MOVING-PICTURES

A lady would surely be hard to please
Who wouldn't admire cavaliers like these.

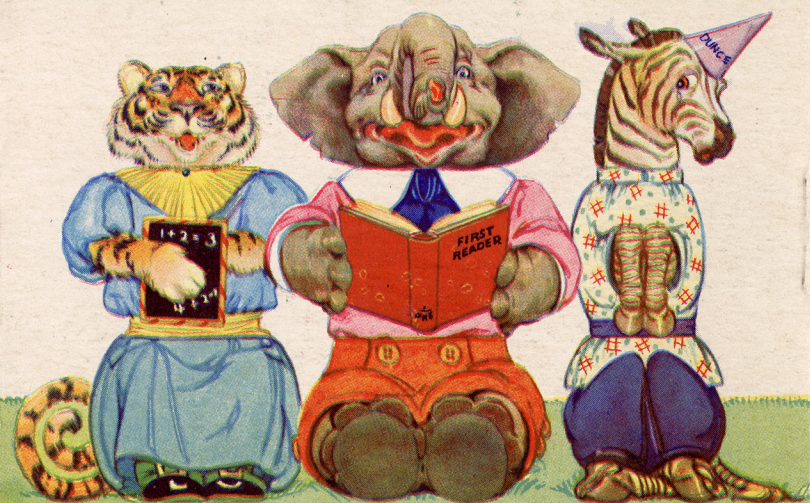

Which is the best? We can't agree!
We'll simply have to try all three.

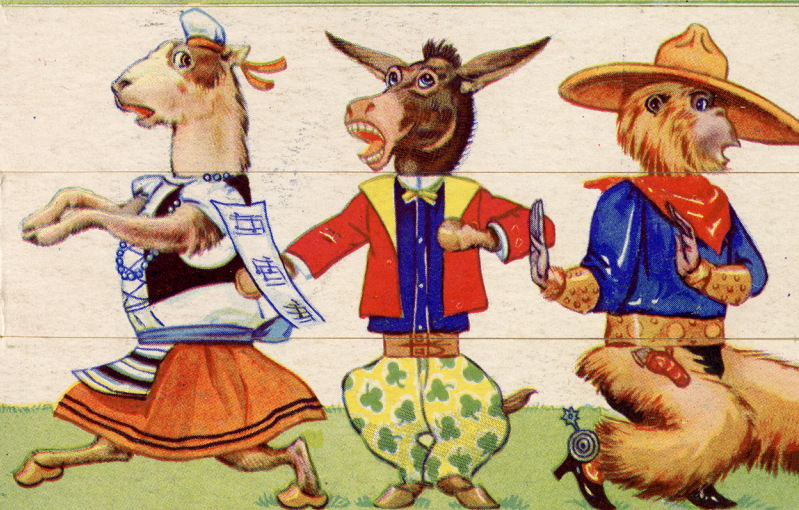

Hiking suits the Kangaroo,
He sets the pace for the other two.

This trio is rare, but it seems to me
The Horse and Cow are all off key.

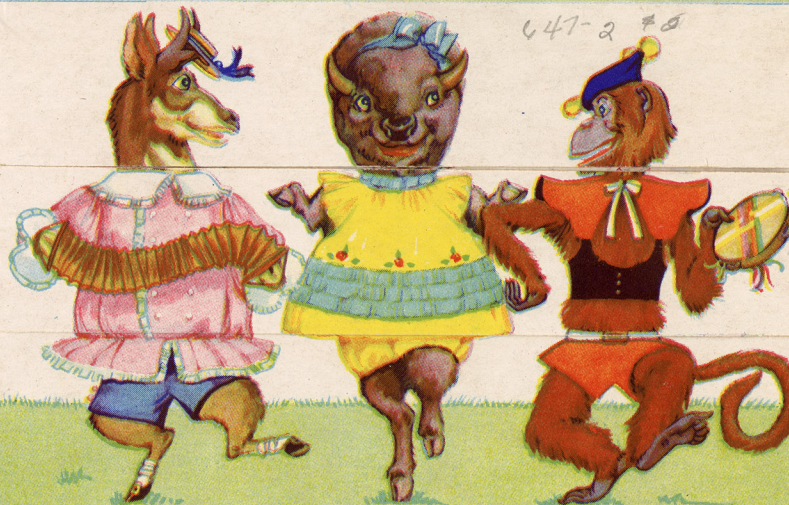

The Elephant and Tiger are very bright,
But the poor little Zebra gets nothing right.

When the Donkey starts to bray
Even his dearest friends won't stay.

We blow our bubbles in the air,
But the Turtle cannot keep his there.

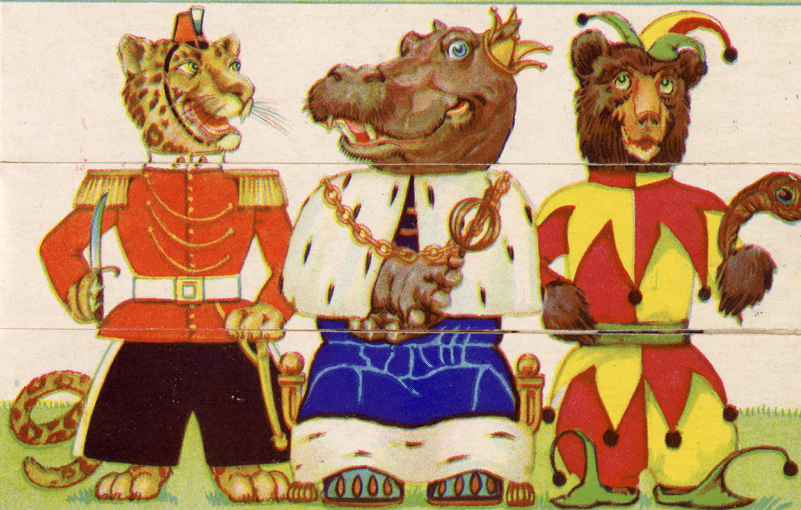

The concertina and tambourine
Inspire a dance you've never seen.

Hiking suits the Kangaroo,
He sets the pace for the other two.

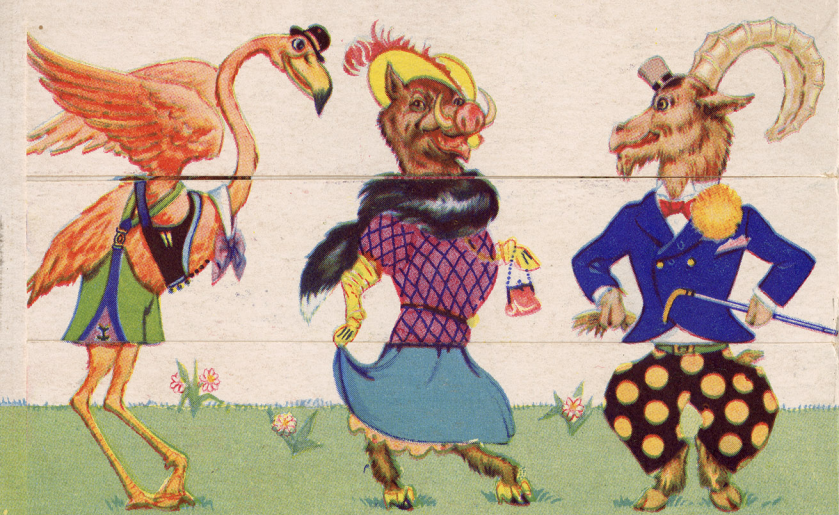

We ride our steeds at a dizzy pace,
But the Cat is sure to win the race.

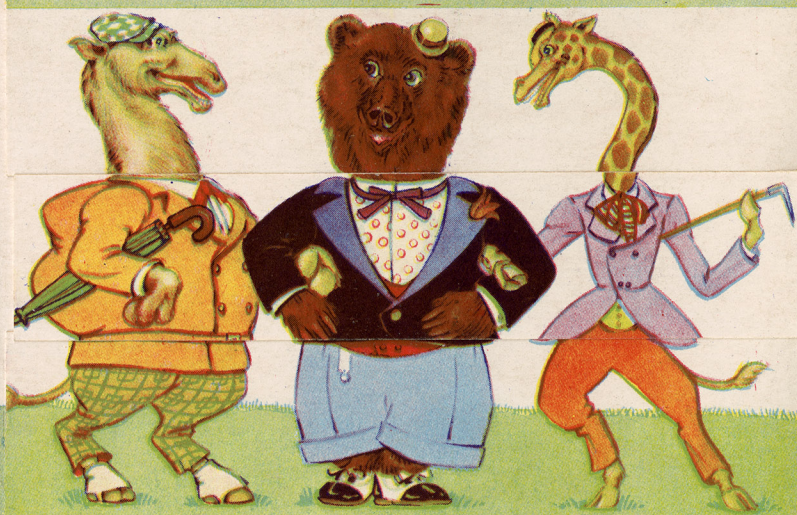

General Tiger and Jester Bear
Attend the Queen at the Animal Fair.

When the Donkey starts to bray
Even his dearest friends won't stay.

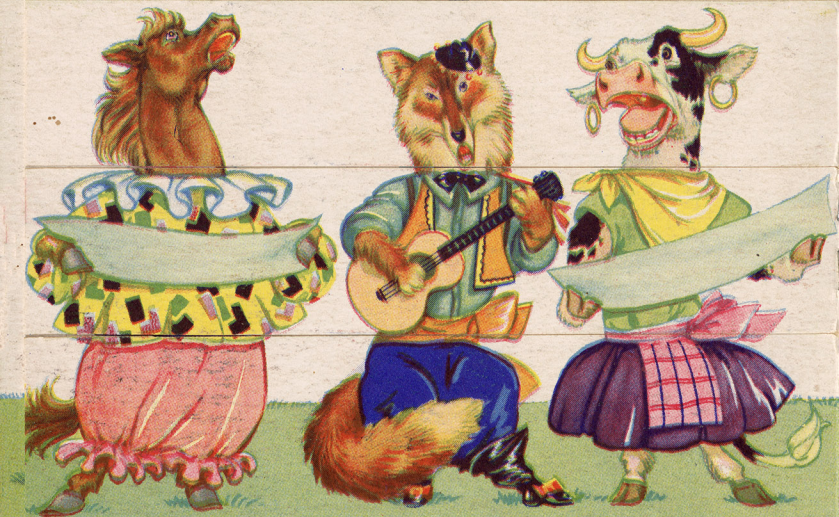

A lady would surely be hard to please
Who wouldn't admire cavaliers like these.

The Giraffe and Camel, a jovial pair,
Are taking a stroll with the Cinnamon Bear.

Here we go, all three in step,
Shopping for Corn Flakes, Rice Krispies and Pep.

This trio is rare, but it seems to me
The Horse and Cow are all off key.

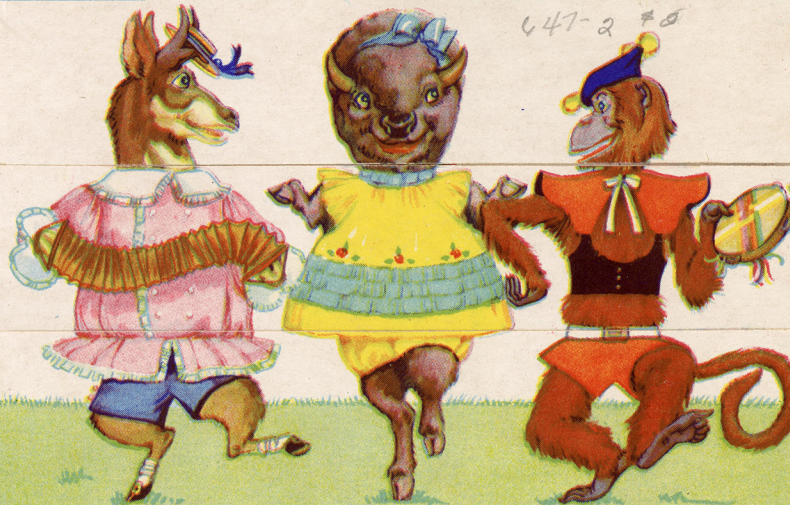

The reason we're such a happy bunch
Is because we had some Pep for lunch.

With a gay Senorita and sweet little miss,
What chance has a bashful boy like this?

We blow our bubbles in the air,
But the Turtle cannot keep his there.

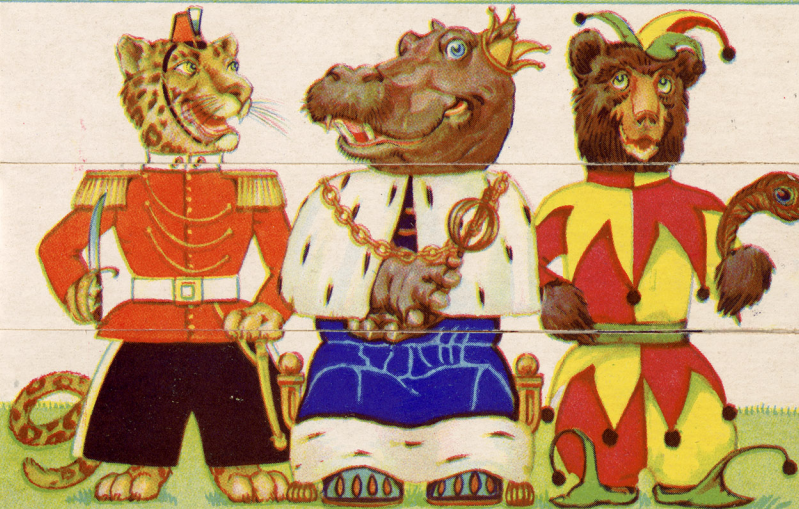

The concertina and tambourine
Inspire a dance you've never seen.

The Owl is leader of this band.
He never fails to get a hand.

This trio is rare, but it seems to me
The Horse and Cow are all off key.

The Deer can play a speedy game,
But the Lioness puts him to shame.

It's a toss-up which to eat.
Kellogg's Foods you just can't beat.
Always good, Rice, Corn, or Wheat.
