CIRCULAR.

Toronto, May, 1877.

Bro. J. H. Cornish, who for the past 10 years has been manager for W. C. Morrison, in his order department, wishes through this medium to inform his numerous friends that he has now started business for himself, at No. 14 King Street West. Having so long an experience in the different departments of the business he has been enabled to gain a thorough knowledge of all its departments, in all their details.

He manufactures all kinds of REGALIA FOR EVERY SOCIETY. In his Manufacturing and Repairing departments he will employ only the best Workmen, and those favoring him with their ORDERS can depend upon their being executed in the very best style. Any Watch Work, Jewellery Repairing, or New Work he can do at the lowest figures.
