

EX LIBRIS BRENT GRATTON-MAXFIELD. 1917

NO OTHER COPY TRACED.

THE MERRY COBBLER AND HIS MUSICAL ALPHABET.

GLASGOW, LUMSDEN.

(N.D. BUT C. 1810.)

32 MO. FIRST EDITION.

ORIGINAL ILLUSTRATED BLUE
PAPER WRAPPERS, FRONTIS.,
WOODCUT ON TITLE, AND 27 HALF
PAGE WOODCUTS IN THE TEXT.

A S NEW.

NOT RECORDED IN —

CAT. OF CHILDREN'S BOOKS OF YESTERDAY.

DARTON.

OSBORNE.

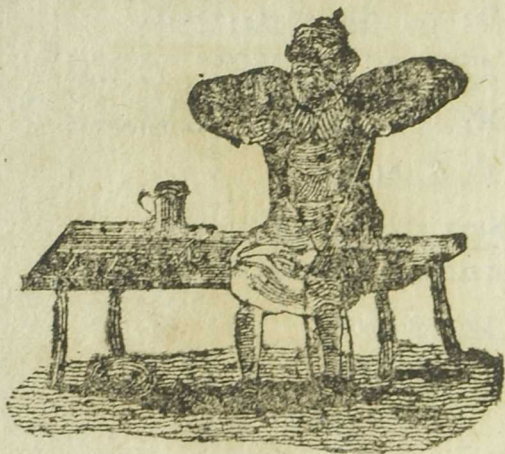

MUIR.

GUMUCHIAN.

I TRACE NO COPY IN THE BRITISH MUSEUM LIBRARY

I TRACE NO COPY AT AUCTION
1902-1978.

TOBY MEND-ALL,
THE MERRY COBLER.

Your Shoes he'll mend with wondrous care,
If you unto his stall repair.

THE
MERRY COBLER, AND HIS MUSICAL ALPHABET.

GLASGOW:
Published and Sold Wholesale by
J. LUMSDEN & SON.
[Price Two-pence.]

THE

MIRIAM COLLEGE

MIRIAM COLLEGE

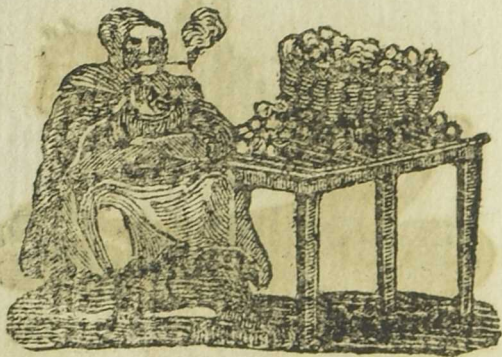

1911

THE
MERRY COBLER.

I had a little hobby horse,
And it was dapple gray;
Its head was made of pea-
straw,
Its tail was made of hay.

MERRY COBBLER
A a

A is an Apple,
You can buy in the street;

7
B b

B is a Barber,
So clean and so neat.

8

C c

C is a Cat,
That catches the Mice;

D d

D is a Dog,
That plays very nice.

E e

E stands for Elegance,
Which you see in this Horse;

F f

F is a Footman,
Than him there are worse.

G g

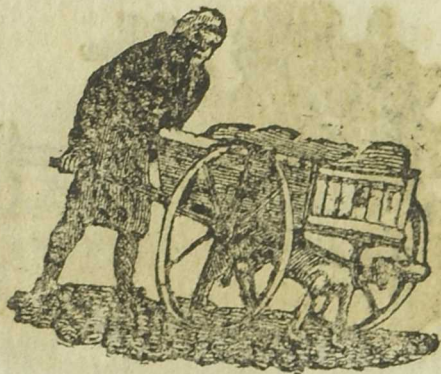

G is a Goat,
That is fond of his tricks;

H h

H is an Hedge,
Out of which we cut Sticks.

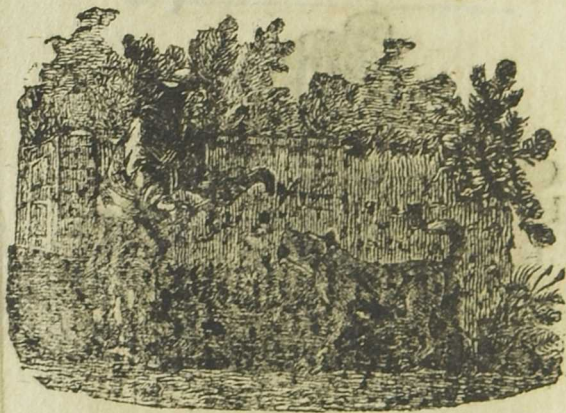

I stands for Industry;
Which you see here;

J j

J is a Jumper,
Without any fear.

K k

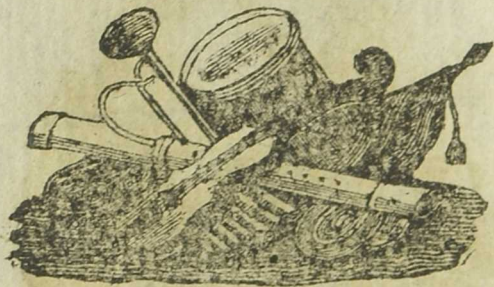

K is our Keeper,
Whom you often may see;

L is a Lady,
Now crossing the Sea.

M m

M is the Music,
To charm every heart;

N n

N is our Ned,
Now driving the Cart.

O O

O's an Old Woman,
That irons the Clothes;

P p

P is a Poor Hermit,
Without any Shoes.

Q q

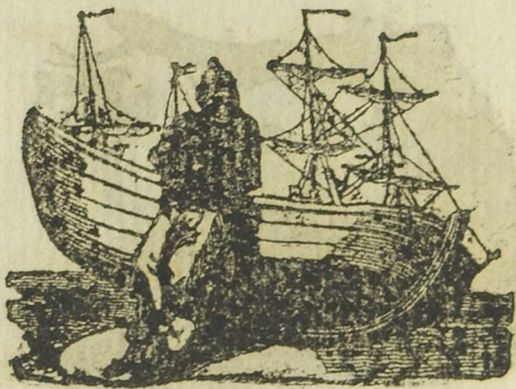

Q's the Queen's Regiment,
Look at them drilling;

R r

R is a Romp,
To swing, very willing.

S s

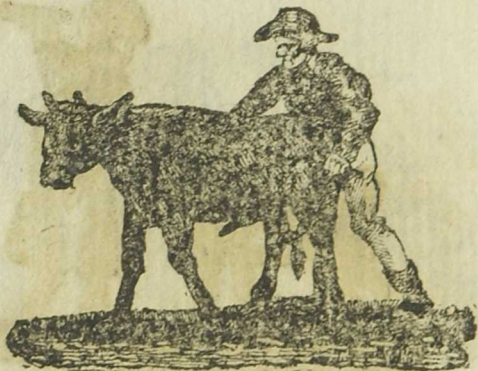

S is a Sailor,
Cracks jokes, and is witty;

T t

T is poor Tray,
Wants to dine with Miss Pretty.

U u

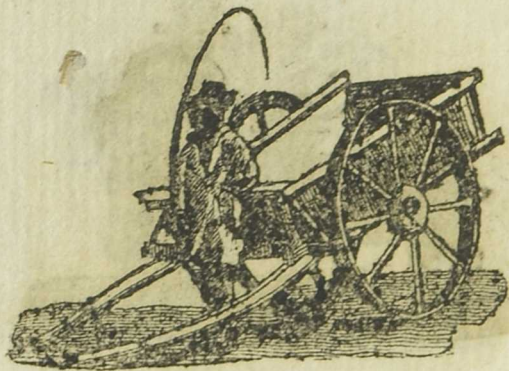

U is my Uncle,
Now driving the Calf;

V v

V's a very nice Girl,
Too civil by half.

W w

W is William,
Been to market, by Dickens;

X x

X stands for Xerxes,
So peep at the Chickens;

Y y

Y is the Ewe,
That grows wool for your clothes;

Z z

Z is the last,
See the Dog take the Bull
by the nose.

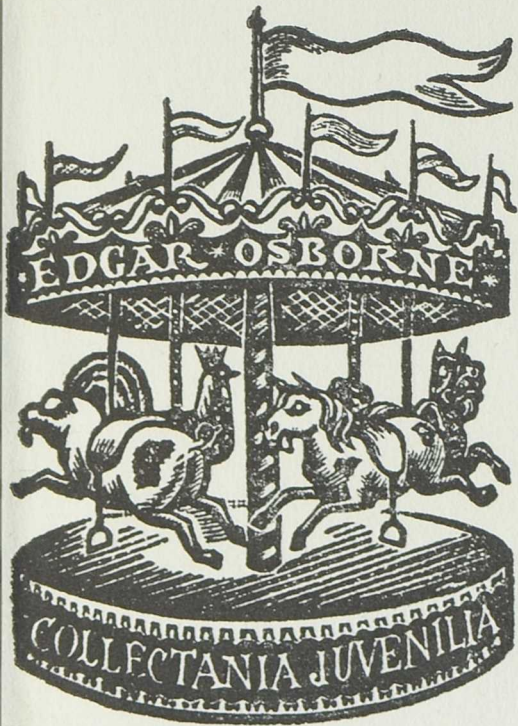

27
N.Y.

See the Dog take the Ball
by the nose

NR (TBC)

dr

37131 053 607 289

