

17.]      The Toy Shop.

The poor Blind Man.

This faithful dog his master leads,
He knows full well where he's to go,
His only recompense is praise,
'Tis all his master can bestow.

THE MOON.

There was a thing a full month old
When Adam was no more ;
Before that thing was five weeks
old,
Adam was years five score.

THE TOY-SHOP.

DERBY:
Printed by and for
HENRY MOZLEY AND SON.
Price One Penny.

NR
TOY...

[ca. 1840?]

37131 053 610 150

THE TOY-SHOP.

Aaron.

A is for Aaron, who reads in the park.

Bow-wow.

B is for Bow-wow, who never will bark.

Crab.

C is for Crab, to eat if you please.

Dolphin.

D is for Dolphin, without any c's.

Esther.

E is for Esther, a very good lass.

Fop.

F is a Fop, as a fop let him
pass.

Gun.

G is a Gun, lads, to scare all
the crows,
Or kill all our foes if they come, I suppose.

Hercules.

H is for Hercules, with his large club.

Idler.

I is an Idler, take this for a rub.

Janetta.

J stands for Janetta, with her little bird.

King.

K is for King: pretty horse!
on my word.

Lad.

L is for Lad, that is crying,
'tis pat.

Monkey.

M is a Monkey that's nursing poor Nat.

Naughty.

N is for Naughty Boy, kick him, good Horse !

Owlet.

O is for Owlet, for better and worse.

Parson.

P's for the Parson, to bury us all.

Queen's House.

Q's for the Queen's house, at which you may call.

Rover.

R is the Rover, good ship
every inch.

Snuff-Box.

S is for snuff-Box, pray, Sir,
take a pinch.

Tea-pot.

T's for the Tea-pot most ladies
admire,
So set on the kettle, and blow
up the fire.

Uncle.

U stands for Uncle, a very good Man.

Virtue.

V is for Virtue; be as good as you can.

Wild-fowl.

W for Wild-Fowl, no matter
from where,
Suffice it I've nice entertainment just here.

X

X stands in Rex ; long life to our King.

Yeoman.

Y shows you three Yeomen,
though they cannot sing.

Zac.

Z is for old Zac, the Papa of Miss Jenny.

Come here, and ride round,
and all this for a penny.

FINIS.

---

Printed by Henry Mozley and Son, Derby.

17.]      The Toy Shop.

Promise to a good Boy.

When William becomes
A very good lad,
For his pony his father
Will give him a pad.