eliot.
