

REPRODUCED AND ADAPTED BY THE AMERICAN LITERATURE CO., N. Y. N.

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

Golden Text: She hath done what she could. MARK 14:8.

LITTLE BIBLE LESSON PICTURES.

Published Quarterly.

Vol. 22.

2nd Quarter, 1911.

No. 2.—Part 4.

GOLDEN TEXT: She hath done what she could.
Mark 14:8.

April 23, 1917.

Johns 12:1-41.

Mary loved Jesus. She wanted to show how much she loved him. One day she took a jar of beautiful perfume, and went into the room where he was eating supper. She broke the jar and poured the perfume on his feet. The room was full of the sweet odor. Jesus was very much pleased. He said Mary had done what she could to show her love and the story of her love should be told everywhere.

"It needs a loving spirit
Much more than wealth to prove,
How much a little child can do
For others by his love."

Who brought costly perfume to Jesus?

Mary.

Where was he?

At supper in Bethany.

Where did Mary pour the perfume?

On the feet of Jesus.

Why did she do this?

To show her love.

Who was much pleased?

Jesus.

How can a child show love for God and others?

Published quarterly at 10 cts. per year or 2-4 cts. per quarter.

HANSON, JOHNS & CO.

232 FRANKLIN AVE., PROVIDENCE, R. I.

Entered as second-class matter at Providence, R. I. Post Office.

R-025