

King Edward Hotel,

GORRISON
CANADA.

Greeting

"Toast then the Turkey."

1
This is the turkey
We serve steaming hot,
Lord of the oven
And prince of the pot

2
Turkey so savoury,
To smell him or munch—
Better than flowers
Done up in a bunch.

3
Cram him and fatten
Him, tenderly slay,
Cook him, and eat him,
And stow him away.

4
Turkey so tempting
We eat him with zest,
Stowing a cargo,
Just under the vest.

5
Toast then the turkey
So tender and sweet:
Thankful for turkey
The choicest of meat.

—John W. Campbell.

Menu

Thursday

November 17, 1904

Malpecque Cocktail

Soup

Cream of Chicken, Princesse

Clear Green Turtle au Madere

Relishes

Salted Almonds

Celery

Radishes

Pimolas

Canape Moderne

Fish

Filet of Black Bass, Diplome

Pomme Parisienne

Boiled

York Sugar Cured Ham with Spinach

Entrees

Cutlet of Philadelphia Squab, Nelson

Venison Steak, Sauce Cumberland

Sweetbread Braise, Fresh Mushrooms

Souffle en Surprise a la Vanilla

Roast

Spring Turkey Stuffed, Cranberry Sauce

Prime Ribs of Beef, Yorkshire Pudding

Muskoka Spring Lamb, Mint Sauce

Vegetables

Hubbard Squash

Fresh Florida Peas in Cream

Cauliflower

Brussel Sprout

Potatoes: Roast Sweet, Mashed, Boiled, Hashed Brown

SALAD: Chicken Watercress Lettuce Lobster

Chicory Celery Mayonnaise Macedoine

Cold Beef Tongue Turkey York Ham

Muskoka Lamb

Boned Capon

Siberian Punch

Desert

Plum Pudding, Brandy and Hard Sauce

Mince Pie

Macaroons

Apple Pie

Sherry Wine Jelly

Meringue Glaces

Baba au Rum

Fancy Assorted Cake Charlotte Russe au Strawberry

Malaga Grapes Apples Bananas Pears Oranges

Stilton,

Swiss,

Gorgonzola

Coffee

Tea

Chocolate

Milk

Fruit

Tea: English Breakfast, Young Hyson, Oolong, Ceylon

