This edition of the West Riding of the County of Northumberland and County of Durham is here presented to the public, with that degree of diffidence which a profound anxiety with regard to its thoroughness, accuracy and general utility would naturally occasion in the mind of the compiler, and yet with the proud consciousness that every effort which experience could suggest, or patient labor accomplish has been made to insure its fullest efficiency. The compiler has spared no pains to make this work reliable, even in the most trifling details. It is hoped, therefore, that the general arrangement will be highly useful in referring to the various departments.

Many new and original features will be found to characterize the work throughout that need not be enumerated here, the information has been chiefly obtained from official sources and can therefore be relied on as being correct. The merchant, manufacturer, and others will find it invaluable as a reference for his customers, post office address, in mailing letters, accounts or circulars, as well as a guide in giving credit.

It is not to be expected that a work of this character, embracing so many particulars, gathered from so many sources, can be entirely free from errors, perfection so difficult of attainment in every department of industry, is especially so in a compilation of this description. But, for such errors as may be found within these pages, the kind indulgence of the public is solicited, in view of the general reliability and correctness of the work.

The compiler desires to present his graceful acknowledgments to the press, county, town, township officials and others, who have so kindly and promptly furnished him with much useful information, which otherwise would have involved both time and expense to procure. He also tenders his sincere thanks, to the merchants, manufacturers, and the various professions for the substantial aid and encouragement received by way of subscriptions and advertisements; which it is to be hoped will prove as remunerative to them as this work will prove useful to the thousands of readers whose interest or pleasure may lead them to consult its pages.

E. EDWIN DODDS, Compiler.

UNITED COUNTIES OF NORTHUMBERLAND AND DURHAM.

In referring to these Counties, it is our purpose to offer a brief historical and descriptive summary of each, of the several minor Municipalities which form its component parts, having regard to conciseness without prolixity, so far as the space at our command will permit. That the briefest outline is all which, under the circumstances, can be accomplished, is but a conceded fact; for were anything like a full "history" of this most important section of the country attempted it would require volumes of no mean proportions—to do justice to which would consume months, if not years, of time.

Our object in the present instance has been more to embrace within a limited compass a number of facts bearing upon the early settlement and subsequent development of the territory, and though necessarily very much more condensed than the importance of the subject would demand—except as an adjunct to a work of this particular description—yet, to ensure accuracy in all matters with which we have essayed to deal, much time and labor have been expended in the collection of all available data bearing upon the work in view—our researches extending through all available public documents, numberless private memoranda, and all publications bearing upon special, general or particular interests; and though the originals have, in most instances, long since performed their allotted tasks among their fellows, yet we have been able in other cases to converse with some whose lives the ravages of time have spared, and who have cheerfully contributed their experience, embracing every phase of life, from the most commonplace realities to the borders of romance, through the various stages of which they have passed, from the sternest necessities, severest privations, and most cruel hardships, to a condition of comfort and affluence—the otium cum dignitate of the Latin bard—which lives of perseverance and industry have earned.

Without effort or pretensions to literary merit, the design of the writer has been to present a plain statement of facts which, bearing upon the growth and development of the territory, will form a basis for future comparisons, and offer to the rising generation an incentive to emulation in the examples of the pioneers, whose self-reliant industry and progressive enterprise have conquered the primeval forests and left in their stead, as a heritage to posterity, a country teeming with substantial comforts and material wealth, and reflecting in its every feature the indomitable spirit and true manliness of a noble race, whose lives and deeds will shine while the communities they have formed shall continue to exist.

Aside from the special attributes pertaining to the various individual sections, there are certain conditions belonging alike to the whole of the United Counties, and to such a brief reference will not be out of place by way of introduction. First among these is the

GEOGRAPHICAL POSITION AND EXTENT

of the territory, which is situated on the north shore of Lake Ontario, about midway of its east and west expansion, and having a frontage thereon of sixty-three miles; the southern line is comparatively regular, but the northern is quite the reverse, the breadth of the territory ranging from fifteen to thirty miles—the boundary being, in great part, by the chain of lakes and rivers, having Lake Scugog for its western connection, and its eastern outlet the Bay of Quinte. The territory to the north being the Counties of Peterboro' and Victoria, while Hastings lies to the east. The area of this territory comprises 905,280 acres of land, of which 494,075 acres are in Northumberland, and 411,205 in Durham, the whole being exactly 1,414½ square miles, the component parts of which are "one in many," forming the whole, consist of the Townships of Alnwick, Brighton, Cramahe, Haldimand, Hamilton, Monaghan (South), Murray, Percy and Seymour, the town of Cobourg, and the incorporated villages of Brighton, Campbellford, Colborne and Hastings, in the County of Northumberland, and the Townships of Cartwright, Cavan, Clarke, Darlington, Hope, and Manvers, the towns of Port Hope, and Bowmanville, and the incorporated villages of Millbrook and Newcastle, in the County of Durham—in all fifteen Townships, three towns and six incorporated villages, of which Millbrook, in Durham County, does not enter upon its independent Municipal existence till the New Year of 1880. In regard to the

of the United Counties, almost every condition and variety of soil and surface is presented, from the heaviest leda clays to the lightest superficial sand deposits, and from almost perfectly level expanses through all the stages of undulating and gently rolling, to the decidedly hilly and positively rough. The former conditions, both of soil and climate, apply more particularly to that tract more closely bordering the Ontario shore, while the latter are so scattered and diversified, both as to description and location, that no general explanation can define or place them. The territory is one of the most magnificently watered of any of equal extent in all this broad land, so widely and so justly celebrated for the beauty of its lakes and streams. Besides those connected with the chain previously mentioned, which form the chief part of its northern boundary, there are a very large number of spring-brooks and streams of lesser or greater volume, which run to the north and south from the "water shed" and empty in the larger system of waters forming the north boundary, or into the broad waters of Ontario. The chief of these latter, as well as of the whole, is "Smith's Creek," whose tributaries drain the greater part of the area of the Townships of Clarke and Hope, and whose waters mingle with those of Ontario at the town of Port Hope. On the many branches of this, as well as scores of others of lesser volume throughout the Counties, the very finest mill privileges abound, and the manner in which they have been utilized have tended most materially to the development and prosperity not only of this particular territory, but of the County at large. Before referring specifically to the

of these Counties we might state, generally that the Province of Ontario is divided or classified by Geologists into six "Districts," known as (I), the Lower Ottawa; (II), the Northern Townships; (III), the Ontario; (IV), the Erie and Huron; (V), the Manitoulan, and (VI), the Upper Lakes. The connexion between these technical applications and the geographical positions of the various sections indicate that the Counties of Northumberland and Durham belong to the third of these Districts or Divisions. This district comprises an essentially agricultural area, underlaid by limestone, shales and other sedimentous rocks in comparatively undisturbed stratification. It ranges along the entire northern and western limits of Lake Ontario; its eastern and northern boundaries being formed by the creptaline region, comprised by the Northern Townships "District," and its western limit extending to the great "Niagara Escarpment," which runs from the Niagara river, via Queenston, Thorold, Grimsby, Hamilton, Dundas, Georgetown, Orangeville, &c., to the northern part of Nottawassaga, and the north-west to Cabot's Head on Georgian Bay.

That section in which the Counties under discussion lie, is composed of a series of ridges or terraces, running in a generally east and west direction, and rising from the level of Lake Ontario (232 feet above the sea) to an altitude in Northumberland considerably in excess of that of Rice Lake, which is 600 feet above the sea, and to which the ridges, terrace like, again fall; while in Durham they rise similarly, above the level of Lake Scugog, and descend again by stages to its waters, which flow at a height of 800 feet above the sea level.

These ridges are composed of drift material mostly, sands and gravels, filled with boulders of various kinds, brought down during the glacial and post glacial epochs, probably by floating icebergs; while the strata underlying them consist essentially of formations of the Silurian series—those being chiefly, or almost wholly represented by the "Newton" and "Utica" formations of the Lower Silurian. The "Newton" formation is represented essentially by dark grey limestones and limestone shales, in places exceedingly fossiliferous. Some of its beds yield excellent building stone, and in some sections a band of Lithographic stone runs through its lower portion. The thickness of the formation is from 700 to 750 feet average, though it varies materially in different localities. Almost the entire area of Northumberland County lies within the regions where this formation predominates, the western limits thereof leaving the Lake Ontario shore just west of Cobourg, running to the N. W. across the Township of Hamilton, in Northumberland, and thence in the same general direction across the entire County of Durham.

The predominating formation to the west of this line is the "Utica," which covers the whole of Durham except that inlaid by the "Newton," already mentioned. The "Utica" formation is made up almost entirely of dark brown or black bituminous shales, which are weather light gray, and yield by atmospheric disintegration a very fertile soil. Exposures of both of these formations are quite numerous throughout the respective sections of the Counties in which they next underlie the superficial deposit.

In these attributes consist the only peculiarities of Northumberland and Durham from a geological standpoint,—attributes by no means marked or calling for more than passing comment by reason of their importance, or rather lack of importance, there being no economic value attached to any of their productions; and the only interest involved in the question being, therefore, that which decides in what particular stage of formation of the various finds, so to speak, of the earth's crust, or epochs in the world's material history, that portion of it which comprises the territory now known as "these United Counties" arose from out the depths.

EARLY HISTORY.

With this term we are naturally inclined to associate only the early settlement of the country by the present dominant race. That the county, however, had a history, modern—very modern—compared with the events unfolded by geological research, yet ancient relatively with its "early settlement," is apparent to all, though the details are familiar but to few. It is not our purpose here to discuss the probabilities of this section being once inhabited by an extinct race whose former existence is clearly proven by geological scientific research, at a time preceding by cycles of ages the period of "the Creation," as it is popularly understood; neither to determine the time and circumstances of the advent to this part of the Continent of that other race, not yet extinct, but which, driven to the wall by the white intruder, is gradually wasting away under the influence of what we are pleased to term civilization. Nor can any object be gained by speculation as to their origin; whether they came by migration from the south-west across Behrings straits, as some scientists assert is proven by tradition, legend and geography combined; or whether, as is quite as stoutly affirmed by others, who bring forward similar arguments to establish their theory, they were descended from the Norsemen, whose inclinations or necessities drove them to the south-west. Nor is it matter of importance, in connection with our present sketch, how comes it that the Indians, with whom more recent discoveries have shown the greater part of the North American continent (including that portion we have now under discussion) to have been peopled—are of a different race, with characteristics in direct antagonism to those of the more southern tribes described by Columbus, Cortez and Pizarro. The former found the West Indies populated by a peaceful, quiet people, ruled over by Caciques, enjoying existence, and knowing no war-cry, stake, or crimson trophy. Cortez found the Aztecs in a still more progressive state,—residents of cities, advanced in the arts of civilization; builders of causeways, dwellings and temples, and tillers of the soil. While on the southern continent Pizarro conquered a nation which were only inferior to their conquerors in the arts and artifices of war, deceit and dishonor. In fact, the Mexican and Peruvian were admitted types of civilization which ere long would have emulated, if not surpassed, eastern stages of progression, had not a more cruel and warlike race crushed out the national instinct, and planted its germs upon the ruins.

The people who inhabited the wilds which now compose the fertile vales and plains and table-lands of the north shore of Ontario, belonged to none of these, but to the Algonquin family of a Confederacy consisting of three very powerful tribes, the Antaonnais and Hurons being the other two, who possessed the whole territory north of the chain of great lakes, and who had from time immemorial carried on fierce war against the celebrated "Five Nations," or Iroquois, who possessed the country to the south of this great water chain—chiefly that territory now comprising the State of New York.

These tribes, though very far behind the state of civilization common to even the most primitive of the three more southern aboriginal peoples above-named, yet possessed many characteristics which placed them beyond comparison in advance of more northern or western tribes. They lived in villages, cultivated a coarse grain known as maize, which has since become a staple product of most of the countries of the world within the limits of a temperate clime; had made some progress in some of the more necessary arts of life, and recognized certain fixed principles of public policy in their intercourse with other tribes.

Such were the people whom the first white adventurers found in possession of the country on their arrival. Fugitives from the vengeance of their former fellows, Colonists in the newly revolutionized United States, for having espoused during the revolution the side of their King and fatherland against their adopted country. The first white men who ever, as actual settlers, set foot upon that whole extent of country now forming these two Counties, were Nathaniel Ashford and James Stevens, who as the first settlers, not only within the whole tract of country bordering the north shore of Ontario, deserve here a passing notice.

Mr. Ashford was a descendant of Thomas Ashford, from the town of Ashford, Kent County, England, who emigrated to America in the early days of the colonial times. He was a man of some means and influence, and at the breaking out of the Revolution, not only opposed it morally, but took arms in defense of the Royal cause, and served in a variety of capacities throughout the war, being an officer in the colonial attachment of Burgoyne's army which was captured at Saratoga. Previous to the Revolution the family, and also those of Mr. Stevens, who was likewise of English descent, owned large properties in Dutchess County, New York. The termination of the war left the former "Tories" completely at the mercy of the Continentals, who, persecuted and slew many; and to avoid the reign of terror inaugurated by the "Regulators" after the acknowledgment of Independence, Ashford and Stevens fled with their families, as did thousands of others, to seek safety under the British flag. It will be remembered that after the declaration of peace, the question of jurisdiction of a certain portion of the N. W. part of New York State bordering the Niagara river was left undecided. The British still maintained a fort there, and the locality became the rendezvous of the thousands of U. E. Loyalists and their families, as well as the remnant of the Iroquois who had taken sides in the war against the Colonists. It was the hope of the Loyalists, as well as the promise of the British Government, that some provision would be made in the final treaty of amity between the two nations, whereby they should return undisturbed to their old homes; but the British, anxious to colonize their illimitable expanse of wilderness to the north of the "Thirteen Provinces," totally ignored the promises originally held out to the Loyalists. Ashford and Stevens had been waiting and watching, since 1783, at Fort Niagara, in hopes of being able finally to return and occupy their property; but when, in 1792, the balance of New York was surrendered and the British garrison withdrawn from what is now the American Fort Niagara, they abandoned all hopes of returning, and moved with their families near Burlington, now the City of Hamilton, where they remained till the next Spring alone in the wilderness, when they started with their families along the Ontario shore, with the intention of going to Adolphustown, at the foot of the Lake, where many of their friends from Dutchess County had already settled, passed the abandoned military post at York, and on arriving at the present site of Port Hope, were so favorably impressed with the locality that they decided to remain there. They had brought their families along, driving stock through the forest, crossing rivers on hastily constructed rafts, and swimming their stock across. The day they arrived, and located on the lots where they subsequently, during the whole of their lives resided, was the 3rd of June, 1793. The first night of their arrival they bivouaced under a large maple tree, situated on Lot No. 2, Con. 2, of Hope, now owned by James Rosevear, Esq., very near the division from Lot No. 1, and some sixty rods north of the present travelled road along the 1st and 2nd line. That very night Mr. Stevens' wife gave birth to a son, named Simeon, who was consequently the first born white child on the whole north shore, there being at that time not a single settler between the sites of the present City of Hamilton and the Town of Napanee. Years afterwards, when Mr. Stevens parted with the land there was a stipulation in the deed to the effect that that tree should never be cut down. This condition was faithfully fulfilled, and for more than two generations after the whole surrounding country was one wide expanse of beautiful and fertile fields, the lone maple braved the storms, till age and decay caused it to succumb to the gale some years ago, a monument to the first born on north Ontario shore. Mr. Ashford died in 1795, his death being the first in the settlement.

The next to settle at Smith's creek, and the second within the Counties were Myndert Harris and Laurence Johnston, with their families. The former was from Dutchess County, New York, and the latter a Pennsylvanian, both U. E. Loyalists who had fled to Nova Scotia after the acknowledgment of Independence. They left that Province for the then newly formed Province of Upper Canada, in April, 1793, coming via New York and the Hudson and Mohawk valleys to the Niagara frontier, and thence to Newark, (now Niagara) the then Capital of Upper Canada, in May of that year. They were accompanied by Capt. Johnathan Walton, a former Philadelphia Loyalist, who had befriended Cornwallis when the British occupied that city, and had consequently to fly the country. Having been a previous acquaintance and friend of General Simcoe, that officer, now Governor, offered Capt. Walton a Township if he would procure 40 settlers within a fixed time. In furtherance of this undertaking, he induced Harris and Johnston to go with him. The locality he selected was what is now the Township of Hope, and Governor Simcoe at once despatched a small gunboat with a party of Engineers to make the survey, Walton, Harris and Johnston, taking passage on it, the latter two with their families. The date of their leaving Newark on this expedition was on the 4th June, 1793, and they landed at Smith's Creek four day's later, on the 8th.

For many years previous to this there had been an Indian trader located at this point by the name of Peter Smith. The creek was named from him and not from Elias Smith, afterwards one of the "Fathers" of Port Hope, as many erroneously suppose. Before Ash-ford and Stevens had arrived, this Smith had been succeeded by one Hercheimier or Herkimer, who removed the ensuing Fall to the head of Rice Lake to pursue his fur trading operations.

In August, 1793, Almus Peck and Jesse Trull came into the settlement. The former located on the Rice Farm, lake shore, and the latter on that of the late Daniel Brand. Ashford had located Lot 1, Con. 1; Stevens, Lot 2, Con. 2; Harris, Lot 2, Con. 1; and Johnston, Lot 1, Con. 2. Capt. Walton never was a permanent settler, neither did he succeed in procuring the forty settlers, so he didn't secure the whole township, but was granted 2,000 acres by Governor Simcoe, ostensibly for his services, but really as a piece of personal favoritism, though if being a very fine man entitled him to the grant he certainly deserved it. The above were all who came into the settlement during the first year of its existence, 1793.

When the first of them came in there was a considerable sized Indian village on the flats near the mouth of the creek, which the Indians themselves called Coshingomink. Game was plentiful in the forest and salmon in the streams, but for flour the settlers had to go to Kingston Mills, several miles up the Cataraqui river, back of Kingston, the trip consuming about two weeks, oftentimes in a small boat, the route lying along the shore during the day, interrupted by a forest bivouac each night. Crossing the "Carrying Place," (which connects Prince Edward County with the mainland) hauling their boats after them and portaging its contents, both going and returning, the balance of the sail being through the Bay of Quinte.

In the Fall of 1794, when the first wheat was raised, a party was made up to take a "grist" on ox jumpers all the way to the site of the present City of Belleville, where Col. Meyers had just erected a mill; and although they accomplished the task, it was accompanied by such an immense amount of hardship and danger that they thenceforth made their "gristing" trips to the Napanee mills, then also recently built, via the "Carrying Place," in small boats, until the building of a mill in their own settlement.

This latter auspicious and important event was undertaken in the Spring of 1795, by Elias Smith (father of the late John D. Smith), who obtained from the Government, for so doing, a grant of 600 acres of land, on which the chief part of Port Hope is now situated, together with certain other privileges. Capt. John Burns—who settled on the Ager farm, York road—was the chief architect. By the Fall, when it was ready to be raised, there were not men enough in the settlement to do it; so word was sent to the Colborne settlement—which had been formed the previous year—and Joseph Keeler, the leading man of that settlement, came up with a lot of companions in a boat, and the work was accomplished; but on account of various unpropitious circumstances intervening, it was not till the Spring of 1798 that the mill was put into successful operation.

But as our idea is simply to refer to the earliest actual settlement of the Counties briefly, we will pass over, until another time, the task of detailing the subsequent development of this and other settlements within their limits, and in the meantime refer briefly to the

of the Counties. By Act of the Imperial Parliament Upper Canada was set off from Quebec in 1791, and in 1792 Lt.-Governor

Simcoe, by proclamation, dated July 16th, erected the Province into nineteen Counties—Glengarry, Stormont, Dundas, Grenville, Leeds, Frontenac, Ontario, (not the present County of that name, but formed of islands near the foot of Lake Ontario); Addington, Lennox, Prince Edward, Hastings, Northumberland, Durham, York, Lincoln, Norfolk, Suffolk, (now Elgin and Middlesex, and the territory to their north); Kent and Essex,—Northumberland and Durham being the twelfth and thirteenth, respectively, of the original nineteen Counties. In the above Proclamation the east boundary of Northumberland is described as running North 16° West from the "easternmost line of the Trent river," "till it intersects the Ottawa river," and the western limit of Durham was laid down as a line running North 16° West from the "westernmost point of Long Beach" (Lake Ontario) as far as practically, or as far as the Province or continent extended northward.

The next Legislative change affecting the territory under review, was the Act of 1798, whereby the four original "Districts" into which Upper Canada had been divided by proclamation of Lord Dorchester, in 1791—and re-named by Act of the Legislature in 1792—were reconstructed, and of those erected therefrom was the "Home District," comprising the Counties of Northumberland and Durham and York and Simcoe, with the District town at York. By the same Act the northern limits of these Counties were fixed as being confined to the "southward of the small lakes, above the Rice Lake, with their various communications." This Act also provided, by its twenty-fifth section, that "So soon as the Counties of Northumberland and Durham shall make it satisfactorily appear to the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or persons administering the Government of this Province, that there are one thousand souls within the said Counties, and that six of the Townships do hold town meetings according to law, then the said Counties, with all the territory in their rear, confined between their extreme boundaries produced N. 16° W., until they intersect the northern limits of the Province, shall and are hereby declared to be a separate District, to be known as the District of Newcastle * * *," and in compliance with the terms of the said Act the Newcastle District was formally set off in 1802, and a Court House and Jail ordered to be built in the "town of New Castle," but the inconvenience of the location caused the Act to be repealed in 1805, in so far as related to the location of the same, and authorized the District Magistrates to select some fit and proper place "within either of the Townships of Haldimand or Hamilton." The buildings were consequently erected at Cobourg, or a mile north, at Amherst, as then called. But great contention ensued between the various sections which were candidates for the selection, and after ever so many suits at law, the highest legal tribunal declared, in 1830, that the Magistrates had no authority to do as they had done, and that consequently the Court House in use for nearly a generation was not a Court House at all! The Legislature was, consequently, invoked at the next session to "legalize" the Court House of the District, which they did, at the same time indemnifying the Magistrates for "the illegal expenditure of money applied in its erection."

Previous to the Provincial Union, the various Counties were governed by the District Magistrates, who held "Quarter Sessions," presided over by the District Judge, D. M. Rogers, of Grafton, an old U. E. Loyalist, and ex-Major of the celebrated "Tory" Regiment known as the Rogers Rangers during the Revolutionary war, who was the first District Judge, combining also the duties of Registrar till succeeded in the latter capacity by the late Thomas Ward, of Port Hope. The same Act which united the Provinces (1841), also provided for the Municipal government of the various Districts by a District Council, very similar to our present Counties' Councils, although the Warden was an appointee of the Crown. The first one to fill this position for the Newcastle District, on the operation of the new system in 1842, was Walter Boswell, who was succeeded by G. S. Boulton, in 1846. Both these gentlemen were very prominent and influential citizens of Cobourg.

In 1847, Henry S. Reid, District Councillor from Darlington Township, was elected to the Wardenship—this system having been substituted in that year for the appointive one by Act of Parliament, and he continued to hold the position till the inauguration, in 1850, of the present system, under the operation of the "Municipal Institutions Act" of 1849. The late Hon. Asa A. Burnham, of Cobourg, was the first to fill the position under the present system. He was succeeded by John M. Grover, of Cramahe, in 1852, and the succession thence forward was as follows: Hon. Sidney Smith, Cobourg, 1853; James Smith, M. P.P., Port Hope, 1854-5; the late Sheriff Ruttan, 1856; R. M. Boucher, Cramahe, 1857; J. McFeeters, Bowmanville, 1858; the present Mr. Justice Armour, 1859; A. McNaughton, Newcastle, 1860-61; E. S. It will be noticed in looking over the list of Wardens, that for many years they have alternated between the two Counties, which to some extent keeps down the local jealousies of both sections. For many years the people of Durham have been almost a unit on the question of separation, and establishing an independent County, but the sectional jealousies in their own midst as to the location of the County seat has thus far prevented the consummation of an enterprise which could not but redound to the well-being and greater convenience of its citizens. The of the old Newcastle District, and later, of that part of it now comprising these Counties, is a subject not only of the greatest interest and importance, involving an amount of time and space which it is impossible to afford in what is only intended as a cursory outline.

By Governor Simcoe's Proclamation of July 16th, 1792, provision was made for a "Legislative Assembly," to be composed of sixteen members; and it also designated the several territorial divisions which were to return each a member, one county returning several in some cases, and in others requiring several counties to return one. So far as these Counties were concerned, the "electoral divisions," as we would now designate them, were established—in the words of the Proclamation, as follows: "the County of Lennox, except Adolphus-

"town, previously joined to Prince Edward County for parliamentary purposes—together with the Counties of Hastings and Northumberland, shall together send one representative," and "the said Counties of Durham and York, and the first Riding of Lincoln, shall and may be represented together in the said House by one member. * * "

Slight changes were subsequently made, none, however, materially affecting the status of these Counties, till the "re-distribution," which came into effect in 1825, as a result of the first official census of Upper Canada in 1824. By this reorganization each of these two Counties became entitled to separate representation, the Parliament now consisting of 46 members in all, until the Legislative union of 1841. Northumberland was represented by Hon Mr. Boulton, Col. Meyers, the late Sheriff Ruttan, and one McDonald; while Messrs. Smith, Fothergill, Brown, and Elliott, were the representatives sent from Durham at various times during that period.

After the union, Northumberland and Durham East continued to send one member to the Legislature till the second re-distribution of seats, resulting from the census of 1851, which first came into effect at the general election of 1854. During the thirteen intervening years, Durham was represented by John Tucker Williams, R. N., and James Smith, each of whom sat through two Parliaments; Northumberland by George Morse Boswell,—present County Judge,—Col. Meyers, and Hon. A. A. Burnham.

The only one now living who represented either, or any part of the Counties previous to 1854, at which time each County was divided into two Ridings, or Electoral Divisions, is Judge Boswell. This gentleman is a native of Gosport, England; was educated at Buntingford Grammar School, Hertfordshire; studied Law in Canada, and was called to the Bar, M.C., in 1827; created Q.C. in 1841; and now is Senior Queen's Council in the Province, and a Bencher of the Law Society since 1843. He was an unsuccessful candidate for Parliament at the general election of 1836, but successful in 1841, in the same constituency which he represented in the first Parliament of United Canada; retiring from political life in 1844. Though a Conservative in politics, he was a staunch advocate of responsible government, and worked zealously with the Reform party till constitutional government was conceded.

From the time of the division of the Counties, each into two Ridings, the parliamentary representation of the various sections up to the time of Confederation has been as follows, beginning with East Northumberland: 1854, James Ross; 1857, John R. Clarke; 1861, J. L. Biggar, who retained the seat during two Parliaments. The West Riding was represented by the Hon. Sidney Smith, Q. C., from the general election of 1854 to that of 1861, during which time he was Post Master General for the three years previous to his defeat by Hon. James Cockburn, Q. C., who then represented the constituency till and subsequent to Confederation.

Francis H. Burton was returned for East Durham at the general election of 1854, and with the exception of 1863-67, he continued to represent the constituency till his death, some time subsequent to Confederation. At the general election of 1863 he was defeated by John Shuter Smith, who subsequently died while in the incumbency of the position of Clerk of the Legislative Council of Ontario, under the Sandfield Macdonald administration.

West Durham was represented uninterruptedly from 1854 to 1867 by Henry Munroe.

By the British North American Act provision was made for the election of two distinct sets of parliamentary representatives, the one to the House of Commons, or Dominion Parliament; the other to the Legislature, or Provincial Assembly. Beginning with the former we find that East Northumberland returned Joseph Keeler as its first representative to the Commons at the general election of 1867. James L. Biggar, an old representative during the Legislative Union, was returned at the general election of 1872, and was re-elected at the general election of 1874; while at the last general election, September 17th, 1878, Mr. Jos. Keeler was again returned.

In West Northumberland Hon. Mr. Cockburn, who had represented the Riding in the old Parliament of United Canada, was returned to the first Dominion Parliament, and chosen Speaker of the House of Commons, retaining both positions—by reason of re-election in 1872—till the general election of 1874, when he was defeated by William Kerr, Q. C., from whom, however, he succeeded in again wresting the seat at the general election of 1878, and he is therefore the present sitting member.

In East Durham, Mr. Burton, an old representative, was returned to the Commons in 1867, and sat through the first Parliament, dying about the end of his term. Lewis Ross defeated the late Nesbitt Kirchhoffer, Q. C., at the general election of 1872, and was re-elected in 1874, this time over Francis Beamish; but at the election of 1878 he was defeated by Col. Arthur T. H. Williams, the present member.

Hon. Edward Blake, Q. C., entered political life in West Durham, by his return to a seat in the Commons in 1867, being followed by Hon. E. B. Wood at the general election of 1879, Mr. Blake going into South Bruce. Mr. Wood was again returned at the general election of 1874, but soon after appointed to the Chief Justiceship of the Province of Manitoba, and at the special election which followed, William Burk was returned to fill the vacancy, and was re-elected in 1878. He resigned, however, during the fall of 1879, and the Hon. Mr. Blake, who had been defeated in South Bruce, in September, 1878, was elected in November of the present year—1879—by acclamation to fill the vacancy.

For the Legislature of Ontario the same territorial divisions exist as to Parliamentary representation as for the Commons. The elections in East Northumberland since Confederation have resulted in the return of the following gentlemen: 1867, J. J. Ayres; 1871, W. W. Webb; and 1875, J. M. Ferris, who was re-elected at the general election of 1879.

In the West Riding Mr. Fraser, an extensive woollen manufacturer, was elected in 1867, but during the continuance of the first Parliament a special election became necessary to fill the vacancy caused by his resignation, when Major Gifford was the successful candidate, retaining the seat in the second Parliament by re-election in 1871. He was defeated, however, by Mr. Hargraff at the general election of 1875, while John C. Field was returned at the general election of the present year—1879.

Since Confederation, East Durham was represented during the first and second Parliaments by Col. Arthur T. H. Williams—the present

M. P.—and during the third by John Rosevear, who was again returned at the last general election.

During the same period West Durham was represented through the first and second Parliaments by the late John McLeod, many years Reeve of Bowmanville, and twice Warden of the United Counties. At the last general election Dr. McLaughlin of Bowmanville, was returned to the position.

The following are therefore the present sitting members for the United Counties in both Houses:—

West	"	..Hon. J. Cockburn, Ottawa, "
East Durham.....	Col. A. T. H. Williams, Port Hope, "

In a country where the broad principle is so universally recognized that upon the completeness and efficiency of the intellectual advantages offered to the rising generation must rest the hope of a healthy national development and our country's future generations, a few words in reference to the

of Northumberland and Durham would not be out of place in this connection. The details of the rise and progress of these necessary accompaniments to civilization in Canada form a part of the history of Canada itself. To us of the present day nothing can be more difficult to comprehend than the extreme difficulties under which the pioneers of these Counties labored in the entire absence of facilities for the intellectual instruction of their families. When the school was with them but a pleasant memory of the past, intermingled with scenes of lives passed happily in the valleys of the Mohawk or the Hudson, the Susquehanna or the Delaware, till the fortunes of war had made them fugitives from their own country to the "Lone North Land, where now their future longing for the recovery of the "lost art" but associated them with something more ardently to be wished than seriously hoped for.

We have no means at our command for knowing who actually was the first to "teach the young idea" the mysteries of the "three R's," which was in those days the Sumum bonum of the ambition, and the cape-stone of the standard of educational requirements. All are familiar—if not by experience, at least by legend and tradition—with the many stages of development through which the educational system passed, from the point the scenes depicted in the "Hoosier Schoolmaster" were realities in the little settlements widely scattered, and repeated by miles of almost impenetrable swamps, to the age of universities, colleges, institutes and academies of all kinds and on every hand, normal and high schools in generous profusion, and public schools within our sight at almost any point in the Province—with a high standard of education free to any, and a standard commensurate with ordinary business requirements, compulsory on all.

The most cursory summary of the progress of a system which has now extended over nearly a century of time, and which has even within the compass of a generation, from a state of chaos and condition of perfect infamy, ripened into one which will compare favorably with any similar system in the known world, would necessarily involve an amount of disquisition too wide to encounter, except as a special and important subject, and in these "notes by the wayside" we shall merely refer briefly to the condition in which this wonderful development has left the educational institutions of these Counties in particular, by reference to a few of the existing evidences as gleaned from the latest official reports at our command.

From these documents, we find that the total receipts from all sources for Public School purposes, was $116,897.56, of which $73,784.93 were raised by Trustees school assessments. The sum of $77,914.69 was paid for teachers' salaries; $1,599.30 for school apparatus; $12,169.36 for new school houses; $11,915.76 for operating expenses. These sums refer only to rural Municipalities, and were further augmented by the Towns of Port Hope, Cobourg and Bowmanville, as follows: Receipts, $19,367.09, of which $15,067.95 was raised by Municipal assessment; the expenditures, including $13,620.77 for teachers' salaries; $224.39 for apparatus; $1,030.40 for new buildings, and $4,050.39 for operating expenses. This makes a grand total for the Public Schools, alone, as follows: Collected by direct taxations, $88,854.88; total receipts, $136,264.65; expended on teachers' salaries, $91,535.46; for apparatus, etc., etc., $1,823.69; for new buildings, etc., $16,219.75, and for maintenance, $15,966.15.

The total number of children of "school age" within the Counties, including Towns, is returned as 21,262; the total number attending school, 20,297; and average number during the year, 9,429.

There are seven High Schools in the Counties, one of which, Cobourg, ranks as a Collegiate Institute, viz: Bowmanville, Brighton, Campbellford, Cobourg, Colborne, Newcastle, and Port Hope. The amount received by these schools from all sources, for the year, was $18,098.57; the amount expended on teachers' salaries, $14,582.50, and the number of pupils in attendance at the schools, 535.

In connection with the Public Schools are the County Model Schools at Port Hope and Cobourg, which have been in most successful operation ever since the inauguration of the present model school system, by the reorganization of the School Act.

The above facts comprise the chief items of interest in connection with what is commonly known as the "Canadian School System," as we find it in these Counties, though "Higher Education" is represented by two very important Colleges—the Victoria University, at Cobourg, and the Trinity College School, at Port Hope, a description of which seems more properly to belong to the respective local sketches of these Towns.

Among the most useful and powerful agents in the development of these Counties, as, indeed, of the whole country, have been the

of which Northumberland and Durham possess an exceptionally large mileage for their extent of territory, and a railway "service" which leaves little more to be desired in that particular. It is not proposed to trace the development of the "railway age" within which period, just covering a half-century of time, since the performance of Stephenson's "Rocket" on the New Liverpool and Manchester line astonished science and gave birth to another era on the 6th of October, 1829. That great "modern civilizer" has revolutionized the world, but we may just observe that although the progress made for the first twenty years following this grand event was slow in the extreme, yet the next decade witnessed a "boom" in railway enterprise throughout America, one of the results of which was the inauguration of competition of a number of the greatest rail-systems in the world; and it was during this "booming" season that Northumberland and Durham became possessed of all their superior facilities in the railroad line, which have since so much reflected upon their material prosperity and advancement. The number comprising the Grand Trunk, of Canada; the Midland, of Canada; and the Cobourg and Peterboro'.

The Grand Trunk Railway of Canada, which combines under one management by far the greatest length of road of any company in the Dominion, is one of the most powerful railway corporations in the world, and consists of a large number of originally independent lines, each very important in itself. Among these was the original "Grand Trunk" between Toronto and Montreal, which was itself formed by the amalgamation of the "Kingston and Montreal" and the "Kingston and Toronto," the "Stratford and Goderich," the course of which however, was changed from Goderich and Sarnia; in the east the "St. Lawrence and Atlantic," and the Quebec and "Trois Pistoles"; and in the west again the "Buffalo, Brantford and Goderich," afterwards the "Buffalo and Lake Huron"; besides the Maine and Michigan divisions, lying respectively between Island Pond and Portland, and Port Huron and Detroit. In addition to which they have recently secured a direct line from Port Huron to Chicago, 330 miles, consisting of the "Chicago and North-Eastern," "Chicago and Lake Huron," "Peninsular of Michigan," and a new line of 44 miles from Valparaiso on the P. St. W. & C. R. R., into the western metropolis. This road traverses the entire length of both of the United Counties from east to west, a distance of over 60 miles, having ten stations on the line,—Trenton, Smithfield, Brighton, Colborne, Grafton, Cobourg, Port Hope, Newtonville, Newcastle, and Bowmanville.

The Midland is the next in importance. It was originally chartered in 1846. In 1853 various alterations and modifications were made in the original plan, and in 1854 it was completed to Lindsay. A branch from Millbrook to Peterboro' being built very soon after. Some years later the Peterboro' branch was extended to Lakefield. In 1869 the name of the road was changed from the "Port Hope, Lindsay and Beaverton, and Port Hope and Peterboro'," to the "Midland of Canada." In 1871 the main line was extended to Beaverton, on Lake Simcoe; two years later to Orillia, on Lake Couchiching; in 1875 to Waubauskene, on Georgian Bay, and in 1878, to Midland City, on Midland Bay, an indentation of Georgian Bay, and one of the most magnificent harbors on all the chain of great lakes. The main line now has an extent of 120 miles, and the Lakefield branch 22 miles; about 40 miles of both lying within the limits of Durham county. A further reference of this important Railway Corporation will be found in connection with the sketch of the Town of Port Hope.

The Cobourg, Peterboro' and Marmora Railway, the first sod of which was turned at Cobourg on the 9th February, 1853, amidst parades, torchlight processions, and general rejoicings, has undergone, from its very first inception a series of changes, misfortunes and disasters, to enter upon a recital of which would add nothing of interest to the reader. After more than $1,000,000 had been expended in the construction of 27 miles of road, the line scarcely paid sufficient to cover working expenses and repairs. One of the greatest difficulties being to retain the pile bridge which spanned Rice Lake, three miles across; and after many changes and much legislation for relief which was never afforded, the whole concern was sold out to a new company for $100,000, much of which amount went to liquidate privileged claims, including heavy liabilities for right of way. With commendable enterprise and untiring energy the new Company have, one by one, overcome the many difficulties which beset the old one, and now have a line extending from Cobourg to Chemong Lake, 37 miles, which, with sidings aggregates 50 miles, including a branch from the Narrows of the Trent to Blairton, 10 miles distant, where they have extensive and valuable iron mines.

Before dismissing this general subject a few remarks appear in order with regard to the

of the Counties. Whether considered by comparison, or simply in the abstract the development and progress of this territory have been of a most satisfactory and encouraging nature. Within even the last half century, and in many parts within less than a generation, we have seen the miseries and sufferings incident to the settlement of a wilderness, replaced by plenty, comfort and affluence; and the county which at the beginning of those periods was in a great measure devoid of everything pertaining to what might be termed the luxuries of a higher civilization. In respect to the substantial evidences of religious and educational institutions, whose presence or absence may be taken as an index of the presence or absence of all the great adjuncts of modern enlightenment, has been literally covered with ecclesiastical tabernacles of commodious dimensions, graceful proportions, and elegant design; and institutions of learning which, as intellectual and literary training schools, are the most efficient which the age has witnessed; while the broad fields have on all sides grown broader and more broad under the woodman's axe, till now but groves of forest dot here and there the far stretching acres of waving corn and luxuriant meadow; instead of an almost illimitable wilderness, being interspersed at no oft-recurring interval with small patches of rude clearing, as was the case within the memory of those of even middle age. Yet, to intelligently comprehend the great strides which the country has made, and the vastness of our material resources as they at present exist, it might be well to consult statistics; and in spite of the generally admitted theory of the extreme "dryness" of figures, it must still be borne in mind that they embody the most stubborn facts.

The first official record we find of any direct estimate being placed upon the population or resources of the various territorial divisions then constituting the Counties of Upper Canada, is in connexion with the first census of the Province in 1824. Although many and varied changes have occurred in the limits of those divisions since then, and although similar changes, both municipal and political, are likely to continue indefinitely, yet we owe it to many years labors of historical and statistical research of experts in the Department of Agriculture of the Dominion, that the classification of the various County Divisions have been preserved or defined. In the year above mentioned we find that Northumberland contained a population of 6,047 souls, and Durham 3,195, or a total of 9,292; of whom 4,988 were males and 4,304 females. In one year from that date (1825) the population of the two Counties aggregated 9,966; in 1826, 12,200; in 1827, 12,556; in 1828, 13,345; in 1829, 13,999; in 1830, 14,850; in 1831, 16,498; in 1832, 21,193; in 1833, 25,560; in 1834, 27,404; in 1835, 30,245; in 1836, 32,936; in 1837, 35,009; in 1838, 35,755; in 1839, 36,932; in 1840, 40,191; and at the time of the Provincial union in 1841, 41,952.

In all the above returns the territory north of these two Counties, now comprising Peterboro and Victoria, is included in the estimate; but up to the date mentioned this fact evidently made no material difference in the figures. In 1841 the same territory was formed into the Newcastle District, which, at the general census of 1848 was reported to contain a population of 48,594.

The "Municipal Institutions Act" set off the northern part of the District as independent counties, and the next official census, in 1851, gave the population of these United Counties at that time as 62,961. There were 9,861 occupied houses, and 10,345 families. As to nationality, 8,802 were of English birth, 13,106 Irish, 2,959 Scotch, 34,601 Canadians, and the balance scattering. There were 121 churches and 77 schools in the two Counties, with a school attendance of 9,869 pupils, seemingly a very large average per school. There were 6,161 occupiers of land, and 293,221 acres of land under cultivation. The domestic animals included 15,001 horses, 13,704 oxen, 36,815 other cattle, 63,738 sheep, and 38,813 swine; while the field products included among the chief articles 1,050,109 bushels of wheat, over three quarters of a million of oats, and over a quarter of a million of pease, with domestic products in like proportion; and although the manufactures had not assumed anything like their present proportions in many lines, yet in others the number and extent of them were very respectable, as is shown by the list of 51 grist and flouring mills, 151 saw mills, 15 carding and woolen mills, 4 distilleries, 1 brewery, 20 tanneries, 2 foundries, and a number of minor establishments in other lines.

The population had increased in 1861 to 79,707, and the development in every respect had even outran the increase of population, as it was during the intervening decade that the Railways had been built and a great proportion of the splendid gravel roads which cut the territory in every direction, and form arteries of inland communication at least equal, both in quantity and quality, to those of any territory of similar extent in the Province of Ontario.

During the next ten years, the population actually decreased, but this result was more attributable to the fact that the territory is already as thickly populated as we can expect it to be so long as unbounded tracts of unoccupied, cheap and fertile lands remain upon other portions of the continent to attract the adventurers, and offer inducements to those in but moderate circumstances to better their fortunes by emigrating to new countries and "growing up with them." The figures returned by the census commissioners in 1871 put the entire population of the two Counties at 77,611, divided as follows:—Town of Cobourg, 4,444; Port Hope, 5,114; Bowmanville, 3,032; Village of Brighton, 1,357; Village of Colborne, 823; Newcastle, 1,109; Township of Alnwick, 1,369; Brighton, 3,734; Cartwright, 2,514; Cavan, 4,761; Clarke, 5,728; Cramahe, 3,833; Darlington, 5,931; Haldimand, 5,796; Hamilton, 5,721; Hope, 5,075; Manvers, 4,144; Monaghan, South, 1,145; Murray, 3,638; Percy, 4,681; and Seymour, 4,289.

The field products for 1871 included 1,050,333 bushels of wheat, 584,233 of barley, 918,906 of oats, 68,510 of rye, 546,184 of pease, 6,848 of beans, 71,553 of buckwheat, 75,778 of corn, 1,042,682 of potatoes, 2,195,632 of turnips, 152,612 of other roots, 198 of flex seed, 21,492 of grass and clover seed, and 83,315 tons of hay. The miscellaneous products amounted to 1,789,786 pounds of factory cheese, 870 of dressed flax, 694 yards of home-made linen, 146,308 of home-made cloth, 320,563 bushels of apples, 11,299 of small fruits, 12,606 pounds of grapes, 201,545 of maple sugar, 1,698 of tobacco, 187,577 of hops, 49 beavers, 7 bears, 18 otter, 11 marten, 369 mink, 232 fox, 232 deer, 5,191 muskrat, and 378 other fur bearing animals. The forest products amounted to 187,556 cubic feet of pine, 10,110 of oak, 18,555 of tamarac, 3,150 of birch, 10,554 of elm, 280,201 of other varieties, 165,373 pine and hardwood logs, 29 masts and spars, 1,667 thousand of staves, 583 cords of lath, 657 of tanbark, and—for commerce 176,897 of cordwood. The fish products were, of course, small, but amounted—for commerce—to 7 barrels of eels, 233 of whitefish, 1,371 of trout, and 164 of other varieties.

In the line of industrial establishments the Counties contained 8 agricultural implement factories, 21 extensive bakeries, 161 blacksmith shops, 94 boot and shoe factories, 18 brick and tile yards, 31 cabinet manufactories, 8 carding and fulling mills, 41 large carpentering establishments, 82 carriage factories, 43 cooperages, 21 large dress and millinery establishments, 72 flour and grist mills, 18 foundries and machine shops, 55 lime burning establishments, 35 harness and saddlery shops, 127 saw mills, 43 shingle factories, 17 tanneries, 62 tailoring establishments, 21 tin manufacturing establishments, 41 woolen cloth factories, 2 boat building works, 4 breweries, 2 broom and brush factories, 10 cheese factories, 2 fur factories, 3 manufacturing jewelry works, 5 meat canning establishments, 3 painters' and glaziers' shops, 7 pot and pearl asheries, 11 printing offices, 7 pump factories, 6 sash, door and blind factories, 1 basket factory, 1 book bindery, 6 cider factories, 1 miscellaneous work factory, 2 potteries, 5 soap and candle factories, 4 wood turning shops, 1 aerated water factory, 2 distilleries, 1 lithographing establishment, 2 gas factories, 1 gun factory, 5 gypsum mills, 1 hosiery factory, 1 patent medicine factory, 1 rope factory, 1 brass foundry, 1 glue factory, and 2 railway car shops.

Returns in connection with the general results of these establishments give the following figures; Capital invested in works, $1,767,452; number of hands employed, 1892; yearly wages paid, $885,915; value of raw material, $3,012,136; and value of manufactured products, $4,999,975. It should be added that the figures relating to products and industrial establishments do not include the Township of South Monaghan, that being attached to the electoral division of West Peterboro', though belonging to the County of Northumberland. The general result would, of course, be somewhat added to were it not for this omission, being a small Township it would not be materially altered.

The last revision of the various municipal assessment rolls, by the "Equalization of Assessment" Committee of the County Council, gives the value of real property, on which the "County rate" is struck, as follows:

The financial statement shows the receipts from all sources last year to have been $87,059.98, and the total expenditures $75,089.71.

But in this connection it does not seem necessary to enlarge, as the general present condition of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham may be summarized by saying that the period elapsing since the compiling of the statistics above referred to, has been one of progress commensurate with the natural and acquired advantages of the territory, when taking into consideration the great financial depression which in the interval has overspread not only Ontario and Canada, but the world. And we might simply add that this grand old Union, whose historical reminiscences places it among the very earliest and most important of pioneer settlements of Upper Canada, whether considered as an agricultural section of surpassing excellence, or as the most progressive in many respects, and continuously so, of almost all the Counties of the Province; or as the locality pre-eminently, where the "solid" attributes of the most wealthy and intelligent communities display themselves; or as the home, both past and present, of men who, in all important walks of life, have stood above their fellows; or, finally as the concentration of the greatest number of such attributes as add prestige and commanding importance to any section or any community, might without ostentation or exaggeration of any description have inscribed upon its banner the legend "Nulle Secundus."

SUMMARY OF THE ONTARIO COLLECTION LAWS.

ARREST.—A Capias ad Res. will be issued out of a Superior or County Court on affidavit showing a cause of action or damages for $100 or upwards, and that defendant is about to abscond, etc. A Capias Sat. issues after judgment without Judge's order, if proceedings had been instituted by Ca. Re., otherwise must issue on similar grounds. If judgment debtor refuses to be examined as to assets, or on examination discloses fraudulent disposition of property, he may be imprisoned one year.

The Offices marked * are Savings' Bank Offices.

ATTACHMENT.—Issues from Division Court on claims for debt or damages from $4 to $100, or where debtor absconds from Ontario leaving personal property liable to execution, or attempts to remove same from one country to another, or keeps concealed to avoid service of process, with intent to defraud. In Superior and County Courts real as well as personal effects are covered by attachment. Affidavits of creditor and two other credible persons required, showing that defendant absconded with intent to defraud.

BILLS AND NOTES.—Three days' grace allowed except when payable on demand. A one cent stamp must be affixed where amount of instrument is $25; two cents over $25 to $50; three cents over $50 to $100, and three cents for each subsequent $100 or fractional part thereof. Where the instrument carries interest, the interest is to be added to principal to determine value of stamp. Bank cheques, post office orders, municipal debentures, coupons, bills and notes drawn and payable out of Canada are exempt from stamps. The neglect to affix the proper stamps renders the maker, drawer, &c., liable to a penalty of $100. The instrument without the proper stamps is invalid, and of no effect both in law and equity; but an innocent holder of an unstamped or insufficiently stamped note may make it valid by payment of double duty as soon as such holder acquires the knowledge of such note being unstamped or insufficiently stamped. Notices of protest or dishonor are sufficiently given if addressed to parties liable, at place where instrument is dated, though not their place of residence, unless another place is designated under signature.

BILLS OF SALE AND CHATTEL MORTGAGES.—Sales and mortgages of personalty unaccompanied by an actual, immediate and continued change of possession, are void against creditors of vendor or mortgagor, and subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith for value, unless the written instrument of sale or mortgage, or a true copy, be filed with the County Court Clerk of the county where vendor or mortgagor resides; or if not resident, then where the goods were at time of contract, accompanied with affidavit of vendee or mortgagee showing good faith of transaction. And such mortgage must be renewed within one year from date of filing, otherwise it will cease to be valid as against creditors of the mortgagor, and against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees in good faith for valuable consideration.

COURTS.—(1) Division Court holds jurisdiction in tort to $40; in debt, breach of covenant or contract, money demand and account to $100, unless balance is of an unsettled account in the aggregate of over $200, when County Court holds plea. Cases may be raised to Superior Court on Judge's order. (2) County Court's jurisdiction—(1) Personal actions and wrongs from $40 to $200; (2) Debt, covenant, contract, account, etc., when liquidated by act or signature of parties, $100 to $400, with right of appeal to Superior Courts; (3) Courts of Queen's Bench and Common Pleas (Superior Courts) have concurrent jurisdiction in all actions, causes and suits, criminal civil, real, personal and mixed. Practice similar to English practice.

DEEDS.—When executed out of Ontario, the affidavit of execution required for registry purposes must be administered by any one of the hereinafter mentioned officials:

1. If executed in Province of Quebec, by a Judge or Prothonotary of the Superior Courts, or a Clerk of the Circuit Court, or a Commissioner authorized to take affidavits in Quebec for the Ontario Courts, or a Notary Public certified under his official seal.

2. In Great Britain or Ireland and British Colonies, by a Judge of the Superior or County Courts, or the Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city or town under the common seal, or a Commissioner for taking affidavits for the Ontario Courts, or Notary Public under his seal.

3. In the United States or other foreign country, by a Judge of any Court of Record, or Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any city or town under common seal, or a Consul or Vice-Consul of H. M., or a Notary Public under official seal. In addition to the above, the affidavit will be sufficient if sworn before any Commissioner appointed by the Lieutenant Governor for taking affidavits for the Ontario Courts.

EVIDENCE.—All parties can testify; no exception made as to husband and wife; but in suits by or against personal representatives, the evidence of either party as to matters occurring prior to death of party represented, must be corroborated by other material evidence.

EXECUTION.—Issues on judgment by default after eight days from last day for appearance to writ, in cases of debt, or otherwise amount must be assessed by the Court. Judgment on verdict cannot be entered in the Superior Courts until the fifth day of ensuing term; in the County Court, may be entered on third day of term, provided no motion for new trial has been made, and execution may issue forthwith on entry of judgment. In Division Court execution usually issues on the expiry of 14 days after hearing. In all cases, however, after verdict, Court may grant immediate execution on fraud being shown on part of defendant. Executions may issue concurrently against goods and lands of debtor.

EXEMPTION.—The bed, bedding and bedsteads in ordinary use, necessary and ordinary wearing apparel of debtor and his family, one stove and pipes, one crane and appendages, one pair of andirons, one set of cooking utensils, one pair of tongs and shovel, one table, six chairs, six knives, six forks, six plates, six teacups, six saucers, one sugar basin, one milk jug, one teapot, six spoons, all spinning wheels and weaving looms in domestic use, ten volumes of books, one axe, one saw, one gun, six traps, and such fishing tackle and seines as are in common use, all necessary fuel, meat fish, flour, and vegetables actually for use, sufficient for thirty days and not exceeding $40 in value; one cow, four sheep, two hogs, and food therefor for 30 days, tools and implements or chattels usually in the debtor's occupation to value of $60. No article exempt from seizure for debt contracted on account of identical article.

GARNISHMENT OF DEBTS.—In Division Court plaintiff may (except in suit for damages) garnish debts due or accruing due to the defendant at commencement of suit or at any time after judgment entered; and judgment debtor may be ordered to pay certain sums monthly in satisfaction of judgment. In Superior and County Courts orders to garnish debts are granted after judgment obtained. Debts due mechanics, workmen, servants, or employees, in respect of wages, if under $25 are exempt from garnishment; if in excess of $5 only the excess can be garnished, unless such debt was contracted previously to the 1st of October, 1874, in which case the conditional exemption does not apply.

HOMESTEAD.—In the free grant districts 200 acres may be granted by the Crown to actual settlers over 18 years old, which grants are absolutely exempt from seizure before issue of patent. After issue, as long as any interest in the land is owned by settler, his widow, or heirs, it is exempt during twenty years from date of location, unless for debt secured by a valid mortgage, made subsequent to such issue.

INTEREST.—Parties may agree as to rate. Banks and insurance companies are limited to certain rates. In absence of agreement the legal rate is six per cent.

LIEN.—Judgment is no lien, but creditor, upon depositing with the sheriff writs of fi. fa. against defendant's goods and lands, binds such property from delivery. These writs may issue simultaneously, but debt must be levied against the goods before proceeding on the lands.

LIMITATION.—On simple contract, debts, and money demands, six years. On contracts under seal, twenty years. No distinction made as to non-resident plaintiff. Part payment of principal or payment of interest will prevent the debt from being barred, and any acknowledgment in writing of the debt, or promise in writing to pay the same will have the like effect. The acknowledgment, however, must be such as will justify the inference of a promise to pay, and such acknowledgment or promise must be signed by the debtor or his authorized agent.

MARRIED WOMEN.—Real and personal estate exempt from husband's debts. His possession of wife's personality does not render the same liable for his debts. A married woman may purchase stocks, deposit money in Banks in her own name, give receipts therefor, sue for, and be sued on account of her own property in her own name, as if she were femme sole. Husband is not liable for debts of wife, regarding her separate employment.

NOTARY.—Appointed by Lieut.-Governor. He draws, passes, and issues deeds, contracts, charter parties, and other mercantile transactions, attests all commercial instruments for public protestation. All foreign Bills and notes must be protested by a notary. Inland Bills and notes do not necessarily require protest, yet protest is always advisable, as the prosecution of the protest is prima facie evidence of allegations therein contained.

INSOLVENCY.—The Act of 1875 applies to Traders only. For the different lines of business which come under the head of "Traders" within the meaning of the Act, see "Summary of Dominion Bankrupt Law." Also, see the same, regarding the abolition of voluntary assignments; who shall be deemed an Insolvent, under the Act; regulations concerning composition and discharge of Insolvent, &c. &c.

OFFICIAL ASSIGNEES are appointed by the Governor in Council. Claims should be filed within one month after a notification by assignee.

If after the expiration of one year from the date of assignment or issue of attachment the Insolvent has not obtained from the required proportion of his creditors a consent to his Discharge, he may apply to the Judge for his discharge, and such application may be opposed by any creditor, upon any ground upon which the confirmation of a discharge may be opposed.

The confirmation of a discharge consented to by the Creditors, or a discharge granted, on application to the Judge after expiration of a year from assignment or attachment, will free the debtor from all liabilities mentioned or set forth in the statement of his affairs, exhibited at the first meeting of Creditors, or which may be shown by any supplementary list of Creditors, furnished by the Insolvent, previous to his discharge; but will not free him from any debt due as damages for assault, &c., or due by Insolvent as trustee executor, or administrator, &c.

SECURITY FOR COST.—A non-resident plaintiff must give security for costs of suit if application therefor be made by the defendant, unless such plaintiff has real estate within the Province available to satisfy such costs.

SUMMARY OF THE DOMINION BANKRUPT LAW.

The object of our Bankrupt Laws is to enable honest, but unfortunate debtors of a certain class, to become relieved from their liabilities, and give them an opportunity to start again in business. The rights of the creditor (to whom the term "unfortunate" is in most cases equally applicable) are also protected as fully as can be done without defeating the object of the Act.

"The Insolvent Act of 1875," applies to each and every Province in the whole Dominion. This Act applies to Traders only, and expressly includes by its provisions, all trading co-partnerships and companies—whether incorporated or not—(except Incorporated Banks, Insurance, Railway, and Telegraph Companies), and the following persons, viz.:—Apothecaries, Auctioneers, Bankers, Brokers, Brickmakers, Builders, Carpenters, Carriers, Cattle or Sheep Salesmen, Coach Proprietors, Dyers, Fullers, Keepers of Inns, Taverns, Hotels, or Coffee Houses, Limeburners, Livery-stable Keepers, Market-gardeners, Millers, Miners, Packers, Printers, Quarymen, Share-brokers, Shipwrights, Stock-brokers, Stock-jobbers, Victuallers, Warehousemen, Wharfingers, Persons insuring Ships or their Freights, or other matters against perils of the sea; Persons using the Trade of Merchandise, by way of Bargaining, Bartering, Commission, Consignment, Exchange, or otherwise, in gross, or by retail; and Persons who either for themselves, or as Agents or Factors for others, seek their living by buying and selling, or buying and letting for hire, goods or commodities, or by the workmanship or the conversion of goods or commodities, &c., &c.; but not Farmers, Graziers, common Laborers, or Workmen for hire, nor members of any Partnership, Association, or Company, which cannot be adjudged Bankrupt under the Act.

Voluntary assignments have been abolished by the late Act; and now it is necessary—if a debtor ceases to meet his liabilities generally, as they become due, or after he has committed an act of Bankruptcy, before he can assign—that a DEMAND to do so should be made upon him by any one or more of his creditors, for $100.00 each and amounting in the aggregate to $300.00, who have first filed an affidavit that they are not in collusion with the debtor. A similar affidavit of a creditor for not less than $200.00—and disclosing the fact that the debtor is insolvent—is required before a Writ of Attachment can be issued to place an estate in compulsory liquidation.

A debtor is deemed insolvent if he ceases to meet his liabilities generally as they become due; or if he has called a meeting of his creditors for the purpose of compounding with them;—or if he has exhibited a statement showing his inability to meet his liabilities;—or has otherwise acknowledged his insolvency;—if he absconds or is about to abscond from Canada, with intent to defraud, defeat, or delay any creditor, or to avoid arrest or service of legal process;—or if, being out of Canada, he remains, with a like intent; or if he conceals himself in Canada with a like intent; or if, with such intent, he secretes, or disposes of any of his property, or has procured the same to be seized for a sum exceeding $200.00;—or if he has been or is imprisoned for more than thirty days in a civil action for $200.00 or upwards;—or if he is on the limits, or has escaped;—or if he makes default to appear, to be examined;—or if he wilfully disobeys any order made for payment of his debts;—or if he makes an assignment, sale, or conveyance, otherwise than under the Act, not being able to meet his liabilities;—or if he permits any execution, under which any of his property is seized, to remain unsatisfied until within four days of the time fixed for the sale thereof, or for fifteen days after such seizure.

Upon a Trader being adjudged Bankrupt, or making an assignment, his whole estate, real and personal, including all Books of Account, Vouchers, Letters, Accounts, Moneys, Negotiable Papers, Stocks, Bonds, Securities, &c., &c., pass to, and become vested in, the Official Assignee of the county, who holds the same until an Assignee is appointed in trust for the creditors, and subject to the orders of the Court or a Judge.

The following property, however, (besides trust property) is exempted from the operation of the Act:—

- (1) The beds, bedding, and bedsteads in ordinary use by the debtor and his family.
- (2) The necessary and ordinary wearing apparel of the debtor and his family.
- (3) One stove and pipes, one crane and appendages, one pair of andirons, one set cooking utensils, one pair of tongs and shovel, one table, six chairs, six knives, forks, spoons, plates, teacups and saucers, one sugar-basin, milk-jug, and tea-pot, all spinning wheels and weaving looms in domestic use, ten volumes of books, one axe, saw, and gun, six traps, and fishing tackle and seine in common use.
- (4) All necessary fuel, meat, fish, flour, and vegetables actually provided for family use, being not more than sufficient for thirty days, and not exceeding in value $40.00.
- (5) One cow, four sheep, two hogs, and food therefor for thirty days.
- (6) The tools, implements, or chattels ordinarily used in the debtor's occupation, to the value of $60.00.

In Quebec, New Brunswick, and Prince Edward Island, there is a slight but immaterial difference in the exemptions.

Until the Insolvent's discharge his estate belongs to his creditors, who may, at a meeting called for that purpose, accept a compromise offered by the debtor; or confirm a deed of composition or discharge obtained by the debtor.

If at the first meeting of the creditors, or at any time thereafter, the Insolvent files with the Assignee a consent in writing to his discharge, or a deed of composition and discharge, signed by at least a majority in number of the creditors, who have then respectively proved claims of $100.00 or upwards; or if at such first or any subsequent meeting, an offer in writing be made by the Insolvent to compromise with his creditors—specifying the terms and conditions of the proposed composition—and such offer be approved of by a majority in number of such creditors present at such meeting, the Assignee shall call another meeting of the creditors to take such consent or such deed or offer of composition and discharge into consideration ; at which meeting the creditors present may, by resolution to that effect, express their approval thereof, or dissent therefrom ; and any creditor may file his objections in writing, to the discharge.

If, at the close of the meeting, or at any time thereafter, the Insolvent has obtained the assent to his discharge, or to the proposed composition and discharge, of a majority in number of his creditors for $100.00 and upwards—and who represent at least three-fourths in value of all the claims of $100.00 or upwards, which have been proved—the Insolvent is entitled to a certificate; and may afterwards apply for a confirmation of his discharge.

In case the debtor cannot obtain a discharge from the required proportion of his creditors, and it appears that his estate has not paid or is not likely to realize thirty-three cents on the dollar on the unsecured claims, and sufficient account is not given for the deficiency, the Court may in its discretion suspend or refuse altogether the discharge of the Insolvent. This is a very wholesome provision, and will tend to discourage business men from trading, when their assets are only thirty-three per cent. of their liabilities.

A discharge may be suspended, or made second class, and in some cases will be refused altogether ;—as when the Insolvent has been guilty of any fraud or fraudulent preference, or certain other prohibited acts within the meaning of the Act. Moreover, in order to prevent unjust preferences, the Act makes void all gratuitous contracts made by a debtor afterwards becoming Insolvent, within three months next preceding his insolvency ;—also all contracts by which creditors are obstructed or delayed, made by a debtor unable to meet his engagements, afterwards becoming Insolvent, with a person knowing such inability, or having probable cause for believing such inability to exist, or after such inability is public and notorious, whether such person be his creditor or not. Certain other contracts made with intent to defraud creditors, are also declared void, or voidable.

In cases where a creditor has obtained security for his claim in such a way as not to amount to a fraudulent preference, upon the insolvency of the debtor he must specify the nature and amount of such security, and put a specified value thereon ; and the assignee, under the authority of the creditors, may either consent to his right to rank for such liability, or to the retention of the property constituting such security at such specified value ;—or the assignee may require an assignment of the security at an advance of ten per cent. upon such specified value ; and in either of such cases the difference between the value at which the security is retained, or assumed, and the amount of the claim of such creditor shall be the amount for which he shall rank and vote on the estate.

Privileged creditors should be careful in dealing with their claims, to comply with the provisions of the Act ; otherwise they may unintentionally—as far as they are concerned—waive their rights as privileged creditors, for it is only as creditors for the amount not secured that they have a voice in the matter of the Insolvent's estate.

If a creditor cannot be personally present at a meeting he may be represented by any person having a written authority to vote on his behalf.

The Act has certain provisions whereby the Insolvent may be criminally punished for certain frauds, such as purchasing goods on credit knowing himself unable to pay;—not fully discovering, or not delivering over his property, &c.;—removing his property;—not denouncing false claims;—falsifying schedule, &c., &c.

Procedure in the case of Incorporated Companies is also regulated by the Act.

During the last Session of the Dominion Parliament a Bill was introduced and passed abolishing the Bankrupt Act of 1875, but failed, after considerable discussion, to pass the Senate.

LEGAL HINTS FOR BUSINESS MEN.

Those engaged in commercial pursuits should have a knowledge of the Laws relating to Business. Very few, however, have the time to study up the "ponderous tomes," which are the special study and delight of Lawyers. Such persons will find a great deal of Law "boiled down" in the following sentences, which are well worthy of careful perusal and preservation :—1. Ignorance of the law excuses no one. 2. An agreement without consideration is void. 3. It is not legally necessary to have on a note "for value received," but it is better to have it so stated. 4. A note obtained by fraud, or from a person in a state of intoxication, cannot be collected. 5. If a note be lost or stolen, it does not release the maker; he must pay it if the consideration for which it was given can be proven. 6. Notes bear interest only when so stated. 7. A note made on Sunday is not void. Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced. 8. A note made by a minor or lunatic is void, and so are contracts made with them. 9. An endorser of a note is exempt from liability if not served with notice of dishonor within twenty-four hours of its non-payment. 10. Principals are responsible for the acts of their agents. 11. Each individual in a firm is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm. 12. It is a fraud to conceal a fraud. 13. The acts of one partner bind all the rest. 14. Signatures made with a lead pencil are good in law. 15. The law compels no one to do impossibilities.

The Town of Port Hope and Township of Hope.

The history of these now populous and wealthy municipalities has, from the very earliest settlement of the country, been so closely identical, the one with the other, that any reference to either equally affects the other, even since they became separated by the operation of municipal laws. Previous to this event, town and townships were one and the same, and anything in respect to their early settlement, subsequent development, and present condition, would seem more appropriately dealt with in conjunction, than on the assumption that they are now, —in some respects at least,—entirely independent and separate localities.

Originally, of course, they both composed the Township of Hope, which was the first township surveyed by the Government of Upper Canada along the North shore of Ontario, West of the celebrated "Ten Towns" of the Bay of Quinte District. Both in euphony and depth of meaning, the name given to the new township seems appropriate, under which it was surveyed as well as settled,—being in the latter—as well as in the former respects, the first on the North Shore and the Home of the refugees, whose loyalty to a political principle, caused them to brave the dangers of the bivouac and the battlefield, from which that fortune which ever favors the brave, only delivered them to become the objects of hatred to a populace whose cause they had unsuccessfully resisted in arms, and whose victories instead of being tempered with mercy, resulted in making the United Empire Loyalists strangers in a strange land, with their possessions confiscated, their families ostracised, and themselves ruthlessly persecuted and proscribed.

The chief features in connection with the exodus from the "Thirteen Colonies" of the men who are justly recognized as the fathers of Upper Canada, are so familiar to all Canadians, as to need no comment here, while the special circumstances in connection with the early settlement of this particular locality are briefly referred to in the General Sketch of the Early Settlement of the Counties; from which it will be seen that Nathaniel Ashford and James Stevens, ex-officers in the British, or "Tory," contingent of Burgoyne's army, and former residents of Dutchess County, New York, were the first white settlers—and that the date of their location was June 3rd, 1793. Five days later, a party of Government Engineers landed, having been sent by Governor Simcoe, to survey a new township, to be called the "Township of Hope," from the territory adjacent to the Indian village of Cochingomink, at the mouth of what is now Smith's Creek, at which point a fur-trading station of the Nor-west Fur Company had been established some five years previously, under the charge of one Peter Smith, who, previous to 1793, had been succeeded by one Hirkimer, who occupied the post as a trader, on the arrival of the pioneers, as above mentioned. With this party of Engineers came Myn-dert Harris and Lawrence Johnston, also W. E. Loyalists, under the direction of Capt. Walton, a former influential citizen of Philadelphia, whose friendliness to the British, when they occupied that city, caused Governor Simcoe to grant him certain privileges elsewhere referred to. Those who subsequently came into the settlement during the first year of its existence, 1793, are elsewhere referred to.

The great event in the early history of "The Creek" as the settlement was called for years was the building of the Mill on the sight of the present Stone Mills, by Alias Smith, another U. E. Loyalist settler of '95, in which year, he in conjunction with Capt. Walton procured a patent of the greater part of the present business portion of Port Hope on condition of erecting the said Mill and using due diligence in the completion of the same. Though commenced in 1795 it occupied two years to put it into operation, by reason of the many intervening obstacles, which were however, one by one, successfully overcome.

The early development of the new settlement was by no means rapid; as we find that in 1810 when it had been in existence twenty-seven years, the number of assessed ratepayers was only 67, with a population of 394, total valuation of property, personal and real, £6,012 14s., and it was not until during and subsequent to the Anglo-American war of 1812-15 that any considerable additions to the population took place, but about this time large numbers of American families arrived and took up their residence, at once adding a material importance to the Smith's Creek settlement. In 1825 the population was 1451, and in 1830, 1742. In 1815, Jeremiah Brittan opened up on Mill Street opposite the Grist Mill, now the stone Mills, a general store the first in the settlement, and was followed by Fothergill and Brown. In 1817 a POST OFFICE was established, Charles Fothergill receiving the appointment of Post Master; and two years later, (1819) at a public meeting of the inhabitants, the name of "Smith's Creek" was changed to that of its present one, Port Hope, at the suggestion of Hon. G. S. Boulton, then a resident of this place, which name was confirmed by the Legislature of Upper Canada.

The first distillery, for which industry Port Hope subsequently became noted, was built during the year 1802 by Elias Smith, and the first tannery in 1800 by Joseph Caldwell, the second in 1820 by Joseph Roberts.

The village and township at this period (1820) contained 754 inhabitants, who held Town Meetings on the first Monday in January of each year in accordance with the English custom,—as practised in the United States previous to the Revolution—when laws were made and Town officers appointed for Municipal purposes. The village and Township property was assessed alike, and the taxes collected therefrom, amounting to only a few dollars yearly, went into one common fund. The earliest record of Township matters the Publisher is able to find, is an old unbound book, made of common foolscap paper, containing the proceedings of Town Meetings from 1822 to 1836, together with the "Ear marks of sheep, cattle and hogs, belonging to the inhabitants of Port Hope and neighborhood," of which the following is a copy of the meeting held January, 1822:—

"At a Town Meeting, held in the Wellington Inn, Port Hope, the first Monday in January, 1822, the following persons were chosen for Town Officers, namely:

The Port Hope Harbor Company was incorporated in 1829, Mr. John D. Smith donating ten acres of land for harbor purposes. During the first years of the new Company's existence local dissensions occurred amongst its shareholders, which seriously affected its usefulness and development. Considerable sums of money, both private and public, have at various times been spent in enlarging and otherwise improving the harbor, and at present it is considered one of the safest and best on the North Shore of Ontario. The shipments from this port during the season of 1879 have been as follows:—Wheat, 296,522 bushels; barley, 475,477 bushels; rye, 17,779 bushels; peas, 38,288 bushels; 50,000,000 feet of lumber, and 13,311,000 shingles and lath. The remainder of exports consisted largely of stock and miscellaneous produce.

MANUFACTURES.

In the usual sense of the term Port Hope is not a manufacturing town, yet the fine water privileges of Smith's Creek have been utilized by many of its citizens to advantage; several privileges still, however, lie idle, which enterprising men might render profitable to themselves and advantageous to the town. Few places in Canada present more excellent manufacturing facilities than Port Hope and vicinity, or a better prospect of a remunerative return. Capitalists and others from a distance, who desire to invest their means, should visit Port Hope and examine the advantages we have over other places. A brief glance at some of our manufacturing establishments will give the reader an idea of what is being done.

The Foundry and Machine Shops of Helm & Nicholls is situated upon Queen street, where the manufacture of steam engines, water wheels and a general foundry business is carried on by practical mechanics of large and varied experience, and it is gratifying to know that their business is increasing.

The Cavan street Foundry, Stove and Plough manufactory of Thos. Hayden is situated upon Cavan street. This establishment is fitted up with all the necessary machinery for the manufacture of ploughs, stoves, and general castings. The work turned out by this concern ranks among the best in the country. Mr. Hayden's ploughs have a wide spread reputation, particularly the plough known as "the Boss."

W. J. Wallace's Machine and Repair Shops are also situated on Cavan street, (east side) where a general iron manufacturing and repair business is done. Mr. Wallace is an experienced machinist and does an extensive business in his line.

The Carriage and Wagon manufacturing industry is represented by James O'Brien & Son, and Robert Chalk, both of whom are located upon Cavan street, and have well established shops, turning out annually large numbers of first-class vehicles, which find a ready market.

There are four Flouring and Custom Mills. The stone mills, situated on Mill street, four run of stones, erected in 1853, and occupied by Mr. G. B. Salter, who also carries on Durham mills, Canton, Hope, and an extensive grain and commission business. The output of the former mill is 200 barrels per day, and which at certain seasons of the year, run to its full capacity.

The Ontario Flouring Mills of Mr. Peter McCabe are situated on Ontario street, and do a large custom and merchant business.

Barrett's Flouring and Saw Mill, Barrett street, erected 1854, does an extensive custom business, and is at present carried on by Mr. H. Barrett.

Beamishes Flouring and Plaster Mills, Cavan street, also do a good business.

There is one Glue Factory, situated on North Cavan street, owned and carried on by Mr. J. Barnard, who finds a ready market for his goods.

Wm. Craig & Sons, Morroco Factory and Tannery, is situated on Cavan street, and was established in 1852, and has, ever since its commencement, done a prosperous business, employing a large number of hands.

James Robertson's Tannery is situated on Robertson street, where large quantities of raw material is prepared for the market.

Highland Spring Brewery and Malt House, Cavan street, is carried on by Mr. T. H. Ambrose, who manufactures annually immense quantities of Pale and Amber Ales, for home consumption and shipment to various parts of the Dominion.

The Fountain Brewery, Mill street, James Calcutt, proprietor, manufactures Ale and Porter, quantities of which is also shipped to points at a distance.

John Warmigton, Compounder and Manufacturer of Plain Sodas and Ginger Ale, is also located on Mill street, and does a good business in his line.

There are three Sash and Door Factories and Planing Mills. Those of J. W. Wallace & Co., Contractors and Builders, and manufacturers of sash, doors, and blinds, is situated on Queen street.

P. T. Kellaway, Contractor and Builder and Manufacturer of Sash, Doors, and Blinds, is located on Mill street.

J. Trick's Planing Mill and Well Tube Factory, is located in Barrett's block, Cavan street.

John Walker's Steam Chair and Cabinet Factory, is situated on Ontario street, where all kinds of chairs and other furniture is manufactured. This industry employs a number of hands, and is run to its full capacity.

Mr. E. G. Chant's Button Factory, is situated on Cavan street, where thousands of gross of buttons are annually manufactured and sold to the trade.

J. J. Turner's Sail and Awning Manufactory, is located in the ware house loft at the Wharf, where anything in his or the ship chandler's line may be obtained.

Port Hope also possesses an extensive Car Manufacturing Establishment, situated upon Ontario street. This concern has only been carried on at intervals since its erection, and is at present shut down for want of business and other causes,

There are several first-class general blacksmith and shoeing shops located at convenient points within the business portions of the town. Also several harness and saddlery manufacturing establishments, where a superior article of harness is manufactured.

The general business of Port Hope is represented by numerous fine stores and workshops of the several branches of mechanical industry usually found in a town of its size, all of which may, notwithstanding the season of commercial depression just passed, be said to do a good healthy business.

It may be safely asserted that few towns in Canada, of equal size can compare with Port Hope in the character of its school accommodation, whether for number and convenience, variety and wide range of subjects, or general and special efficiency and excellencies. It is unnecessary here to dwell upon the many phases the system has passed through since the days of rude log cabins, wherein the primitive school master assayed to direct the young idea, suffice it to say the progress made in educational matters, has at all times, been in keeping with the requirements of the age.

Trinity College School, the principal institution of learning is located just within the eastern limits of the Corporation of the Town, delightfully situated on what was formerly known as a portion of Ward's Hill, commanding a fine view of the lake and surrounding country. This school is a branch of Trinity College, Toronto, and was first established in the village of Weston in 1865. In consequence of liberal inducements held out by the residents of Port Hope, it was removed in 1868 and established in buildings provided by the townspeople. In '71 the property which then consisted of ten acres of land, together with the buildings thereon were subsequently purchased by the school, and larger and more commodious buildings erected, which were occupied in 1872, when the school was also incorporated, several additions both to the buildings and the land connected therewith have since been made and the whole premises now include something over twenty acres. The total cost of buildings amounted to about $60,000, the school is well sustained, the present attendance being about 150 pupils, and adds considerably to the importance and prosperity of the town—Faculty—1879-80—Visitor, the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Toronto. Governing Body : Hon. G. W. Allen, Senator, Chancellor, of the University, Rev. the Provost of Trinity College, Rev. Prof. Boys, M. A., Rev. Prof. Jones, M. A., Rev. C. J. S. Bethune, M. Powers, M. D., Sergeant Elliott (46th Battalion), Drill Instructor. The School year is divided into three terms, viz : Michaelmas Term, from September 20th to December 21st ; Lent Term, from January 8th to April 1st : Trinity Term, from April 15th to July 15th.

In addition to the above mentioned institution Port Hope contains an excellent central or high and common school united (which is also since the re-organization of the school Act) a Model School, situated upon Pine Street, Mr. Purslow, Head Master, besides three primary schools.

The East Primary School is situated upon McGill and Elgin Streets Protestant Hill.

The Central Primary School is situated upon Walton Street over the Firemen's Hall and Engine House.

The West Primary School is situated upon Sullivan Street, English-town.

The Department of Public Institution is under the direct supervision of a Board of Education composed of the following named gentlemen: Lewis Ross, Chairman; Rea Dickson, L. B. Powers, M. D., J. W. Clemesha, M. D., Edward Budge, Major Guernsey, and H. V. Sanders, Clerk of Board.

Port Hope also sustains a Mechanics Institute situated upon Walton Street (North Side) organized in 1855, present membership, about 200.

There are three incorporated Bank agencies. viz: Bank of Toronto, corner of Walton and Queen Streets, W. R. Wadsworth, Manager; Bank of Ontario, John Street, G. H. G. McVitty, Manager; Bank of Montreal, Walton Street, C. L. Thompson, Manager, and Stanley Paterson's private Banking House and Exchange Office, Express Office, Walton Street.

CHURCHES.

In estimating the general attributes of any locality, or character of any community, the number and description of its christian churches is one of the chief points which attract attention, and upon their condition may be based, probably, a more accurate calculation as to the several distinguishing features of the place and its people than upon any other single emblem of their existence. Parties coming into Port Hope naturally conclude that it must be inhabited by an enterprising, prosperous, intelligent and moral people, and possessing all the requirements and requirements of an enlightened age.

Since the erection and dedication of St. Mark's (Episcopal) Church, on King street, in 1818, the first in the village, seven other ecclesiastical edifices have been built and dedicated to public worship.

The Canada Methodist Church, corner of Brown and South streets, is incomparably the finest church building in Port Hope, and was opened for public worship in March, 1878. Cost, about $60,000; seating capacity, 1500; reflecting credit and enterprise upon its congregation.

Next in importance is St. John's (Episcopal) Church, erected in 1869, situated upon Pine street. Cost, $15,000; seating capacity, 700.

The United Presbyterian Church, situated on Mill street, erected in 1864 at a cost of $3,000. Seating capacity, 350.

Canada Presbyterian Church, situated on Charles street. Erected in 1865 at a cost of $8,000.

The Baptist Church, situated on John street. Erected in 1867, costing $9,000. Seating capacity about 500.

The Bible Christian Church, on Walton street, erected about 1860. Cost, about $3,000; seating capacity, about 350.

St. Mary's Church, (R. C.), situated on Walton street, erected in 1852, costing altogether about $12,000. Seating capacity, 1,000.

In addition to the several churches above-named there is a well-organized Bible Society, established in 1855.

The Young Men's Christian Association own a fine building on John street. President, W. A. Copeland; Secretary, Robert Grey.

The first newspaper was started in Port Hope in 1831, by John Vail. The Gazette was commenced by Wm. Furby in 1844. Other journals have been started at various times. There are at present two daily and three weekly newspapers. The daily and weekly Guide, George Wilson & Sons, publishers and proprietors. The daily and weekly Times, J. B. The only events of great importance that have occurred in the history of Port Hope since its incorporation have been the construction of the Grand Trunk and Midland Railways in 1857, and the present system of waterworks, (of recent date), all of which have added materially to its prosperity and wealth.

MIDLAND RAILWAY OF CANADA.

The following descriptive sketch of the Midland Railway, its ramifications and sources of revenue, will be read with interest:—

The Midland Railway, having its southern terminus at Port Hope, on Lake Ontario, runs in a north-westerly direction to Midland, on Lake Huron, and this connection between the two vast water systems of Canada opens up the shortest and most available route between the west and the east, the only other railway approaching the facilities offered by the Midland being the Northern Railway of Canada, which runs from Collingwood, or Penetanguishene, to Toronto, and consequently the Midland Railway has the advantage of having its terminus 63 miles nearer the seaboard than that of its rival, the Northern Railway. The harbor at Midland is unequalled in Upper Canada for its depth of water, ample accommodation combined with the utmost security, so that as soon as the elevators and wharves which are now being arranged for are completed, the Midland may be expected to come at once to the front as the most important link in the through route for the immense business which is pouring from Chicago, Milwaukee, Duluth, and the entire western continent, via the St. Lawrence, to the markets of Europe, in addition to which a scheme has been organized for the building of the Ontario Pacific Junction Railway from Gravenhurst to the south-east bay of Lake Nipissing, from which point the Dominion Government intend to start the Canada Pacific Railway, to connect the railway system of Ontario with the Pacific Ocean. It is also expected that the Dominion Government will build a loop line from Lake Nipissing, or from some eastern point on the Canada Pacific Railway, to the Sault St. Marie, where direct connection will be made with the Northern Pacific and other American Trunk lines serving the northern portion of the United States, between the Pacific Ocean and the East. These schemes, when completed, will supply to the Midland Railway of Canada a volume of business which, at the present moment, would be looked upon as visionary if estimated. But the Midland Railway already possesses running powers between Orillia and Gravenhurst, and as its President and one of its Directors are members of the Board of the Ontario Pacific Junction Railway, and as the Government of Canada will undoubtedly build the Canada Pacific Railway, the prospects of the Midland for a through business in this connection seem to be assured, and the distances to be sailed in order to complete the route are as follows :

Gravenhurst to South Bay, Lake Nipissing, 107 miles, and from thence to Sault St. Marie, 220 miles. This makes the total distance from Sault St. Marie to Port Hope only 541 miles, or from the eastern terminus of the Canada Pacific Railway, 321 miles ; from the above, it will be seen that the Midland is the shortest combined route between the west and the east, viz : via water from Lake Superior to Midland, thence via rail to Port Hope, and thence via the Grand Trunk Railway, or by water via Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence river. It is also the best all-rail route, viz., the Canada Pacific Railway in the west, forming from thence the shortest and most direct connection with the Grand Trunk and Intercolonial Railways to the Atlantic ; and the business which it will be called upon to carry for this through trade is sure to be of vast importance to the Counties through which the Midland Railway runs. In addition to through traffic, the Midland forms an important outlet for the trade of the Counties of Durham, Peterboro, Victoria and Simcoe. Commencing at the northern end of the Line, we find three large lumber mills located at Midland, with a thriving flour and grist mill, and the village rapidly growing into importance. From this point, during the summer season, steamers ply regularly in connection with Midland Railway trains to Parry Sound, Byng Inlet, the French River, Killarney, Manitoulin Islands, and the Sault St. Marie, and by the fall of 1880 through lines of steamers will be established, for what is termed the Grand Tour, through Lakes Superior and Michigan. Midland forms the natural outlet for the square timber which is manufactured on the Georgian Bay, and although the Railway was only opened to that point last July, large quantities of square timber have already accumulated at Midland, waiting the opening of navigation for 1880.

Coming South, the Wye River is first passed, on which is situated a small lumber mill with an agricultural settlement. The next point is Victoria Bay, at which there is an extensive lumber mill, with two shingle mills, and a settlement of about 250 people. The next point is Sturgeon Bay, where are two lumber mills, around which are clustered the habitations of the employees.

We now come to one of the most important sources of local trade on the road, viz., Waubaushene, at which place is situated the headquarters of the Georgian Bay Lumber Company. This firm has here, and at an opposite point, viz., at the mouth of the Severn River, two of the largest lumber mills in Canada, at which they manufacture annually from forty to sixty million feet of lumber, a large portion of which is shipped over the Railway to Port Hope, from whence it is exported to the eastern markets. This lumber industry has created at Waubauskene and the Severn, two flourishing villages, supplied with churches of all denominations, and good educational accommodation.

The next point is Coldwater, at which there are two or three shingle mills, and which is principally noted for its being the oldest settlement in Upper Canada; the French pioneers having first located there from Lower Canada, by the route of the Ottawa River, Lake Nipissing, the French River and Georgian Bay. Between Coldwater and Orillia, there are two moderate sized lumber mills, one being located at Satterthwaite, and the other at Unthoff.

The country between Orillia and Midland is newly and only partially settled; but along the whole distance of thirty-six miles, excellent land awaits to reward the labors of the first settlers.

Orillia is a thriving town, situated at the junction of Lakes Couchicing and Simcoe, having several important manufactories, of which lumber forms the principal source of revenue to the Midland Railway. The Northern Railway connects with the Midland here, thereby forming the shortest and easiest route to Gravenhurst, Bracebridge, and the Muskoka territory, direct connections being made with steamers, which ply daily on Lakes Joseph and Muskoka. Steamers also run from Orillia to all points on Lakes Couchicing and Simcoe.

From Orillia to Beaverton, the Midland Railway skirts the eastern shore of Lake Simcoe, passing the following places: Atherley, Uptergrove, Schepeler, Brechin and Gamebridge, thence running from Beaverton to Woodville, crossing the Toronto and Nipissing Railway at that point, and after passing Oakwood and Cambray, Lindsay is reached, being distant forty-three miles from Orillia. The country between Lindsay and Orillia may be briefly described as equalling in fertility any other in Ontario, well stocked with granaries and flour mills, but is at present somewhat thinly populated in the northern end.

Lindsay is one of the most important towns on the Midland Railway; forming as it does a Junction with the Victoria Railway, running to Fenelon Falls, Kinmount, the Snowden Iron Mines, Haliburton and destined to run through the timber region of the English Land Company. The terminus of the Whitby, Port Perry, & Lindsay Railway is also situated at Lindsay, and this road is now worked in connection with the Midland Railway as a short outlet from the north to the west the innumerable chain of Lakes situated in the North of the County of Peterboro' are also tapped here, through Sturgeon Lake and the Scugog River, bringing to the Midland Railway large quantities of Lumber from Bobcaygeon, and square timber from the back waters in addition to which the lumber manufactured from the extensive mills of Fenelon Falls and Lindsay seek the rails at this point. Lindsay also vies with Peterboro' at being the best back country flour and grain market east of Toronto.

From Lindsay to Port Hope a distance of 43 miles, the following places are passed at nearly all of which grain markets are established to a greater or less extent and the country is well suited for agricultural pursuits, viz., Reaboro, Omamee, Franklin, Brunswick, Bethany, Millbrook, and Garden Hill. At Millbrook a branch line runs to Lakefield a distance of 22 miles passing Fraserville, a small agricultural settlement, Peterboro', the County town of Peterboro', Nassua Mills a lumbering settlement, and thence along the Otonabee River to Lakefield. Peterboro' is the largest and most important town on the Midland Railway, having an extensive Woollen Factory, several large lumber and flour mills and other manufactories of almost every description, in addition to which its markets draw almost the entire grain crop of the county of Peterboro'.

The business at Nassau Mills is confined to lumber, whilst at Lakefield there are lumber and flour mills. The following routes are given for the information of travellers by the Midland Railway.

DURING WINTER SEASON.

To the Muskoka District, Parry Sound, etc., go to Orillia, thence via the Northern Railway to Gravenhurst, and thence by stage.

To Bobcaygeon, via the Victoria Railway from Lindsay to Fenelon Falls and thence by stage.

DURING SUMMER SEASON.

To Parry Sound, French River, and other points on the Georgian Bay, by steamer from Midland.

To Rama and points on Lake Couchiching by steamer from Orillia.

To Sturgeon Point Hotel, Bobcaygeon, etc., by steamer from Lindsay.

Another very pretty route to Bobcaygeon is by stage from Peterboro' to Bridgenorth, and thence by steamer through Chemong and Pigeon Lakes.

To Young's Point, Stoney Point and other places on the Stoney Lake chain of Lakes, by steamer from Lakefield.

The present Town of Port Hope,—its settlement and gradual development is but an example of the many prosperous Corporations to be found in this Province. The proverbial log hut of the pioneer settler of nearly a century ago disappears and is succeeded by blocks of brick, wood, stone, handsome public and ecclesiastical edifices, substantial school houses, palatial residences, and other evidences of advanced civilization. Few places in Canada have such a promising future before it as Port Hope, being the outlet of the vast lumbering

MIDLAND LOAN AND SAVINGS' CO.

In referring to the monetary institutions of the Town of Port Hope, the publisher inadvertently omitted to mention the Midland Loan and Savings Co. This Company, whose advertisement appears on the opposite page, was established in 1873, and from its very first organization up to the present, its business has been of a prosperous nature, realizing the most sanguine expectations of its promoters. Established on a sound financial basis, with a present paid up capital of $250,000, together with over $200,000 of deposits, all of which monies are invested in first mortgages on improved farm and other property, makes it one of the very safest monetary institutions in the Dominion.

The incorporation of the M. L. & S. Co. supplied a want long felt in this neighborhood by parties requiring money, on account of its superior facilities for effecting loans, and for the re-payment of the same, the present tariff being lower than that of any similar institution doing business in this locality.

The whole assets of the Company being invested in mortgages on real estate, no safer guarantee can be offered to depositors, while the well-known respectability and standing of the Directors, whose names we herewith append, places it amongst the leading monetary institutions of the Province:

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Col. A. T. H. Williams, M. P., PRESIDENT. William Craig, VICE-PRESIDENT. H. H. Meredith, R. C. Smith, W. W. Renwick, Nathan Choate, John Mulligan, R. Dingwall, and W. A. Copeland, AUDITORS. D. Chisholm, SOLICITOR. Stanley Paterson, SECRETARY-TREASURER.

TOWNSHIP OF HOPE.

On resuming the history of the Township of Hope, the early settlement and subsequent development of which is elsewhere referred to. It will be remembered that in the year 1835, the village of Port Hope became erected into a separate municipality, under the jurisdiction of a Board of Police. After separation, the Township retained its original form of government, electing its officers at "Town Meetings" held during the month of January in each year. From 1835 up to 1850, the first year of the operation of the "Municipal Act," the following persons were prominently identified with Township matters:—

Ebenezer Beebe, John Henry, William S. Marsh, Edward Melson, William Henderson, Dennis Riordan, Hugh Oke, Thos. and John McBurney, Zachariah Pollard, Bartholomew Mitchell, John Campbell, Wm. H. Allen, Wm. Hill, Wm. Kingsmill, Robert Seeney, Edward Gardiner, Wm. Peters, John Ager, Nathan Edwards, George Tisdall, Wm. Kilpatrick, James Dunbar, Samuel Martin, Jas. Sculthorp, Sylvester Dean, Israel Bowen, James Lowes, John Barkwell, Jacob Walton, George A. Burns, Wm. Barrett, James Allen, Leonard Curtis, Myndert Harris, Sr., James Crothers, Samuel S. Powers, Wm. Hatch, John Rosevear, Aaron Beebe, Wm. Moon, Jas. Gray, John Coleman, John and Alex. McElroy, John McMurtry, Wm. Bletcher, Charles Ruttan, James McMurtry, Roderick Mitchell, Thomas Dunn, Thomas Campbell, Arthur Parsons, James H. Hagerman, Peter Salter, S. Charlesworth, Henry Adams, R. B. Marsh, Chas. Meadows, Nichol Dodds, Thos. Gray, Alex. Broadfoot, Duncan Cleghorn, James Ashford, and others.

Charles W. Fox, who, previous to separation, held the office of Clerk, was retained in that capacity by the Township until the year 1838, when Wm. H. Allin was appointed to that position. In 1846, J. Harvey Hagerman was elected Clerk of the Township, holding the office until 1851.

In accordance with an Act of Parliament, passed during the Session of 1849-50, "to provide for the erection and establishment of rural municipalities," the Newcastle District Council, by By-law No. 168, divided the Township into five Rural Wards, and established therein a responsible form of government. An election was held—the first in the Township—resulting in the return of S. S. Powers, Ward No. 1, Town Reeve; Alex. Morrow, Ward No. 2, Deputy Town Reeve; Samuel Dickinson, Ward No. 3, Thomas Campbell, Ward No. 4, and John McMurtry, Ward No. 5, Councillors. In 1851, Duncan Cleghorn was appointed Township Clerk.

At a public meeting of the Ratepayers of Hope, held at Wm. S. Marsh's Inn, on the 2nd of September, 1852, it was "resolved"—principally by Port Hope people present—to grant a bonus of £15,000 in aid of the construction of the "Fort Hope and Peterboro' Railway," and on the 8th of the same month the Council, on motion of Thos. Campbell, decided to pass a By-law to that effect, which was carried out at a regular meeting, held on the 28th December of the same year.

In 1843-4, By-laws were passed subscribing for 440 shares—$8,820—of Stock in the Hope Consolidated Gravel Road Company, from which the Township derives an annual revenue.

From 1835 up to 1854, the Township Council were accustomed to meet at Wm. S. Marsh's Inn, on the York Road, now the residence of Mr. Charles F. Powers, and from the latter date up to 1877 at Irvine's Hotel, formerly Eli Crawley's. Canton. The Council at present meet in the Clerk's Office, Williams' Block, Port Hope.

In 1864, John Foott was appointed Clerk, and the Township was divided into two Electoral Sub-Divisions for municipal purposes, abolishing ward elections. It would occupy too much space to give in detail the names of the several Municipal officers from 1850 to the present time. In 1851, Nathan Choate was elected Town Reeve; 1853, R. B. Marsh; 1855, Robert Bedford; 1857, John Rosevear; 1863, John Walker; 1864, John Rosevear; 1866, Matthew Bragg. During the year 1866, the Reeve was—at the December session—on motion of Councillor Rosevear, authorized to sign the necessary documents, transferring the Stock held by the Corporation of Hope in the Port Hope, Peterboro' and Lindsay Railway to the Company, by which arrangement the Township receives annually the sum of $1,542.

In 1867, John Rosevear was again elected Reeve; 1868, R. A. Corbett, M. D.; 1869, E. Allan Powers, (and the same year, Nicholas Peters was appointed Township Clerk); 1870, John Rosevear; 1872, William Moon.

In 1872, the Township was divided into six Electoral Sub-Divisions for Parliamentary, and in 1876-7, for municipal purposes.

In 1874, John Rosevear again filled the Executive Chair; 1875, Geo. B. Salter; 1876, Henry Elliott, who is the present chief Executive Officer of the Township. In 1876, J. H. Parsons was appointed Clerk, holding the office one year.

On the 7th of February, 1877, E. Edwin Dodds was unanimously elected Township Clerk, a position which he still retains.

The Township of Hope contains within its geographical limits eighteen school houses, with an efficient corps of teachers; seventeen churches, of various denominations; two L. O. Lodges and two Good Templar Lodges; five flouring and grist mills, eight saw mills, two planing and matching mills, and one woollen and cloth factory, besides carriage and blacksmith shops located at convenient points throughout the Township.

The Township is also well supplied with post offices, having ten within its boundaries, all of which receive a daily mail from Port Hope and other distributing points. An historical and descriptive sketch of the several Post villages in the Township is herewith given, commencing in the order of the arrival of the mail at each office.

DALE P. O.—Better known as Bletcher's Corners, or Marysville, is situated upon Lots 2 and 3, in the 2nd and 3rd Concessions of Hope, two and a quarter miles from Port Hope, on the Peterboro' Gravel Road. The "Corners" was first settled by the families of Messrs.

Samuel and Carlton Gifford, Jonathan and Paul Bedford, Barnabas Bletcher, Johiada Boyce and J. Brown, in 1798-9. The first school house in the Township, now School Section No. 3, was built on the corner where the old Bletcher tavern stood. In 1819-20, Boyce built the saw mill now owned by Wm. H. McCallum. There is an M. E. Church, built several years ago; a cider mill, owned by John Bassett; a carpenter's and blacksmith's shop; Levi Reynold's brick yard, and John W. Stevenson's Hotel. A Post Office was established a few years ago, named Dale, with D. Vandervoort as Postmaster. Population, about 150.

WELCOME P. O.—Welcome village, better known as the "Guide Board," is situated upon Lots 12 and 13, in the 3rd and 4th Concessions of Hope, two and a half miles from Port Hope, on the Toronto Gravel Road. The village and adjoining lands were first settled in 1805-10, by Messrs. Hagerman, Low, Crippin and Bedford. In 1825, Noah Wood commenced the blacksmith's business, which he afterwards sold to Mr. Wm. Parsons, who in a few years again sold to Thomas Oke. In 1830, Westlick built the wagon shop, now owned by Thomas Roberts, and known as "Welcome Carriage Works." In 1837, Allen's tavern flourished at the Guide Board. On or about 1843, the Bible Christians erected on a lot adjoining what used to be Mr. John Brownscombe's Pottery Works, at the foot of the hill, a frame meeting house, which formed the nucleus of the present large congregation. The fine brick edifice now used by that body was built in 1856. In 1847, Mr. William Monaghan moved from Canton and opened a boot and shoe shop. John Grimson's wagon and Found's blacksmith and wagon shops were also established at an early date. School Section No. 4 is situated a short distance to the east of the village. About ten years ago a Post Office was established, William Hill being the present Postmaster. Population, about 200.

CANTON P. O.—Canton village, formerly "Hope Church," is centrally located upon Lots 12 and 13, in the 4th Concession of Hope, five miles from Port Hope, and was settled in 1805 by the families of Messrs. Harris, Hawkins, and Callender—shortly followed by those of Messrs. Bowen, Johnson and others. In 1820, Reuben P. Grant, father of R. C. Grant, built a house on the corner, where the Post Office now stands—the first in the village. During 1825 Potter completed his saw mill, immediately west of where the flouring mill now stands, which he sold to R. P. Grant, who, in 1835, conveyed to Joseph Ayers the privilege of erecting a grist mill upon the same dam. Mr. Ayers dying, the business was carried on for some years by his father-in-law, Emanuel Mann, who in 1844, transferred the property to the late Peter Salter, who built an addition thereto and otherwise improved what is now known as "Durham Mills." In 1820 a log school house was built upon the corner of Mr. Hawkins' lot, where James Rutledge taught school for many years, and which, until 1832, was used as a place of public worship by the Wesleyan Methodists. During 1832 Hope Church was built, in which religious services were held until 1877, when the new brick church, erected at a cost of over $7,000, was dedicated. In 1830 the families of Messrs. Powers, Peters and Henwood settled at Canton, and Mr. Wm. Monaghan opened a boot and shoe shop. Noah Wood was, at and prior to this date, the "village blacksmith." In 1837, Mr. Trew kept tavern on the hill, in rear of where the brick hotel, built by Eli Crawley in 1850, and now owned by N. J. Irvine, stands. A Post Office was also established, William Carr being the first Postmaster. In 1842, Mr. Powers erected, on Lot 13, the present saw mill, and further down the creek Chas. Henwood built, on Lot 10, another saw mill, both of which, in their day, did a large lumbering business. School Section No. 8 is situated in the north part of the village; also the residence of Mr. E. Edwin Dodds, the Township Clerk. There is a general store kept by Edwin T. Tindall, who is also Deputy Postmaster, and the blacksmith shop of Samuel Bromell. The population of the village is about 200.

ROSS MOUNT P. O.—This Post Office was established two or three years ago, and is located at Brown's Corners, in the 6th Concession of Hope,  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles from Port Hope, on the Peterboro' Gravel Road. Joshua Lill, Postmaster.

PERRYTOWN P. O.—Perrytown village is pleasantly situated upon Lots 14 and 15, in the 6th and 7th Concessions of Hope, 9 miles from Port Hope, and was first permanently settled about the years 1820-1, by the families of John Perry (better known as "Saw Log Perry," after whom the village was named), and Samuel Caldwell, Sr., who, a few years afterwards, were joined by the families of Asa Callender, Robert Corbett, (the grandfather of Dr. R. A. Corbett, the present Postmaster) Nathan Choate, James Rutledge, and others. A Post Office was established about 1850, the late Aaron Choate being the first Postmaster. There are four churches, viz: the Canada Methodist, Presbyterian, Bible Christian, and Church of England. The industries are, Samuel Sleep, Jr. and Sr's, blacksmith shop, William Purcell's boot and shoe shop, who is also Deputy P. M. School Section No. 12 is located immediately west of the village. Population about 150.

GARDEN HILL P. O.—Garden Hill Post Office and village is situated on Lots 16 and 17, in the 7th and 8th Concessions of Hope and on the line of the Midland Railway, 10 miles from Port Hope. The village was originally named Waterford, but owing to a similarity of Post Offices of that name, was, at a public meeting of the inhabitants held in 1870, changed to Garden Hill. The land in the immediate neighborhood was first settled about 1830, by the families of Messrs. Kilpatrick, Leith, Corbett, Hamill, Seaton, and others. In 1861, Mr. Francis Beamish built a mill on the fine water privilege, which he leased to a firm from the United States for the purpose of manufacturing hats, etc. This industry was, about two years subsequent, unfortunately destroyed by fire. Mr. Beamish again re-built his mill, which he fitted up with machinery for the manufacture of lumber, shingles, etc., and afterwards moved it to where it now stands. In 1869, Mr. James Dyer, of Orono, Clarke, purchased Mr. Beamish's interest in the village, and erected, at considerable expense, the extensive woollen mills, which have, during the late commercial depression, been run to their full capacity. In 1870, a Post Office was established, Mr. Dyer receiving the appointment of Postmaster, who opened in connection therewith a general store. Salem Lodge, I. O. G. T., own and meet in a neat, substantial building; also Garden Hill L. O. Lodge, No. 385. The only place of public worship in the village is the new brick M. E. Church, erected at a cost of about $4,000, principally through the exertions of Mr. James Dyer and family. In 1872, Mr. John McElory, Jr., completed his flouring mill, of two run of stones, which he afterwards sold to John Martin, of North Canton, which he at present carries on in connection with the saw and planing mills. There is also a carriage and blacksmith shop of recent date, and at Adam's Corners—now Garden Hill—Mr. James Fair's carriage, and Donnelly's pump factory. The village is rapidly increasing in population, registering at present between 400 and 500, and bids fair to become one of considerable importance in the Township of Hope.

ELIZABETHVILLE P. O.—Elizabethville village and Post Office is situated upon Lots 28 and 29, between the 7th and 8th Concessions of Hope, 15 miles from Port Hope. The village and neighborhood was settled about 1825-30, by Messrs Smith, Barkwell, McMurtry, Oke, Trew, Diamond and Beatty. In 1848-9, John McMurtry built the grist mill now owned by J. McGregor Young, and further down the creek Wm. McMurtry built the present saw mill. About 1850, a Post Office was established, named Elizabethville, in honor of the estimable wife of the first Postmaster, John McMurtry. Thomas Tamblyn's carriage and J. Palmer's blacksmith shops were also established at an early date. There are two Churches—the Canada Methodist and Church of England, and a general store, owned by Robert Glass, who is the present Postmaster. School Section No. 13 is also situated in the village. Population about 100.

OSACA P. O.—The village of Osaca is situated upon Lot 27, in the 5th and 6th Concessions of Hope, 10 miles from Port Hope, and was first settled by the family of the late James Elliott, about 1830. In 1869, Mr. Henry Elliott, the present Reeve of the Township, erected upon the excellent water privilege of the creek, the Osaca Flouring Mills, of three run of stones, which is at present carried on by E. J. Barker. During 1871 a Post Office was established, with Mr. David Gordon as Postmaster; there is also a general store. Mr. Alex. Crothers is the "village blacksmith," and a short distance up the creek is the saw mill of Mr. Samuel Parsons. Population about 100.

PORT BRITAIN—Is situated on Lots 21 and 22, on the Lake Shore Road, 3 miles from Port Hope, and was first settled in 1795-6, by the families of Messrs. S. Marsh, Leonard Soper, and others. During 1800, Mr. S. Marsh built a saw mill upon the site of the present mill carried on by Mr. R. Bickle, which he afterwards converted into a distillery, and in 1801 he built a grist mill, the first in the Township—the location being the site of the present mill, owned by Mr. R. E. Sculthorp. In 1856, a Joint Stock Company was formed, under the name of "The Port Britain Harbor Company." Prospectus and plans were issued, setting forth the natural advantages of the position as a harbor, etc. Village lots were held at fabulous sums, but with the exception of the sale of a few lots to outsiders, the scheme fell through, and Port Britain of to-day is what might be termed a "finished" town. There is a blacksmith's shop; also several market gardens in the village, which raise a large amount of garden stuff. There is one Bible Christian Church. Population about 100.

ZION P. O.—Zion Post Office is of recent date, and is situated upon Lot 31, in the 3rd Concession of Hope, 8 miles from Port Hope. Stephen Taylor, Postmaster.

WESLEYVILLE P. O.—This Post Office was established a few years ago, and is located upon Lot 30, in the 1st Concession of Hope, five miles from Port Hope, on the Lake Shore Road. Elijah Barrowclough, Postmaster.

The topographical characteristics of the Township are similar to.

that of the adjoining municipalities. The surface is rolling and in some parts hilly, being originally covered with a heavy growth of hardwood and pine timber, which since the advent of the pioneer settler, has almost entirely disappeared. The soil is variable, ranging from heavy clay to light drifting sand. The Drift, or Boulder formation, occasionally assuming a degree of prominence which renders the soil, in certain sections, difficult of cultivation. With the exception of the few localities where these geological specimens exist, the Township is in an advanced state of cultivation, as is attested by the many well-tilled fields to be met with on every hand. The people are prosperous and apparently happy. Comfortable and substantial dwelling houses and well appointed outbuildings have superseded the log shanty and lean-to of the early settler. Modern and luxurious furniture has replaced that of antiquated design. Light traps, carriages, etc., have become a necessity, the ox cart of the pioneer being of no use to the present generation. Costly fabrics, gotten up in the latest and most approved fashion, are worn instead of the homespun of the pioneer mothers. The Fathers of Hope belong to another age and may in justice exclaim, "The times are changed and we are changed with them," a truism that applies with equal force not only to the present generation of the Township of Hope, but to the country at large.

The last assessment returns for the Township give the following figures :—Total number of acres assessed, 63,045½; total value of real and personal property, $2,605,235.00; total number of cattle, 3,426; total number of sheep, 4,138; total number of hogs, 1,420; total number of horses, 2,001; total number of dogs, 402; total population, 3,813; rate in the dollar for 1879, 3 mills.

The Municipal Officers of the Township, for the year 1880, are as follows:—

Henry Elliott, REEVE.

John Tamblyn, 1ST DEPUTY-REEVE.

H. H. Walker, 2ND " "

Alex. Beatty and Marshall Thompson, COUNCILLORS.

BRAMPTON & ST. THOMAS AGRICULTURAL WORKS

SPECIALTIES FOR 1880.

To the Intelligent Farmers of the Dominion.

We are now preparing to manufacture

A NEWLY INVENTED PORTABLE STEAM ENGINE,

The patents and patterns of which we have procured at great expense from the inventors—gentlemen of the highest technical attainments, either of whose names places it in the very front rank of mechanical inventions. This Engine is entirely new in many leading features, ensuring perfect safety, greater strength, durability, simplicity, and economy than hitherto known in Agricultural Engines. Another important feature is, that it is from 20 to 25 per cent. LIGHTER than those in general use. We ask threshers and others intending to buy to examine our engine (which will be ready about the 1st of January) before placing their orders.

In addition to the above, we are manufacturing more extensively than at any time previous, our Extra No. 1 ROYCE REAPER, greatly improved for 1880; MEADOW LARK MOWERS; TIGER SULKY HAY RAKES, the best in the world; DUSTLESS GRAIN-SAVING SEPARATOR, for Steam or Horse-power; HORSE-POWERS; and all leading Agricultural Implements. Send for Circulars, to

Township of Cavan and Village of Millbrook.

The early settlement of the Township of Cavan—named after the County Cavan, Ireland—is so interwoven with the history of that section of the county already described in the history of the settlement of the adjoining townships, that a further description would be only a repetition. The same difficulties were experienced by the pioneer settlers of Cavan that for years retarded the advancement and development of older municipalities. There were no roads, so to speak, plenty of wolves, no stores or mills nearer than Smith's Creek, Port Hope; no schools except of a very primitive character; no places of public worship except at the houses of the pioneers. These, and other experiences of a similar character, were what the first settlers of Cavan had to contend with in the days of its infancy. In consequence of the above mentioned and other draw backs, arising from its geographical position, remote from business centres, markets, &c., it was not permanently settled and brought under general cultivation until more than twenty years later than the Township of Hope, lying at the front of it.

Cavan is rectangular in shape, and is bounded on the north by the Township of of Emily, in the county of Victoria; west, by Manvers, south, by Hope; and east by South Monaghan, county of Northumberland and part of the county of Peterboro', and contains within its geographical limits about 6,400 acres of land. It was first settled about 1816-17, by the families of Deyell, Stewart, Graham, McCamus, McIntyre, and others. The County record returns from Cavan, date back to 1720, at which date there was a population of 244; number of persons assessed, 24; valuation of property, £2,324. In 1825, the population was 780; in 1830, 1323; in 1835, 2575; in 1840, 2868; and 1835, 4438, with 710 ratepayers, and $280,000 worth of property. The rapid settlement and subsequent development of the Township from its first settlement up to the latter date, is chiefly due to the excellent quality of the soil, the most part of which is to-day in a high state of cultivation, and the energetic character of its inhabitants.

Within the municipality is the thriving incorporated Village of Millbrook, situated upon Lots 11 and 12 in the 5th and 6th Concession. This village became erected into a separate municipality on the first day of January, 1880. Previous to incorporation it belonged to the township, with whose early history and subsequent development it is so interwoven, as to be in a great measure identical, the one with the other, which fact, together with the absence of a separate list of its inhabitants, we consider sufficient cause to treat them for the purpose of this sketch, as practically one. Millbrook is on the line of the Midland Railroad, 18 miles from Port Hope, and is one of the most important villages in the County of Durham. Immense quantities of grain, &c., are annually shipped from this point. A few years ago the principal part of the village was unfortunately destroyed by fire, all of which has been replaced by handsome blocks of brick, &c. There are a large number of first-class general and other stores, apparently doing a flourishing business. The Post Office was established in 1846, Mr. M. Knowlson being the first Postmaster, Mr. R. Vance being the present incumbent of the office. The Town Hall, built in 1844, and subsequently destroyed by fire, has been replaced by a fine brick building with exceptionally commodious interior arrangements. The water privilege of Mill Creek was utilized at an early date by James Deyell, who erected thereon a grist mill, the first in the township, and which unquestionably formed the nucleus of the present flourishing village, which, however, made very little progress previous to the construction of the Midland Railway. The opening up of this road gave encouragement to manufacturers and an impetus to business generally.

During 1835, a foundry was started by Mr. George Fair, which is at present owned by Mr. Wm. H. Sowden, who also owns large properties in the village, and whose enterprise and industry has contributed materially to the advance of the municipality. The first steam saw mill was built in 1855, by R. J. Armstrong. There were several fine churches and a high and public school erected in 1838; a branch of Molson's bank, Mr. Geddes, manager; and several secret societies. The Messenger is published weekly, by E. A. Hayter. Mr. Needler owns a large flouring mill, and also the Octagon mills. There is also several carriage manufactories. The Fourth Division court is held here, Mr. John Hunter, Clerk. There are several good comfortable hotels, and offices of the Montreal and Dominion Telegraph Co., while the beautiful private residences of the inhabitants of the village bear testimony of the general prosperity of the owners.

The newly-elected Village Council for 1880, is as follows:—Wm. H. Sowden, Reeve; Major R. Howden, James Fitzgerald, George Foster, and Wm. Smith, Councillors; John Hunter, Clerk, &c.

The post Villages of Cavanville and Mount Pleasant are situated upon the same lots, and the 8th and 9th and 13th and 14th Concessions respectively; and on the eastern boundary are located the post Villages of Springville, Fraserville and Bloomfield. Mill Creek and other fine streams of water flow through the township in a north-easterly direction, supplying power to the several flour and saw mills erected thereon. The main line and Peterboro' branch of the Midland R.R. runs through the south half of the township, both of which have added materially to its wealth and prosperity. Comfortable Educational and Ecclesiastical edifices dot the surface of the township at convenient points, while the substantial and home-like dwelling houses, commodious barns and out-buildings of neat architectural design are all evidence of the thrift and industry of the present owners of the soil. The Township Council own and meet in a substantial brick Town Hall, already referred to, of recent date, situated in the Village of Millbrook.

Township Council for 1880, are George Campbell, Reeve; S. Staples, Deputy-Reeve, Wm. T. Donaldson, Isaiah Best and Samuel Ferguson, Councillors.

J. W. Sootheran is the Township Clerk and Registrar of Vital Statistics, a position he has filled with credit for a period of twenty-seven years.

TOWNSHIP OF MANVERS.

The Township of Manvers is bounded on the north by the townships of Ops, county of Victoria; on the west by Cartwright; on the south by Clarke; and on the east by Cavan. The land is of good quality, though somewhat hilly in certain sections, and was originally well timbered with hardwood and pine. The Township was surveyed in 1816-17, the first settlers being the families of McNaughton, McDonald, McGuire, Graham, McGill, Grandy, Preston, Benson, Touchbourn, and others. The subsequent settlement and development of the Township was by no means rapid, for in 1835 the County Records only show a population of 154, total value of property, £1,307,12-10; in 1840, 548, value of property, £2,983.16.0; in 1845, the valuation of property was £9,650.4.0. In 1855, the population was 2,568, number of ratepayers 422; assessed value of property, £125,000. Within the limits of the Township are the post villages of Bethany, at which point the Town Hall is situated, and Franklin on the Midland R. R., and Lifford, Ballyduff, Burton, Lotus, Yelverton, Janetville, and Drum. There are several grist and saw mills located upon the many streams that flow through the Township. Ample provision has been made for the education of the young by the erection of comfortable school houses at convenient points, while the spiritual requirements of the inhabitants are similarly supplied.

The following figures from the last revised Assessment Roll, will give the reader an idea of what the Manvers of to-day is, compared with that of sixty years ago:—

Number of ratepayers, 788; number of acres resident, 64,738; number of acres cleared, 37,925½; number of acres non-resident, 3,451. Total number of acres resident and non-resident, 68,189. Value of resident lands, $844,605; value of non-resident lands, $13,885; value of personal property, $60,695; amount of taxable income, $400; value of real and personal property and income, $919,185; dogs, 266; bitches, 7; number of persons in family of persons rated, 2,754; number of cattle, 2,403; number of sheep, 2,616; number of hogs, 2,382; number of horses, 1,480.

The Township Council for 1880 are: S. Grandy, Reeve; John Kennedy, Deputy-Reeve, John Cairnes, James Clarke, and John Barnicott, Councillors; Alfred Riley, Clerk and Registrar.

Bowmanville and Township of Darlington.

The early history of the Town of Bowmanville, originally part of the Township of Darlington, is similar to that of many other Canadian towns, and its experience, the experience of all early settlements, with all the exciting scenes and deprivations of frontier life, and the gradual unfolding and development of a community, complete in its organization, distinctive in its character and experience, and rich in the higher elements of domestic, social and religious life. We of the present day, who have witnessed the rapid occupation of the Western part of our Province, can have but a faint idea of the slow and tedious process of settlement in the closing years of the last century and the beginning of the present, nor appreciate the difficulties and discouragements by which it was attended. Especially is this the case with the early settlement of Darlington Mills and the surrounding country, an interminable wilderness, without roads, and with but indifferent facilities for water communication, together with the scarcity of the necessaries of life, and the general poverty of the inhabitants—a condition which they accepted when they abandoned, for their devotion to cherished principles, their homes in the revolted Colonies. The early settlers of Bowmanville and vicinity, and in fact the whole north shore of Ontario, endured untold hardships, which will forever form a theme for the wonder and admiration of posterity. The first permanent settlement of Darlington Mills, as it was then designated, was, by the advent of the families of Burk, Trull, and Conat, United Empire Loyalists from the Susquehannah valley, United States, who had been drawn hither by the proclamation of Governor Simcoe; and the date of their arrival was the 2nd of October, 1794, on which day they with their families disembarked from a batteau on the lake shore, a short distance west of Barber's creek, now Port Darlington. During 1796, Richard Lovekin came from Ireland and, together with one Wilson, located at the mouth of Baldwin's—now Wilmot's—creek, in the Township of Clarke. These were the only inhabitants, except the Indians, at this period between Fort York—Toronto, and Smith's creek—Port Hope. Leonard Soper removed from the Township of Hope to Darlington in 1805, where he built a saw mill, the first in the Township. This mill was unfortunately destroyed by fire the following year, and another was built near the same place. Mr. Burk also built a saw mill about this date, from which time the settlement has been known as Darlington Mills.

[It is related that the first Court of Queen's Bench ever convened within these United Counties, was held in a barn on the premises of Mr. Soper, Lot No. 23, Concession 1, lake shore road, in the Township of Hope; Major Macgregor Rogers, Presiding Judge. A fact omitted by the writer in compiling the early history of that Township.]

Of the inevitable hardships and deprivations that always attend pioneer settlements, Darlington had its share. Provisions were not to be obtained, and store goods were out of the question; and until the erection of a grist mill at Smith's creek, in 1798, journeys were made to Myers' mill, on the Moira River, Belleville, with "grists," in canoes and other open boats, the trip occupying two and three weeks, and oftentimes being attended with much hardship and suffering.

In 1806 Mr. Soper purchased from Mr. A. Barber—after whom the creek which flows through the town of Bowmanville was named—what is known as the Soper Mill Property. The property known as the Bowman estate, upon which the larger portion of the present town of Bowmanville stands, and from which it derived its name, was first drawn, under Gov. Simcoe's proclamation, by John Burk, who after having erected thereon a grist and saw mill, sold to a Mr. Purdy. Repurchasing, Mr. Burk again sold to Lewis Lewis, who in connection with the milling business opened a general store, the first in the settlement. After a period of four years Mr. Lewis sold, in 1824, to Mr. Charles Bowman. A Post Office was established at Black's Hill, the late Youal homestead, some years previous to the last mentioned date, Col. James Black receiving the appointment of Postmaster. In 1829 a post office was established at Darlington Mills, the late R. Fairbairn, P. M., who at that time had charge of the Bowman business. Mr. Fairbairn retiring, the Hon. J. Simpson, then a young man, became connected with the firm, which for a number of years did an immense business. It is related that Mr. Simpson took the first census of Darlington, and that the total population at that period numbered 118. The official records of the County for 1810 show that the Townships of Darlington and Clarke had a total population of 181; no. of assessed ratepayers, 28; valuation of property, £3,129 12s. 0d. In 1815, 241; no. of ratepayers, 96; valuation of property, £3,734 16s. 0d. In 1820, 354; no. of ratepayers, 64; valuation of property, £6,840 16s. 0d. From the foregoing statistics it will be seen that the settlement of the two municipalities made but little progress during the first twenty years of their existence. In 1825 Darlington appears to have been assessed separately as the returns for that year give the following figures: population, 478; no. of persons assessed, 80; valuation of property, £6,635 10s. 0d. Clarke's returns averaging about one third less. In 1830, the population was 786; number of ratepayers, 148; value of property, £10,579 10s. 0d. In 1835, 1865; value of property, £21,287 18s. 6d. In 1840, population, 2880 and £32,993 worth of real and personal property. In 1855 the total population of the Township and the village was 8,005; number of ratepayers, 970; value of property, £375,000; while that of Clarke was precisely the same.

Bowmanville became erected into a separate municipality, by an act of incorporation, as a police village in 1853, and as a town on the first day of January, 1858, Mr. James McFeeters, a prominent citizen being the first Mayor. The town is, under the operation of the Municipal Institutions Act, divided into three wards for municipal purposes. Bowmanville also has a Police Court and Magistrate, Mr. George Haines, a prominent manufacturer and for many years a member of the Village and Town Council, being the present incumbent of that position.

Few towns of its size, in the Province, can boast of such extensive manufacturing interests as Bowmanville. Possessing excellent water privileges on the two streams that flow through the town; having access to foreign markets by rail and water, the inducements to invest capital in manufactures are by no means inconsiderable, and these privileges have been taken advantage of by men of means and enterprise, who are rapidly adding to their own wealth and contributing largely to the prosperity of the town.

The Bowmanville Furniture Manufacturing Co. is an extensive concern, employing a large number of mechanics in the manufacture of furniture.

The Dominion Organ Co., established some years ago,—Mr. John Wesley, Secretary and Financial Manager,—is one of the largest manufacturing concerns of the kind in the Province, and recently an addition has been built to the already large and commodious workshops and storerooms of the Company, for the purpose of manufacturing pianos. The Company employ several hundred skilled and other workmen, and turns out annually thousands of cabinet, church, and other styles of organs, of superior finish, tone, and durability.

Bowmanville also possesses the plant of an agricultural implement factory, but owing to the depression of business and from several other causes, the concern has been shut down for some years.

James Morris carries on an extensive carriage manufacturing establishment, where first-class vehicles are made and find a ready market.

Mr. George Haines also carries on the Carriage manufacturing business on a large scale, employing a number of hands.

Wm. McClung is also largely engaged in the same line of business. His factory is located in the eastern part of the town.

Porter & Sons' Plough and Iron Foundry is also located in the eastern part of the town, where every description of plough and iron work is made.

The Marble and Granite works of Mr. C. Bounsall are situated upon the corner of King and Division streets, and were established at an early date. Mr. Bounsall does an extensive business in his line. His work being executed in an artistic manner, always commands the attention of the public.

There are several first-class flouring mills and blacksmith shops, one pump factory, one tannery, and numerous workshops of the various branches of mechanical industry.

The public buildings are the Town Hall and Market House, of brick, erected in 1855 at a cost of about $18,000. The educational interests are represented by a United Grammar and Common School, also of brick, built about the same time, costing $6,000; and a battalion drill shed, of wood, erected in 1867, cost $2,500. The places of public worship are, (St. John's) Church of England, of brick, erected in 1856, cost, about $9,000; the Roman Catholic, of brick, erected in 1857, cost, $1,000; St. Andrews, of wood, built 1838, cost, $1,500; and the Canada Presbyterian, built of brick, of recent date; a Canada Methodist, of brick, built in 1821, enlarged in 1869, entire cost about $10,000; a Primitive Methodist, of brick, erected in 1846, cost, $1,000; a Bible Christian, of brick, built in 1857, cost, about $8,000; a Baptist, built of brick, in 1856, costing in the neighbourhood of $4,000. Several of the above edifices are built in the advanced early English style of ecclesiastical architecture, and are a credit to the town.

The Private Banking House of Messrs. Burk & Jones, is situated upon Temperance street, opposite the Market House.

The First Division Court of Northumberland and Durham is held in Bowmanville, Col. F. Cubitt, Clerk, and Peter Coleman, Bailiff.

There are three newspapers published in Bowmanville, viz:

The Canadian Statesman, Reform, Mr. M. A. James, Publisher and Proprietor.

The Observer, the organ of the Bible Christian Denomination. Rev. C. Barker, Editor; Gale Bros., Printers and Publishers.

The West Durham News, Independent, Mr. Geo. S. Climie, Publisher and Proprietor.

The completion of the Grand Trunk Railway in 1857 gave an impetus to business that has ever since been steadily maintained. The only disadvantage in connection with the railroad is the location of Bowmanville station, it being about two miles from the business portion of the town.

Port Darlington is some two miles and a half distant from the town. The wharfage is excellent, having one of the longest piers on the north shore. The Company, organized in 1837, have at various times expended some $88,000 in its construction. This is also a port of entry, Mr. John Rankin being the Collector of Customs.

Bowmanville has its telegraph and express facilities and sustains a Mechanics' Institute, several Masonic, benevolent, temperance and other societies. Its situation from a sanitary point of view is healthy, occupying a beautiful elevation of land, gradually inclining on the east and west. Its private residences, with their tastefully laid out grounds, will compare favorably with much older towns.

The following statistics are compiled from the official returns for 1879:—

Number of ratepayers, 876; total number of acres assessed, 4,000; value of real and personal property and taxable income, $987,512; number of cattle, 347; number of sheep, 64; number of hogs 146; number of horses, 280; number of dogs, 165; population, 3,237.

Municipal officers for 1880: F. F. McArthur, Mayor; Samuel Burden, Reeve; Marshall Porter, Deputy-Reeve; William Prower, Dr. Fielding, Wm. Horsey, F. Allen, George Piggott, Joseph Brittain, John Smale, and John Rice, Councillors. R. Windatt, Clerk and Registrar of vital statistics, a position he has held ever since the incorporation of the town.

TOWNSHIP OF DARLINGTON.

By reference to the local sketch of Bowmanville, it will be observed that the first settlement and earlier stages of development of the Township of which that flourishing Town now forms the chief centre of commerce and population, are therein briefly dealt with as being in so far identical, the one with the other, as to be in reality the same; nor was it until the establishment of Darlington Mills as an independent municipality, under the title of the Police Village of Bowmanville, that the Township itself came to possess historical record sufficiently removed, so to speak, from that of Darlington Mills to indicate the policy of presenting under the head of "Darlington" any events transpiring previous to the last above mentioned date.

We will therefore begin the sketch of what is now everywhere admitted to be the "banner" Township of "these United Counties," with the date of the secession of Bowmanville from its municipal government, in 1853, and as few stirring or important events have since transpired, of sufficient moment to be claimed as forming an epoch in its material or physical development, we can do little more than state that its progress and prosperity has been in the highest degree satisfactory, and has resulted, in the quarter of a century which has since then passed away, in the transformation of what was even then a comparatively new country into one of the very finest communities of the whole Province.

The first official figures in our possession, from which we are in a position to institute a comparison, are the returns furnished to the Provincial Government in 1856. From these we see that Darlington at that time contained 975 ratepayers, who owned real property valued at £332,181, and personal property estimated at £56,125, or a total of £389,431, together with a taxable income of £1,125. The income of the municipality for that year was £1,409, and the expenditure, £1,440 17s. 4d. The development has since then been of such a nature that there are now 1257 ratepayers in the Township, representing a total population of 5,472, and owning real and personal property valued at the enormous sum of $3,246,836.00.

The Township of Darlington is bounded on the north by Cartwright, on the west by East Whitby, in the county of Ontario; on the south by Lake Ontario, and on the east by Clarke, and contains 68,386 acres of land. The soil is of excellent quality and is in an advanced state of cultivation. The people are prosperous and wealthy, as is attested by the many fine residences and other evidences of solidity to be met with throughout the entire municipality. Within the geographical limits of the Township are the Post villages of Hampton, Tyrone, Enniskillen, Haydon, Salina and Enfield, the former village being the seat of the Municipal Legislature, and was founded by Henry Elliott at an early date, who built a grist and saw mill, and opened in connection therewith a general store. •

The surface of the Township is undulating, the whole of which is well watered by the many creeks and their tributaries that flow through it in their course to the lake.

Numerous fine educational and ecclesiastical edifices are erected at convenient points throughout the municipality, wherein the spiritual and scholastic requirements of the inhabitants and their children are administered to by an efficient corps of teachers and preachers of the gospel.

The Township Council for 1880 are: Wm. Windatt, Reeve; James Rundall, 1st Deputy-Reeve; Wm. Bingham, 2nd Deputy-Reeve, and Wm. H. Langmaid and Levi Vancamp, Councillors.

Mr. R. Windatt is the Township Clerk and Registrar of vital statistics, a position he has filled with ability for upwards of thirty years.

TOWNSHIP OF CLARKE.

The Township of Clarke is one of the oldest and best settled on the north shore. It is bounded on the North by the Township of Manvers, West by Darlington, South by Lake Ontario and East by Hope, and was surveyed in 1797, and first permanently settled by Richard Lovekin, who located land in 1801 at or near the confluence of Baldwin's, now Wilmot's Creek; shortly followed by one Wilson, who took up land at a point west of the creek. These pioneers were the first actual settlers of the township, and were subsequently followed by others, many of whom were U. E. loyalists, who soon secured the most eligible lots laid out upon each side of the Military Road, just completed by Capt. Danforth, and also to the south, or on what is known as the Lake Shore Road. The greater portion of the land along the water front of both Clarke and Darlington is said to have been thus "located", by loyalists who "drew" it under Governor Simcoe's proclamation, but having established themselves they held the land without settling upon it and sold it as opportunity occurred.

Many of the first actual settlers were what the "F. F's" of the earlier settlements called late loyalists, by way of contempt. These were American Colonists, who, though sympathizing with the British, were not driven out of their old homes, as many had previously been, by the victorious continentals; but, tired of the new order of things after the return of peace, or more likely induced by the Proclamation of Governor Simcoe, followed in the steps of the original loyalists. This proclamation, issued 7th of February, 1792, was prompted by the Governor's opinion that there still remained in the then United Colonies a large number of Loyal British subjects who would yet leave the newer government and older country for the older government and newer country, did they but receive sufficient encouragement to do so; and it provided among other things that each should receive two hundred acres of land. Whether the Governor's opinion on the above subject was correct or not, the object aimed at was accomplished, as his proclamation had the effect of inducing many to sell out and leave their homes in the United States and settle in Canada.

Among these latter loyalists who eventually found their way to the Township of Clarke were the families of Wilmot,—who bought out one John Hartwell, a former loyalist settled on the Danforth Road. Avery, Bates, Blair, Soper, Wallbridge, Bowen, Gifford, Scott and others. The first five concessions of the township, where the surface is even, subsequently became settled by Emigrants from the old countries, as well as from the then independent colonies. The rapid development of this township may be chiefly attributed to the characteristic energy and industry of the inhabitants whose experience of pioneer life, was similar in every respect to that of the early settlement of other townships referred to in this work.

The official returns to the Provincial Government of the Townships of Darlington and Clarke, then united for municipal purposes, date back to 1810, at which time the united population was 181, with 28 ratepayers, owning £3,129. 12s. 0d. worth of real and personal property. In 1815, the population numbered 214, with 38 ratepayers, and real property valued at £3,803, 4s. 0d. In 1820, the united population was 354, number of ratepayers 64, and real and personal property valued at £6,840, 16s. 0d.

The returns for 1825, at which date Clarke appears as a separate municipality, state the population to have been 304, number of ratepayers 49, valuation of personal property, £3 634, 16s. 0d. In 1830, population 577; number of ratepayers 98; total valuation of property, £6,637, 8s. 0d. In 1835, the population was 1,635, and value of property, £31,253, 7s. 0d. In 1845, the real and personal property of the township was valued at ££47,970, 15s. 0d; and in 1855, the population had increased to 6,190; number of ratepayers, 1,174; and assessed value of property, £375,000; income from all sources, £1,555, 11s. 10d; expenditure of all kinds, £1,482, 11s. 10d.

Previous to the last above mentioned date, the village of Newcastle was laid out and surveyed by A. K. Roache, P. L. S., which subsequently became erected into a separate municipality.

During the war of 1812, the following settlers of Darlington, Clarke, and Hope, took the oath of allegiance to defend George the III., then King of Great Britain, against his enemies, &c., and were enrolled as militia, many of whom were engaged in stirring events of that period:

Ebenezer Hartwell, Daniel Lighthouse, Norris Carr, Augustus Barber, Waterman A. Spencer, James Burke, Nathan Pratt, Samuel Burk, Enoch Davis, John Trull, John Dingman, William Pickle, Matthew Borland, John Wilson, Eliphalet Conat, Richard Martin, Michael Coffun, David Burk, Jeremiah Conat, Thomas Powers, James Flannigan, David Seron, William Preston, Timothy Johnston, Dyer Moore, James Grant, Rueben Grant, jr., James Hawkins, jr., Thomas Hartwell, John Paine, Lanson Soper, Caleb Raymond, Joel Byrns, jr., William Bebee, Nehemiah Vail, Aaron Hills, John Brown, Nathan Haskell, Joel Byrns, sr., Jonathan Bedford, jr., John Odell, Nathan Watson, Alexander, W. Ross, Luther McNall, Gershom Orvis, Jered Kimball, Jonathan Rodgers, John Potter, Abraham Bowen, Stadman Bebee, Daniel Wright, Israel Bowen, Daniel Crippin, Dorous Crippin, Luke Smades, Joshua Smades, John Walker, Joseph Barden, Pletiah Soper, James Merrill, John Perry, Adna Bates, Francis Lightfoot, Samuel Marvin, William Carr, William Borland, jr., Roger B. Wolcott, John Spencer, John Hartwell, Myndert Hanis, sr., John Burn, Alexander Fletcher, Robert Clark, John D. Smith, Leonard Soper, John Haskill, Samuel W. Marsh, Thomas Gaige, Jeremiah Brittain, Daniel Porter, James Hawkins, sr., Gardner Gifford, Elias Smith, jr., Roger Bates, James Stephens, Samuel Gifford, Ezra Gifford, Peter Rice, Christopher Merkley, Josiah Caswell, David Gage, Joel Smades, George Potter, David Bedford, Samuel Willet, David Crippin, Benjamin Preston, Rueben Grant, sr., Abell Allen, Isaac Hagerman, Justin Johnson, Jeremiah Hays, Hiram Bedford, Joseph Caldwell, Stephen Morae, Benjamin Root, Benjamin Preston, Warren Munson, Edward McReley, Myndert, Harris, jr., Asa Callendar, Joseph Haskill, James Lee, Zephaniah, Sexton, Cornelius Daly, Jonathan Sexton, Zachariah

Odell, William Munson, Timothy Haskell, Ephriam Gifford, John Voree, Josiah Wilson, Stephen Bedford.

The above list of patriots is given on the authority of Mr. J. F. Coleman, who first published the same in a pamphlet issued in 1875, but which does not include the militia of the Smith's Creek settlement, where a separate organization was maintained; yet a very large proportion of the above were, at the time of enrollment, residents of the Township of Hope.

As already remarked, the progress and development of the Township of Clarke, since its first permanent settlement, has been rapid. Compare the old log school house of early days, with indifferent pedagogues, to the several neat, commodious, and conveniently situated buildings, with well educated teachers of to-day, with our excellent free school system, where every child may obtain a thorough knowledge of all the English branches; and if necessary, can, through grammar schools, acquire a sound commercial and classical education.

There are also located at various points in the Township comfortable places of public worship, presided over by regularly ordained preachers of the gospel, who administer to the spiritual and religious wants of the people.

There are within the geographical limits of the municipality the villages of Newcastle, (incorporated), and Orono, (elsewhere referred to), Leskard, Kirby, Kendall and Newtonville.

Clarke is well watered by several creeks and rivulets, which pursue their tortuous course throughout the Township, affording at different points excellent facilities for almost every description of manufacture.

Viewed from a topographical geological, or agricultural standpoint, it is so very similar to the two townships lying to the east and west of it, and which have already been described, as to render it unnecessary to dive into minute details. It will suffice to say that it is fully up to the average, and in honest truth a model township in everything which combines to make one locality more worthy of praise than another, or more to be desired as a comfortable home for the settler.

From the last assessment roll (1879) we take the following figures, viz: Superficial area, 67,574 $\frac{1}{2}$  acres, of which 50,936 $\frac{1}{2}$  acres are cleared; total value of real and personal property and taxable income, \$1,861,490.00; total population, 4,445; number of dogs, 464; number of cattle, 4,492; number of sheep, 3,902; number of hogs, 1,422; number of horses, 2,477.

The Municipal Council for 1880 are as follows:—R. Collville, Reeve; J. Carveth, 1st Deputy-Reeve; J. R. Reid, 2nd Deputy-Reeve; and J. Gilroy and John Renwick, Councillors.

Mr. W. L. Broad is the Township Clerk and Registrar, a position he fills to the satisfaction of his employers—the people—and with credit to himself.

Clarke is pre-eminently an agricultural constituency, and the superior advantages already noted as belonging to the Townships, previously described, are here also to be found in a marked degree; and, taken in its entirety, the duties of the writer have seldom brought him into social or business relations with a community possessing to a greater extent all the evidences of the moral, intellectual and material elements of worldly prosperity, rural felicity, and christian contentment.

VILLAGE OF ORONO.

The Post Village of Orono is situated upon lots 28 and 29 in the 5th Concession of the Township of Clarke, and was first settled about 1834 by Mr. E. Johns. In 1852 a Post Office was established, Mr. J. L. Tucker receiving the appointment of postmaster, a position he still retains. The public buildings are the Town hall, of brick, built in 1857 at a cost of $1200, wherein the Municipal Council of the Corporation of Clarke meet and transact the business of the Township. A common school building, of brick, cost about $4,000, and a drill shed, of wood, erected in 1866 at a cost of $1,000.

The manufacturing interests of the Village are represented by Mr. J. Donnelly's steam Chair and Cabinet Factory, where hundreds of sets of cottage furniture are annually made and sold to the trade.

Mr. John McCulloughs Plough and Iron Foundry is situated in the southern part of the village.

The Flouring Mills of Mr. A. Lockhart, merchant miller, are situated upon the creek a short distance south and west of the Village, which are at all seasons of the year run to their full capacity.

Quite an extensive business is done in the manufacture of harvest mitts and gloves, several parties being engaged in this industry.

There are two carriage factories and one tannery, besides the several branches of mechanical industry usually found in a village of its size.

The Montreal Telegraph Company have an agency here, and Mr. W. W. Trull, of Bowmanville, has recently opened an Exchange and Brokerage office, supplying a want long felt by the business men of the place,

The mercantile business is represented by a number of general and other stores, which appear to do a flourishing and remunerative business.

The churches are the United Presbyterian, Canada Methodist, Episcopal Methodist, and Bible Christian; all neat, substantial buildings.

Considerable business is done at this point, drawn principally from the fine agricultural country by which it is surrounded, while the fine private residences of the merchants and others bear unmistakable evidence of prosperity.

TOWNSHIP OF CARTWRIGHT.

The Township of Cartwright, named after Sir Richard Cartwright, of Kingston, is bounded on the north and west by Lake Scugog and part of the County of Ontario; on the south, by Darlington; and on the east by Manvers; and was first settled about 1825. On account of its geographical position, remote from markets and business centres, little progress was made in its material development until about the year 1840. During this year the returns furnished to the County Clerk state the population to have been only 272, and real and personal property worth £2,983.16.0. In 1855 the population had increased to 1,756, with 367 ratepayers owning £80,000 worth of real and personal property. The surface of the Township is similar to that of Manvers, lying to the east of it, the soil being of fair quality and generally productive. Within its limits are the post villages of Caesarea, Williamsburg (Cartwright P.O.), and Cadmus, and several fine streams of water, all of which run north, emptying into Lake Scugog. The official returns of the Township for 1879 are as follows:—Number of ratepayers, 563; total number of acres assessed, 36,904; total value of real and personal property and taxable income, $723,330; number of cattle 1,756; number of sheep 1,707; number of hogs 885; number of horses 858; and 171 dogs. Population, 1,978.

The County Council members of the Township are James Parr, Reeve, and A. Lattimore, Deputy Reeve.

William Lucas is the Township Clerk and Division Registrar, and David Deacon, Treasurer.

VILLAGE OF NEWCASTLE.

The Village of Newcastle, named after the late Newcastle District, originally formed part of the Township of Clarke, and was settled about the beginning of the present century by the families of Col. Cozens, Wilmot, Averys, Lovkin, Walbridge, Clarke, Beach, Jacobs, MacNaughton and others; the first named of which is credited by that proverbially correct and indisputable source of authority, "the oldest inhabitant," with having cleared the first two acres of land in the Township. The former of these gentlemen originally owned the greater portion of the land upon which the Village, and also what is known as Bond Head, now stands. The first store was opened by Mr. E. Shelly, in 1835, and a Post Office was established in 1843, Mr. John Short receiving the appointment of Postmaster, Mr. Asa H. Walbridge being the present incumbent of that position. The village was originally laid out by the Hon G. S. Boulton and others, who had formed a company for the purpose of carrying on the milling business, and was surveyed in 1841 by J. K. Roache, P. L. S., of Port Hope. Geographically it is situated in the southern part of the Township, and upon the line of the G. T. R., and York—formerly the Danforth road; the metes and bounds thereof being more particularly set forth in the By-law of the Counties' Council assenting to its incorporation in 1857, Mr. A. MacNaughton being the first and present Reeve. The principal portion of the village is built on a comparatively level area, which slopes gently towards the lake, and in point of location 'tis a most desirable and favorable one for the growth of a prosperous and healthy town. It consists, for the most part, of one street running east and west, and for a place of its size it bears unmistakeable indications of a thrift and prosperity in direct contrariety to the apparent deductions to be drawn from the admitted decrease in population, consequent upon the removal of the Massey Manufacturing Co. to Toronto.

The present manufacturing interests of the place are represented by the Newcastle Woolen Mills, an extensive concern, employing a large number of hands.

The Newcastle Flouring Mills of Andrew MacNaughton, merchant miller and grain dealer, erected in 1853, three run of stone, are situated in the eastern part of the village.

The Flouring Mills of Mr. Wm. Adams are situated at Bond Head, four run of stones, and were originally erected in 1845 and rebuilt in 1862.

There is also the plant and extensive buildings of the Massey Manufacturing Company, which the merchants and other enterprising residents purpose utilizing in the near future, a consummation most earnestly desired.

Mr. Adam Petrie's marble and granite works are situated upon North street, in the western part of the village, where a first-class article is turned out.

Mr. J. McDonald's marble, and T. Mollen's carriage works are also situated in the village.

Andrew Lockhart & Sons, of Orono, merchant millers, have an extensive store house at this point, who, together with other local grain dealers, have established for the Village of Newcastle the reputation of being one of the best markets for agricultural products on all the north shore.

The Newcastle Nurseries, owned and carried on by Mr. W. H. Chaplin, are situated a short distance south of the village. His stock comprises every description of fruit and ornamental trees and plants especially adapted to our climate and soil.

The commercial interests are represented by a number of first-class general and other stores, and the several branches of mechanical industry usually found in a place of its size.

The hotel accommodation afforded by the village is ample. The Windsor, Albion, and Royal hotels being above the average, and will compare favorably with any of the hostleries of the adjoining towns.

The principal business portion of the place was unfortunately, about two years ago, destroyed by fire, all of which has since been replaced with blocks of brick of elegant and suitable design.

Newcastle has its telegraphic and express facilities, and an agency of the Standard Bank, situated upon King street, Mr. J. K. Allen, Manager, and an excellent harbor at Bond Head.

The Division Court of Northumberland and Durham is held here, Mr. S. Wilmot, Clerk.

There is a Masonic, an Orange, and a Good Templar's Lodge in the village.

The Government fish breeding establishment, under the direct supervision of Mr. S. Wilmot, is situated upon Wilmot's Creek, immediately west of the village.

The latest official returns to the County Clerk give the following statistics:—

Number of ratepayers, 277; total population, 1,180; total value of real and personal property and taxable income, $248,891.00; number of dogs, 81; number of cattle, 144; number of sheep, 76; hogs, 58; number of horses, 131.

The village Council for 1880 are: Andrew McNaughton, Reeve (a position he has filled for many years); and Daniel Allin, Thomas Douglass, William Grose, and I. L. Strowger, Councillors.

Mr. George Curtis is the village Clerk and Registrar of Vital Statistics, office, Division Court, King street.

TOWN OF COBOURG.

Cobourg is the county town and judicial seat of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham. It is pleasantly and advantageously situated on the lake shore, in the township of Hamilton, of which municipality it originally formed part. It is also on the line of the Grand Trunk Railway (of which it is an important station) and the Danforth or Kingston road, and is also the terminus of the Cobourg, Peterboro' and Marmora Railway. The town of Cobourg and township of Hamilton were first settled during the year 1798, by Elias Nicholson, shortly followed by the families of Asa Burnham, Elias Jones, Nathan Williams, David Lent, Jeremiah Lapp, Ruttan, Buck, McCarty Hagerman, and other United Empire Loyalists, who had been driven from their homes in the United States by the victorious Continentals. At this period the principal portion of the land upon which the town now stands was little better than a cedar swamp, without roads, and no shop or mill nearer than Smith's Creek. In 1802, Elias Jones opened a general store (the first in the settlement) on what is now King street. The land was subsequently surveyed and laid out as a village by Hughson & Saunders, and immediately afterwards its settlement was proceeded with, and "town" lots were held and sold at figures that could hardly be realized at the present time. During the first twenty years of its existence the settlement was known as Amherst, which name was subsequently changed to that of Hamilton. The latter name was, at a public meeting of the inhabitants held shortly after the coronation of Queen Victoria, again changed to that of Cobourg, in honor of Her Majesty the Queen. The first grist mill was built, at an early date, by W. Carsons, which was shortly followed by another built by D. Lent. Asa Burnham is credited with having built the first saw mill, and Z. Burnham the first distillery. J. Lapp built a tannery in 1806, and James Calcutt's brewery was established in 1833. Mr. Elias Jones' store was the only one in the settlement for fifteen years, when a post office was established, Mr. James Bethune receiving the appointment, and who opened in connection therewith a general store.

In 1837, the village was incorporated under the jurisdiction of a Board of Police, who managed its affairs for thirteen years, when it assumed the dignity of a town, electing the late William Weller, a prominent citizen, its first Mayor. In 1859, Cobourg separated itself from the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham, and now pays to the Counties an annual sum, on account of the administration of justice.

The Village and Township, from the time of their first settlement up to the incorporation of the former in 1837, progressed rapidly, as will be seen from the following statistics, compiled from the County Records:—In 1810, Hamilton had a population of 560; ratepayers, 92; value of property, £7,231. 8s. 0d. In 1815, population 671; ratepayers, 110; value of property, £10,840. 12s. 0d. In 1820, 981; ratepayers, 166; value of property, £16,505. 16s. 0d. In 1825, population 1,578; ratepayers 269; value of property, £18,434. 15s. 0d. In 1830, population 2,013; ratepayers, 337; value of property, £29,727. 18s. 0d. In 1835, population 3,708; value of property, £50,391. 19s. 0d. In 1840, 4,580; value of property, £63,818. 14s. 0d. In 1855, the town of Cobourg had a population of 3,871; with 1,042 ratepayers, owning £280,000 worth of real and personal property.

The Cobourg and Peterboro' Railway, the first sod of which was turned at Cobourg on the 9th day of February, 1853, has ever since its first inception been an unfortunate enterprise for the people of Cobourg and others, who, after having expended more than $1,000,000 in its construction, find that it will scarcely pay more than will cover working expenses and repairs.

The public buildings are Victoria Hall, on King street, erected in 1857 at a cost of $100,000. This magnificent structure is built of white brick, with Ohio freestone front, and contains all the County offices, with spacious Court Room and County Council Chamber.

The University of Victoria College is the most important institution of learning in the town, and, in fact, the Province, the corner stone of which was laid on the 6th of June, 1832. Farraday Hall, erected some years ago, chiefly for scientific purposes, belongs to the University, and is a handsome building of unique architectural design; it is detached from the main building but in the same grounds.

There is also a united Common and High School besides primary schools, situated at convenient points within the Corporation limits.

The Churches are the Church of England, Canada Methodist, Presbyterian, Roman Catholic, Baptist, Episcopal Methodist, and Bible Christian, all of which are handsome ecclesiastical edifices, and are a credit to the town. Cobourg also sustains a Mechanics' Institute, several benevolent and other societies.

The principal manufacturing interests of the town are represented by the Cobourg Woolen Manufacturing Co., an extensive concern, employing a large number of hands.

The Railway Car-shops and Iron Foundry of James Crossen, located near the station, where hundreds of railway cars are annually made.

There are also several other manufacturing establishments of minor importance located in different parts of the town.

The harbor was built by government, but since it came into the possession of the town, large sums of money have been spent upon its construction and enlargement, and to-day it is considered one of the safest and easiest of access on the north shore.

The Court House and Jail were built about the year 1810, reference to which is made in connection with the municipal history of the Counties.

The newspapers are, The World, (Reform) H. Hough, Editor and Proprietor; and the Sentinel-Star, (Conservative) E. H. Fogarty, Editor and Manager.

The commercial interests are represented by several first-class Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, and other special lines, as well as a number of general and other stores, besides the usual industries in the several mechanical branches, the whole of which appear to do a safe business.

Cobourg can scarcely be called a flourishing or progressive town, yet it possesses most of those advantages which conduce to prosperity, and as capital accumulates and is devoted to the development of the natural resources with which the vicinity abounds, to the establishment of manufactures, &c., it will rank with any town of its size in the Province.

The following figures are compiled from the assessment roll for 1879: Number of acres assessed, 1,178; value of real property, $1,321,581; value of personal property, other than income, $37,850; amount of taxable income, $52,800; total value of real and personal property and taxable income, $1,510,231. Total population, 5,178.

The Council for 1880 are: J. V. Gravely, Mayor; Issaac Wilson, W. L. Payne, B. L. Densmore, James Martin, John Thomson, John E. Kennedy, C. C. Field, James Winn, and S. Clarke, Councillors. W. H. Floyd, Town Clerk and Collector.

TOWNSHIP OF HAMILTON.

---

The township of Hamilton is bounded on the north by Rice Lake west by the township of Hope, in the County of Durham; south by Lake Ontario, and east by the township of Haldimand. The early settlement and subsequent development of this prosperous and wealthy township is briefly noted in the sketch of the town of Cobourg, which became erected into an independent municipality in 1837. Within its geographical limits are the post villages Baltimore, Harwood, Gore's Landing, Cold Springs—at which point the town hall is situated—Camborne, Plainville, and Bewdley. The surface of the township is for the most of an even nature, soil of good quality and productive—the whole being well watered by several creeks and rivulets, which flow towards and empty into the lakes to the north and south.

The last revised assessment roll gives the following figures:—

Number of ratepayers, 1,314; number of acres resident, 61,501; number of acres cleared, 61,501; number of acres resident and non-resident, 61,921; total value and amount of real and personal property and taxable income, $2,204,970; number of dogs, 447; cattle, 3,378; hogs, 1,184; horses, 2,146; sheep, 3,754. Total population, 4,481:

The County Council members for 1880 are: Walter Riddell, Reeve; John G. Hagerman, 1st Deputy Reeve; Alex. Eagleson, 2nd Deputy Reeve.
