

Unveiling of Memorial to
Our Gallant Dead
1914-1918

Thursday, November 15th, 1923
at 5.30 p.m.

Blow out, you bugles, over the rich Dead!
There's none of these so lonely and poor of old,

But, dying, has made us rarer gifts than gold.
These laid the world away; poured out the red,
Sweet wine of youth; gave up the years to be
Of work and joy, and that un hoped serene,
That men call age; and those who would have been
Their sons, they gave their immortality.

Blow, bugles, blow! They brought us, for our dearth,

Holiness, lacked so long, and Love and Pain.
Honour has come back, as a king, to earth,
And paid his subjects with a royal wage;
And Nobleness walks in our ways again;
And we have come into our heritage.

Order of Service

1. National Anthem

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

2. Hymn - - - - - "O God, Our Help in Ages Past"

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy
blast,
And our eternal home. | 3 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day. |
| 2 Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure. | 4 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. Amen. |

7. Hymn - - - - - "Abide with Me"

Abide with me, fast falls the even-tide; The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide! When other helpers fail, and com- forts flee, Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.	I need thy presence every passing hour; What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power? Who like thyself my guide and stay can be? Through cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me!
