The anxious desire to become acquainted with the topography, resources, general statistics, and information relating to every part of the Province, has, of late years, become so universal, as to call for the publication of works, combining the necessary elements, to answer the end desired ; and they have met with such invariable success and encouragement that it is unnecessary to offer any lengthened explanations upon the design of such publications as the present. Intended as an index to the growth and present condition of the County of Brant, this work has received the most scrupulous attention from its Publishers, in the procuring and compilation of every item of information that it contains, and they are pleased to say, that it will be found as free from errors as it is possible for works of the kind to be. Every effort has been made to procure full and accurate information, and the result of these efforts is now presented to the people of this County, with the hope that the business men and others will find it both interesting and useful. Its publication has been attended with great expense and labor, and only a generous support from all classes in the County will make it remunerative to the Publishers, whose most earnest desire has been to make the work worthy of encouragement.

The Publishers believe that an impartial examination of its contents will satisfy anyone of its utility and general correctness, notwithstanding that some errors or omission may have found their way into its pages. This will be by no means surprising, when the vast and variable amount of information it contains is taken into account.

The Publishers desire to tender their thanks to the Members of the Press and other gentlemen throughout the County, who have given their assistance to the enterprise with a cheerfulness that was most encouraging. Trusting that the "County of Brant Directory" will be found to answer the design of its publication, it is now presented to the public.

PROVINCE OF CANADA.

That portion of the Continent of America which is now called Canada, was discovered seven years after the discovery of America, by John & Sebastian Cabot. It subsequently came into the possession of the French, who governed the country by Commanders, Governors, and Presidents, till the year 1759. In that year, under Mr. Pitt's administration, the French territories in America were attacked, and the attempt to conquer Canada was at last successful. It was in this struggle that General Wolfe lost his life, and gained to the British the American Gibraltar—Quebec—which has ever since remained in their possession. On the 8th of September, 1763, the capitulation which transferred Canada from the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the unknown West was signed—the treaty of Paris, by which Canada was formally ceded to the British Crown, was signed on the 10th of Feb., 1763. From the overthrow of the French dominion in Canada, to the division of the Province into Upper and Lower sections, the colony experienced many vicissitudes—many petty quarrels arose between the old French colonists and the new settlers of British origin. In 1774 a new order of things was instituted by the British Government, having for its object the tranquilization of the French and the encouragement of British emigration. In the same year an act was passed by which the limits of the Province were greatly extended, and made to include a large portion of what is now the United States, as far as the Mississippi. All this was lost during the revolutionary war between Britain and her thirteen colonies. During this struggle Canada refused to co-operate with the insurgents. Consequent upon this refusal the revolutionists determined upon a double invasion of Canada, by way of Lake Champlain and the Kennebec River. In 1776 the Province was evacuated, and no further attempt was conceived against Canada. The war between Britain and her colonies was brought to a close in Feb. 20th, 1783, at which time the treaty of Varseilles was signed, recognizing the independence of that nation. From that time Canada began to prosper, retarded only by the difference of British and French habits customs, and notions of Government, which at last became so serious as to lead to the passing of the "Constitutional act of 1791;" by which act the Province of Quebec was divided into Upper and Lower Canada.

Canada now found herself in possession of the fourth form of Government within the short space of thirty-two years. From 1770 to 1773 she was ruled by martial law; from 1773 to 1774 a tyrannical military government prevailed; from 1774 to 1791 a civil government of the most despotic cast was established; and in 1792 a new constitution was introduced, establishing freedom of election and responsibility to the people.

On the 17th of December, 1792, the first Upper Canadian Parliament was convened at Niagara. By an act of this Parliament, (1792) the names of the four Upper Canada Districts were changed into Eastern, Midland, Home, and Western. An act was also passed for the building of a Gaol and Court House in each of these Districts. The County of Brant, as will be seen in another part of this work, was in the Midland District. During the administration of Col. John Graves Simcoe, the first Governor of Upper Canada, an act was passed, dividing the Province into nineteen Counties, viz.: Addington, Dundas, Durham, Essex, Frontenac, Glengarry, Grenville, Hastings, Kent, Leeds, Lennox, Lincoln, Norfolk, Northumberland, Ontario, Prince Edward, Stormount, Suffolk, and York. Simcoe gave the Thames its name.

The first Upper Canadian Newspaper was established about the year 1793, From 1792 till the breaking out of the war of 1812, the following Governors, Lieutenant Governors, and Presidents, administered the affairs of the Province.

1792—	Com. John G. Simcoe,.....	Lieutenant Governor.
1796—	Hon. Peter Russell,	President.
1799—	Lieut. Gen. Peter Hunter,.....	Lieutenant Governor.
1805—	Hon. Alexander Grant,.....	President.
1806—	F. Gore,	Lieutenant Governor.
1811—	Sir Isaac Brock,.....	President.
1812—	Sir R. Hale Sheaffe,.....	President.

The second session of the Upper Canadian Parliament was held by the Hon. P. Russell, at York, at that time inhabited by only twelve families. During the administration of Lieut. Governor F. Gore, a bill was passed determining the boundaries of the different townships, and also, an act to establish public schools in every district of the Province. (1807.) Four years after this, the first census of Upper Canada was taken, when the population amounted to 77,000. In the war of 1812, Major General Brock was killed, and Gen. Roger Sheaffe succeeded to the civil and military command. Canada was evacuated by the Americans on the 5th of November, 1814, and the treaty of Ghent was signed on the 24th of December following; thus, after two years fighting, the war between Britain and the United States, in which both Upper and Lower Canada gave effectual proofs of their loyalty to the mother country, came to an end, without any advantage being gained by either of the contending parties. From 1814 to 1829, the country was agitated by disputes between the Family Compact and the Reformers; it was at this time (1825) that the office of the "Colonial Advocate," owned by W. L. McKenzie, was destroyed by a mob, to whom his conduct had become distasteful. The struggle between the Reformers and Tories at last resulted in the unfortunate rebellion of 1837. On the 23rd of July, 1840, the Union Bill, passed by both Houses the January previous, received the sanction of the Queen, and came into operation on the 10th of February, 1841. The history of Canada, from the re-union of the Provinces down to the present time, is marked by many improvements and events that are fresh in the memory of all—and need not be here repeated. The following tribute to Canada, by a Canadian M.P.P., who wrote in 1824, is worthy of perusal:

"We have only to cast our eyes transiently over the map of North America, to be immediately assured of the singularly advantageous situation of the settled parts of Upper Canada. Seated like a gem in the bosom of a country that is neither scorched by the sultry summer of the South, nor blasted by the tardy, bitter, biting winters of the North; surrounded by the most magnificent lakes, and possessing the most extensive internal navigation in the known world, it would be difficult, perhaps impossible, to find in any other region of the Globe, a tract of country of the same magnitude with so many natural advantages, as that part of Upper Canada which lies between the Lakes Ontario, Erie, and Huron, and the Ottawa, or Grand River, nine-tenths of the whole extent which are calculated for almost every description of Agricultural labor, with such a prospect of success as, perhaps, no other part of this continent could realize. A part of this tract of country, commencing in the neighborhood of Kingston, and running westward nearly five hundred miles, to the Sandwich frontier, by a depth northward of from forty to one hundred miles, is alone capable of supplying all Europe with grain of every description; besides being rich in cattle.

Much has been said at a distance, against the climate of this fine country. Those, however, who have removed to it from Great Britain, are agreeably disappointed in finding it most pleasant. It might be said with no great impropriety, that the present inhabitants of Canada have but two seasons—summer and winter; for winter has no sooner disappeared, which generally happens by the middle of April, than the whole animal and vegetable creation starts into renewed life with a vigor and rapidity that leaves the season of Spring with such doubtful limits as to be scarcely perceptible, or deserving a specific character; again, in the fall of the year, the months of September and October are generally so fine and summer-like, and these being succeeded by what is so aptly termed the Indian summer, in November, (that men) that we should have great difficulty, were it not for an artificial calendar, in saying when it was autumn.”

With a view to show the increase in the population of Upper Canada, from the beginning of the present century, we submit the following calculations:—1800, 57,738; 1810, 73,492; 1820, 119,645; 1825, 158,027; 1830, 221,567; 1835, 346,165; 1840, 437,441; 1842, 486,055; 1848, 723,332; 1850, 791,420; 1852, 950,330; 1861, 1,396,091. The estimated population in 1864, assuming the same rate of increase as between 1852 and 1861, would be 1,586,150.

It will thus be seen that the natural advantages possessed by Canada, have a steadily increasing population to develop them. Having an area of 121,260 square miles, with thousands of acres of valuable lands yet unsurveyed on its Northern and Western boundaries, with Municipal, Political, and Educational institutions second to those of no other country in the world, we may certainly predict a bright future for our country.

With a view to exhibit the progress made by Upper Canada, we give the following statistics: Upper Canada had, in 1851, 99,906 occupiers of land. They numbered, in 1861, 131,983. It produced, in 1851, 12,682,550 bushels of wheat; 11,391,867 of oats; 9,982,186 of potatoes; 3,110,118 of turnips; of flax or hemp, 59,680 lbs.; 3,669,874 lbs. of maple sugar. Its produce of these articles was, in 1861—wheat, 24,260,425 bushels; oats, 21,220,874; potatoes, 15,325,920; turnips, 18,206,959; flax or hemp, 1,225,934 lbs.; maple sugar, 6,370,605 lbs. The value of the live stock in Upper Canada was, in 1861, as much as $53,227,486; its agricultural implements, $11,280,347; its farms, $295,162,315.

In 1808, the value of the entire trade of Canada was about $8,400,000. The value reached, in 1852—exports, $14,055,973; imports, $20,286,493; total, $34,342,466. In 1861, its imports amounted to $36,614,195; exports, $43,046,823; total, $79,661,013. The value of the trade with the United States alone was, in the last of these years, $35,455,815; the imports from that country reaching $21,069,388, and the exports to it $14,386,427.;

In 1851, the net revenue yielded by the customs was $2,808,831; in 1861, $4,411,160. The value of books imported was, in 1850, $243,580; in 1861, $5,056,943.

On roads, navigation, and railroads, the Province has expended as much as $60,000,000, over and above the interest in the latter of parties out of the country. There are in use at this moment between 1,800 and 1,900 miles of railway; besides 3,422 of electric telegraph, belonging to the Montreal Telegraph Company, which had, in 1861, a capital stock of $400,000 (to whom it had advanced from $60,000, in 1747,) employed 400 persons (35 in 1847,) and conveyed 300,000 messages; the number conveyed in 1847 having been 33,000.

Our post-offices have multiplied from 3, in 1766, to 69, in 1824; 601, in 1850, and 1,698 in 1860. The number of miles of established post roads was, in the first of these years, 170; in the second, 1,992; in the third, 7,595; and in the last, 14,202. The miles travelled were, in 1766, 369; in 1824, 616; in 1851, 2,287,000; in 1860, 5,712,000. In 1852, 3,700,000 letters were transmitted; in 1860, 9,000,000. The expenditure of the Post-Office was, in the former of these years, $276,191, and its revenue $230,629; in the latter, its expenditure was $534,681, and its revenue $658,451. One hundred and ten thousand dollars additional is paid per annum, by way of subsidy, to railroads; and four hundred and sixteen thousand to steamships.

The population of United Canada numbered in the year 1800, 240,000. It was in 1825, 581,920; by 1851 it had reached 1,842,265. In 1861, it amounted to 2,506,755. The advance in Upper Canada between 1825 and 1861 has been from 581,027 to 1,396,091—not much less than 800 per cent in 36 years.

In 1831, the number of cultivated acres in the whole of Canada, Upper and Lower, was 2,884,345. It came up, 1844, to 4,968,408; and in 1851, to 7,300,837.

LETTER RATES.

Letters posted in Canada addressed to any place within the Province pass, if prepaid, for 5 cents per $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce, but if posted unpaid such letters are charged 7 cents per half ounce.

On letters to New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward's Island, the rate is five cents per half ounce, with optional prepayment.

The rate on letters to the United Kingdom is, by Canadian Packet, not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents; exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ ounce and not exceeding 1 ounce, 25 cents; exceeding 1 ounce and not exceeding 2 ounces, 50 cents; and so on increasing two rates of postage for each additional ounce. And by Cunard Packet, 17 cents per half ounce. Letters to the United Kingdom must be pre-paid, or they will be charged a fine of 6d. sterling on delivery.

Letters for British colonies and possessions beyond sea and foreign countries via England, must be prepaid.

The rate on letters for the United States, except for California and Oregon, is 10 cents per half ounce; for California and Oregon, 15 cents per half ounce; for Cuba, 20 cents per half ounce.

The postage rate to British Columbia is, for letters, 25 cents per half ounce; newspapers, 2 cents each.

MAILS FOR CANADA FROM ENGLAND:

Two Ocean Steamers carrying mails for Canada leave Liverpool each week, viz:—A Canadian packet every Thursday, via Derry on Friday, sailing to Quebec in summer, and Portland in winter, by which the postage rate is 6d. sterling per half ounce; and a Cunard packet every Saturday, via Cork on Sunday, bringing mails for Canada, alternately to Boston and New York, by which the postage rate to Canada is 8d. sterling per ounce.

The British post office forwards letters to Canada by the first packet sailing after the letter is posted, unless the letters bear a special direction—"By Canadian Packet," or "By British Packet"—and in that case they are kept over for the packet designated. "By Canadian Mail" is not a distinctive subscription—for any mail for Canada is a "Canadian Mail," by whatever packet forwarded.

REGISTRATION OF LETTERS.

Persons posting letters containing value should be careful to require them to be registered, and to obtain from the postmaster a certificate of receipt for registration.

The charge for reistration, in addition to the postage, is as follows:—On letters to any other place in Canada, or British North America, 2 cents; On letters to the United States, 5 cents; on letters to the United Kingdom, 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents; on letters for British Colonies or possessions sent via England, 25 cents. On letters for France and other Foreign Countries, via England, an amount equal to the postage rate. Both the postage charge and registration fee must be prepaid.

Registration is not an absolute guarantee against the miscarriage or loss of a letter, but a registered letter can be traced when an unregistered letter cannot, and the posting and delivery or non-delivery can be proven. A registered letter is thus secured against many of the casualties which, from incorrect address, forgetfulness of the receiver, or other error, may affect an unregistered letter.

MISCELLANEOUS CHARGES.

The charge on parcels by the parcel post, which is limited to places within the Province, is 25 cents per pound [with 3 cents additional if registered.]

One cent per ounce, payable in advance by postage stamp, is the rate on printed circulars, [printed circulars, if sent in envelopes, whether sealed or unsealed, are liable to letter postage.] prices current, hand bills, and other printed matter of a like character, and on books, bound or unbound, when posted at a Canadian Post office addressed to any place in Canada, British North America generally, or the United States.

The postage upon printed circulars and prices current addressed to the United Kingdom is two cents each, which must be prepaid by postage stamps, or they will be sent to the dead letter office to be returned to the senders.

The charge on goods, &c. by book post to England, is 7 cents on packets not exceeding four ounces in weight, 12½ cents on ½ lb. packets, and 12½ cents on every additional ½ lb. These charges must be prepaid. Photographs, provided they are not upon glass, or in cases containing glass, may be forwarded to England at the book rates of postage.

BOOK POST WITH FRANCE.

For a packet of printed matter, or single newspaper, book, &c., not over 2 ounces, 4 cents; exceeding 2, and not over 4 ounces, 8 cents; exceeding 4, and not over 8 ounces, 17 cents; exceeding 8 ounces, and not over 1 pound, 34 cents, and so on, increasing 17 cents for each additional half ounce.

The book post regulations between Canada and England apply to matter between Canada and France.

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS.

Newspapers published in Canada may be sent by post from the office of publication, addressed to any place in Canada, at the following rates, if paid quarterly in advance by either the publisher at the post office where the papers are posted, or by the subscriber at the delivering post office:

For a paper published 6 times a week, 40 cents per quarter,

For a paper published 3 times a week, 20 cents per quarter,

For a paper published twice a week, 13 cents per quarter,

For a paper published once a week, 6½ cents per quarter.

When the above rates are not paid in advance by either publisher or subscriber, such papers are charged one cent each on delivery.

TRANSIENT NEWSPAPERS.

Transient newspapers—that is to say, Canadian newspapers posted not from the office of publication, and American and British papers posted or reposed in Canada must be prepaid, 1 cent each, by postage stamp, or they cannot be forwarded—except only British newspapers distributed to regular subscribers by Canadian booksellers or news agents—such papers pass free, as they would do if received in the Canadian packet mails.

NEWSPAPERS BY MAIL FROM ENGLAND OR THE UNITED STATES.

Newspapers received from England by the Canadian packet mails are delivered free. Newspapers from England by the Cunard packet mails are charged 2 cents each on delivery. [This is the American transit charge.] United States newspapers, brought by mail into Canada, are charged 1 cent each on delivery.

 PERIODICAL PUBLICATIONS.

The rate on periodical publications is, if not exceeding 3 oz. in weight, 1 cent; over 3 oz. 4 cents.

If prepaid by postage stamps from the office of publication, periodicals published in Canada weighing over 3 oz., may pass for 2 cents each.

Periodicals, printed in this Province, other than newspapers, when specially devoted to the education of youth [both religious and general,] to agriculture, to temperance, or to any branch of science, and addressed directly from the office of publication, to be transmitted to any post-office in this Province, are exempt from charge.

Transient Periodicals—including Canadian periodicals not prepaid the commuted rate from the office of publication—nor exempted by the preceding clause, and all other periodical publications posted in this Province, must be prepaid by Stamp, the full rate, at the time of posting.

Periodicals received in mails from the United States are charged with the rates named in the first clause of this section.

MONEY ORDERS.

Money orders payable in the Province may be obtained at any Money order office in the annexed list, at the following rates of commission :

On orders up to.....	$10.....	5 cents.
Over $10 and up to.....	20.....	10 cents.
Over 20 and up to.....	40.....	20 cents.
Over 40 and up to.....	60.....	30 cents.
Over 60 and up to.....	80.....	40 cents.
Over 80 and up to.....	100.....	50 cents.

N. B.—No half cents to be introduced in the orders. No single order can be issued for more than $100.

Money Orders payable at any Money Order Office in Great Britain and Ireland, can be obtained at any Canadian Money Order Office. The orders are drawn in Sterling, the commission chargeable being—for £2 and under, 25 cents; over £2 and up to £5, 50 cents; over £5 and up to £7, 75 cents; over £7 and up to £10, $1. No order can be drawn for more than £10, but any number of orders of £10 each may be procured.

POSTAGE STAMPS.

Postage Stamps are provided for sale of the respective values of 1 cent for Newspapers; 5 cents for ordinary Provincial Letters; 10 cents for United States rate; 12½ cents for Canadian packet; and 17 cents for Cunard packet.

Letter Envelopes are provided, impressed with medallion stamps, and equivalent to the prepayment of postage to the amount of 5 cts. and 10 cts. respectively.

The 5 cent envelopes will be sold to the public at the rate of $5 50 per hundred, or 66 cents per dozen. The price of a single envelope is 6 cents.

The 10 cent envelopes will be sold at the rate $10 50 per hundred, or $1 26 per dozen. Single envelopes eleven cents.

PENAL CLAUSES.

The Act contains the following penal clause :—

To enclose a letter or letters, or any writing intended to serve the purpose of a letter, in a parcel posted, for the parcel Post, shall be a misdemeanor.

To enclose a letter or any writing, or to make any written marks to serve any purpose of a letter, or to inclose any other thing in a newspaper posted to pass as a newspaper, at the rate of postage applicable to newspapers, (except in the case of accounts and receipts of newspaper publishers, which are permitted to pass folded within the newspaper sent by them to their subscribers,) shall be a misdemeanor.

COUNTY OF
BRANT GAZETTEER!
AND GENERAL
BUSINESS DIRECTORY,
FOR 1865-6.

COUNTY OF BRANT,
PROVINCE OF CANADA.

This County is bounded on the north by the township of Blenheim, in the County of Oxford, and North Dumfries, in the County of Waterloo, and Ancaster, in the County of Wentworth; on the east by the townships of Seneca and Oneida, in the County of Haldimand; on the south by the townships of Wapole, in the County of Haldimand, and Townsend and Windhara, in the County of Norfolk; on the west by the townships of North Norwich and East Oxford, in the County of Oxford.

It contains six townships, namely—Burford, Brantford, South Dumfries, Oaklands, Tuscarora, Osoadaga, and the towns of Beauford and Paris.

The Province of Canada prior to 1792, was divided into four Districts, namely: the Western, Home, Midland, and Eastern; and in that year, the Governor-General of Upper Canada was empowered by the British Act 31 Geo. 3, cap. 31, to divide the Province into as many Districts or Counties as he thought proper. In accordance with this Act and authority, Col. John Graves Simcoe, (the first Governor-General of Upper Canada) issued his proclamation dividing Canada into nineteen Counties, namely: Adlington, Dundas, Durham, Essex, Frontenac, Glengary, Grenville, Hastings, Kent, Leeds, Lennox, Lincoln, Norfolk, Northumberland, Ontario, Prince Edwards, Stormont, Suffolk, and York.

Twenty-three new Counties have since been formed, partly by a sub-division of the territory comprised by those just named, and partly by the reclaiming of new territory. The County of Brant is one of the Counties formed since Governor Simcoe's Division, and some of the townships which compose it were comprised within the boundaries of the adjoining Counties. The townships of Burford and Oaklands forming part of the County of Oxford until the re-construction of that County, in 1851. The townships of Brantford, Osoadaga, and Tuscarora formed part of the County of Wentworth, and the township of Dumfries formed part of the County of Hallow. In the year 1851, an Act was passed authorizing the separation of Counties that were joined together ; and the establishing of separate Courts, etc., in the Counties so separating, which was rendered necessary in consequence of the increase in population, etc.

For the following minute, correct, and interesting topographical sketch of the several townships that compose the County of Brant, we are indebted to Lewis Burwell, Esq.

BURFORD was originally surveyed in the early part of 1798, part by the late Deputy Surveyor, Stegman, and part by the late Deputy Surveyor, A. Jones.— The settlement of Burford began at an early day, under the superintendance of the late Thomas Hornor, Esquire, along the south side of Dundas Street, in the first concession, and in the sixth and seventh concessions in the east part of the township. The first settlers in the sixth and seventh concessions were a party of emigrants from the State of New York, followers of Jemima Wilkinson, a pretended phrophetess ; but their religious enthusiasm soon died out, and they became as other men.

Burford is the most westerly township of the County of Brant, and is bounded on the north by Dundas Street (commonly called the Governor's Road ;) on the west by the township of Oxford ; on the south by the township of Windham ; on the east by the townships of Brantford and Oakland. The principal roads are the old London Road, leading through the township direct from Brantford to Oxford, a little north of the centre of the township ; one branch of which leads south-westerly to Norwich, from a point a little east of the centre of the township ; the other branch leads from about number nineteen northerly, to Woodstock. Hornor's Creek enters Burford from the north, near the west quarter of the township, runs southerly through the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth concessions ; it then turns easterly and leaves Burford near the line between the fifth and sixth concessions, but in the fifth concession, and enters the township of Brantford. There are numerous mill privileges along the route of this creek. A creek known as Big Creek rises in Oxford, and enters Burford at the south-west quarter of the west line of the township, and after running diagonally across that part of the township in a south-easterly direction, it passes into Windham, at about the south-west quarter of the south line. There are some valuable mill privileges on this creek. There are other smaller streams in various parts of the township, which are tributaries to the principal streams.

The concessions number from the north, and the lots number from the east. The east part of the township, from the front of the sixth concession, is plains land, of a good quality of sandy soil, embracing, perhaps, nearly a fourth-part of the township ; the rest of the township is timbered land, and in some parts well supplied with pine timber. The soil in the timbered lands is a rich sandy loam, and capable of a high state of cultivation. The township is now pretty well settled with industrious and respectable inhabitants.

The villages of Claremont, Burford, and Sydenham are situated along the old London Road, and the village of New Durham is on the Norwich Branch of the said road.

OAKLAND is nearly a right-angled triangle, with its longest side adjoining the township of Brantford on the north. It is bounded by Burford on the west, and on the township of Townseud on the south. Oakland was originally surveyed by the late Deputy Surveyor, Thomas Walsh, in about the year 1796 or 1797, as an appendage to the township of Townsend, and called Townsend Gore. It was afterwards attached to Burford, and called Burford Gore. It obtained the name of Oakland on being made a component part of the County of Brant. It is watered by Malcolm's Creek and its tributaries, running from east to west. South of Malcolm's Creek and at the east angle of the township, the land is heavy timbered with pine, oak, maple, and other hard wood—soil loamy and strong. The rest of the township is oak plains, good sandy soil, with gravelly and clay subsoil in various places. It is a good township for the growth of wheat as well as other grain, and is now pretty well settled. ROADS.—A gravelled road from Mount Pleasant in Brantford to Oakland village—a road known as Cockshutt's gravelled road—runs across the east end; also, a fine stage road along the west side of the township, besides other roads. The village of Scotland is situated between the second and third concessions, at the west side of the township; also, the village of Oakland, on lots number six and seven in the second and third concessions.

During the late war with the United States, in October, 1814, a raiding party of 1,100 mounted riflemen, under the command of General McArthur, encamped, one Saturday night, on the high lands, on the north side of Malcolm's Creek, at the village of Oakland; and, early on Sunday morning they attacked a party of between three or four hundred raw militia, who had marched on the high lands south of the creek, and drove them pell-mell through the woods—killing one man and wounding some three or four others—then passing on through Townsend, they burnt the Waterford Mills, and made their exit out of the Province by the route of the Long Point country and Talbot Road west. They were careful to burn Malcolm's Mills before they left the place.

TOWNSHIP OF BRANTFORD.—This township is also composed of a part of the Six Nations Indian tract on the Grand River. The lands of which it is composed remained in the occupation and possession of the Six Nations Indians, (excepting some portions thereof, which had been leased by the late Joseph Brant, as agent for the Six Nations Indians, to various settlers) until the year 1830, when the Town plot of Brantford was surrendered for sale and settlement, as also a part of the North part of the township, after which various surrenders were made for settlement, until the whole of the territory, comprising this township, as well as the Township of Onondaga, was surrendered for sale and settlement.

This Township is bounded on the north by the township of South Dumfries; on the east by the township of Ancaster in the county of Wentworth; on the west by the township of Burford; on the south-west by the township of Oakland, and on the south-east by the townships of Fuscarora and Onondaga.

The Grand River, in its various meanderings, runs through the centre of this township on its course towards Lake Erie. It is watered in the east part by Hynd's Creek, Fairchild's Creek, and their tributaries; and on the West side of the river by Horner's Creek, which enters it in the 4th concession at the point mentioned in the remarks on Burford, but after it enters Brantford it takes the name of "the Whiteman's Creek," until its entrance into the Grand River in the third concession, at the place originally known as "The Whiteman's Farm." The person called "The Whiteman" was made prisoner by the Six Nations Indians when very young, during the American Revolution, and growing up with the Indians, married a woman of the Mohawk tribe, and settled at the intersection of this creek with the Grand River. The south-west part of the township is watered by the Mount Pleasant Creek, and other small streams.

The Principal roads are the road leading from Hamilton, passing through Cainsville, the town of Brantford, towards London, intersecting the township of Burford, at the village of Bishop's Gate, at the place indicated in the remarks on Burford; the Mount Pleasant Road, leading from the town of Brantford through the beautiful village of Mount Pleasant to Oakland. The roads leading from Brantford to Paris and St. George; the gravel road leading from Brantford south through Oakland to Port Dover, called Cockshutt's Road—and the road leading down the river to the township of Onondaga. Various concession and side line roads are also opened in various parts of the township.

The river Canning also waters a part of the first concession on the west side of the Grand River, which stream enters the main branch of the Grand River at Paris, immediately on the line between the townships of Brantford and South Dumfries.

The soil is variegated and differs with the timber. On the west side of the river, from Dumfries down to the second range east of the Mount Pleasant Road, it is plain land, sandy soil, but very productive. This part of the township is one of the most beautiful tracts of country imaginable. It is also plain land on the east side of the river, from Paris to Brantford, and extending east some three or four miles from the river. The rest of the township is timbered land, strong soil, somewhat inclined to clay in some places. On the whole it embraces as fine a tract of land as can be found in the country.

The regular concessions number from north to south, and the lots in the concessions number from west to east. But the plan of the township is very irregular—much of it had been settled by leases from Joseph Brant, without much regard to regularity or consistency. In the survey of the rest of the township, particular respect had to be paid to these Brant lease tracts.

The town of Brantford is situate about the centre of the township, as also in about the centre of the county of Brant.

At the time of the last American war, Brantford was not known. The place where the town now stands was called "Brant's Ford," from its being the chief fording place, and situate near by the dwelling house of Joseph Brant. Hence the name "Brantford" for the town. An incident occurred at this place during the late American War, which ought not to be lost sight of, in connection with the town of Brantford.

The raid under General McArthur, mentioned in the remarks on Oakland, came by way of the River Thames, through Oxford and Burford as far as to “Brant’s Ford”—and, turning out their horses to feed in the fields on the west side of the river, a small fight took place between the Kentucky riflemen, on the west side, and a few Indians and militia men on the east side. The Indians and militia men fought from behind an abutment of a bridge which had gone down, and the Kentucky riflemen from behind the house and barn which stood near to where Mrs. Gilkison’s buildings now are. A number of shots were fired from both sides—two or three of the Indians were slightly wounded, and it was said at the time that one of McArthur’s men was killed and buried by them, but this is not certain. During the firing a Kentucky chap had crawled into the brick oven which stood near the edge of the bank, and from the vent hole in the oven, which was in the direction of the abutment, he fired several shots. One of his shots wounded the Indian chief called Doctor Aaron Hill. A volunteer militia man, Reuben Dayton, who yet lives at the south-east corner of East Oxford, seeing, through a small opening in the abutment, from whence the shots came, took aim at the vent-hole of the oven, and, on delivering his shot, he saw the lime dust fly about, and the chap’s comrades come in a hurry to the oven, and drag him out feet foremost, and take him away. The raiders did not venture to cross the Grand River, but soon after Dayton’s shot was delivered, they departed and went on towards Oakland, where they had a bit of a brush with the militia, as stated in the remarks on Oakland. One other amusing incident occurred in the meantime. The raiders’ horses were feeding in the field where the agricultural buildings are now situated. An Indian from the north side swam the river from the Kerby Island, and put his bridle on a fine Kentucky horse. He swam the river back again on the horse, and, on reaching the island, he raised a shout of victory, waving his cap in triumph, darted into the bushes, and made off with his booty.

SOUTH DUMFRIES.—The townships of South Dumfries, Brantford, Onondaga, and Tuscarora, are composed of parts of the tract of land called the Grand River Territory, or Indian Reservation, situate on both sides of the Grand River, and originally purchased by the Government from the native lords of the soil, and granted to the Six Nations Indians, as compensation for their losses on the Mohawk River during the American Revolution, as a possession to them and their posterity forever—the Six Nations going into possession under their celebrated leader and chief, the late Joseph Brant, as soon after the American revolution as arrangements for their settlement could be made by the Government.

Various portions of that original tract have, from time to time, been surrendered by the Indians to the government for sale and settlement. Some surrenders have been made by the Indians to individuals by the consent of the Government, which at all times has acted as a trustee for the Indians. Amongst the latter surrenders was the township of Dumfries, but the title to that tract was never set at rest until about the year 1816, when the Hon. William Dixon was adjudged by the Court of King’s Bench to be the lawful assignee of the Six Nations, who immediately caused the township to be surveyed, and offered for sale and settlement. The south six concessions of that township are now, by act of Parliament, called South Dumfries, and is situated within, and forms a part of the county of Brant, and is bounded on the north by North Dumfries, in the county of Waterloo—on the south by the township of Brantford—on the east by the township of Beverly, in the county of Wentworth—and on the west by the township of Blenheim, in the county of Oxford.

There are two gravelled roads in this township—one leading from the town of Paris to Ayr, and the other from Paris to St. George. The Great Western Railway passes through this township, passing through Paris to Harrisburg, and the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway passes through the west part of the township from Paris in north-easterly direction towards Goderich.

From Harrisburg, a branch of the Great Western runs north to Galt and Preston, and from thence, one branch of the road leads to Berlin, in the County of Waterloo, and the other to Guelph, in the County of Wellington.

The main branch of the Grand River runs from north to south through this township, and is intersected by its west branch by the river Canning, at Paris.

The township is well watered by the above streams and their tributaries, and the east part of the township is watered by Fairchild's Creek and some of its tributaries.

The soil is good, partly plains and partly timbered land. The soil varies according to the timber; the open plains being more sandy than the other, but the whole is a strong rich soil. It is a fine wheat growing soil. Numerous concessions and side-line roads are opened and in good condition.

ONONDAGA is bounded on the south and west by the Grand River, on the north by Brantford, on the north-east by the county of Wentworth, on the south-east by the county of Haldimand.

Fairchild's creek passes through the centre in a south-easterly direction, and is very serpentine in its course.

The Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway passes through the township. A good wagon road also passes through the township in a south-easterly direction—there are other roads of sufficient importance to accommodate the settlers. The villages of Onondaga, Tuscarora, and Newport are in this township, all situate on the north bank of the Grand River.

This township is a part of the Indian territory referred to in the remarks on the Townships of South Dumfries, Brantford and Tuscarora.

TUSCARORA is bounded on the north by the Grand River, on the south-east by the county of Haldimand, on the south-west by Haldimand and Norfolk—watered by McKenzie and Sal. Jacques creeks. This is the Indian reserve.

There are no entries in regard to this township in the Registry office, so that there is no official information.

This township also composes a part of the Six Nations Indian tract—and, although now laid out into lots and concessions for the accommodation of the Indians—no white man is allowed to settle on it. It is reserved for the sole and only benefit and use of the Indians—they having surrendered for settlement all their other lands.

The County of Brant is entered by the Grand River or Ouse and its tributaries, which rises in the township of Amaranth, and runs south to Lake Erie, forming the dividing line between the townships of Onandaga and Tuscarora. It is the outlet to a large and fertile extent of country, and many well cultivated farms are situated along its banks. The Six Nation Indians who occupied the territory along the Grand River, were, in consideration of their devotion to the royal cause during the American Revolution and the losses that they sustained, thought to be entitled to some compensation by our government; and, accordingly, Sir Frederick Haldimand, on the twenty-fifth of October, 1784, by an instrument under his hand and seal, declared that they and their posterity should be allowed to possess and enjoy a tract of land six miles in depth, on each side of the Grand River, running into Lake Erie, being part of a large tract purchased by government from the Chipewa Indians, and comprised an area of 694,910 acres. At subsequent periods these lands, or the greater portion of them, were surrendered or sold by the Indians, through their agent and chief, Captain Brant.

The following is a list of the principal surrenders :

JANUARY 15, and FEBRUARY 6, 1793.—The lands forming the townships of Dumfries, Waterloo, Woolwich, and Nichol, extending downwards on both sides of the river, from the northern extremity of the reserve, and the greater part of the townships of Canboro' and Moulton, on the eastern side of the entrance of the Grand River—352,707 acres.

APRIL 19, 1830.—The site of the town of Brantford, on the Grand River—807 acres.

APRIL 19, 1831.—The northern part of the township of Cayuga, on the same part of the river—20,670 acres.

FEBRUARY.—8, 1834.—The residue of Cayuga, the township of Dunn, part of Canboro' and Moulton—50,212 acres.

MARCH 26, 1835.—A confirmation of all the preceeding surrenders.

JANUARY 18, 1841.—The residue of the lands, with the exception of a reserve of 20,000 acres, and the lands actually in the occupation of Indians, amounting to upwards of 220,000 acres. The portion at present occupied expressly by the Indians is noticed in another place.

The Six Nations consisted of the Mohawks, Oneidas, Senecas, Onandagas, Cayugas, and Tuscaroras, who were adopted into the Confederacy. Indians from other tribes have also settled among them. These, in common with the Aborigines of other sections, have yielded to the influences that have been cast around them, and are all christians, principally belonging to the Episcopal Church.

In a work like the present it is impossible to enter fully into the history of the Indians, although abundant materials exist to render such a history interesting. Our sketch would, however, be incomplete without some reference being made to the noble chief whose name the county bears.

“Joseph Brant, or Thayendanegea, was born on the banks of the Ohio, in the year seventeen hundred and forth-two. Many conflicting accounts have been published respecting his birth and parentage, but it appears from tolerable authority that his father was Tehowaghwaraghkwil, a full blooded Mohawk of the Wolf tribe; one of the three tribes (the Tortoise, Bear and Wolf.) into which each of the Five Nations was divided. He is said to have been a grandson of one of the five Sachems or Chiefs who visited England in the year seventeen hundred and ten, during the reign of Queen Anne, where, it might be expected, they excited considerable attention, and where they were introduced at Court by the Duke of Shrewsbury.

Brant appears to have received his early education at Lebanon, in Connecticut, and having been taken notice of by Sir William Johnson, accompanied him to the wars at an early period of his life, being only thirteen when engaged in his first battle. He became a firm ally of the British, and assisted with his tribe during the remainder of the French war.

In seventeen hundred and sixty-five he married the daughter of an Oneida Chief, and settled at Canajoharie. This wife dying of consumption about the year seventeen hundred and seventy-one or two, he afterwards married her half sister.

In concluding the treaty of peace with the United States, the commissioners on the part of Great Britain had forgotten to make any stipulation on behalf of their Indian allies, who had steadily supported the crown during the war; although the country of the Six Nations was included within the boundaries of the territory ceded to the Americans. When, however, the Mohawks first abandoned their native valley to embark in His Majesty's service, Sir Guy Carleton had given a pledge that as soon as the war was at an end, they should be restored, at the expense of the Government, to the condition they were in before the contest began; and in April, seventeen hundred and seventy-nine, General Haldimand, then Commander-in-Chief in Canada, ratified the promise of his predecessor, pledging himself, as far as in him lay, to its faithful execution "as soon as that happy time should come."

At the close of the war, the Mohawks were temporarily residing on the American side of the Niagara River, in the vicinity of the old landing place above the fort. The Senecas, who had been in closer alliance with the Mohawks during the war than any other of the Six Nations, and who had been chiefly induced by the former to take up the hatchet against the United States, offered them a tract of land in the valley of the Genesee; but, as Captain Brant long afterwards said in one of his speeches, the Mohawks were determined "to sink or swim" with the English; and besides they did not wish to reside within the boundaries of the United States. The generous offer of the Senecas was therefore declined, and the Mohawk Chief proceeded to Montreal to confer with the Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs, Sir John Johnson, and from thence to Quebec to claim from General Haldimand the fulfilment of his pledge. The tract upon which the chief had fixed his attention was situated upon the Bay of Quinte, and at his request General Haldimand agreed that it should be purchased and conveyed to the Mohawks. The Senecas, however, were unwilling that the Mohawks should remove so far from them, and the land situated on the Grand River was afterwards chosen.

About the close of the year seventeen hundred and eighty-five, Brant visited England, where he appears to have been very well received. When introduced at Court he proudly declined the honor of kissing the King's hand, but remarked that he would gladly kiss that of the Queen.

Brant died at Wellington Square, on the twenty-fourth of November, eighteen hundred and seven, at the age of sixty-four, and his remains were removed to the Mohawk village on the Grand river in the church yard of which they were interred. He was a brave warrior, a steadfast ally of the British, and notwithstanding much that has been published to the contrary, as humane as he was brave."

The original vault of the Brant family, having got out of repair, a tomb of stone was erected by subscription, and the remains of the chief were removed to it in 1851. The following account of the ceremony appeared in the Brantford Herald :

“On Monday last (Nov. 27th, 1850.) the remains of Thayendeneza which were previously exhumed, were placed in the tomb at the Mohawk, that had recently been prepared for their reception. This was done with no small degree of pageantry. The vast multitude of people who had assembled from different quarters, went in procession from the town of Brantford to the Mohawk village. An address was delivered on the occasion of the re-interment of the celebrated Captain Joseph Brant, by Kahkewaquanaby, (Rev. Peter Jones) Chief and Missionary, in which he expressed his personal interest in the history of him whose bones they were now about to re-commit to their resting place. This interest, he said, arose from the friendship that existed betwixt his late father, Augustus Jones, and Joseph Brant—who maintained the same until Brant's death. By mutual consent they settled, one on the northern, the other on the southern extremity of Burlington Bay beach, now called Wellington Square—that is, Brant, and Augustus Jones on the southern extremity, now called Stony Creek. He also stated that, on the arrival of Captain Brant and his people in Canada, after the loss of their territory in the United States, that they applied to his people, the Massissaugas, (or Chippewas of the River Credit) of whom he (that is Peter Jones) is one of their chiefs, to purchase a portion of their lands.

Our people replied in Council:—“Brethren, the whole country is before you. Choose you a tract for yourselves, and there build your wigwams & plant your corn.”

“The Six Nations then selected this splendid Grand River tract, which they said was very much like the country on the Mohawk River, in the State of New York, which they had lost. They offered pay, he said, but the Credit Indians would not take it. A great attachment existed between Captain Brant and his people and the Credit Indians from that time. The Six Nations, in remembrance of the former kindness they had received from the original owners of this fine tract of country, sent a message to the credit Indians, giving them an invitation to come and share their reserve, and nobly made a free grant of a large tract of land in Tuscarora, where the Credit Indians are now settled.”

The Slab bears the following inscription:

The following obituary notice of the late Rev. Peter Jones, we believe to be worthy of insertion:

REV. PETER JONES.

From the Brantford Herald.

On Tuesday, July 1st, 1856, his precious remains were conveyed from their happy home to an adjoining grove, where the Rev. Dr. Ryerson, from Toronto, delivered an address founded on Acts 11th chapter, 24th verse—and from thence to the cemetery in Brantford, followed by upwards of eighty carriages, and great numbers of white people and Indians on foot. At the grave, in which many flowers were thrown, the beautiful burial service was read by the Rev. T. B. Howard. Mr. Jones died at the age of fifty-four years, leaving a wife and four sons to mourn their loss.

On the 1st of July, 1857, a year from the day on which the remains of this exemplary Christian and zealous minister were committed to their last resting place, a handsome marble monument was raised to his memory, in the Cemetery at Brantford. There were present at this inauguration several ministers of the town, a large number of the inhabitants, D. Thorburne, Esq., Indian Commissioner, and Indians from the Credit and Mohawk. The Rev. J. C. Usher (Church of England Minister) delivered an address on the occasion. Mr. G. H. M. Johnson, Indian Chief of the Six Nations was also present. Sawyer Chief, of the Messissauga was present; Lewis Burnell, Dr. Digby. Mr. Mathews said he was present when he was ordained in Kingston by Bishop Hedding, from which time a great work had been carried on by him.

Mr. Thorburne called upon the Rev. James Usher to pronounce the Benediction, when the assembly dispersed.

The following inscription, from the pen of the Rev. Dr. Ryerson, is a beautiful epitome of his excellent character:

Erected by the
Ojibeway, and other Indian Tribes:

KAHKEWAQUONABY,
(The Rev. Peter Jones,)

Died June 29th, 1856, aged 54 years.

He was a man of deep piety and Catholic spirit; an able Minister and powerful advocate of Christian Missions. A true patriot, an affectionate husband, father and friend. He was the means of promoting, in the highest degree, the spiritual and temporal good of his race. Sinking under excessive attacks of disease, caused by exposure and labours in the Missionary work, he died, triumphing in the faith which he preached during his memorable ministry of thirty-one years in the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

A tablet is also raised to his memory by his bereaved family, in the Indian Church in the New Credit settlement, on which is the following fitting inscription:

In memory of
KAHKEWAQUONABY,
Peter Jones,

The faithful and heroic Ojibeway Missionary and Chief;

The guide, adviser, and benefactor of his people.

Born January 1st, 1802;

Died June 28th, 1856:

And his memory is embalmed in many grateful hearts.

POLITICAL.

The following brief review of the political history of the county will be found interesting. The counties of Wentworth and Brant were united together for electoral purposes, prior to the year 1853, and were represented in the Legislative Assembly by David Christie, Esq. An act was assented to on the 14th of June, 1853, for the increase of representation in Upper and Lower Canada, and according to it, the number of representatives was increased from eighty-four to one hundred and thirty, the present number. This act is usually denominated the Parliamentary Reform Act, and under it the county of Brant was divided into East and West Ridings, when David Christie, Esq., (Reform) and Daniel McKerlie, Esq., (Conservative) contested the East Riding. The latter was returned, but the election was protested by Mr. Christie, who took his seat and represented the riding till the year 1858, when he was elected to the Legislative Council for the Erie Division, in opposition to Robert Russell Bown, Esquire, (Conservative). The Hon. David Christie was succeeded in the representation of the East Riding of Brant by Hugh Finlayson, Esq., of Paris, who defeated Miles O'Reilley, Esq., and who represented the riding till 1863, when he was defeated by John Young Bown, Esq., the present member.

THE WEST RIDING OF BRANT was represented in 1854 by Herbert Biggar, Esq., (Reform) whose election was contested by Miles O'Reilley and Nathaniel Griffin, Esquires. Mr. Biggar continued to represent the riding (having defeated Geo. S. Wilkes, Esq., in 1858) till 1861, when he was opposed and beaten by Wm. Ryerson, Esq., (Conservative). In the election of 1864, Mr. Ryerson was opposed by Edmund B. Wood, Esq., of Brantford, who was returned, and still represents the riding.

In connection with the foregoing synopsis of the political history of the county, the following statistics, relative to the number of votes polled in the different municipalities, at the several contests mentioned, will be read with interest:—

GENERAL REMARKS.

The lands generally in the County of Brant are of the richest quality, and well adapted for the cultivation of all kinds of grain—especially, the production of wheat, for which it has been celebrated for a number of years. The numerous streams that intersect it in every direction, exercises their fertilizing influence upon the soil. There are, also, valuable beds of Gypsum, or Plaster of Paris, found at the town of Paris, which is extensively used throughout the country as a fertilizer, and has been a source of considerable revenue to the County. The farms throughout Brant are in the highest state of cultivation, and the farm houses evince a degree of taste and wealth seldom seen in other parts of the Province. Very few counties possess such splendid and numerous water-power privileges as Brant. The Grand River and its tributaries furnishing abundant hydraulic power to carry on not only mills and factories of the ordinary kind, but offering inducements to enterprises of more value. No county, from its native richness and the abundant means of communication that it possess for the transportation of goods and produce, presents a better field for the employment of capital. No one taking into consideration the progress it has made heretofore, and the almost inexhaustless resource that can still be made available, but will grant that no other county in the Province is so desirably situated. Minute and interesting information regarding each locality will be found under proper heads throughout this work.

EXTRACTS FROM THE REPORTS OF THE LOCAL SUPERINTENDENTS OF COMMON SCHOOLS.

FROM THE REV. JOHN ARMOUR, BURFORD.—“The only reasons which can be assigned for the non-attendance of a portion of our school population, are indifference of parents, and, in some cases, distance from school. The carelessness of parents is altogether unpardonable, and cannot be too strongly condemned. In regard to religious instruction there are thirteen schools which report attention to the regulations, whilst in nine there is no religious instruction given. The Sunday Schools are, however, numerous in this township, and exert a beneficial influence. The Revised Programme for County Board Examinations is observed, and the questions are all printed. The three sectional libraries in this township have their books all covered, labelled, and numbered, and I understand the regulations are strictly enforced. The influence of these libraries is to raise the intelligence of the surrounding population. The prizes also distributed, in most cases, have a marked influence in fixing attention to study and making progress in scholarship, besides having a good effect on the good order and moral feeling of the children."

FROM THE REV. C. C. JOHNSON, ONONDAGA.—"As to the question with regard to County Board Examinations, whether it is the "Revised Programme" which is adopted, I cannot say, but the questions are printed. It is hard to state the exact influence which the libraries have in the localities where they are established, but we should hope a good one. The school organizations in Onondaga are of comparatively recent formation, but the inhabitants generally seem alive to the necessity and value of a liberal education. As an instance of this, I might remark that in the most backward and newly settled sections, the inhabitants, almost unanimously, at their last annual meeting, passed a resolution that the school-house they were about to erect be of brick. This is a step in advance, as their present one is of the rudest logs. And I have found that the desire of many of the rate-payers is rather to increase the teachers' salaries than to reduce them. This I consider also a favorable symptom. The movement is in the right direction. In connection with his other more pressing duties, time will not permit the Superintendent to take that pains and proper supervision he might otherwise feel desirous of doing. I cannot therefore speak minutely of libraries, &c., which the time, and the small remuneration, £5, would not warrant me in bestowing."

EDUCATIONAL.

In the very important matter of education, great progress has been effected in the county of Brant, and she has now the advantages of a liberal and permanent provision for the general and thorough education of her rising population, fully enjoying the privileges and benefits conferred by the excellent School Act for Upper Canada (13th and 14th Vic., Cap. 43, 1850). The reports of the Local Superintendents of Schools for the County, in general indicate a growing interest in the subject of education, and a steady progress in the different Sections and Townships, that is highly satisfactory. Each Township is divided into School Sections of a suitable extent for one School; and in each of these Sections three Trustees are elected to manage its School affairs. Each School and Municipal Corporation desirous of establishing Free Public Libraries, is aided by the Educational Department granting 100 per cent. on local appropriations, and supplying books from the Depository in connexion with the Department.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS.—Each of these Schools (which form the intermediate link between the Common Schools and the Universities) is managed by a Board of Trustees appointed by the County Council. There is one Grammar School in each County Town, which receives at least $400 per annum from the government, and where the funds will admit of it, others may be established in different parts of the County.

There are four Grammar Schools in the County—one in Brantford, Paris, Scotland and Mount Pleasant. Altogether, an excellent and well-organized system of Schools and Churches has been planted amongst the settlers, and such as had been the blessing of their earlier days, and the pride of their fathers.—The following is a report of the School Statistics of the County :

COMMON SCHOOLS—RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURE OF COMMON SCHOOL MONEYS FOR THE YEAR 1863.

RECEIPTS.

1. The amount appropriated and paid by the Department of Public Instruction from the Legislative Grant, for salaries of teachers, for 1864, was, in the County, $2470.00; in the town of Brantford, $653.00; for Paris, $270.00.

2. The amount apportioned and paid for the purchase of maps, apparatus, prizes and libraries, being in proportion and equal to the amount expended from local sources was, for the County, $103.18; in the town of Brantford, $40.00.

3. The law requires that each municipality shall provide a sum by assessment at least equal to the Legislative Grant, but each municipality can provide as large an additional sum as it may think proper for school purposes. The amount provided by municipal assessment was, for the County, $2508.00; in the town of Brantford, $5580.00; Paris, $1692.00.

4. As the council in the municipality, so the trustees in a school section, have authority to provide money for the support of their school or schools, by assessment, and also by fees on pupils, unless the rate-payers decide in favor of a free school. The amount of assessment levied by trustees in addition to the levy by the municipal councils was $13004.83 for the county; for the town of Brantford, $189.96; Paris, $22.82.

5. Rate-bill fees on pupils are only imposed where the schools are not free. The amount of rate-bills imposed was $1793.65 for the county; for the town of Brantford, $327.61; Paris, $30.00.

6. The amount received by trustees from the Clergy Reserve Fund and other sources, and appropriated for the County was $2817.28; for the town of Brantford, $449.56; Paris, $116.00.

7. The amount available in 1863, from the balances of 1862 was, for the County, $1473.00; for the town of Brantford, $223.27; Paris, $36.53.

8. The total receipts for common school purposes for the year 1862, in the County were $23947.58; in the town of Brantford, $7536.90; Paris, $2237.35.

EXPENDITURE.

9. The amount paid for the salaries of teachers was, in the county, $17979.32; town of Brantford, $4985.24; Paris, $1598.32.

10. The amount expended in the purchase of maps, apparatus, prize books, and libraries was, for the county, $170.67; town of Brantford, $124.00; Paris, $6.00.

11. The amount expended for school-books, stationery, fuel, and other expenses was, for the county, $1836.15; town of Brantford, $1558.26.

12. The amount expended for the purchase of school-sites, and the erection of school-houses was, for the county, $1527 32.

13. The amount paid for the rents and repairs of school-houses was, for the County, $426 05; town of Brantford, $862 28; Paris, $236,99.

14. Unexpended balances of the preceding years were, for the County, $3957 62; town of Brantford, $7 12; Paris, $16 54. These balances are rather apparent than real; arising from the fact that many of the Municipal Councils and Trustees do not, until after the close of the civil year, collect the sums necessary to pay the expenses of such year.

15. The total expenditure in behalf of the common schools was, in the County, $22008 12; Brantford, $7529 78; Paris, $2191 01.

SCHOOL POPULATION—PUPILS ATTENDING COMMON SCHOOLS.

An act still unrepealed, requires the legal returns of school population to include only school children, between the ages of 5 and 16 years: but the law secures to all persons from 5 to 21 years of age, the right of attending the schools, as long as their conduct conforms to its rules and discipline.

1. The school population (including only the children between 5 and 16 years of age) was, in the County 5542; in the town of Brantford, 2000; Paris, 665.

2. The number of pupils attending the schools, from 5 to 16 years of age was, in the County, 4791; Brantford, 1716; Paris, 622. The pupils of other ages, attending the schools, was, in the County, 350; Brantford, 35. The whole number of pupils attending school was, in the County, 5141; Brantford, 1751; Paris, 622.

3. The number of boys in the schools was, in the County, 2741; Brantford, 918; Paris, 322. The number of girls in the schools, was, in the County, 2400; Brantford, 833; Paris, 300. The number returned as indigent children, was, in the County, 91; Brantford and Paris, none.

4. The same table shews the periods of attendance of pupils at schools, and the subjects of their studies, from which it is seen, that the average attendance, was, in the County, 2436; Brantford, 928; Paris, 264. The number of children in the County not attending any school whatever was, 336. The different branches of instruction taught, are, reading, arithmetic, grammar, general and Canadian geography, history, writing, book-keeping, mensuration, algebra, geometry, natural philosophy, vocal music, linear drawing, needle-work, and other studies.

The various text books used and read in the school are Lennie's English Grammar, Edinburgh Academy Latin Grammar, with other Latin text books; Arnold's and Anthon's Greek Grammars, and Xenophon's Reading Book, French Grammar and Reading Book: in arithmetic, Irish national, and Sangster's national, with Algebra; Euclid, geography and history, text and reading books.

APPEALS TO THE CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION.—All parties concerned in the operations of the Grammar and Common School Law, have the right of appeal to the Chief Superintendent of Education, and he is authorized to decide such questions as are not otherwise provided for by law. But, for the ends of justice, to prevent delay and save expense, it will be necessary for any party thus appealing: 1st, to furnish the party against whom they may appeal with a correct copy of their communication to the Chief Superintendent, in order that such party may have an opportunity of transmitting any explanation or answer deemed expedient. 2nd, to state expressly, in the appeal, that the opposite party has been thus notified; as it must not be supposed that the Chief Superintendent will decide, or form an opinion on any point affecting different parties, without hearing both sides—whatever delay may at any time be occasioned in order to secure such hearing. Application for advice in Common School matters should, in all cases, be first made to the Local Superintendent having jurisdiction in the Municipality.

TOWNSHIPS,

(In 1846.)

Below we give the number of acres of land taken up, and under cultivation, with the population, and the value of rateable property in 1846, which, compared with 1861, is sufficient to show that the County of Brant has made such progress as must be at once gratifying to its early settlers and brave pioneers, and encouraging to those who may purpose making it their future home.

COUNTY AND JUDICIAL INFORMATION.

JUDICIARY OF THE COUNTY OF BRANT.

COUNTY COURT.—This Court is presided over by a resident Judge in every County. Their jurisdiction extends to all personal actions, where the debt or damage claimed do not exceed $200, and to all suits relating to debt, covenant, or contract, where the amount is ascertained by the acts of the parties, or signature of the defendant, to $400; and to all bail bonds and recognizances of bail given in the County Court to any amount, but not to cases involving the title to lands, validity of wills, or actions for libel and slander, crim. con., or seduction. An appeal lies to either of the Superior Courts of Law. These Courts also possess equity powers, to the amount of $200, subject to an appeal to the Court of Chancery. Officers of Court—Judge, Stephen James Jones; Clerk, John Harvey Goodson.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—For the trial of issue of fact and the assessment of damages, on the second Tuesday in March, June, September, and December in each year. Officers—Stephen James Jones, Chairman; John Cameron, Clerk.

SURROGATE COURT.—The jurisdiction of these Courts relate to all testamentary matters and causes, and to the granting or revoking of probate of wills and letters of administration of the effects of deceased persons having estate or effects in Upper Canada, and all matters arising out of or connected with the grant or revocation of probate or administration, subject to an appeal to the Court of Chancery. The County Judges are also Judges of the Surrogate Court. Judge, Stephen James Jones; Registrar, William H. H. Burns.

LAW CIRCUITS.—The County of Brant belongs to the Oxford Circuit.

DIVISION COURTS.—For the summary disposal of cases by the Judge; but a jury of five persons may be demanded in certain cases. Their jurisdiction extends to actions of debt or contract amounting to £100; injuries or torts to personal chattels amounting to £40; but actions for gambling debts, liquors, etc., or any toll, custom or franchise, will or settlement, malicious prosecution, libel, slander, crim. con., seduction, or breach of promise, or actions against a J. P., for anything done by him in the execution of his office, if he objects to it. Courts are held once in two months in each Division, or oftener, at the discretion of the Judge. The divisions are established by the courts of Quarter Sessions. Stephen James Jones, Judge.

OTHER JUDICIAL OFFICERS.—Sheriff, John Smith; Registrar, Thomas S. Shenstone; Clerk of the Peace, John Cameron; County Attorney, George Robinson VanNorman; Deputy Clerk of the Crown and Pleas, John H. Goodson.

TOWNSHIP OF BURFORD.

The township of Burford is situated in the north-west part of the County. It is bounded on the north by Oxford; on the east by Brantford and Oakland; on the south by Norfolk, and on the west by Oxford. The northern part of the township is principally plains, a description of land easily cultivated and very productive. It is well watered, and the roads are good. The first conveyance of land in this township which was registered, was a mortgage from one Rolph Church to George Forsythe and John Symington, dated November 8, 1798, and recorded November 19, 1800, on lot number three, in the first concession, and lots seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, and twenty in the third concession. The first patent of lands was granted January 9, 1798, being on lot twenty-one, in the twelfth concession, and lot sixteen, in the fourteenth concession, and various other lots. In 1817, the township contained five hundred and fifty inhabitants, four saw-mills, and three grist-mills, and wild land sold for thirteen shillings and threepence per acre. In 1841, it contained a population of over two thousand.

SOUTH DUMFRIES.

This township is bounded on the north by the County of Waterloo; on the south by the township of Brantford; on the east by the County of Wentworth, and on the west by the County of Oxford. There are two good roads in this township, one from Paris to Ayr, and one from Paris to St. George. It is crossed by the Great Western and Grand Trunk Railways. It is watered by the main branch of the Grand River. The settlement of the township commenced in 1816, when the whole number did not exceed thirty-eight. At that time, there was no grist-mill in the township, and only one saw-mill. The population of the whole township (north and south) in 1841, was 6,129. South Dumfries is justly celebrated for its Plaster of Paris, large quantities of which are found in beds on the banks of the river near Paris.

The following table exhibits the state of the township in 1861.

TOWNSHIP OF ONONDAGA.

River lots, numbers forty-five to sixty-two, inclusive, are Reserve lands for the Six Nation Indians.

TOWNSHIP OF TUSCARORA.

This Township comprise 42,000 acres, and forms part of the Indian Reserve. The lands have been surrendered and sold, with the exception of over 50,000 acres, which now formed their Reserves. The money received from the lands sold is invested by Government, which is the Trustee of all the Indian Tribes in Canada. The amount at the credit of the Six Nations is about $800,000, while the monies yet to be paid on lands, together with the value of surrendered lands unsold, will make a total of over one million of dollars. The first payment of interest money by the previous Superintendent, the late Mr. Thorburn, was in 1855, when $27,364 was divided among 2,383 persons, equal to $11½ per head, while this past year $35,678 has been distributed between 2,737, or $13¼ per head; they had thus an increase in nine years of $8,314 of interest, and in population 354. These facts are an evidence of a large addition to the funds, and of their prosperity, as many other Indian bands are on the decrease.

The Mississagua of the New Credit, a small band of Indians, over 200 in number, occupy a part of the lands in Tuscarora and adjoining township of Oneida, in the County of Haldimand. These Indians are separate from, and unconnected with the Six Nations. In this township, the Six Nation Indians have lately erected a council house, a neat and commodious building, at a cost of over $1,000. A number of schools are established, under the care and superintendence of the New England Society and the Wesleyan Methodist Conference, and also several churches and meeting-houses.

For the above, we are indebted to J. T. Gilkison, Esq., Visiting Superintendent and Commissioner of Indian affairs.

DR. WALDREN,

HEAD OFFICE, KING STREET, LONDON, C. W.

TO THE YOUNG MEN OF CANADA.

EVERY one in our day, in glancing at the young men of Canada, with but a few noble exceptions, must know and see that they live a fast life. And no greater evidence of this fact can be adduced than the wasted body, the pale cheek, the wan eye, and the falling away of the system, until death comes to the platform and drags the miserable youth away to a world unseen. To avoid such an untimely end should be the earnest desire of our youths, and the aim and study of the philanthropic physician, and to this end Dr. Waldren calls upon all those who are afflicted to be wise in time, to come and get cured and give up forever the unhalloved practice of self-abuse. It is a crime which heaven visits with its direst displeasure. On earth its fruits are visible in the mental and physical debilitation; it is the ruthless destroyer of youth and manhood. It is an infatigating pollution for a moment's guilty pleasure—if persisted in finally destroys judgment and perception, and fall premature victims to their own base desires and habits. Dr. Waldren, therefore, with kindness and pity, asks the afflicted youth of Canada to pay him a visit. He is intimate with every disease incidental to young men, having made it his special study for years, and the many cases which come under his immediate care, give him a plenitude of power over every description of disease. What will be done with our young men who are budding into manhood, and who, undoubtedly, hardly believe they are injuring themselves at all by this filthy and disgusting habit. Nor do many of them know the misery of their children, until their eyes refuse to perform their office, for in fact they become partially blind, the mental powers become completely exhausted, the gaze is idiotic, the mind wanders, and if the conversation commences to dwell on any topic, he soon forgets what he is debating upon, exhibiting the mental powers a perfect wreck, and finally, wretchedly and miserably the poor victim becomes the recipient of the asylum, and Dr. Workman, of Toronto receives him, or some other medical man who has charge of those who have had reason forsake her God-like throne. Are these facts or fictions, youth? Dr. Waldren will leave yourselves to answer. You know they are solemn truths, and as such must not be lightly tampered with. On the contrary, he asks those whom he addresses to abstain from the particular form of vice. And if, in the hands of the common destroyer, a visit to the great medical botanist of the age will suffice, and after cure the subscriber hopes that never again will the patient abuse himself, insult the divine majesty by so great a sin, and body and soul by that cursed crime which was punished by the Most high by a signal and merited judgment from Heaven.

☞ All letters addressed to the head office, will be promptly attended to.

BRANTFORD.

Brantford is the county town and judicial seat of the county of Brant. It is advantageously situated on the Buffalo and Lake Huron railway, of which it is the most important station, and at the head of navigation on the Grand River. It enjoys direct communication with Lake Ontario and New York city, by canals. It is distant 76 miles west of Buffalo; 25 miles south-west of Hamilton; 25 miles north-east of Simcoe; 26 miles south-east of Woodstock; and 81 miles from Goderich, the terminus of the Buffalo and Lake Huron railway to the west.

Brantford was laid out and surveyed in the year one thousand, eight hundred and thirty, by Lewis Burwell, Esq., and receives its name from the celebrated Indian Chief and warrior, Captain Joseph Brant. The site of the town was surrendered by the Indians to the Crown on the 19th of April, 1830. The surrender was prepared by L. Burwell, Esq., on a form furnished by the Attorney-General. This document is witnessed by James Racey, William Holme, L. Burwell, and John Norton, Esquires, and John Brant, Superintendent of the Six Nations Indians. Immediately after this surrender, the settlement of the town was proceeded with, the lots being sold by auction to actual settlers, at an upset price of ten pounds per lot, and as much more as the purchasers saw fit to bid. In the year 1824 there were a few settlers on the site of the town, stores being kept by John A. Wilkes, S. V. R. Douglas, and Nathan Gage; shoe shops by William D. Dutton and A. Huntington. Henry True Page and Marshal Lewis erected the first saw and grist mill. These mills passed into the possession of Jedediah Jackson in 1830, who was the first person who paid money for wheat, the usual system of "trade" as in vogue in all new countries having prevailed up to that time. About this time there was a tannery owned by Rufus Houghton, and two hotels, owned by John Lovejoy and W. D. Dutton respectively. The first saddlery was started by Duncan McKay, who is still in business. The first carriage shop was started in 1834 by John M. Tupper; the first distillery was built by John A. Wilkes in 1830, and the second some time afterward by William Kerby; the first brewery in 1832 by William Spencer, which is now carried on by Spencer & Son. The first foundry was built by P. C. Van Brocklin, which, after passing through several hands, was changed into a machine shop for the manufacture of steam engines and machinery of every description, carried on at present by Waterous & Co. (lately the firm of Ganson, Waterous & Co.)

The second grist mills were built by John A. Wilkes and William Kerby; the one built by the latter, is still in operation. About this time, a bridge being greatly needed across the river, one was built by private subscription, where the new bridge now stands. The new bridge is a substantial structure and cost several thousand dollars. The Grand River navigation canal added materially to the early prosperity of Brantford. The company was chartered by act of Parliament in the reign of William IV. The capital stock of the company was fifty thousand pounds, most of which was held by the Indians, and this mode of investing their money was bitterly complained of by them. The canal was commenced in 1840, and was laid out by John Jackson the company's surveyor, assisted by Lewis Burwell, Esq. The object of the canal was to overcome the obstruction offered to navigation by the falls on the Grand river below the town. Its length is about three miles, and it is capable of admitting and allowing vessels drawing three and a half feet water, to reach the town. The fall in the river between the town and termination of the canal is about twenty-five feet, which has been overcome by means of three locks. We have no means of ascertaining the cost of the canal as the secretary and engineer of the company is dead. After the completion of the canal the town progressed rapidly. A planing mill was built by Mellish & Russell, which was subsequently destroyed by fire, but rebuilt last year by James Tutt. The first chair factory was carried on by John Kipp. The first cabinet factory by a young American whose name we could not learn, but who was so unfortunate as to have his property destroyed by fire in 1831.

The first newspaper, the Brantford "Sentinel," was commenced in 1834 by Mr. Keeler. In the year 1837 it passed into the possession of Henry Lemmon, Esq., who changed its name to the Brantford "Courier," of which he has from that time to the present, been the editor and proprietor.

The "Conservative Expositor," was next started by Henry Racey, Esq. It was subsequently purchased by C. E. Stewart, Esq., who changed its name to that of the "Brant Expositor."

Another newspaper was started in 1840 by W. Johnston Esq., called the Brant County, "Herald," it was published weekly and semi-weekly. In 1855 it was purchased by Pigot & Nicholson who carried it on for some time as a weekly, semi-weekly and daily. Notwithstanding the prosperous state of the town, the establishing of a daily press was found to have been premature, and the enterprise had to be abandoned, as also the publication of the weekly and semi-weekly "Herald."

The early establishment of these enterprises speaks much for the rapid advancement made by Brantford after its settlement.

Before the erection of churches in Brantford, the inhabitants attended the Mohawk church, (the oldest church in Canada West) situated about two miles south-east of the town, at that time under the pastoral charge of the Rev. Mr. Legger. The Presbyterian and Congregational churches were the first built. In 1836 a Wesleyan Methodist church was erected. The Baptist, Episcopal Roman Catholic, Primitive Methodist, Free Church, and Old Kirk of Scotland churches were erected after that period. Some of these have since been removed and more commodious and elegant edifices have been erected in their places, whose imposing and fine appearance adds much to the beauty of the town.

Brantford is situated in the centre of the township of Brantford, and the surrounding country is the most beautiful that can be found in Canada. A fine view of the town may be obtained from Terrace Hill, immediately north of the station of the Buffalo and Lake Huron railway, as well as from the high lands to the west and east. It is surrounded by the richest agricultural lands, and the finest rural scenery in the Province, its vicinity being noted for its fertility, beauty of landscape, and the villa-like and tasteful style of its farm houses. The town and vicinity of Brantford is exceedingly healthy. Its public buildings all present a fine appearance. Among these may be mentioned the Court House and Gaol, erected of brick in 1852, at a cost of $20,000. An addition has been completed last year at a cost of $12,000, making a total of $32,000. It is well ventilated, and everything which can be done for the unfortunate inmates (of the gaol) is attended to by the governor, G. C. Keachie, Esq., who has held the position for a long time. The Registry office was erected in 1856 at a cost of three thousand dollars. Thomas H. Shenston, Esq. is the Registrar. There is also a commodious market house, two banks and three large churches.

The Victoria Square was reserved by government at the time of laying out the town. It is bounded on the north by Wellington street, on the south by Darling street, on the east by George street, and on the west by Market street; and is in the centre of the town. It is neatly laid out with walks and planted with ornamental shade trees. One of the Sebastopol cannon—taken by the British during the Russian war—is placed in the centre.

Brantford contains a number of fine brick stores, principally situated on Colborne and Market streets. Besides, there are numerous elegant private residences with richly ornamented grounds, evincing the refined taste and wealth of their owners. The finest ones are owned by E. B. Wood, M.P.P., Thomas Botham, Esq., D. Curtis, Esq., Robert Sproule, Esq., and Adolphus B. Bennett, Esq.—in the latter are fountains and a fine fish pond.

The educational advantages possessed by Brantford are ample there being three public schools, one in each ward, having seventeen teachers and an average attendance of 1050 pupils. The central, situated in Brant ward has become united with the grammar school.

There is an excellent Mechanics' Institute and library, containing 1450 volumes; an efficient fire department, consisting of four companies; two volunteer Rifle Corps. One of the rifle companies is at present doing frontier service at Sarnia, under the command of Captain Grant.

The manufactures of Brantford have attained a degree of importance which bids fair to rival our most prosperous cities. It has long been noted for its great and valuable water privileges, which, taken in connection with the rich extent of country that surrounds it, and its access to all the markets of the Province, by rail and water, have induced men of wealth and enterprise to invest their capital and consequently added much to the material and permanent prosperity of the town. Among the most noted of these are its large flouring mills and extensive foundries. With proper legislative encouragement, (a wise protective tariff) we see no reason why its vast and available hydraulic privileges might not be made profitable in the manufacture of cloth, cotton, and other goods that are now largely imported.

A large and profitable business is carried on in buying, selling, and forwarding grain, &c. Its general business comprises numerous stores, wholesale and retail, and workshops of the various branches of industry are established in different parts of the town. No town in the Province offers greater inducements for the establishing of manufactures, and in no place is there a better prospect of remunerative returns—a fact that should not be overlooked by those intending to invest their capital in that way.

With a view to show the extent of the manufactures now in operation, we will notice a few of the most extensive :

THE VICTORIA FOUNDRY extends from Dumfries to William Streets, and fronts on Dalhousie street, and is carried on by William Buck, who manufactures stoves, tin, sheet iron and copper ware, and machines and agricultural implements of all kinds. He employs from 50 to 60 hands, and uses 600 tons of iron annually. His machinery is propelled by an engine of 40 horse-power.

C. H. WATEROUS & Co.'s FOUNDRY is situated on Dalhousie street. They manufacture steam engines, mill gearing, &c. They employ about 40 hands, and turn out 20 engines annually.

BRITANNIA FOUNDRY, carried on by Bradford G. Tisdale, who manufactures extensively stoves agricultural implements &c. He employs about 30 hands.

BUTLER & JACKSON'S Foundry has been lately destroyed by fire. It will be shortly rebuilt.

SASH, DOOR AND BLIND FACTORY, and planing mills situated on Colborne street, and owned by Tutt & Henry. There are 2 planers, 4 saws, 1 Tenant machine, 1 moulding machine, and a turner's lathe in the establishment. The machinery is driven by a 10 horse power engine. It was destroyed by fire in 1863, but has been rebuilt of brick.

THE BRANTFORD PLANING MILL, and Sash, Door and Blind factory, situated on Waterloo street—2 planers, 1 tenancing machine, saws, &c., and is carried on by William Watt.

FLOURING AND GRIST MILLS—There are four excellent flouring and grist mills, two on the Grand river, and two on the canal. The Kerby mills and Hainesdale mills are on the Grand river.

CARRIAGE FACTORIES.—There are four carriage factories—one on Colborne street, carried on by A. Spencer. One on Queen street, carried on by George F. Roy. Wood & Lyons' on the corner of King and Donley streets, and also one on Dalhousie street owned by F. Vanderlip. They all do an extensive business.

THERE are several Bakeries, the principal of which is carried on by Leeming & Patterson, who employ 15 hands, and turn out the value of $40,000 annually.

TANNERIES.—There are three Tanneries, one situated on Dalhousie street, carried on by Michael Ott; one on Mohawk street, owned by Sam. McCulloch, and also one in West Brantford, for the tanning of sheep skins, carried on by Franklin Ott.

FANNING MILL FACTORIES—The are two Fanning mill factories, carried on respectfully by Charlotte & Grey, and Wisney & Wilcox.

POTTERY.—F. P. Goold & Co's., pottery is situated on Dalhousie street.

ONONDAGA.

A village in the township of Onondaga, situated on the banks of the Grand river, lots 40 and 41. Distant from Brantford, eight miles; from Caledonia, eight miles; from Port Dover, thirty-two miles, and from Hamilton, twenty-two miles. It was laid out in 1845, by the Grand River Navigation Company, surveyed by A. Robinson, when lots sold for $50. The post office was established in 1851, W. D. Soules, first postmast, who also opened the first store, in the year 1850. John Merrall kept the first hotel, which he opened out in 1851; in 1850 he built a saw-mill, and started a grist-mill in 1857. The first school was established in 1852, and a Baptist Church was erected in 1857. The village now contains three general stores; one grist-mill; one saw-mill; four hotels; one wagon shop; two shoe shops; two blacksmith shops; three groceries; two schools, taught by Mr. Bishop, built by the late Mr. Kirkwood, in 1852; three churches, namely, Wesleyan Methodist, Episcopal and Baptist. The Episcopal Methodist hold meetings in the Hall. Mails received daily, at four p.m.; dispatched at nine a. m. W. Buckwill, postmaster. The surrounding country is in a fine state of cultivation. The soil is a clayey loam. Population, about six hundred. Principal business—general manufactures and lumbering. The village is within three miles of the Sulphur Springs, in the township of Tuscarora or Indian reserve. The Episcopal Church was built of brick, in 1861, at a cost of $2,250. Wesleyan Methodist Church was built in 1862, of frame, cost $1,000. Baptist Church was built in 1859, of frame also.

A post village in the township of Brantford, situated on the Grand River—Burtch tract. Was laid out in 1857, by T. Smith, and surveyed by O. Robinson, when lots sold from $40 to $100. The Post Office was established in 1855—Thaddeus Smith first postmaster; the first store was opened in 1845, by John Bell; the first hotel by A. Brown in 1822. A church was built in 1857, of frame, and a school was opened in 1847. The village now contains one general store; one saw mill, which, however is not in operation at present; two hotels; two wagon shops; one shoe shop; two blacksmith shops; two groceries; one school, average attendance 55, taught by Narroay since 1864; built of frame. There is but one church, in which the different denominations hold public worship. Mails received Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at 4½, and dispatched at 8 o'clock. Colin Milloy, postmaster. The surrounding country is in a very good state of cultivation; soil a clay loam. The Brantford and Dover gravel road runs through it. Principal business.—In addition to general manufactures pine and oak spars of a very large size are manufactured, and sent to Quebec and Buffalo. There is a steam saw-mill within a mile of the village. A new store has been opened this year, owned by I. Cockshutt, of Brantford.

MOUNT PLEASANT.

A village situated in the township of Brantford, on the road leading from Brantford to Simcoe, about five miles S. S. W. from Brantford Town, on 20 lots, which were laid out by Captain Joseph Brant in 1801, who leased the different lots (containing about two hundred acres) for the period of 99 years, at a barley-corn a year. This was afterwards surrendered to government by the chiefs of the Six Nations, in Council, in the year 1831. The first settlers were Amos Sturges and Henry Ellis. It was surveyed by Mr. Hamlin, when lots sold at from 20 to 40 dollars. The post office was established in 1832—A. Cook, Esq., first postmaster. The first store was opened in 1815, by F. Yeward, Esq. David Burtch opened out the first hotel in 1812. Mr. Thomas was the first blacksmith. The first church, Wesleyan Methodist, was erected in 1832, and the first school house in 1807. The village is pleasantly situated in a fine section of country. It contains a carding and fulling mill, carried on at present by H. Biggar, Esq., in connection with the grist mill. There are three general stores; two hotels; two wagon shops; two shoe shops; one harness shop; one cabinet shop; three blacksmith shops; one physician; one union grammar school, with an average attendance of 75 pupils, taught by W. Briggs since 1863—built in 1860, by David Gaily. The junior department of the school is taught at present by Miss E. Wray. There are three churches—Presbyterian, built of frame in 1841, 30 x 40, at a cost of $700. Rev. William Peattie, pastor.—Sabbath school in connection, with a library of 400 volumes. George Bryce, superintendent and librarian. Grace Church (Episcopal)—built of frame in 1844. Rev. Mr. Clotworthy, pastor. Wesleyan Methodist, built of brick in 1861, 40 x 60, at a cost of $5000, with basement. Rev. John Mills, pastor. Sabbath school in connection, with a library of 400 volumes. Mails received daily at ten p. m., and dispatched at the same time. W. Jones, postmaster. The surrounding country is in a high state of cultivation, and is one of the best wheat growing sections of country in Canada. Population of village 600.

A post village situated on Big Creek, 12th Lot, 14th concession, township of Burford. Distant from Brantford sixteen miles; from Princeton twelve miles; from Paris nineteen miles; from Norwichville eight miles. The village was laid out in 1856, by C. H. Forman—surveyed by E. Malcolm, when lots sold for $40. The post office was established in 1856—John Kelley, postmaster. The first store was opened in 1856, by C. H. Forman; the first hotel by A. Sly, in 1861. John Walker built the first saw mill in 1852. Another was built in 1863 by Eliakim Malcolm jun., who built a steam saw, and shingle-mill in 1861. The village now contains one general store; two saw mills; one hotel; one wagon shop; one shoe shop; one blacksmith shop; one physician; one school with an average attendance of 60 pupils, taught by Amos Bridge since 1864, built in 1845; and one church (Congregational). There are two Wesleyan Methodist churches near the village—one within a mile west, built in 1862; the other to the east of the village about a mile and a quarter, which was built in 1863. Mails received Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at ten a. m., and dispatched at the same time. John Armour, postmaster. There is a gravel road in course of building, called the Princeton and Kelvin gravel road. Seven miles of the road are already completed from Princeton. Principal business, lumbering, and the buying and selling of produce.

PARIS.

An incorporated town, beautifully situated on the Governor's road, in the townships of Brantford and South Dumfries—is the second place in population and importance in the county. It is divided into the upper and lower town, separated by Smith's Creek, which here enters the Grand River. This town was laid out in 1831, by Hiram Capron, Esq., and surveyed by Lewis Burwell, P. L. S., when lots sold for $10. In 1850 it contained a population of about 1,000, and was incorporated as a village. In 1855 it was incorporated as a town. Paris was so named by Hiram Capron, Esq., from its contiguity to beds of gypsum, or plaster of Paris. The first plaster mill was built in 1823, by William Home, Esq. Previous to this, the plaster was pounded by sledge hammers, and then ground in the mills. It now forms the principal business of the town. The post office was established in 1831—John Smith, now Sheriff of the county, was the first postmaster—who also opened out the first store. The first hotel was built in 1831, by John Vanevery. Hiram Capron, Esq. built the first grist-mill, in 1832. The town now contains seven general stores; one grist, and two flouring mills; nine hotels and three saloons; two wagon shops; nine shoe shops; two harness shops; four blacksmith shops; eight groceries; seven physicians; three merchant tailors; three cooper shops; one tobacco factory; one match factory; two potteries; three tin shops; eight churches, and one in course of erection (Lutheran)—two Presbyterian, two Methodist, one Episcopal, one Baptist; one Roman Catholic, one Congregational. There is one school—grammar and common—situated in Queen's ward, Paris and Dundas road, built in 1857, at a cost of $14,200. There are four teachers—J. W. Acres, Principal, salary $800; W. W. Anderson, 2nd, salary $500; Miss Bullock, salary $230; and Miss Qua, salary $230. Also the South Ward school meets in the Union school at present, which is taught by Miss Forsyth, salary $230. Kings Ward school, taught by Miss French, salary $230. There is an agency of the Gore Bank—James Nimmo, manager; Norman Totten, clerk. The Great Western Railway passes along the northern end of the town. The Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway also passes through it. Mails received daily—George Stanton, postmaster. Paris is situated in the centre of one of the most fertile regions in Upper Canada. Soil a sandy loam.

THE PARIS STAR was established in June, 1850, by B. C. Hearle, Esq. From that time up to 1855 it passed through several hands, and was then carried on by Oliver & Powell. The former ceased to have connection with it in 1857, and the latter became the sole proprietor in 1859. Politics, Reform.

The Paris Town Hall was built of brick, in 1853—cost about $12,000.—Architect, John Maxwell. Situated in Queen's Ward, Upper Town—surrounded by Dumfries, Church, and Burwell streets.

The manufactories now carried on are nearly all in a very healthy state, and if some of them are not now extensive, it is because those engaged in them prefer to extend their operations surely and safely, rather than rapidly. At the head of the manufacturing establishments must be placed the new Paris Mills, belonging to C. Whitlaw Esq. These mills were entirely remodelled and fitted up with new machinery of the latest pattern a year ago. They contain six runs of mill stones, and are capable of turning out 400 bbls of flour in twenty-four hours. 300,000 bushels of wheat of last year's crop have been turned into flour at this establishment. The Paris Mills contain four sets of flouring stones, and are capable of manufacturing 200 bbls of flour a day. The Brick Mill contains two sets of stones, and is chiefly employed in gristing, and in the manufacture of pot barley.

Paris began to be settled as early as 1821, but for many years it remained a mere hamlet. In 1829 Hiram Capron, Esq. purchased one thousand acres of land, including the site of the present town; from that time it progressed slowly till 1850, when the population was about 1000.

Stages leave for Simcoe each afternoon from 2 to 3 p. m., and arrive from Simcoe about 12.30 p. m. Richard Palmer, stage proprietor, and livery stable keeper.

Hamilton's plaster mill, capable of grinding thirty to forty tons a day. Kerr's mill, capable of grinding 30 tons a day. Thompson & Wright.
