All Round the Year

ABC

A

stands for dear Auntie
who always can show

MB The spots where the snowdrops and

crocuses

grow.

B

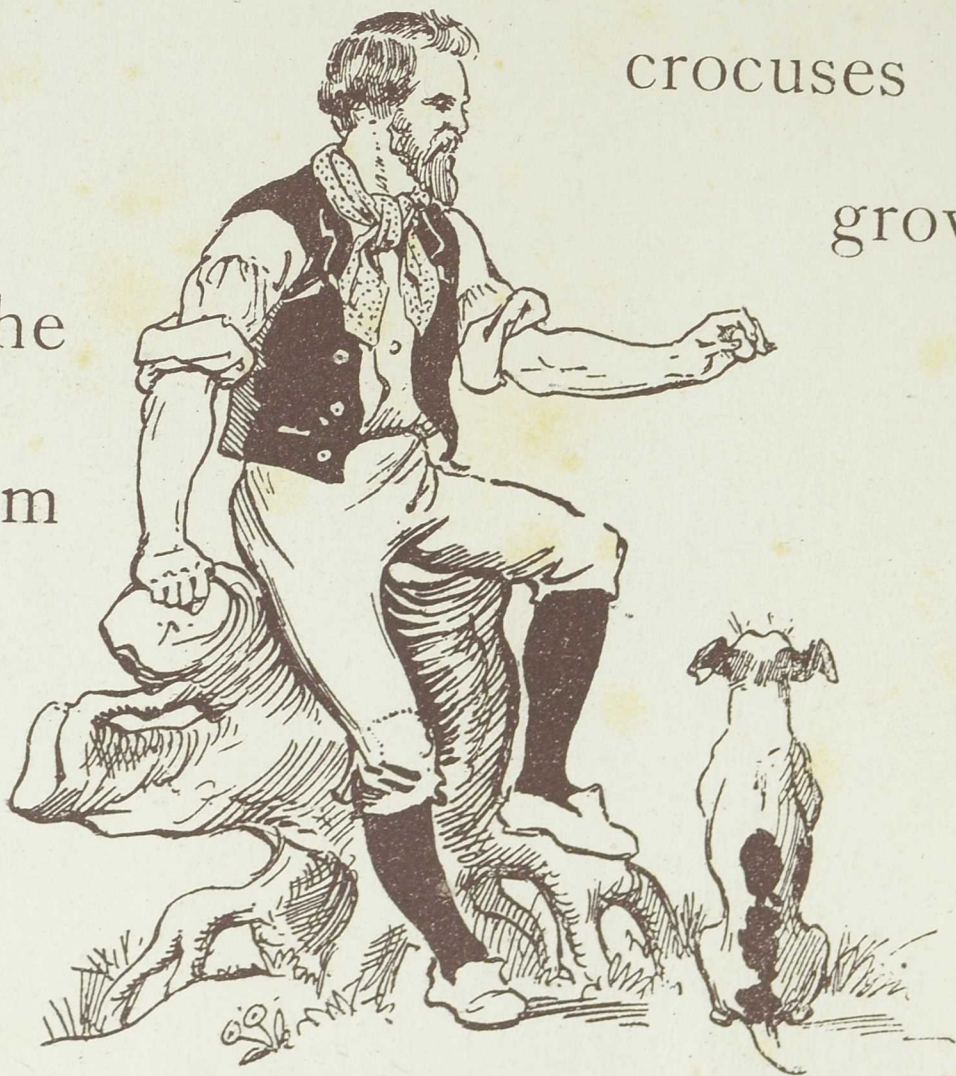

stands for the

Begging of Terrier Trim

Whenever his master has something for him.

C

for the Circus, in dull dreary weather

We visit, with joy, the Circus together.

D

stands for the

Dovecot where dwell

Daisy's Doves,

Our dear little Daisy

whom everything loves.

E stands for the Evening when

birdies delight

In singing the setting sun sweetest goodnight.

F stands for the Fast train that brought Frances
here,

Also for her Friends who've not come yet it's clear.

stands for the Garden where gay flowers grow;

G

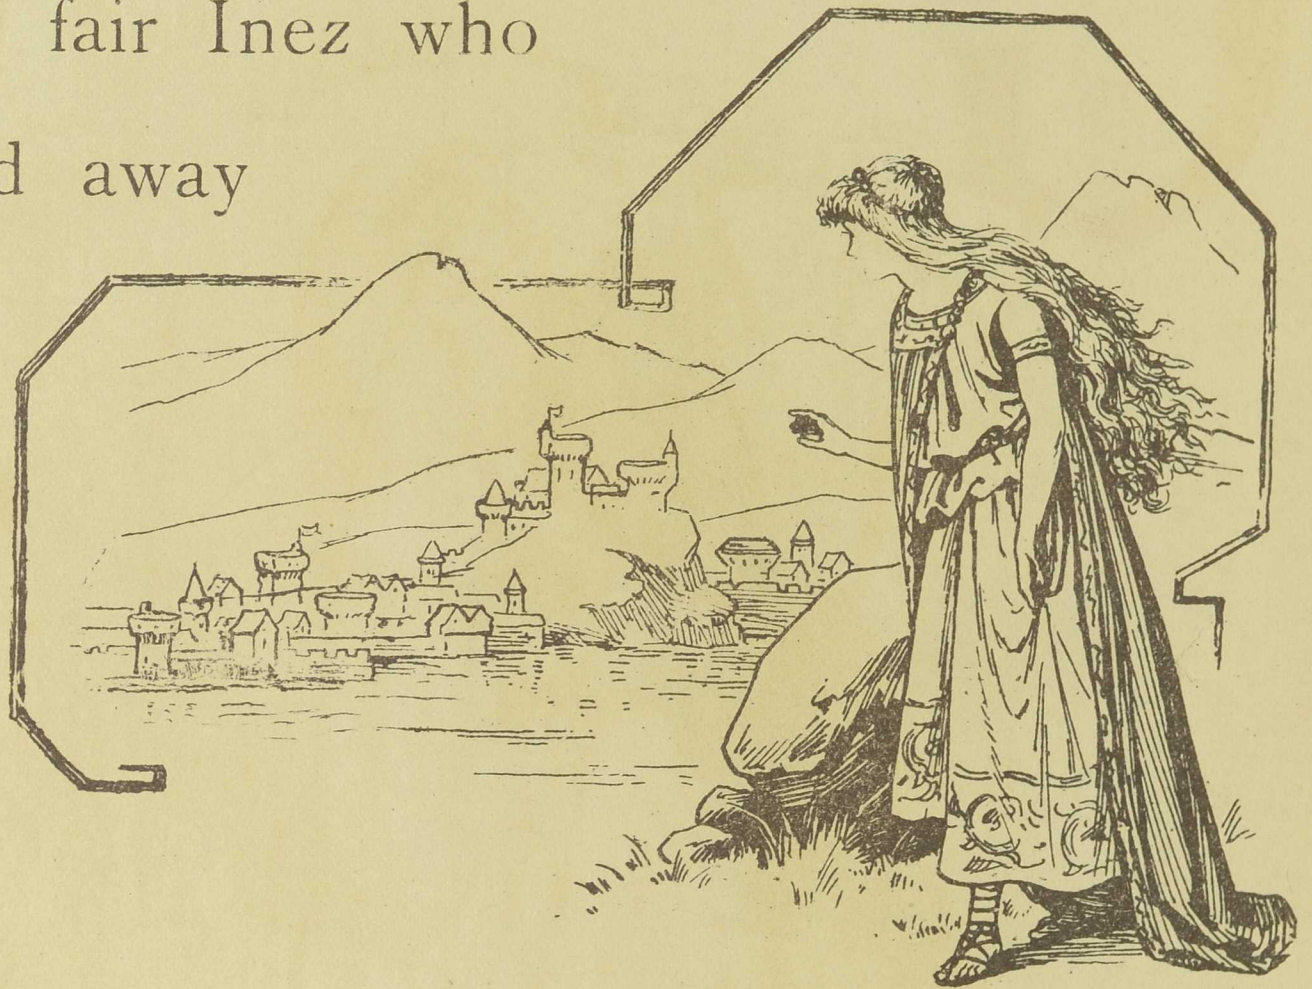

But Gracie loves
best in the Greenwood
to go.

H stands for the Hawthorn
so pink and so white,

The trees in the Spring
are a most lovely sight.

I stands for fair Inez who wandered away
And found Fairyland on a hot summer's day.

J stands for warm June, the month of the roses,
When children delight in gathering
posies.

K

for kind Katie with golden hair flowing,

L

for the Lilies that here she finds growing.

M stands for the Months that are so full of change, Every Month brings something quite pleasant and strange.

N stands for Necklace—a pink daisy chain, Which Nessie has made for Nip—
won't he be vain?

O

stands for the Orchard where apples abound,

All bright red and yellow and juicy and round.

P

stands for the Patience
of gardener
Maud,

In sowing small seeds,
now she has her reward.

Q

stands for the Quest of the gleaners who find

The ears of the corn that have been left behind.

for the Reapers who come home with singing Joyous that they the last cornload are bringing.

R

S

stands for September

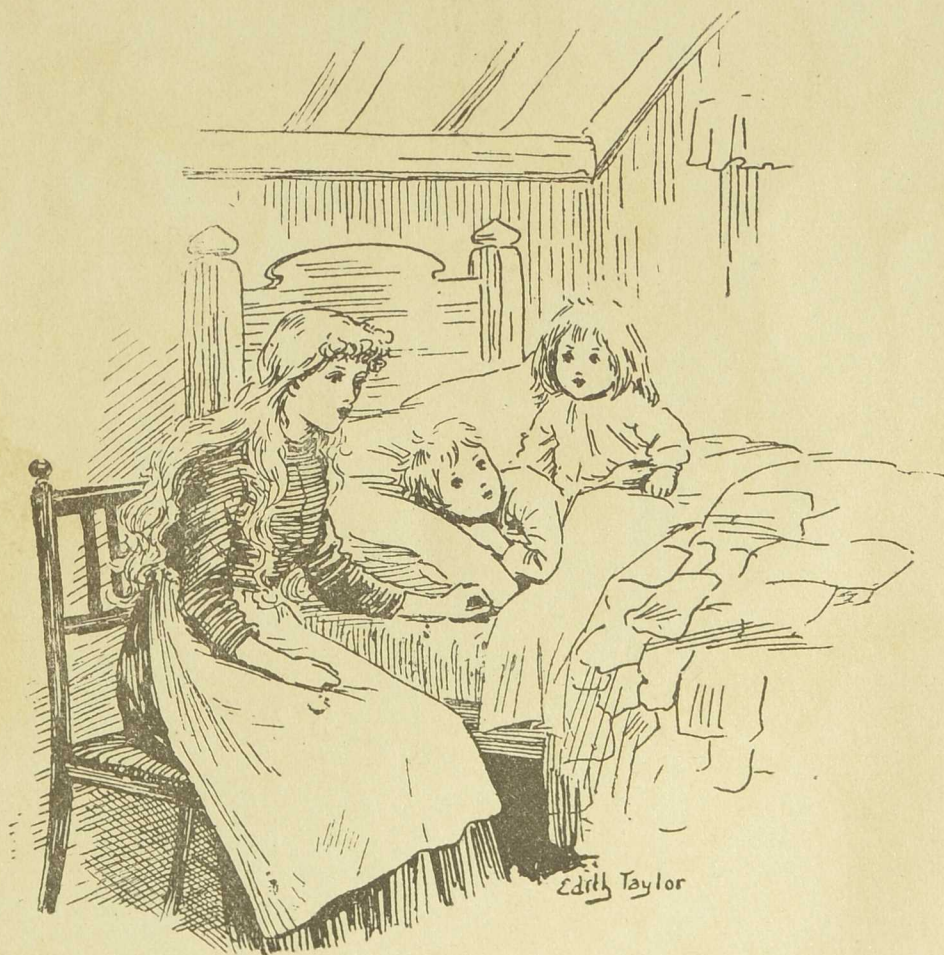

when Sportsmen are gay,

Wise bunnies will now in their burrows all stay.

T stands for the Twins

to whom dear sister

Nell

Until they are sleepy a story will tell.

U

stands for Ursula

who busily knits

And V for the Vase by which dolly Jap sits.

V

W

for Wintertime

bringing the ice

Snowballing and skating and lots of things nice.

X

stands for glad Xmas

when, loaded with toys,

Old Santa Claus

visits the good girls and boys.

Y

stands for old Yule, oh, so merry's the time

With dancing, and carols, and silver bells' chime.

Z

stands for small Zoe who's learning to cook

And Z's the last letter in this pretty book.
