

TO A FRIEND

Whate'er my lot
on earth may be,—My friend I must remember thee—And know that thou the same will feel—In my prosperity and weal—
We met as friends as friends parted—From both our eyes the tear
drop started—But
angel hope doth
ease our pain, And
whisper "We shall meet
again."

