

PAULINE'S PICTURE ALPHABET

BY LADY BELL

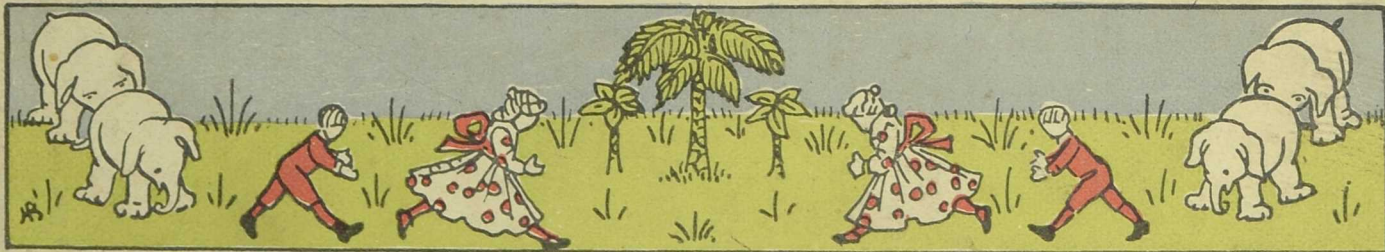

ILLUSTRATED BY
HILDA BROUGHTON

PUBLISHED
A.L. HUMPHREYS

1910.

BY,
LONDON.

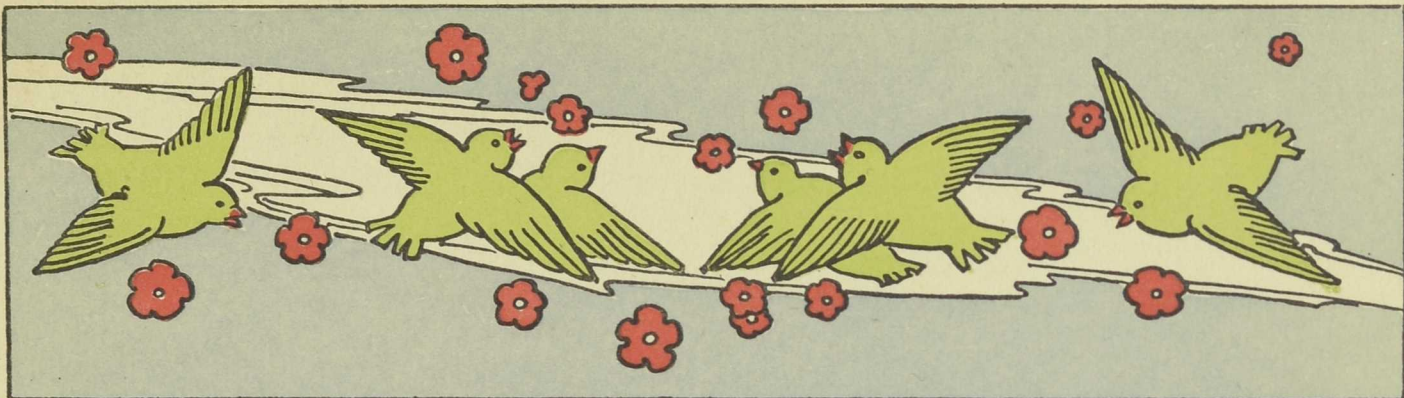

d/10/10

T.L. (NR)
BELL
PAULINE'S ...
1910

37131 053 602 900

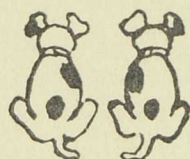

PAULINE'S PICTURE ALPHABET

BY LADY BELL

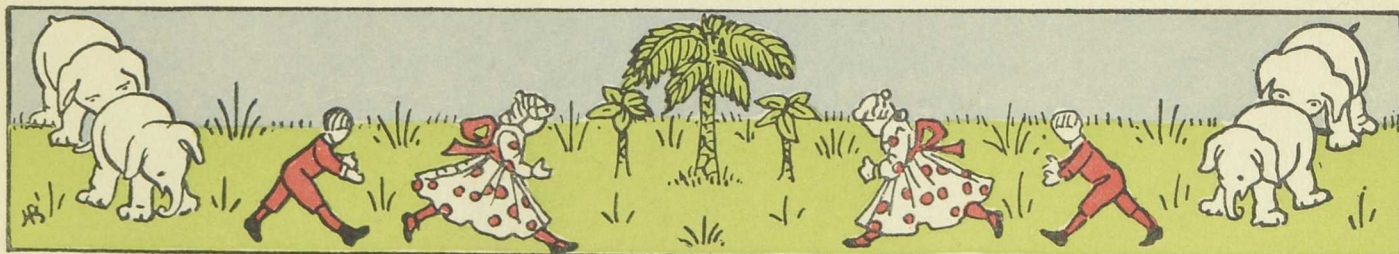

ILLUSTRATED BY
HILDA BROUGHTON

PUBLISHED
A.L.HUMPHREYS

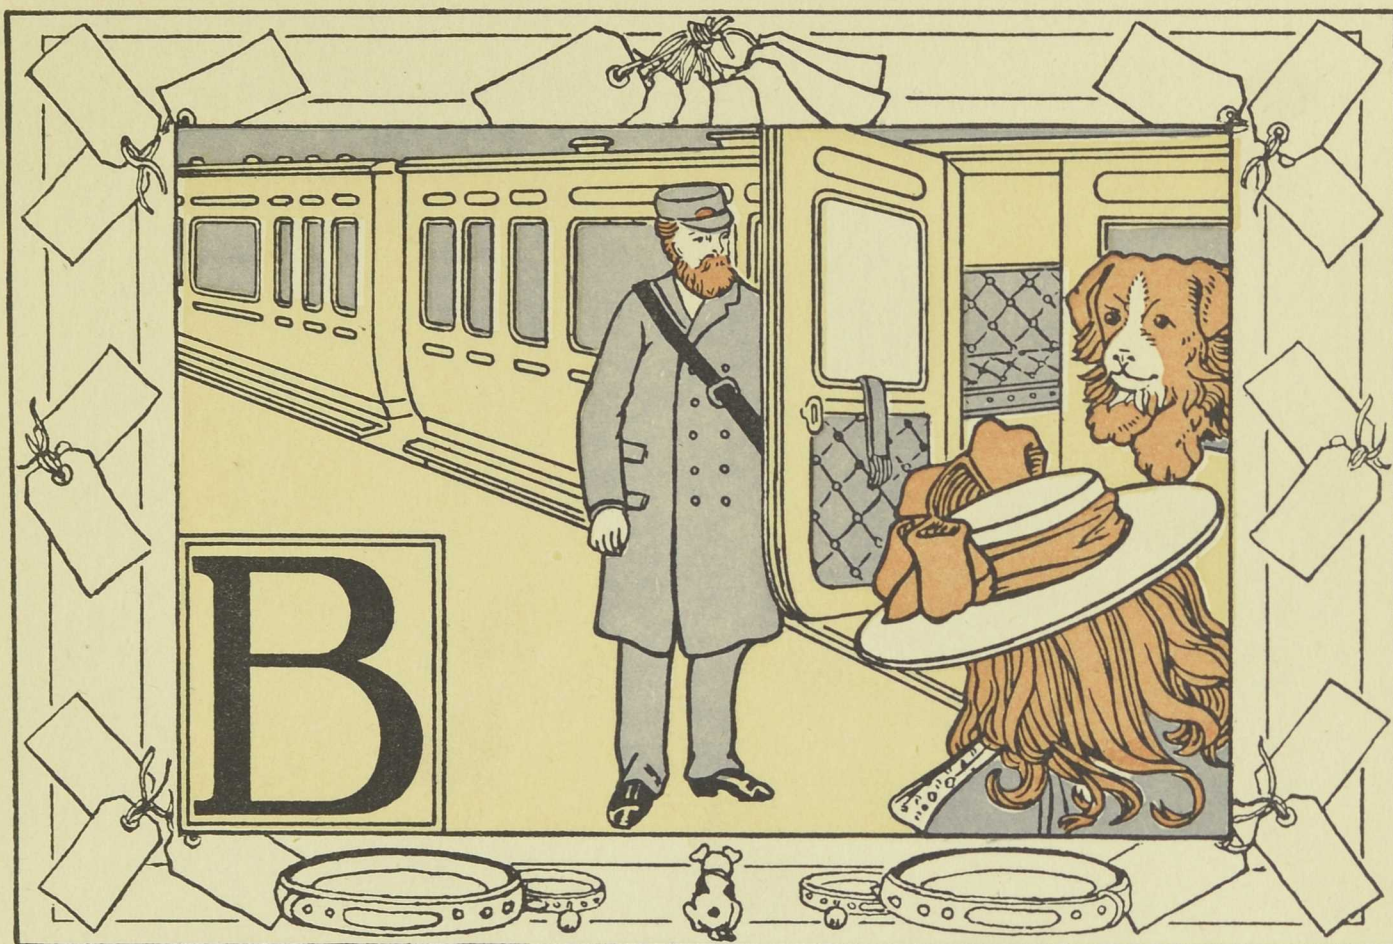

1910.

BY,
LONDON.

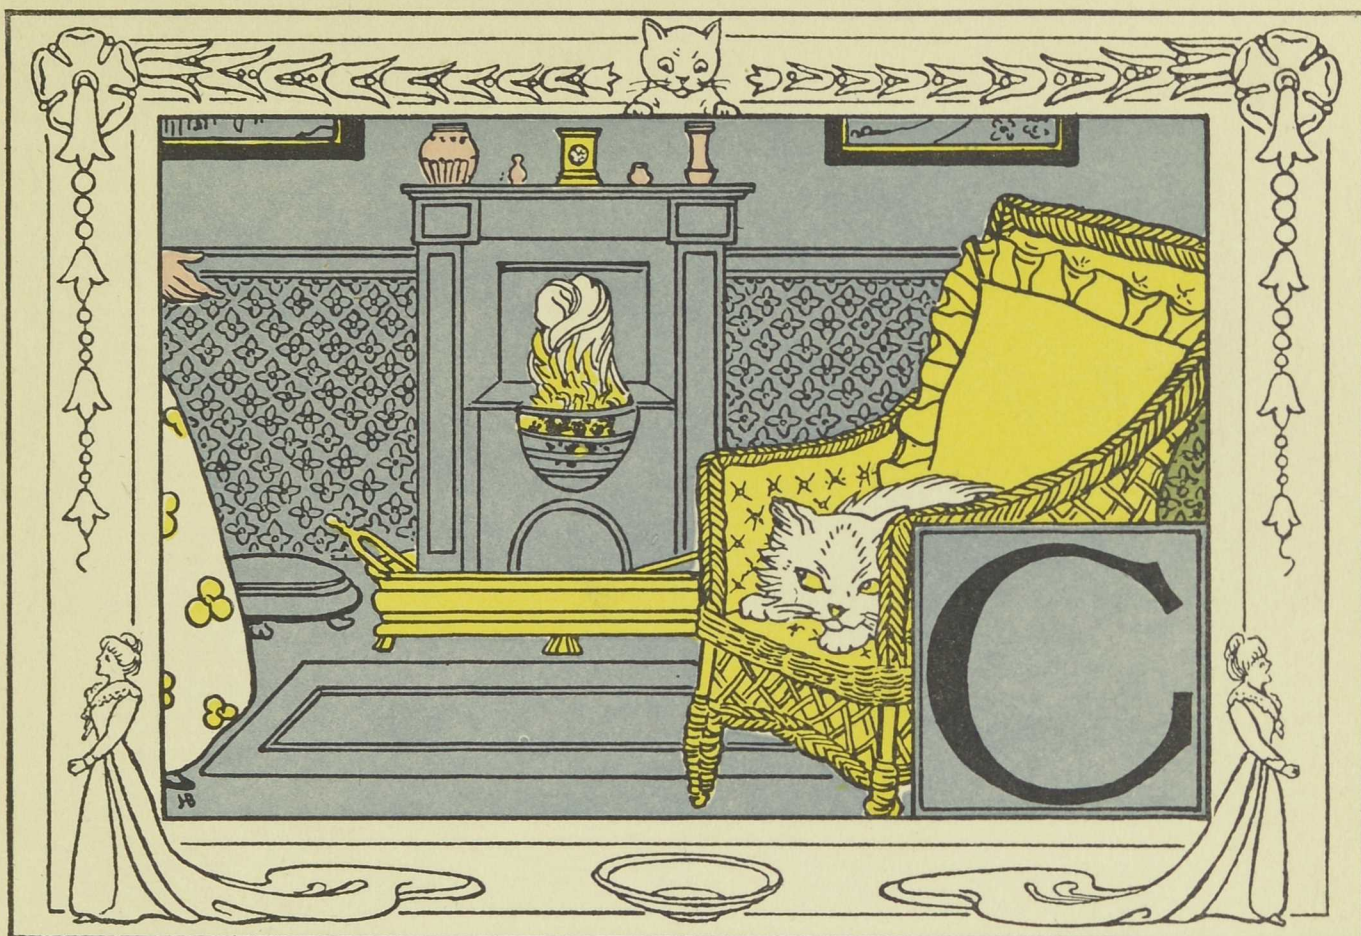

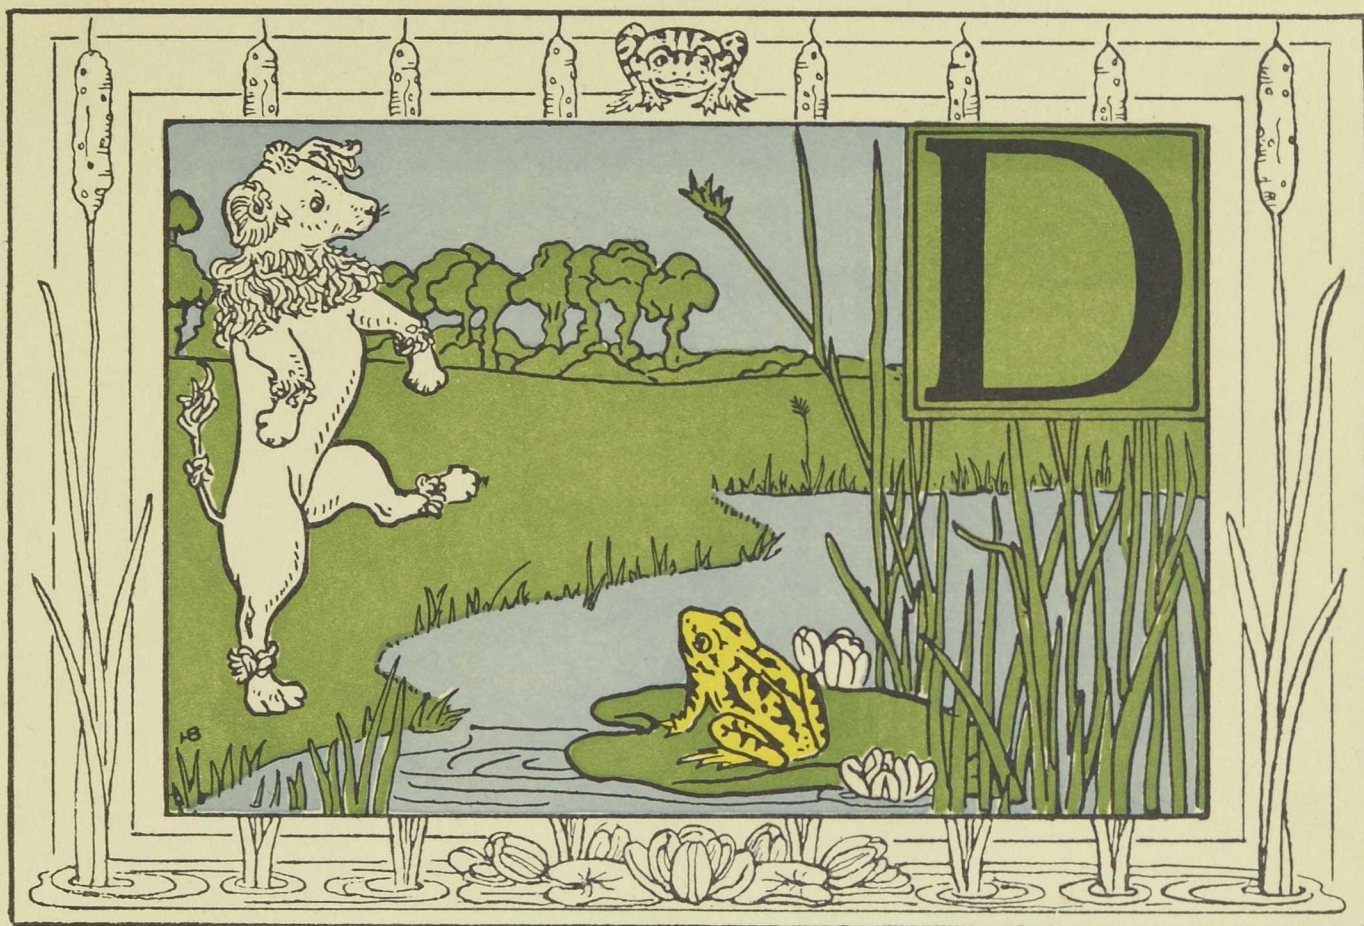

A was an Anxious Ant
Who tried to climb a tree.
The squirrel said "No, no you can't,
You cannot climb like me."

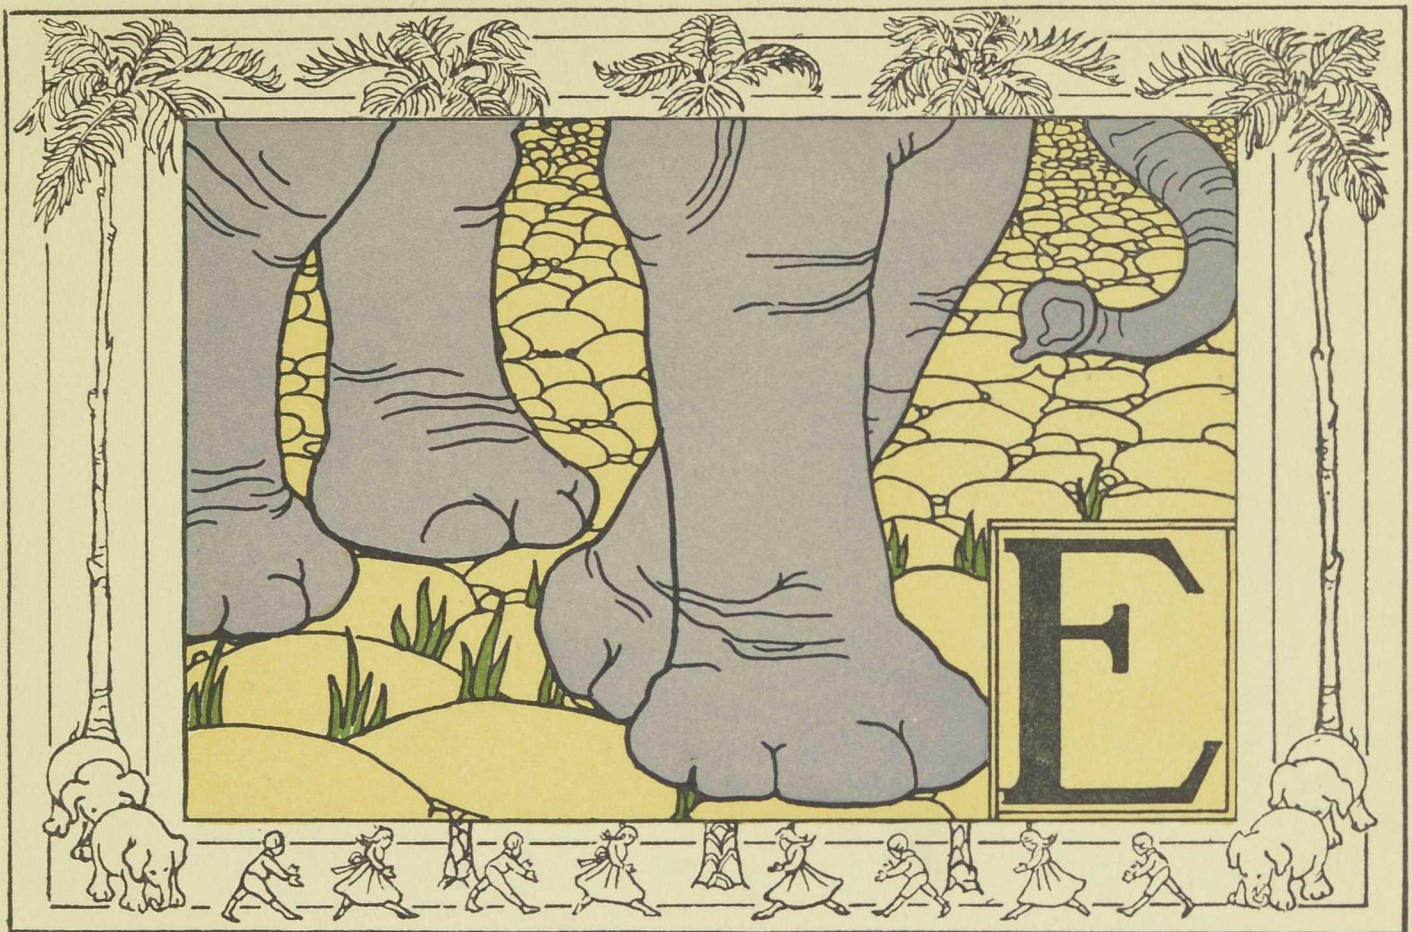

B was a Big Bow-wow
Who got into the train.
The guard said "Sir, I beg that now
You will get out again."

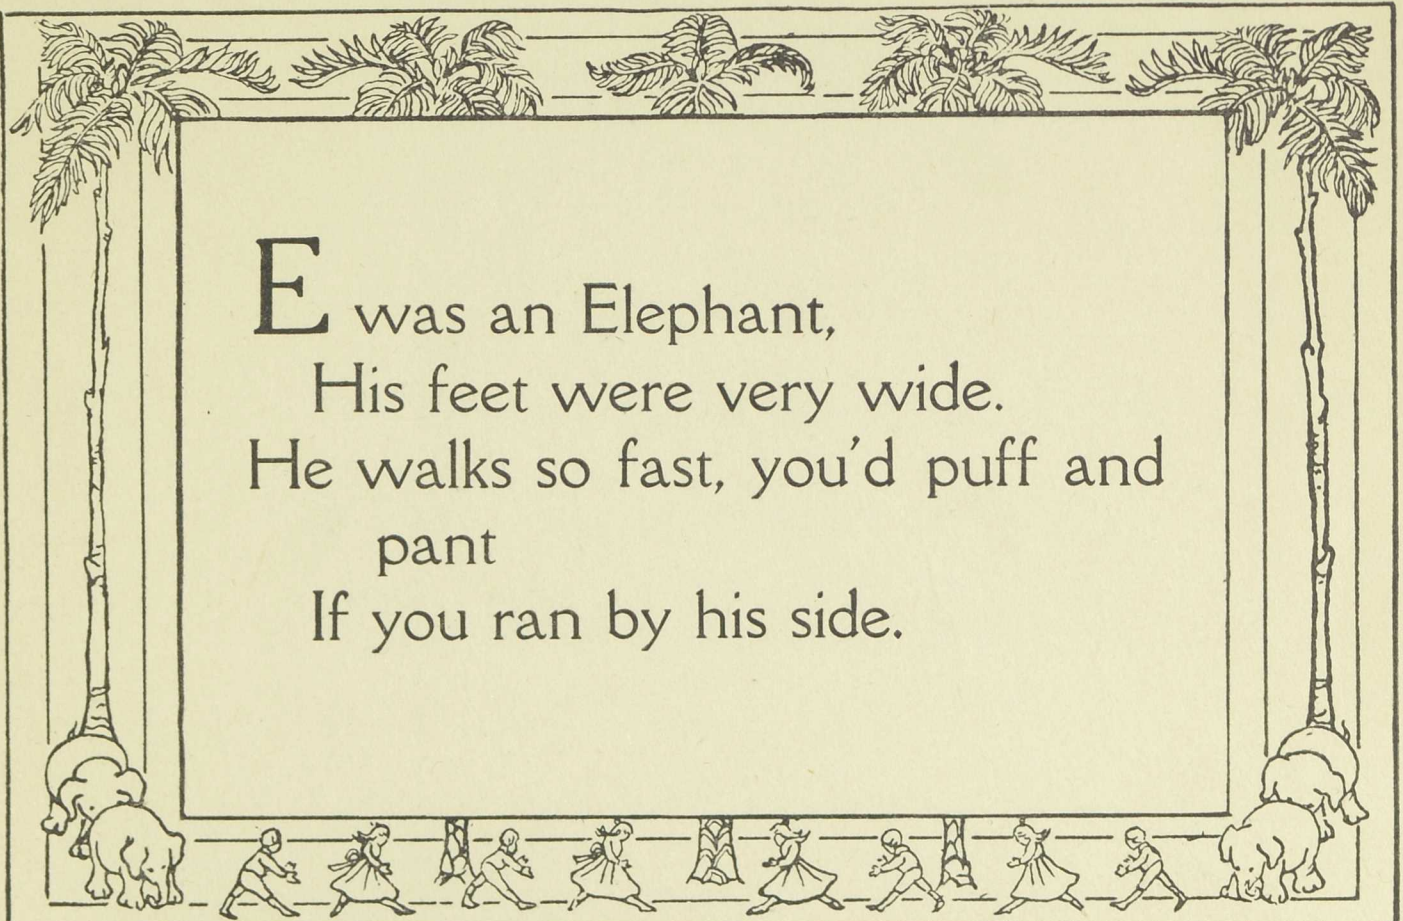

C was a Cosy Cat
Who took the best armchair.
Jane's mother said "Well! but for that,
I should be sitting there."

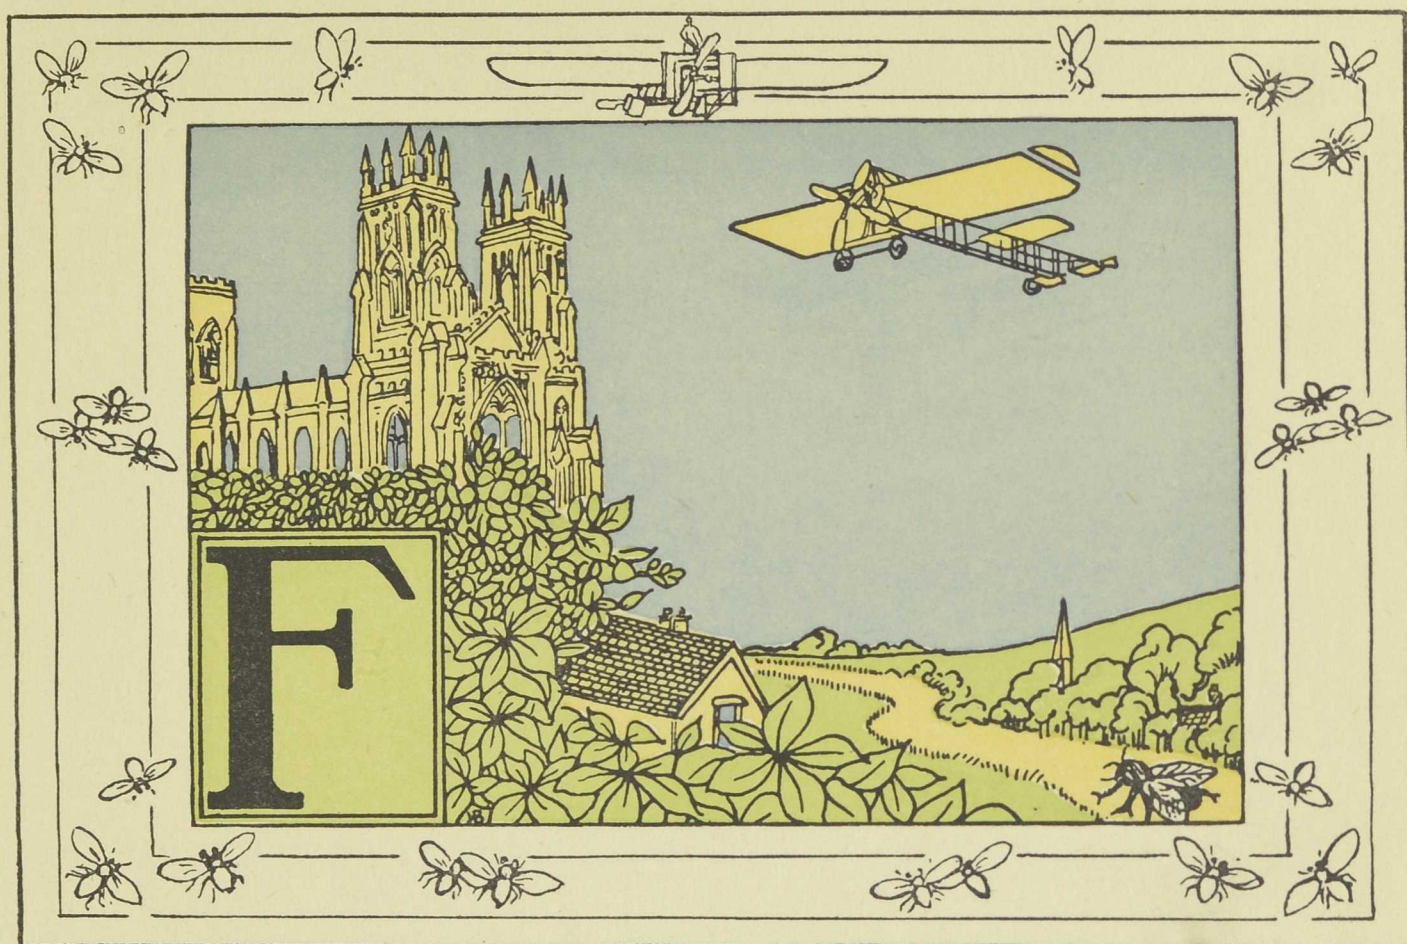

D was a Dainty Dog
Who said "I wish to Dance —
Please will you play a tune, dear
frog,
A tune they play in France?"

E was an Elephant,
His feet were very wide.
He walks so fast, you'd puff and pant
If you ran by his side.

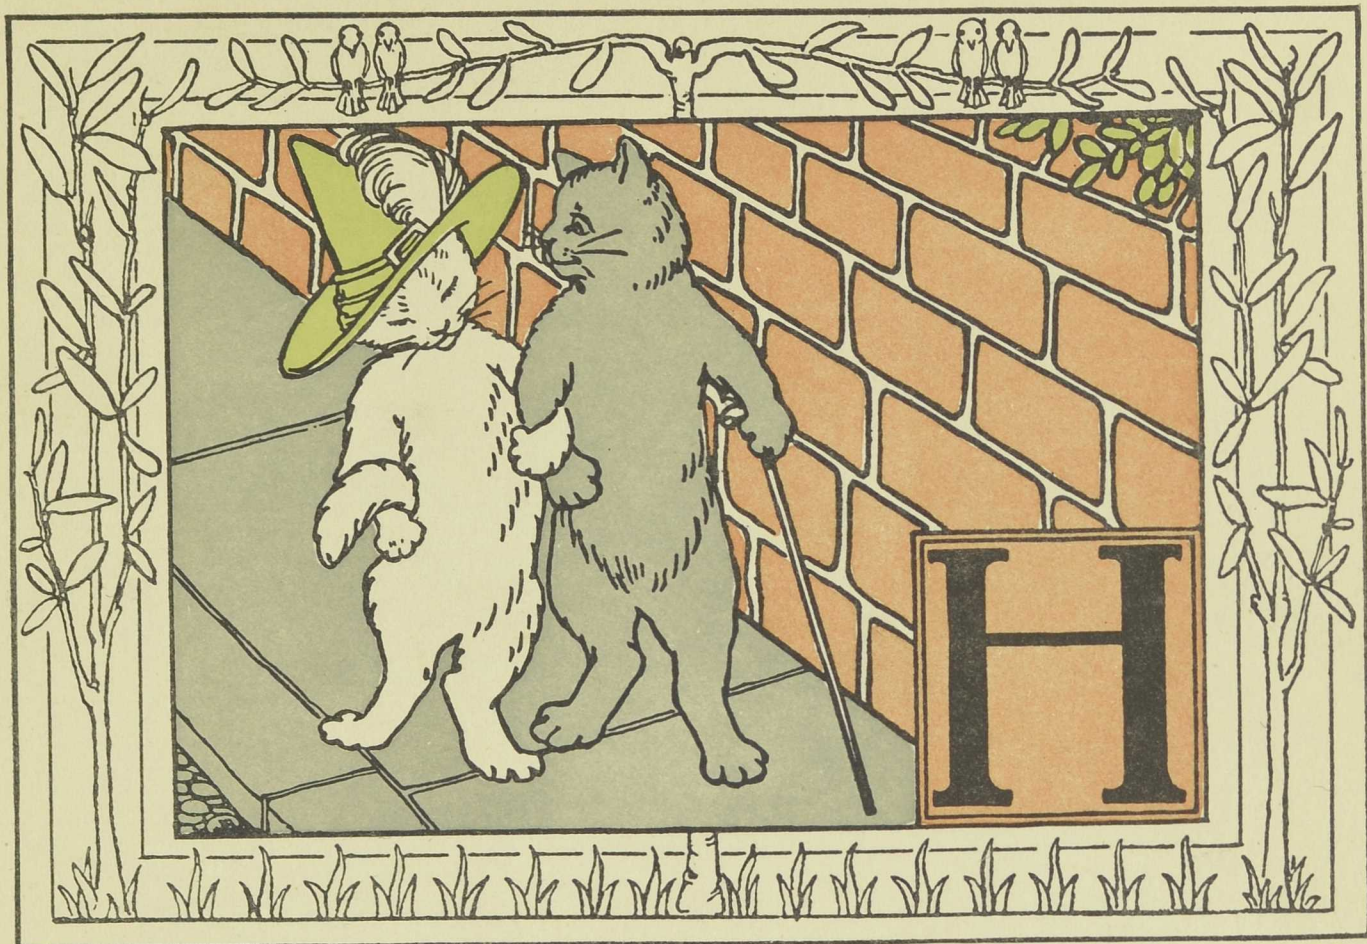

F was a Fussy Fly
Who ran from Yarm to York.
He said "If men begin to fly,
Then I must learn to walk."

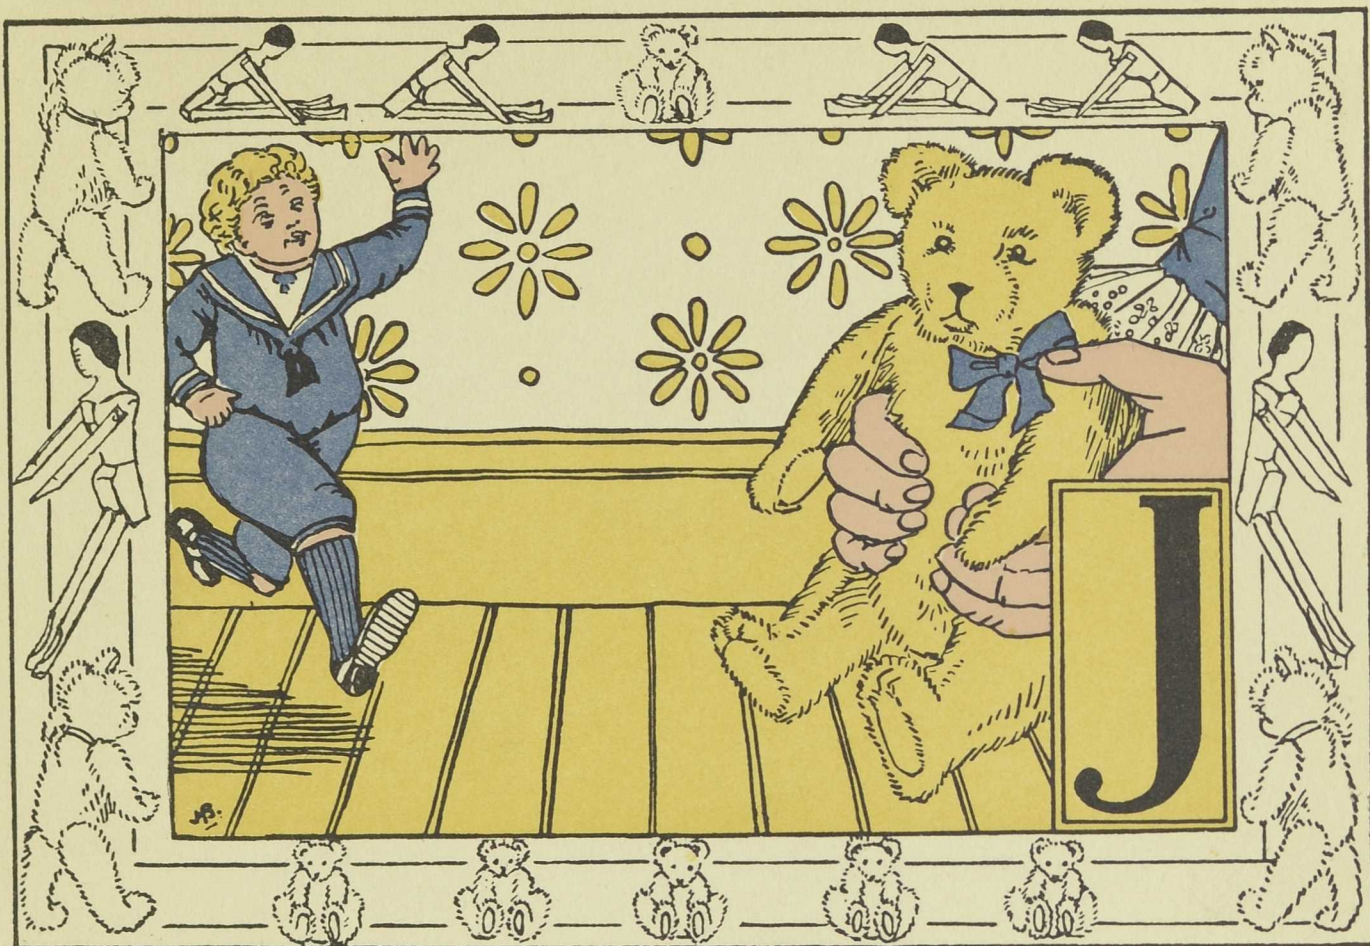

G was a great Grey Goose,
Who said "I want a pin.
My feathers seem to me so loose,
I want to pin them in."

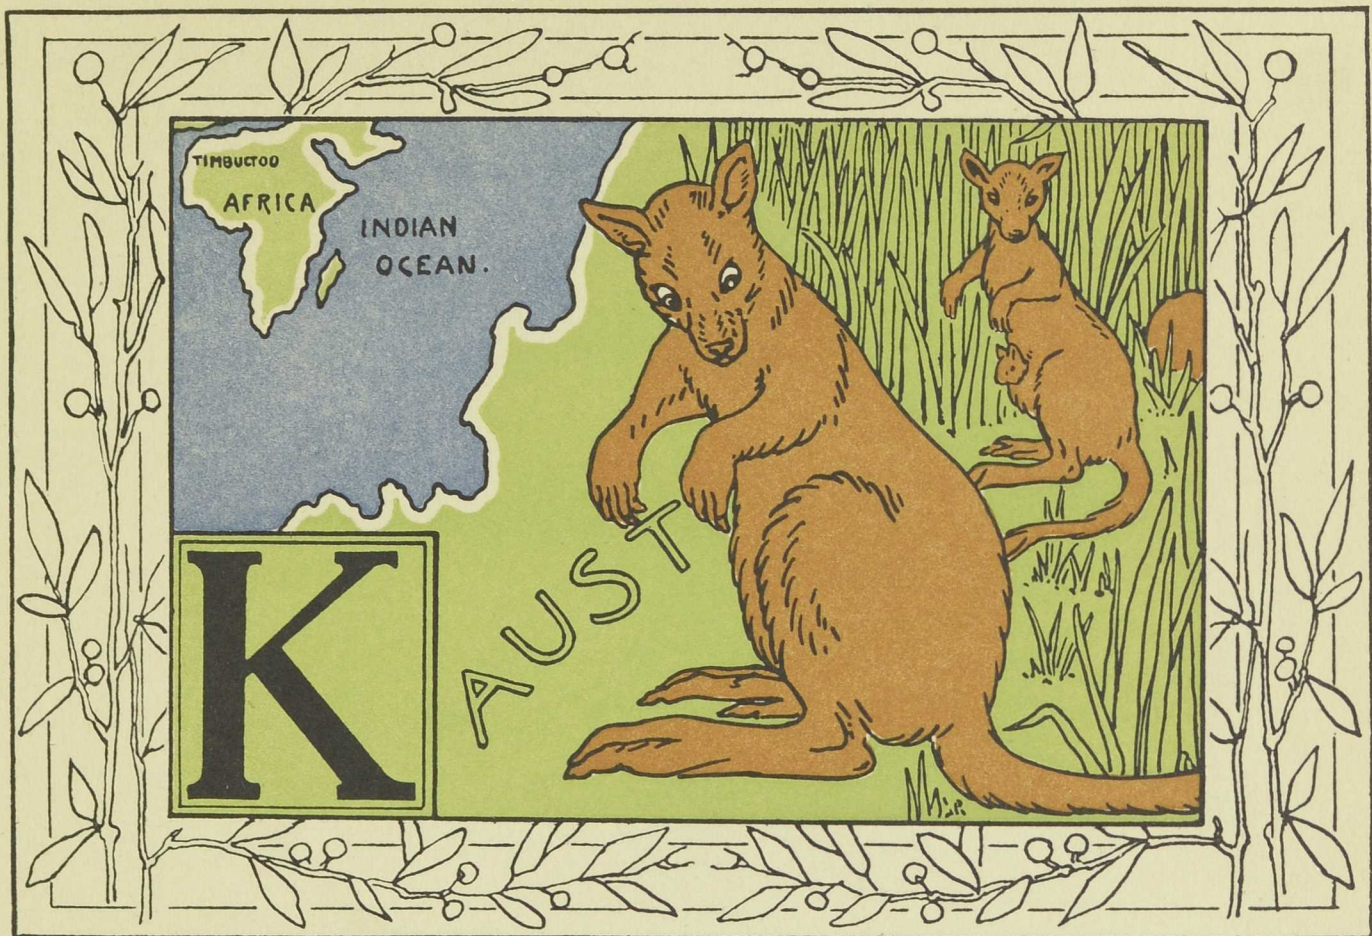

H was for Jane's High Hat,
All pointed at the end.
One day she lent it to the cat
To walk out with a friend.

I was a piece of Ice
Which Jenny tried to hold.
She said " I don't think it is nice
For things to be so cold. "

J was a Jump for Joy,
When Jimmy Jumped so high,
Because he saw the nice new toy
That Daddy went to buy.

K was a Kangaroo,
His legs were in the way,
They made him jump to Timbuctoo,
And back again next day

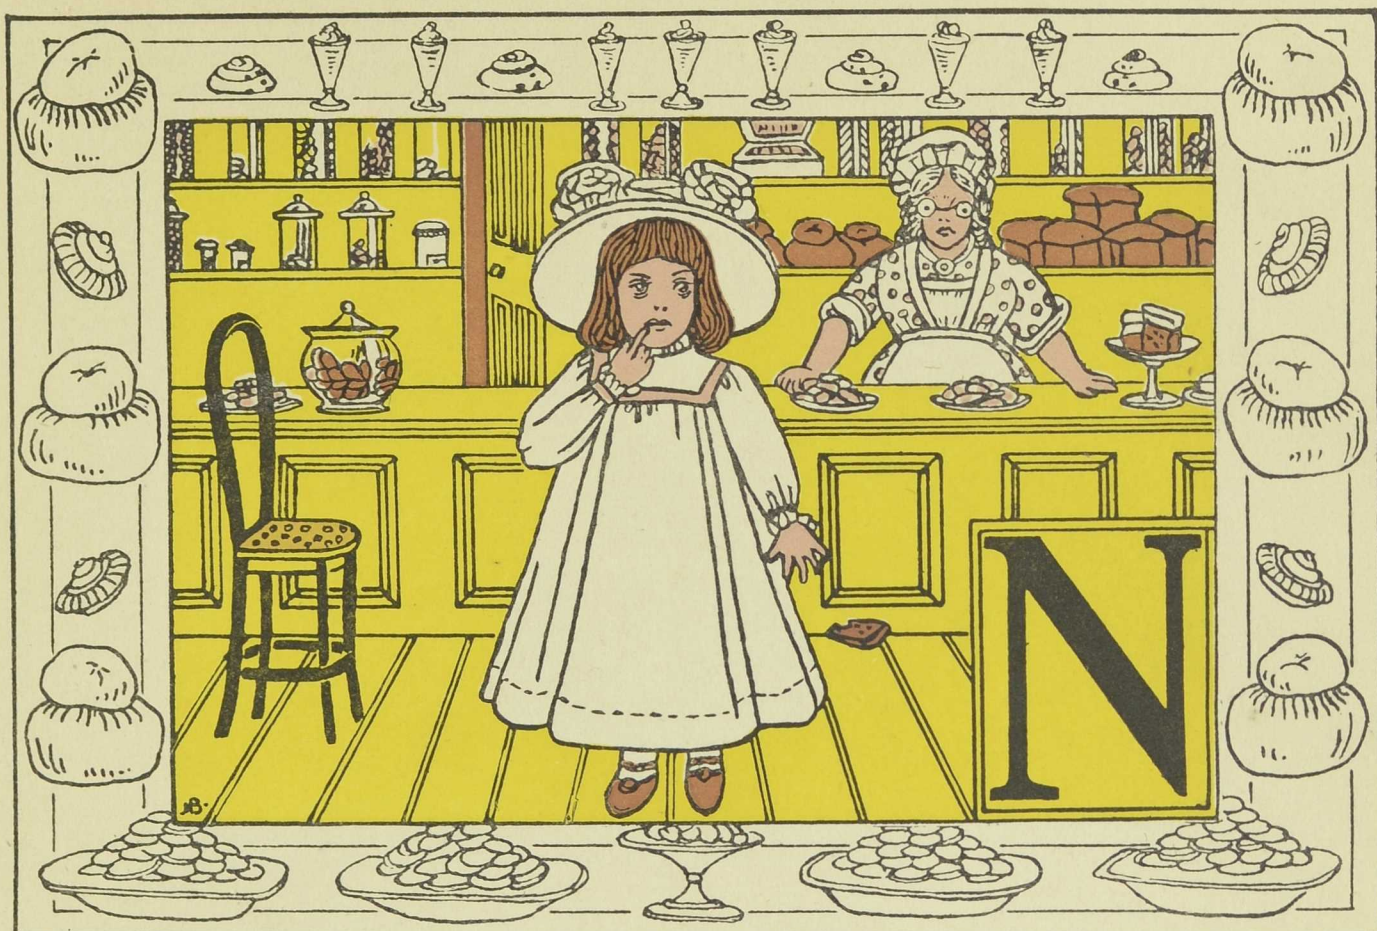

L was a Lazy Lion,
Who would not learn to read.
His book he wouldn't cast an eye on,
But growled and roared instead.

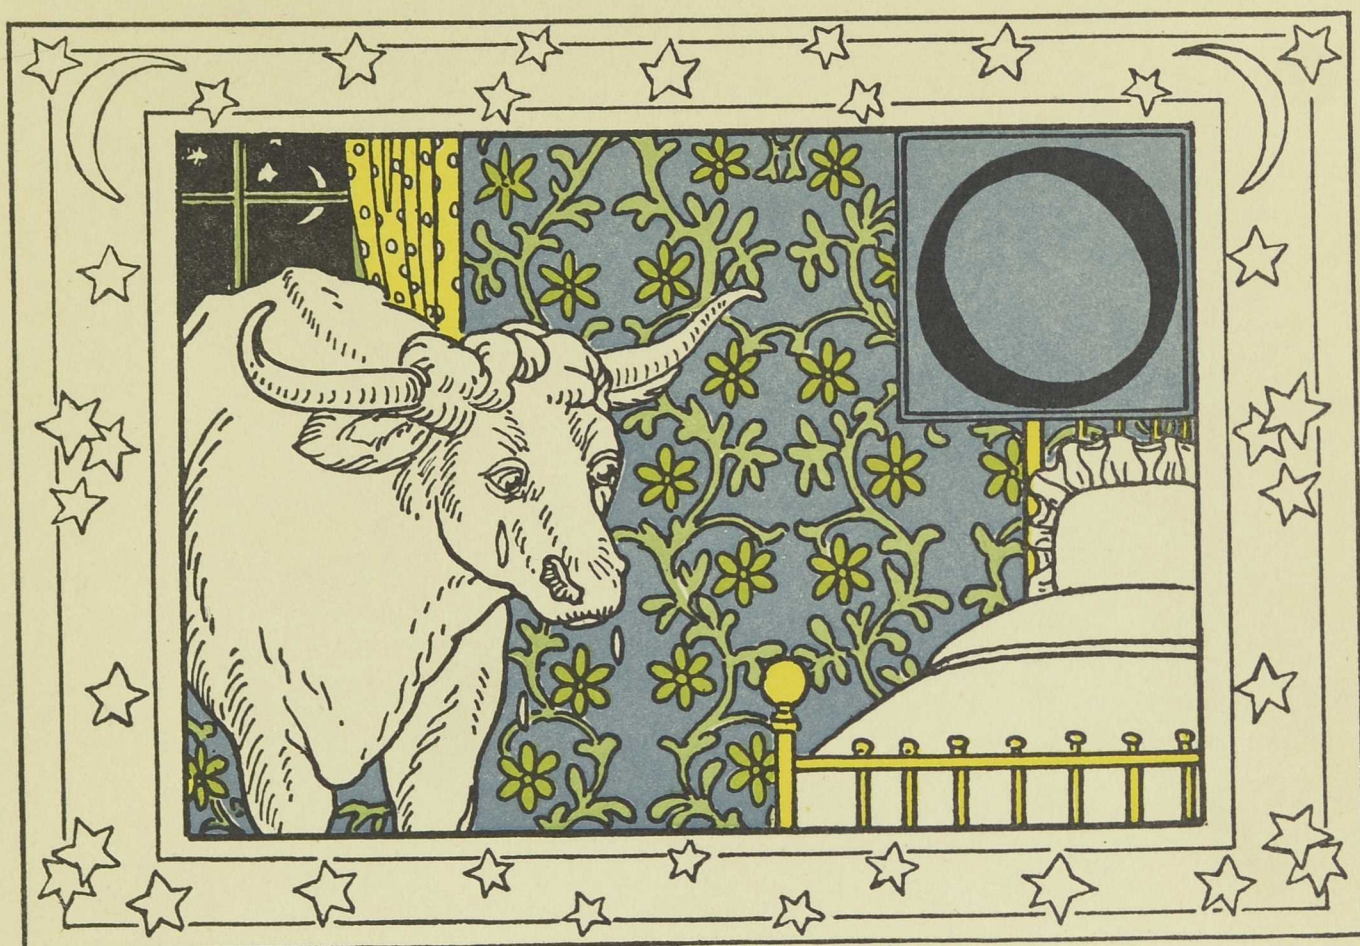

M was for Mrs. Mouse,
Who was, O, so polite,
When visitors came to her house,
She said "Do spend the night."

N was a Naughty Niece,
She stole a cake one day,
And then she ate a little piece,
And threw the rest away.

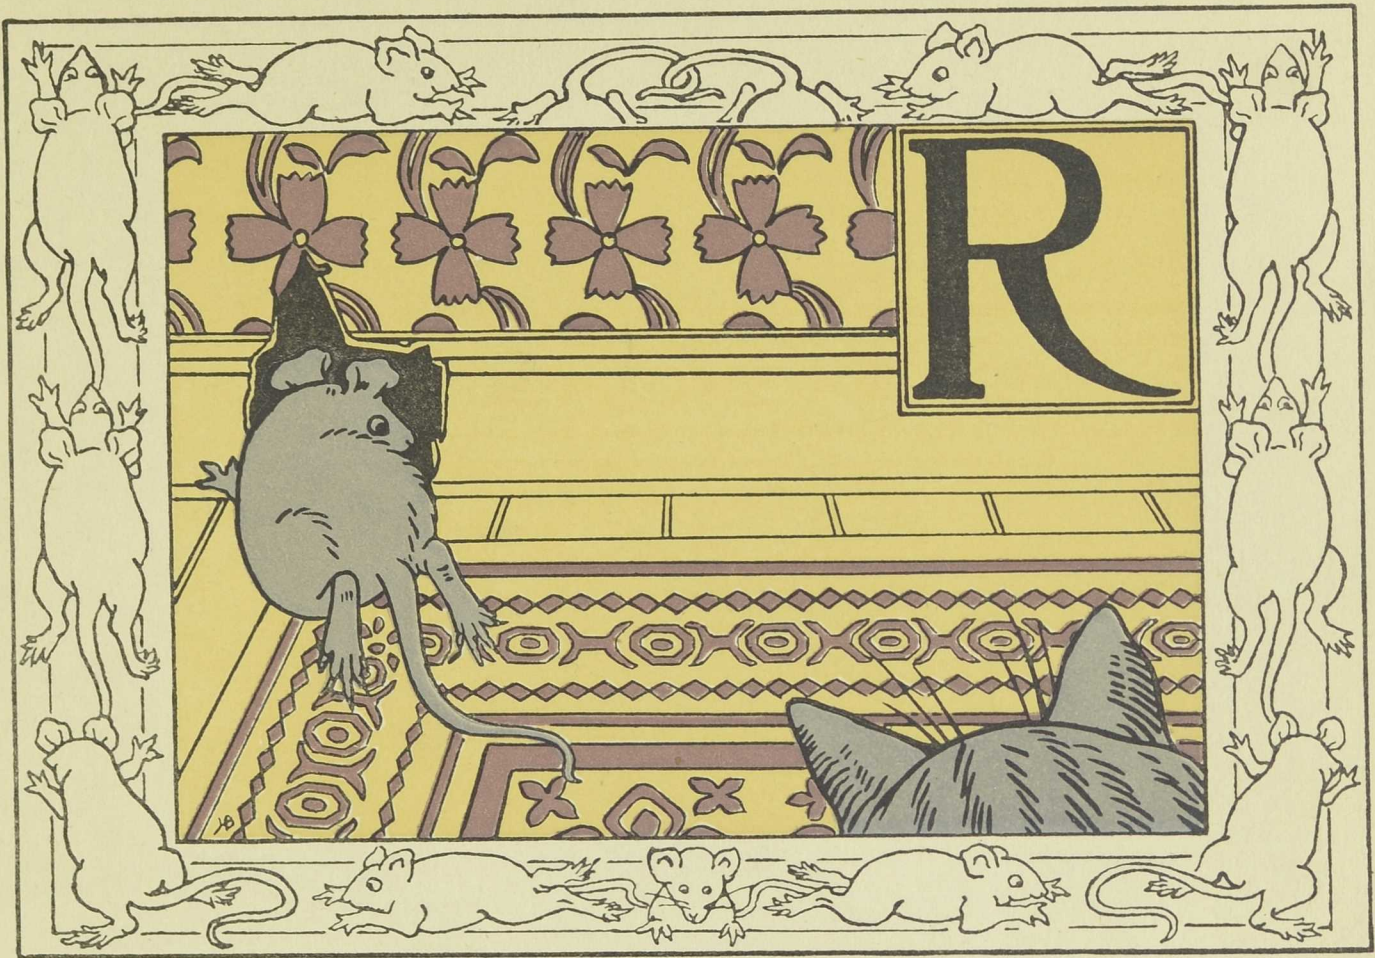

O was a great big Ox,
With horns upon his head,
He longed to fold them in a box,
When it was time for bed.

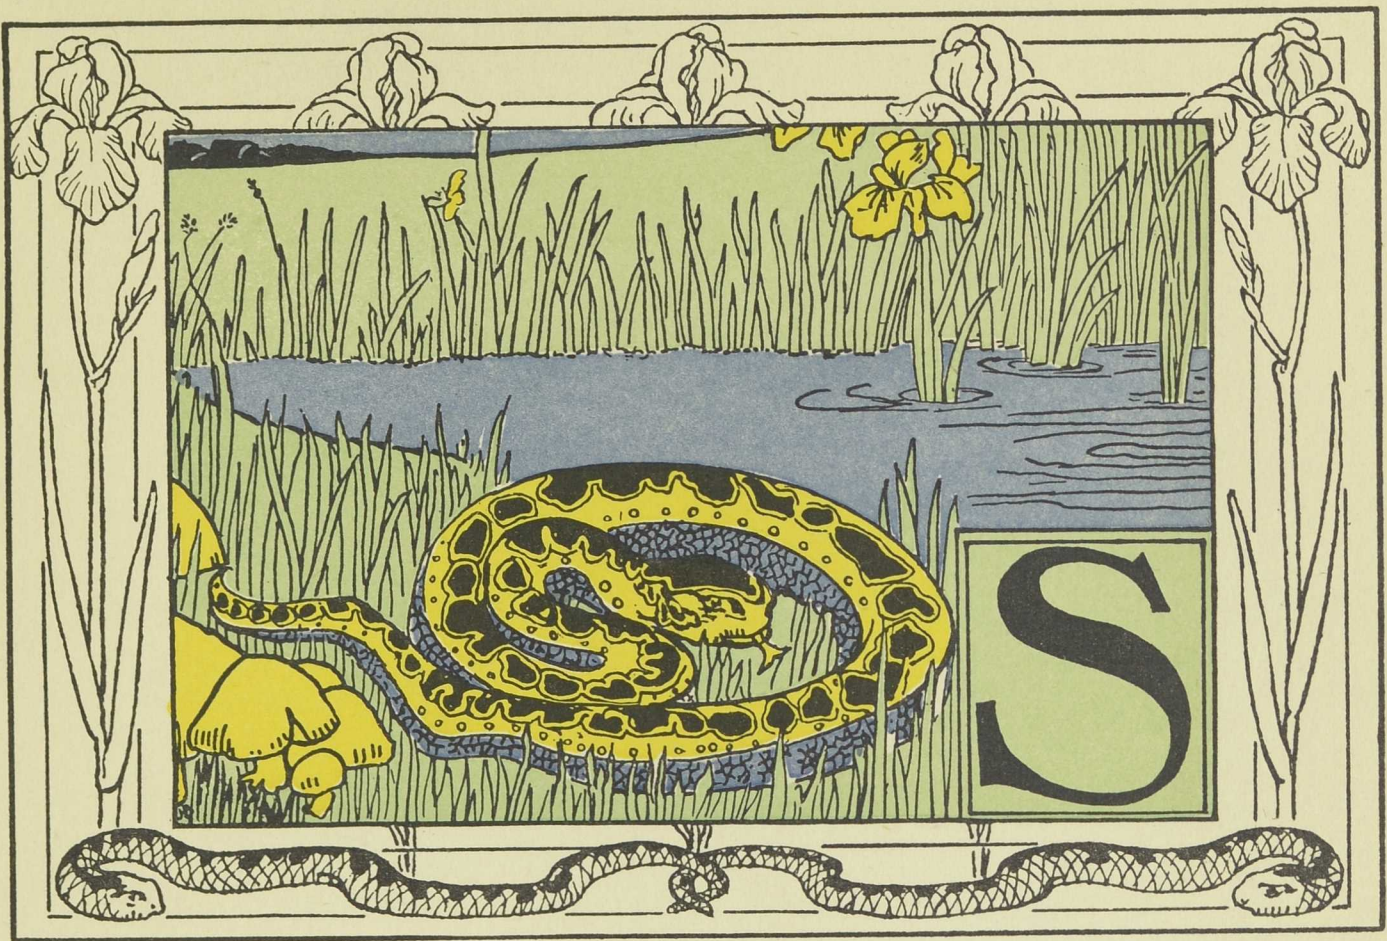

P for a Pinky Pig,
Who walked out in a storm.
He said "I wish I had a wig
To keep me dry and warm."

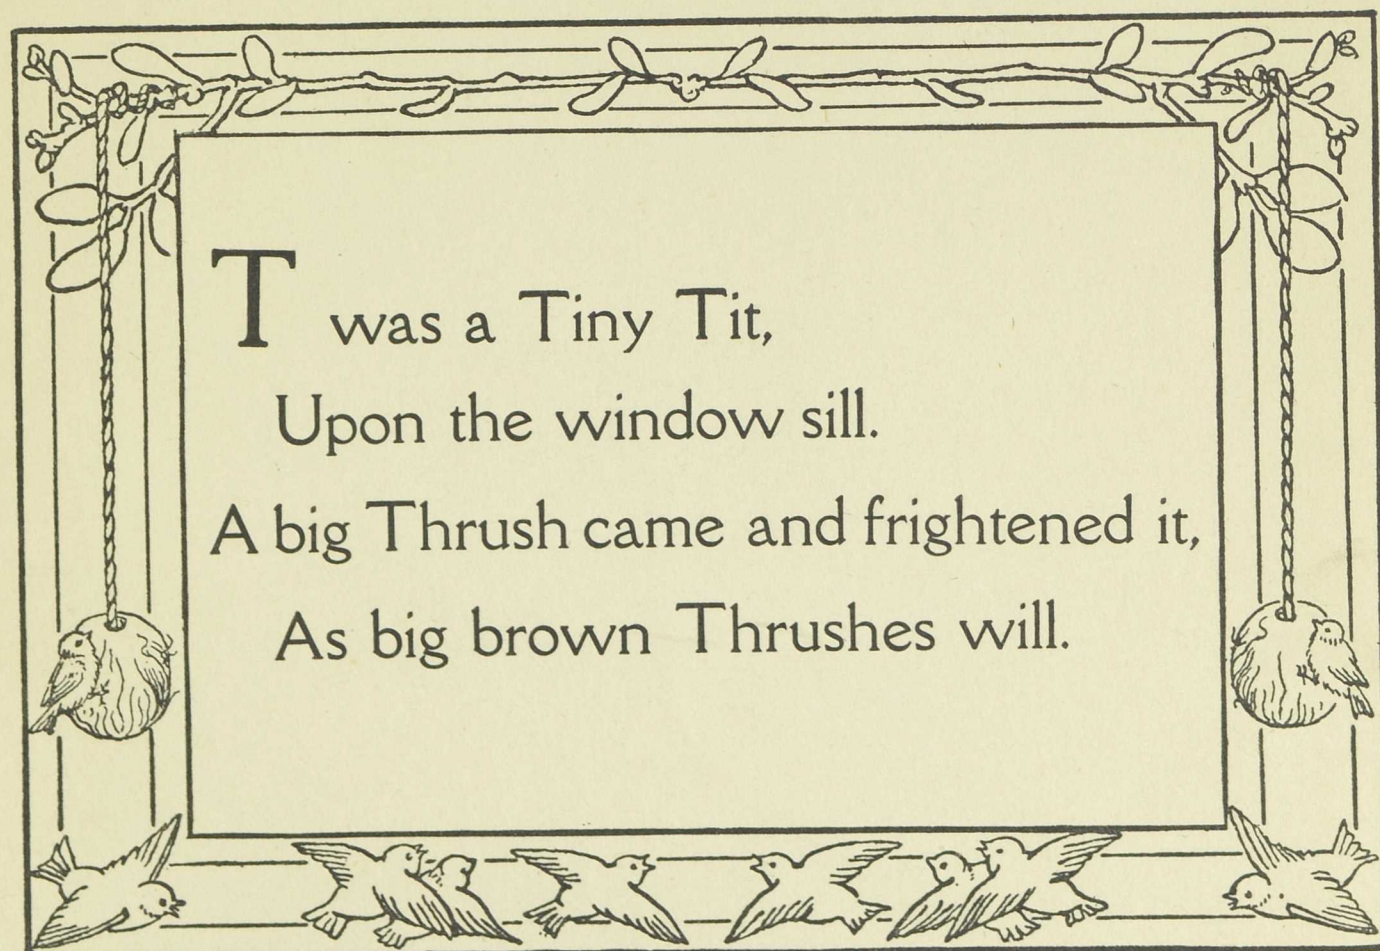

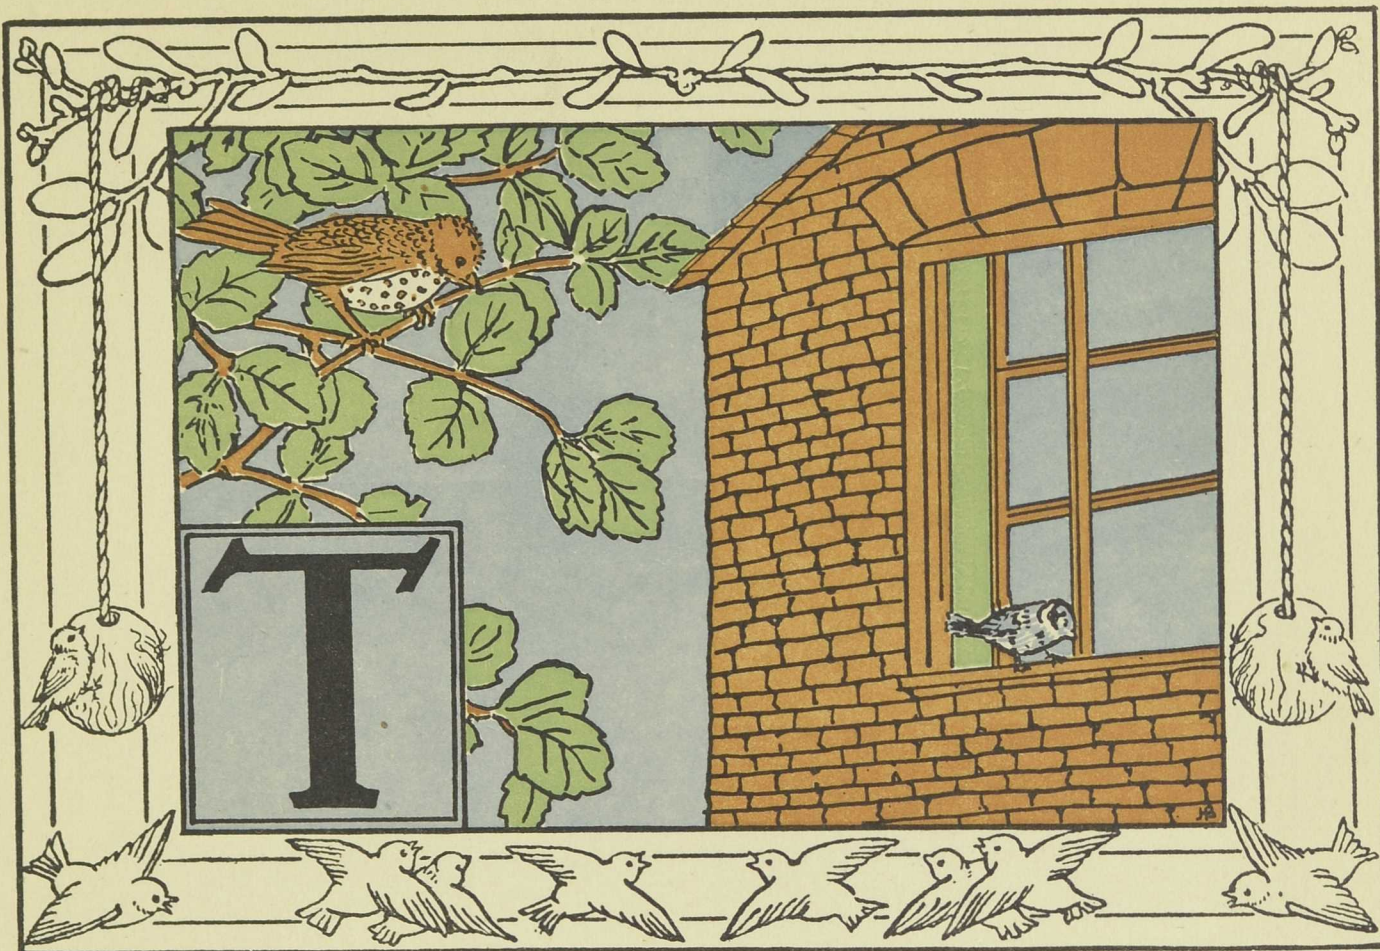

Q was a fairy Queen
Who built herself a bower.
And then for fear she should be seen
She hid behind a flower.

R was a Running Rat,
He ran so very hard—
He raced the cat all round the mat
And beat him by a yard.

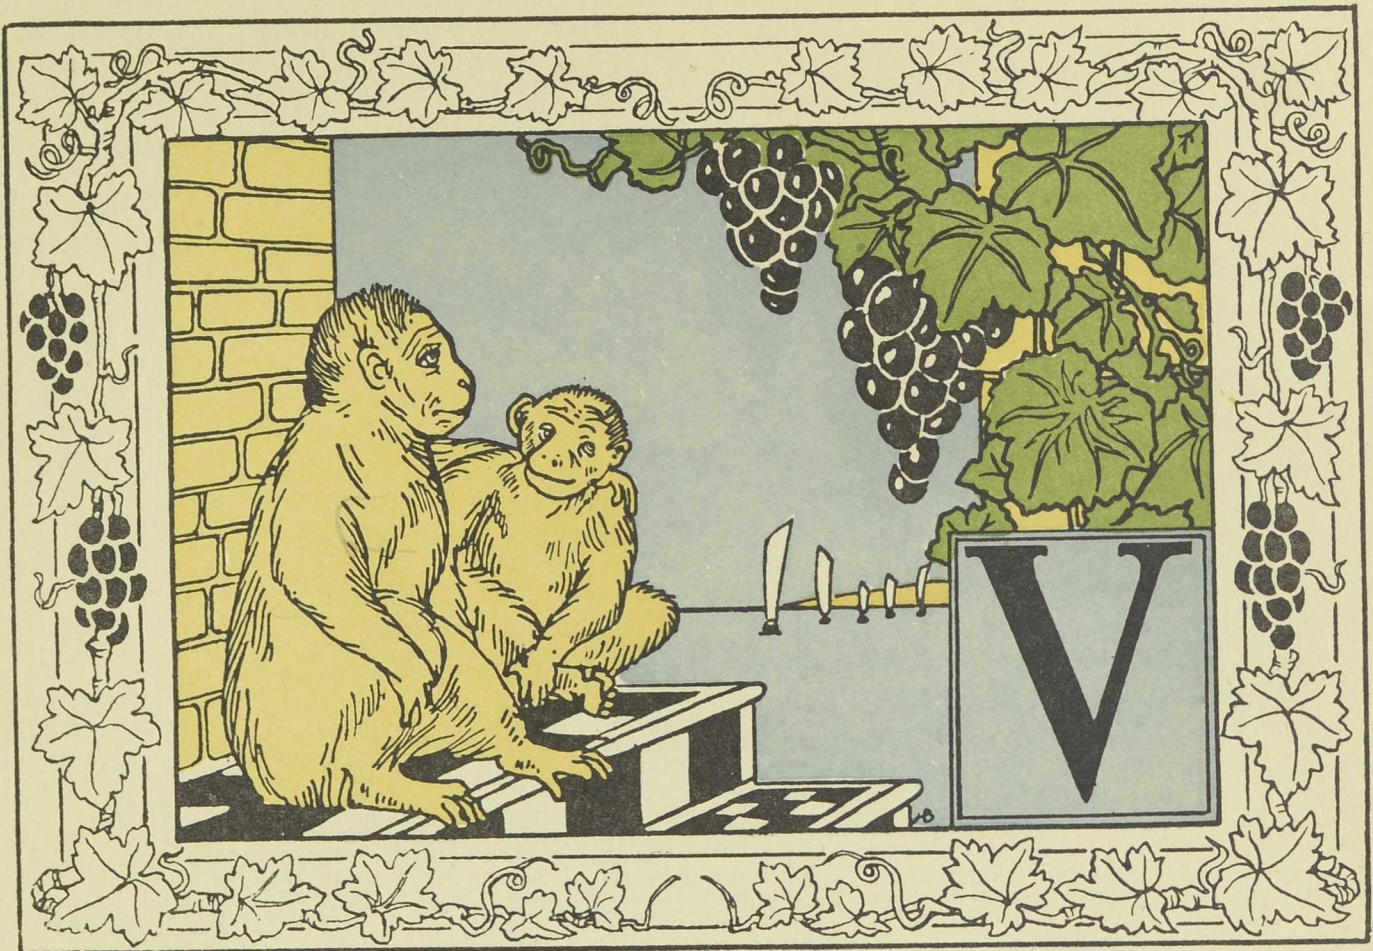

S was a Shiny Snake,
He hid in the long grass,
And said "I'll lie beside the lake,
And bite the folks who pass."

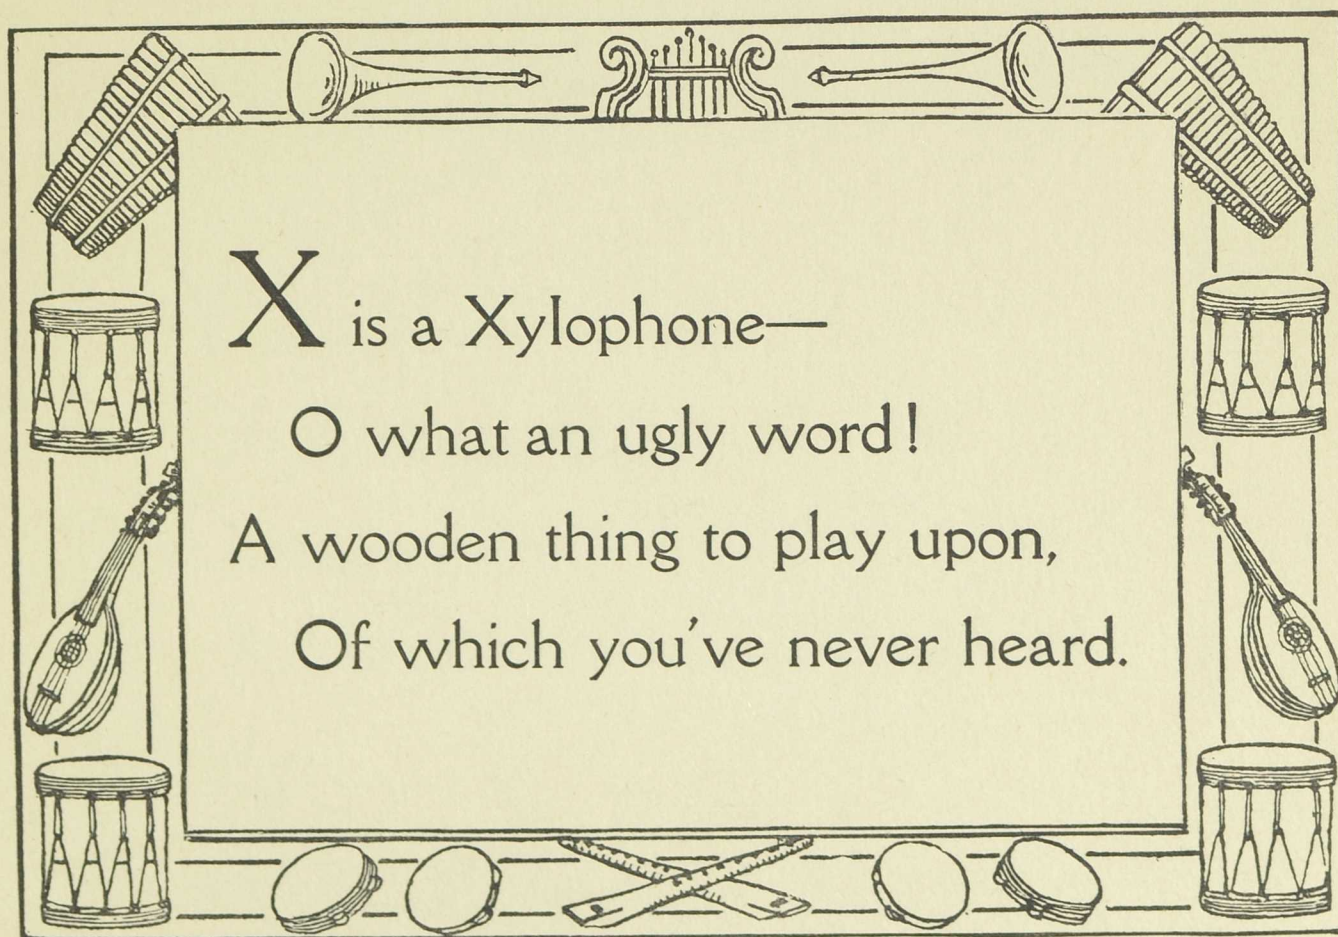

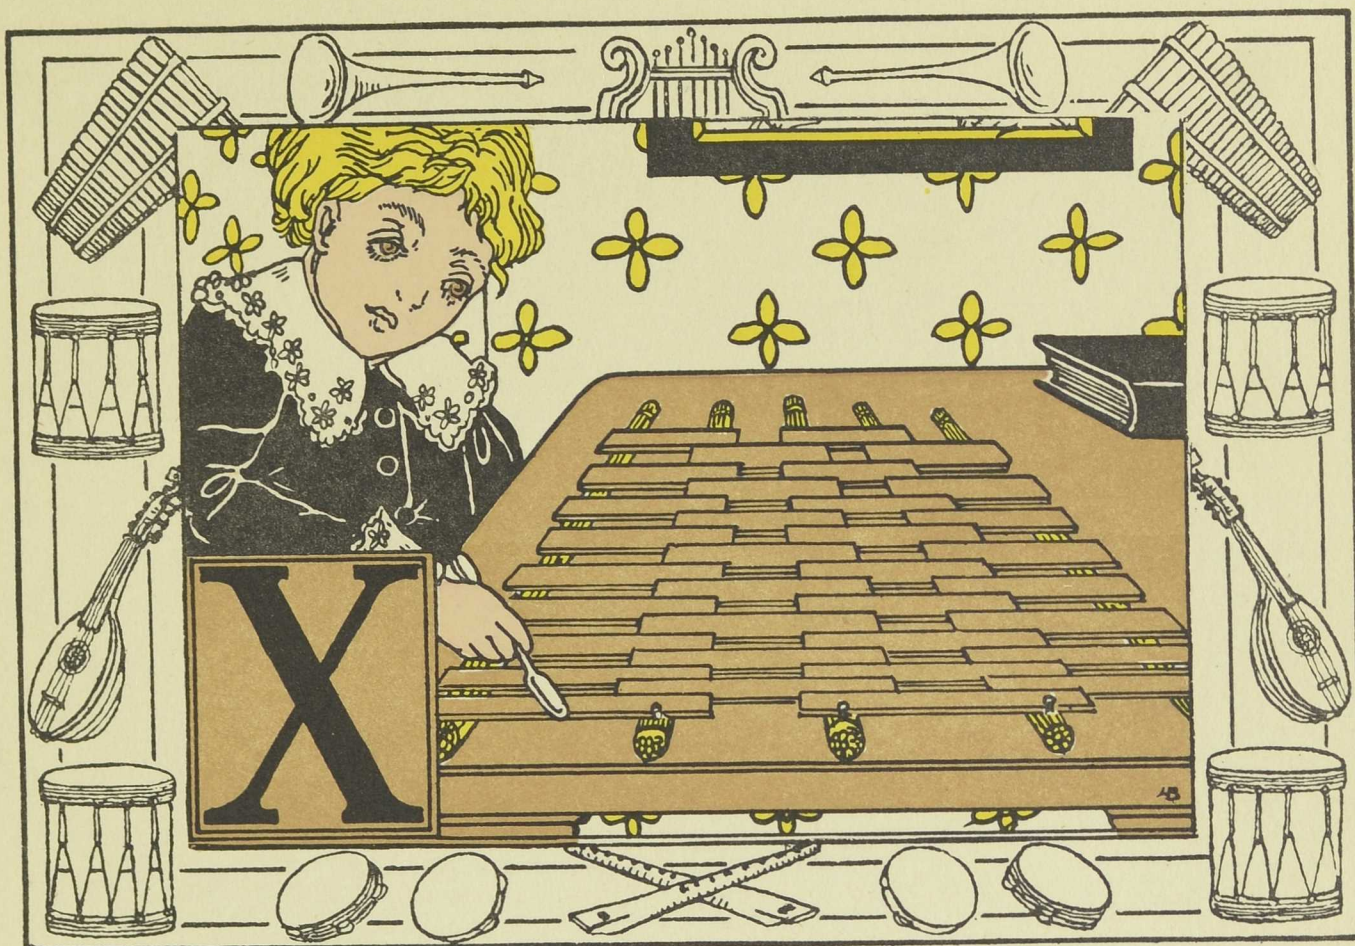

U was an Ugly Uncle,
But O he was so kind!
He rode a horse called Crinkly-Crunkle,
And took his niece behind.

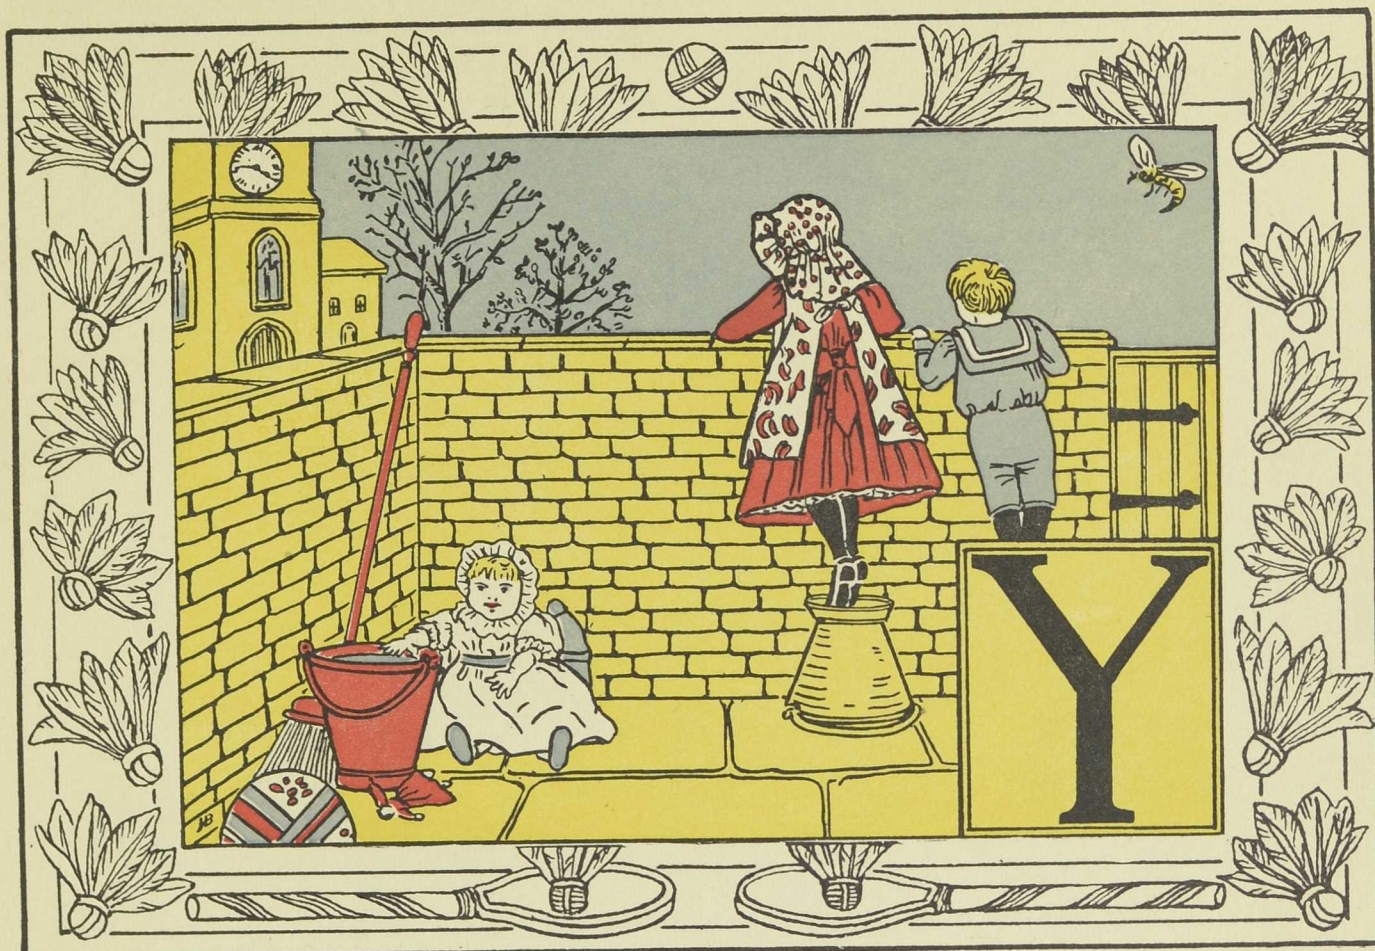

V was a leafy Vine,
All hanging down with grapes.
I'd gather them, if it were mine,
And feed the little apes.

W is a walk,
That we take every day.
Our dog goes too, and while we talk,
Sometimes he runs away.

Y is a Yard we play in
From three o'clock till four.
A wasp once tried to make his way in,
But could not find the door.

Z was a Zebra, striped—

A very stupid one.

He said “If I were washed & wiped,
Would all my stripes be gone?”

