It's a long long road to travel

Words and Music by H. R. Cory

PIANO

1. In Ju - ly nine-teen 2. The Bel-gians came in fourteen a man a - cross the waves, Made up his mind to whip the world, do clust-ers the French they came in scores The Russians they did must-er and it in thir-ty days, He or-der'd forth his fighting men and with one scratch Wil-liam he got sore When English-men all forward came Canadians said we'll of his pen Set the whole world in an up-roar for a long long time to come.

do the same Then Bill he saw his er-ror but he could-n't change the game.

CHORUS (Marcia)

It's a long long road to tra - vel But we'll get there just the same And when we're thro' with

Wil - liam, He'll not ev - en know his name

For when Eng - land says she'll do a thing — we cresc.

all know she is game — It's a long long road to cresc.

tra - vel — But we'll get there just the same. —

Extra Verse

Here's to England Powerful And here's to the Allies Brave Here's to our brave Canadian Boys, Fighting across the waves,
When danger lurks near Britains shores
Her children help settle scores
Oh the Germans may be fighters
But England's been there before.
