We were the first in Canada to reduce the price of these elegant and useful novelties, which have become an indispensable adjunct to every house. We have imported largely of French and English makes, and have a stock which we believe to be one of the most extensive and cheapest in the Province.

We do not give a list of prices, as that conveys but an indifferent idea of the value. We have them to hold 50 cartes, from 50 cents each, with two clasps, bound in imitation morocco.

BOOKS OF THE MONTH,

IMPORTED BY

W. C. CHEWETT & CO.

17 & 19 KING STREET EAST, TORONTO.

EIGHT LECTURES ON SOUND, by JOHN TYNDALL. English Edition, $2.25; American Edition, $2.75.

Professor Tyndall is already well known by his works on Heat, &c., and has obtained a very high standing as a scientific man. This work is described by the Author as an attempt "to render the science of Acoustics interesting to all intelligent persons, including those who do not possess any special scientific culture."

LIVING UNTO GOD: CHAPTERS IN AID OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE. By various Authors, $1.00. Short sketches by popular preachers on religious subjects.

THE CHURCH AND THE WORLD: ESSAYS ON QUESTIONS OF THE DAY. By various writers. Second Series, $4.50.

The first series of these Essays created a great sensation in England, as the outspoken views of the Ritualistic party in the Church of England. They were marked by peculiar energy and earnestness. Some of the same writers contribute to this series.

THE APOCRYPHAL GOSPELS, edited by the Rev. B. H. COWPER. $2.25. A collection of the spurious Gospels afloat in the early ages of the Church.

DONALDSON ON THE ART OF CONSTRUCTING OBLIQUE ARCHES. 90c.

SHORT STUDIES ON GREAT SUBJECTS, by J. A. FROUDE. $2.25.

A series of short papers on subjects principally historical and religious, by the able and accomplished author of the History of England in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

BY THE SEA SHORE, by Madame GASTARIN. $1.00.

These "Reveries of a Traveller" are written in the same beautiful style which secured for the Author's "Near and Heavenly Horizons" so large a sale. Poetry and tenderness are exquisitely combined.

KATHIRINA: A POEM, by J. G. HOLLAND, author of "Bitter Sweet," &c. $1.00.

One of the best of "Timothy Titcomb's" Works, all of which are good.

CHRISTIAN HEROES IN THE ARMY AND NAVY, by the Rev. CHARLES ROGERS. $1.00.

A series of short sketches, thirty-four in number, of the men who, while distinguishing themselves in the service of their country have been earnest Christians, from Admiral Kempenfelt to Private Robert Crawford, including, of course, Vandeleur, Hammond, Vicers, and other well-known names.

THE STORY OF THE CHEVALIER BAYARD—"SPOTLESS AND PEERLESS." Translated by E. WALFORD. 75c.

This is the first volume of a new series, entitled "The Bayard Series," which for beauty of typography, and excellence of getting up has never been surpassed, while the subject matter is very interesting.

SAINT LOUIS, KING OF FRANCE—"A KING, A HERO, AND A MAN." Translated by JAMES HUTTON. 75c.

The second volume of the "Bayard Series," on which the former remarks may be repeated.

THE NILE TRIBUTARIES OF ABYSSINIA, by Sir S. BAKER. 2 vols. $4.00.

Another contribution to the geography of the Nile region, by that great traveller.

THE ROB ROY BOOKS, being: I.—A THOUSAND MILES IN THE ROB ROY CANOE; and II.—THE ROB ROY IN THE BALTIC. By J. MACGREGOR, M.A. $1.25 each.

These charming books, the former of which has reached a "fifth," and the latter a "second" edition, we now offer, by large purchases, at a lower rate than before.

THE HUMAN ELEMENT IN THE INSPIRATION OF THE SACRED SCRIPTURES, by J. F. CURTIS, D.D. $1.50.

An earnest and exhaustive book on an important subject.

LOTTA SCHMIDT, AND OTHER STORIES, by ANTHONY TROLLOPE. $2.25.

This collection of short stories will detract nothing from the reputation of the Author of "The Three Clerks," "Last Chronicle of Barset," &c.

THE GLOBE ATLAS OF EUROPE, in Forty-five Maps, with Plans of London and Paris. $2.25.

An exceedingly handy and useful series of maps, issued by Messrs. Macmillan.

THE ROMANCE OF CHARITY, by JOHN DE LIEFDE. $1.25.

An account of the various noble institutions which exist on the continent of Europe. This work contains the substance of the author's two larger volumes.

CHAMBERS' ETYMOLOGICAL DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. Edited by JAS. McDONALD. $1.25.

ROUTLEDGE'S PRONOUNCING DICTIONARY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. Edited by P. AUSTIN NUTTALL. $1.00.

Two new Dictionaries, both of which possess special features of excellence. As a companion to the writing desk, or for travellers, they are specially valuable; for schools they will certainly displace the older dictionaries.

THE DIAMOND ROSE, by SARAH TYTLER. $1.25.

Those who have read "Papers for Thoughtful Girls," and "Sweet Counsel," will gladly welcome this further contribution from the same pen.

THE VOICE OF THE PRAYER BOOK, by the Rev. NEVISON LORRAINE. $1.25.

A series of Lectures, expository and apologetic, on the Liturgy.

THE STORY OF DOOM, AND OTHER POEMS, by JEAN INGELOW. $1.25.

The London Morning Star calls Miss Ingelow "the Lady Laureate," and the New York Independent speaks of her as "first among the women whom the world calls poets."

NEW POEMS, by MATTHEW ARNOLD. $1.50.

Matthew Arnold takes high rank among the philosophical poets of the day.

CHRISTIAN LYRICS, chiefly selected from modern authors, with upwards of one hundred engravings. $2.75.

A very choice presentation book. The illustrations are of the first style of wood engraving, many of them rival copper in the delicacy of their finish. The binding is very chaste and artistic.

SNOW BOUND: A WINTER IDYL. By JOHN GREENLEAF WHITTIER. Illustrated. $3.50.

An edition, de luxe, of Whittier's latest poem. It is a sumptuous copy.

TENNYSON'S POEMS. Red Line Edition. $3.00.

Another edition, being the ninth of the complete works of Tennyson issued by Messrs. Ticknor & Fields, while we scarcely think that one complete edition has been issued by his London publishers. This speaks well for the appreciation of the Poet Laureate on this continent. This is the choicest edition yet.

LUCILE, by OWEN MEREDITH. With Twenty-four Illustrations by GEORGE DU MAURIER. $4.50.

A presentation edition of Robert Lytton's remarkable poem.

DICKENS' WORKS. Charles Dickens' "own" edition. DOMBEY & SON. $1.00.

This new edition of Dickens, under his own sanction, is very cheap and readable, with the additional attraction of having many of the original illustrations in each volume. The other volumes published are
