

"The Junior Warden's Toast."

THE SONG COMPOSED AND DEDICATED TO

F. W. BARRON, Esq., W. M.

AND THE

BRETHREN OF ST. ANDREW'S LODGE No. 1,

BY THEIR PRINTER AND FELLOW WORKMAN

J. D. HUMPHREYS,

TORONTO.

Are your glasses charged in the west and the south, the Worshipful Master cries?

They are charged in the west, they are charged in the south, are the Warden's prompt replies.

Then to our final toast to-night your glasses fairly drain—

"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."

The Masons' social brotherhood, around the festive board,

Reveals a wealth more precious far than selfish miser's hoard;

They fairly share the priceless stores that generous hearts contain—

"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."

We work like Masons, free and true; and when our task is done,

A merry song and a cheerful glass are not unfairly won;

And only at our farewell pledge is pleasure tinged with pain—

"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."

Amidst our mirth we drink "To all poor Mason's o'er the world;"

On every shore our flag of love is gloriously unfurled;

We prize each brother, fair or dark, who bears no moral stain—

"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."

The Mason feels the noble truth the Scottish peasant told,

"That rank is but the guinea's stamp; the man himself the gold."

With us the rich and poor unite, and equal rights maintain—

"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."

Dear brothers of the mystic tie, the night is waning fast;

Our duty's done, our feast is o'er; this song must be our last.

"Good night! Good night!" Once more, once more, repeat the farewell strain—

"Happy to meet, sorry to part, happy to meet again."
