PREFACE.

In presenting the business men of Woodstock with the first Directory of the Town of Woodstock we feel assured that such a Directory is greatly needed here, and it is to supply this need that the work has been compiled.

The work of compiling was done entirely by D. M. Perry, Esq., Town Assessor, and the Directory will be found as complete and accurate as possible.

WOODSTOCK.

The Town of Woodstock, the County Seat of the County of Oxford, is one of the most prosperous among the towns or small cities in Ontario, and, indeed, in the Dominion. For some years past it has been growing steadily, but during the last two or three years has increased by leaps and bounds.

Regarding the early history of Woodstock we quote the following from "The Oxford Gazeteer," published by Thomas S. Shenston in the year 1852 :

" The town of Woodstock was erected under the authority of the 12th Victoria, chap. 81, sec. 55, by Proclamation, bearing date 27th September, 1850, to take force and effect on the following 1st day of January. Its limits are defined as follows :

" ' Commencing on the northerly limit of Dundas street, at a point where a post has been planted at the south-west angle of Lot, No. 18, in the first concession of the township of Blandford; thence in a northerly direction along the Western boundary of the said lot, to the allowance for road between the first and second concession of the said township of Blandford; thence continuing the same course to the northerly limit of the said road allowance; thence westerly along the said northern limit, to the river Thames; thence in continuation of the last mentioned course, across the said river to the waters edge on the westerly bank thereof, to a point opposite the southerly bank of Cedar Creek; thence along the waters edge of Cedar Creek on the southern side thereof to the eastern limit of the allowance for road between Lot No. 21, in the 1st concession of the Township of East Oxford and the Gore between East and West Oxford; thence southerly, along the said eastern limit to the southern limit of the allowance for road between the first and second concessions of the said township of East Oxford; thence easterly along the said southern limit, to a point opposite to the centre of Lot No. 18, in the first concession of the said township; thence on a line equi-distant from the eastern and western side lines of the said Lot No. 18, on a course about north 15° 40 m. west to Dundas street; thence continuing the same course to the northern limit of Dundas street; and thence westerly along the northern limit of Dundas street to the place of beginning.'

"The town of Woodstock was long called the "Town Plot." How it came by that name we have not been able to find out by any official document. We clip the following from the Woodstock Herald of January 11, 1844 :

" ' Twelve years ago the present site of Woodstock was, with the exception of two or three houses, a wilderness, and two years later than that there was no village, and within the present limits there was but one ill supplied tavern, and one small store similarly circumstanced. It was the western part of the town that was originally laid out as the "Town Plot," by Governor Simcoe,* many years ago; but Captain Drew having laid out his property at what now constitutes the east end, in village lots, and built the Episcopal Church, the village began to grow in that quarter first. At this time, the County of Oxford, now constituting the Brock District, formed part of the London District. The "Town Plot," however, in course of time also commenced growing, and in 1835 or 1836 an application to Parliament to set off the County as a separate District was made. Two years ago the limits of the town were extended, and they now comprehend both ends, east and west, which are rapidly joining each other.'

"It was partly surveyed by Mr. Reinham, in the year 1833. The "Park Lots, by Peter Carroll, Esq., in 1834, and by Mr. O. Bartley in 1844.

"Up to 1845 the limits of Woodstock embraced only that portion of what is now the town, which lies north of Dundas street and west of Riddell st.—the street upon which Mr. Scarff's shops are built.

"The town was first defined by Act of Parliament in 1845, (4th and 5th Victoria, chap. 70,) by which the limits were defined precisely as they are now, with the exception of the southern half of the eastern boundary.

" At a public meeting held at the " Royal Pavilion" Hotel, on Saturday, July 6, 1850. It was, on motion of Mr. Shenston, resolved to add the west half of Lot No. 18, in the 1st Concession of East Oxford to the town, and Messrs. Finkle, Shenston, Brown, Douglas, Whitehead, Grey and Beattie were appointed a committee to draft a petition in accordance with such resolution.

" In 1812, Lot No. 18, 1st Con., East Oxford, (the west half of which forms a part of Woodstock) was owned and occupied by Mr. Zacharias Burcht†, of which 30 acres were cleared and upon which a log house was erected about twelve years previous—the first one built in the neighborhood of Woodstock. Mr. Burcht and sons cleared the lot themselves.

" The Clerk of the Peace for some reason, always made a separate roll for what he called the 'Town of Woodstock' which embraced only the North of Dundas Street. The census of 1848, taken under him, was taken in the same manner, consequently in that year Woodstock was represented with a population of only 994, and each official report since issued by the Government, gives the same number.

" In May 1844 the late Mr. George Menzies, editor of the late Woodstock Herald, took the census of the town for the satisfaction of the readers of his paper, by which the population was 950, and the number of houses 160. In Nov. 1845 the same gentleman made another return, in which the population was, males 570, females 515. Total 1,085. And the number of houses 200. And adds 'we may here observe that when we took the census before there were a number of people boarding in town then, engaged on the Macadamized Road, since finished, who do not live here at all. When we saw Woodstock first, about ten years ago, it was a very paltry village indeed—or rather a few straggling houses at very unsociable intervals.'

" By the last census return the population was, males 1103, females 1009. Total 2,112. Married 664, Single 1279, Widows 44, Widowers 27. Births during the year, males 52, females 36. Total 88. Deaths during the year, males 18, females 20. Total 38; of these 27 were from diarrhoea which prevailed to an unusual extent in 1851. The number of houses were, framed 240, brick 47, vacant 8, in course of erection 6. Total 301.

"The first brick house built in Woodstock was the one situated immediately west of the Rectory in East Woodstock, the bricks of which were made by Mr. Joseph Clark of East Oxford. It was built in 1836. The second brick house was erected in the following year by Mr. George Elliott, being the house situated immediately opposite to Mr. W. C. McLeod's new brick block. Mr. Leighton was the contractor, and Mr. Joseph Peers made the brick. To William Grey, Esq., is due the great credit of erecting the first three-storey brick house, which was the large and commodious Hotel called the 'Royal Pavilion,' situated in front of the Court House, West Woodstock. It was built in 1844, at a cost of £500. Mr. Grey having 'broken the ice' and shewn that large brick houses could be built in Woodstock, others soon followed his example. In 1846 the late Messrs. Love and Robinson erected the four splendid houses known as the 'Victoria Buildings,' at a cost of about £2,800, and John McF. Wilson, Esq., the 'Albert House,' at a cost of about £1,600, both in East Woodstock. In 1847, T. S. Shenston and Archibald Burtch, Esqrs., erected the 'Elgin Buildings' at a cost of about £2,400, and Mr. Henry Vansittart the house now occupied by Mr. Andrew Smith, both in East Woodstock. In 1848 Mr. W. C. McLeod's block of two splendid buildings was erected at a cost of about £1,600, and Messrs. Finkle's block of four at a cost of about £2,000. In 1849 Mr. Thomas Scott, Mr. Elijah Hill and Mr. Robert Clark each erected fine three-story fire-proof houses at an average cost of about £650 each.

"The front 'five acres' was granted to trustees (viz. Bishop of Quebec, Capt. Drew and Maj. Barwick) on the 23rd May 1833, for a Church, Church-yard and burying-ground, for which a patent, issued 23rd June 1834. It is entirely distinct from the Rectory Endowment grants made under an Order of Council on January 15th, 1836, nor has it ever been surrendered as has been often reported.

"The second '5 acres' is for a Court House and Gaol, and Yards connected therewith, the principal object we believe in giving so large a piece was to prevent any buildings being erected near the gaol.

"The third '5 acres' was granted to the late District Council of the District of Brock for the purpose of 'holding free fairs according to law.' Through the exertions of the present President of the Agricultural Society of the County of Oxford a good fence has this year been put around the whole at an expense of £40, of which sum the County Council contributed (by a majority of one) £20, and the Woodstock Town Council £20.

"The last agricultural show was held upon the ground, and on the 19th of October of this present year the first 'free fair' was held there, which proved to be a most satisfactory and numerous gathering of both buyers and sellers. The Progress of the 21st Oct. says:—'Altogether, the Fair, for a beginning, has been quite as successful as could have been expected, and the farmers in our neighborhood have reason to congratulate themselves upon the establishment amongst them of an institution calculated to be of such permanent benefit to them.'

'Woodstock Post Office was established October 7th, 1835. T. S. Short was the first post master, and the office was first kept in the old framed store opposite the 'Victoria Buildings.' Mail three times a week till some time in 1844, since which period there has been a daily, or rather, as the Woodstock Herald of the time said, a 'nightly mail.' On Oct. 6th, 1840, H. C. Barwick, Esq., our present accommodating post master, was appointed, who kept the office, until last year, in a small house on the east side of Huron Street.

'The Woodstock Herald was the first paper published in the County of Oxford. It was printed and published by Messrs. Menzies† and Walker, and edited by the former. The first number was printed on the 3rd of June, 1840, and the last on the 1st day of January, 1848.

TOWN COUNCIL.

"The first municipal election for the Town of Woodstock was held at the Royal Pavilion Hotel, West Woodstock, on Monday and Tuesday, the 6th and 7th days of January, 1851. T. S. Shenston was returning officer, appointed such by the Governor-General, in accordance with the 12th Victoria chapter 81, section 55. The councillors elected were Hugh Richardson, (94 votes) William Wilson, tanner (99 votes), Alexander Green (92 votes), Valentine Hall (98 votes) and Andrew Smith (90 votes).

Inspectors—Arch. J. Thompson (120 votes), Thos. Phelan (99 votes), and Joseph Sudsworth (94 votes). Poll clerk, James Egan. At the first meeting of the council, Hugh Richardson was elected reeve; James Kintrea, clerk; and Thos. Scott, treasurer.

"The second municipal election was held at the same place, on Monday and Tuesday, the 5th and 6th January, 1852. Francis Ball, Esq., by virtue of his office as town clerk, was returning officer. The councillors elected were:—Henry Finkle (156 votes), Thomas Cottle (139 votes), John Sutherland (168 votes), James Kintrea (142 votes), and William Grey (169 votes) Valentine Phelan, poll clerk.

Inspectors—William McKay (94 votes), Joseph Sudsworth (178 votes) and Thomas Fraser (99 votes).

At the first meeting of the council, Henry Finkle was appointed reeve, and clerk, John Greig."

The town has continued to grow, and now covers an area four or five times as large as the original survey. This growth is largely owing to the development of the agricultural resources of the county and surrounding district. Centrally located in the prosperous and wealthy county of Oxford it was to be expected that the growth of Woodstock, if not rapid, would be certain.

The addition in 1887 to the corporation of what was formerly known as the Gore of West Oxford was an important move, and one which increased the population by probably 700.

Woodstock enjoys exceptional railway facilities, being situated on the line of the Great Western Division of the Grand Trunk Railway; the Georgian Bay and Lake Erie Division; the Credit Valley and the West Ontario Pacific Branches of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

A number of important manufactories are located here, and more are likely to be established before long. As a manufacturing centre Woodstock offers exceptional facilities, freight rates being lower than at most other points, while the town is provided with an efficient system of waterworks. The streets are lighted by electric light, and the stores and many private residences by gas and electric light.

Educational interests have not been neglected in Woodstock. The seat of the Canadian Literary Institute—later Woodstock College—founded by the late R. A. Fyfe, D. D., whose memory is dear to the heart of every Baptist in Ontario, has become better known in educational matters than any city or town west of Toronto. The Collegiate Institute is one of the best in the Province, as an examination of the Educational Reports will clearly show ; while the Public Schools are in charge of an efficient staff of competent teachers.

The principal religious bodies have costly edifices for religious worship. The churches are : two Presbyterian, two Methodist, two Episcopal, one Baptist, one Roman Catholic and one Congregational, while the Salvation Army have commodious barracks.

Visitors to Woodstock invariably remark the beauty of the town. It is situated on one of the highest points in Ontario, the streets and avenues are wide, and the greater number of them are planted with rows of beautiful shade trees, and in many places are lined with a handsome boulevard. It would be difficult indeed to find a prettier town any place than Woodstock.

From a sanitary point Woodstock occupies an enviable position. No more healthy location could be imagined.

The population according to the assessor's return for the year 1888 is about 8,500, and the assessment $5,286,605.
