

TORONTO COLLEGE

FORWARD CANADA

Melody by A. ADAM

Arranged by RUBY E. DUNN

Words by Hector H. Demers

Toronto, Canada

(25)

Dedicated to THE CANADIAN VOLUNTEERS
1914

Published by HECTOR H. DEMERS,

389 YONGE ST.

TORONTO, CAN.

Copyright, Canada, MCMXIV, by H. H. Demers.

846319

Words by Hector H. Demers

ANDANTE MAESTOSO

Melody by A. Adam

Arranged by Ruby E. Dunn

VOICE

The day has come our Motherland is call - ing, She is in When du - ty called not one of us was mis - sing. We all en-

PIANO

mf

need of de fen - ders a - broad. Our boys are here, they heard the bu - gle's rolled for the right - e - ous cause. Our deeds did speak, and God gave us his war - ning. They're all rea - dy, aye ready for the fray. Mo - bles - sing, And helped us all, with courage and with faith. Fa - ther, sweet - heart, wife or child, dry your tears. 'Tis a strong heart that ther, hus - band, son or brother, a - wake Now or ne - ver, to-mor-

pp

VIVACE MARZIALE

we need for to-day.
row may be too late.

For - ward Ca - na - da we have al - ways done our share.

For - ward boys forward for God and for the King,

Forward forward for the Red, White and Blue.

mf

cresc.

f

ff

2°