

THE HISTORY
OF The APPLE PIE.

WRITTEN BY

Z.

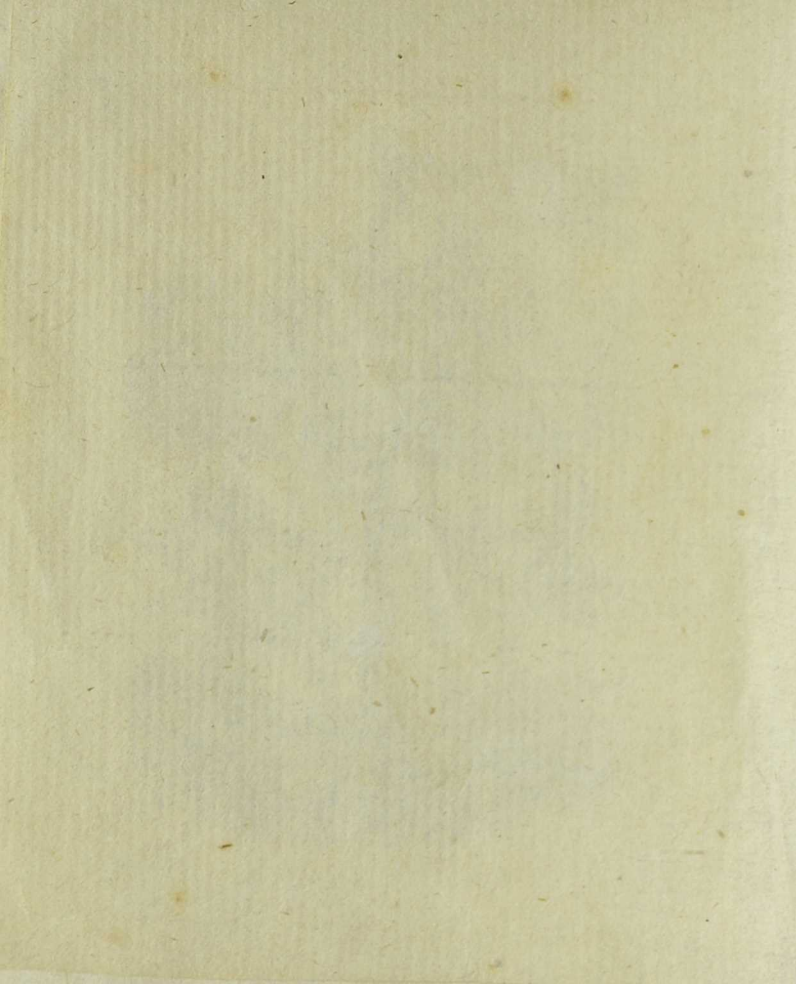

PRINTED FOR J. HARRIS, SUCCESSOR TO E. NEWBERY, AT THE ORIGINAL JUVENILE LIBRARY, CORNER OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH-YARD.

NR

37131 048 621 726

I.89

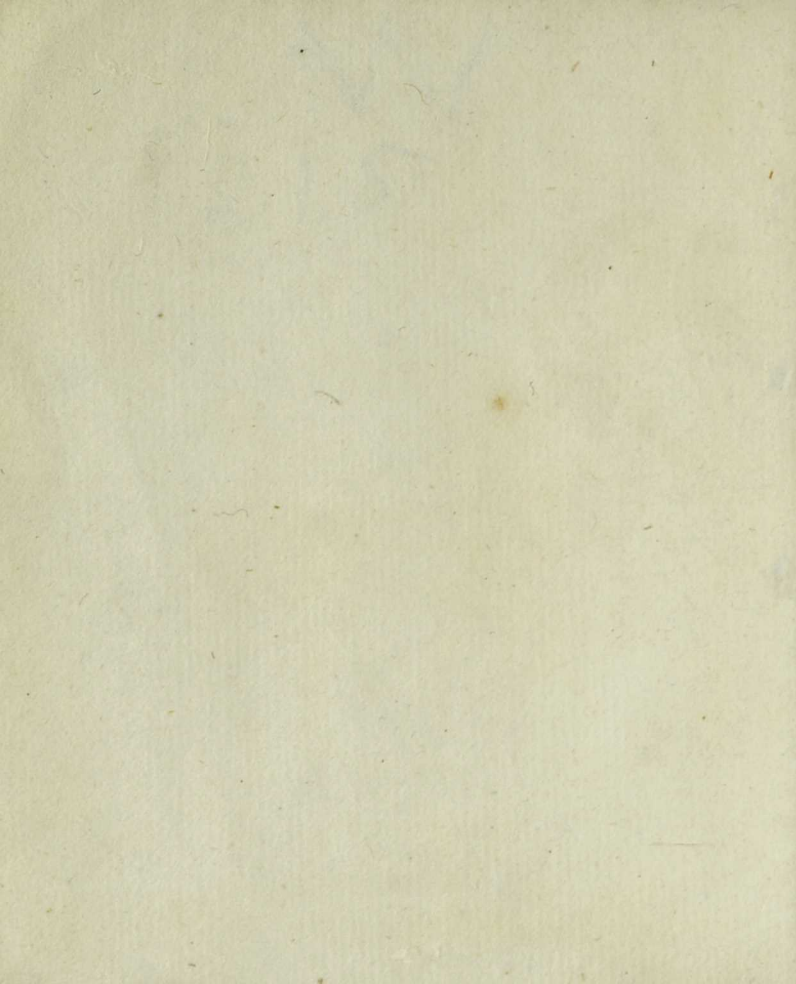

250ms
3998(5)

The H I S T O R Y
of the Apple Pie;
Written by

Z.

L O N D O N.

Print^d for L Harris June 25- 1808, Corner S^t Paul's Ch.Yd

A Apple Pie. a

B

bit it.

b

Cried for it. C

D danc'd for it. d

E

eyed it.

e

F fiddled for it. f

G gobbled it. g

H

hid it.

h

I inspected it. I

Jump'd over it. J

K kick'd it. k

L laugh'd for it. L

M mourn'd for it. m

Nodded for it. N

O

open'd it.

O

P peep'd in it. P

Q quak'd for it. Q

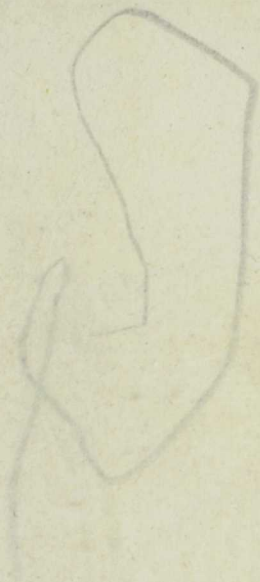

R rode for it. r

S skipt for it. S

U upset it. U

V view'd it. V

W warbled for it. W

X Xerxes drew his sword for it. X

Y yawn'd for it. y

Z zealous that all good boys & girls should be acquainted with his family, sat down &
Z wrote the History of it.

✓C

OF
J. HARRIS

*May be had, the following little Productions, which it is hoped will be equally palatable
to the little Masters and Misses of the United Kingdom.*

The IMPERIAL PRIMER, or FIRST BOOK for CHILDREN: Being an Attempt to make the Art of Reading both easy and pleasant, by adapting it to the Capacities of Children. Illustrated with a great Variety of capital Pictures, and the Price only Six-pence.

Mrs. RICE's SERIES of PROGRESSIVE LESSONS for the EARLY INSTRUCTION of YOUTH: In Three Parts. The First containing STORIES of One Syllable, the Second of Two, and the Third of Three.
Price 9d. each.

The INFANT's FRIEND; in Two Parts; consisting of Spelling and Reading Lessons. Price 1s. each.

Also,

Mrs. LOVECHILD's SPELLING-BOOK, on a New Plan. Price Eighteen-Pence.