My garden aboundeth in pleasant nooks
And fragrance is over all.
For sweet is the smell of my old, old books
In their places against the wall.

What this Board desire to offer its hearty congratulations to JAMES BAIN D.C.L.
on his completion of twenty one years service as Chief Librarian of the Toronto Public Library, a position he has so ably filled since the Library was established in the year 1883.

The high position held by this institution among the many great Libraries of this Continent to-day, and its valuable collection of historical, biographical, scientific and other books, is due in no small degree to the zeal, rare ability and good judgment of our Chief Librarian.

His Board wishes Mr. Bain, many years of health and prosperity.

Chapman K. K. K.

Come pluck with me in my garden nooks
The posies that bloom for all.
