

THE GIRL
with the
GOLDEN HAIR.

Words and Music

by

FRANCIS JOHNSON.

40¢

Published for the Author
By
WHALEY, ROYCE & CO
TORONTO.

"THE GIRL WITH THE GOLDEN HAIR?"

Words and Music by FRANCIS JOHNSON.

Tempo di Valse.

PIANO.

p

1. You say there are girls as fair Lad, As pret-ty, as
 2. You tell me to throw off the gloom Lad, That hangs a-round
 3. You ask me to think of a - noth - er, To cheer-up charm-ing, as gay, As the girl I did a - me like mist, To for - get the trouble and and to for - get The Vis - ion I cherish but dore Lad, In that far off dis - tant day; For ang - uish, And man - ful - ly to re - sist; The she was, My first love_ my last love yet; For I

poco a poco cre - scen - do she was bon-nie and sweet Lad, And al - ways to bit - ter sor-row and long - ing, For times nev - er loved her so my darl - ing, With a love_ so

poco a poco cre - scen - do me so true, I could nev - er find her more to be, But I tell you Lad that now ten - der and free, And I on - ly pray that we'll

mf

poco rall. e cresc. molto rall.

e - qual Lad, If I searched the whole world through.
 she has gone, "There's nev - er a girl for me."
 meet a - gain In the realms of e - ter - ni - ty.

poco rall. e cresc.

Refrain.
mf a tempo

For she was dain - ty, dain - ty, and fair sur -

mf a tempo

pass - ing fair, The girl I loved in the by - gone

f

poco rall. e cresc. ff

days, The girl with the gold - en Hair.

poco rall. e cresc. Fine.

D. S. al fine.

