THE DOMINION WALTZ.

Allegro brillante

L. Bogert.

PIANO.

The piano score for 'The Dominion Waltz' is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). It consists of four systems of grand staff notation. The first system includes a dynamic marking of mf and a tempo marking of 'Allegro brillante'. The score features various musical notations including triplets, slurs, and accents. The piece concludes with a first and second ending.

TRIO.

Con espressione, ben legato.

The Trio section of the piano score is written in the same key signature and time signature as the main piece. It begins with a dynamic marking of dolce and a tempo marking of 'Con espressione, ben legato'. The score is written in grand staff notation and features a melodic line in the right hand with a wavy, expressive quality, and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The section concludes with a final cadence.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music features a complex texture with many beamed notes and slurs, typical of a dense piano accompaniment.

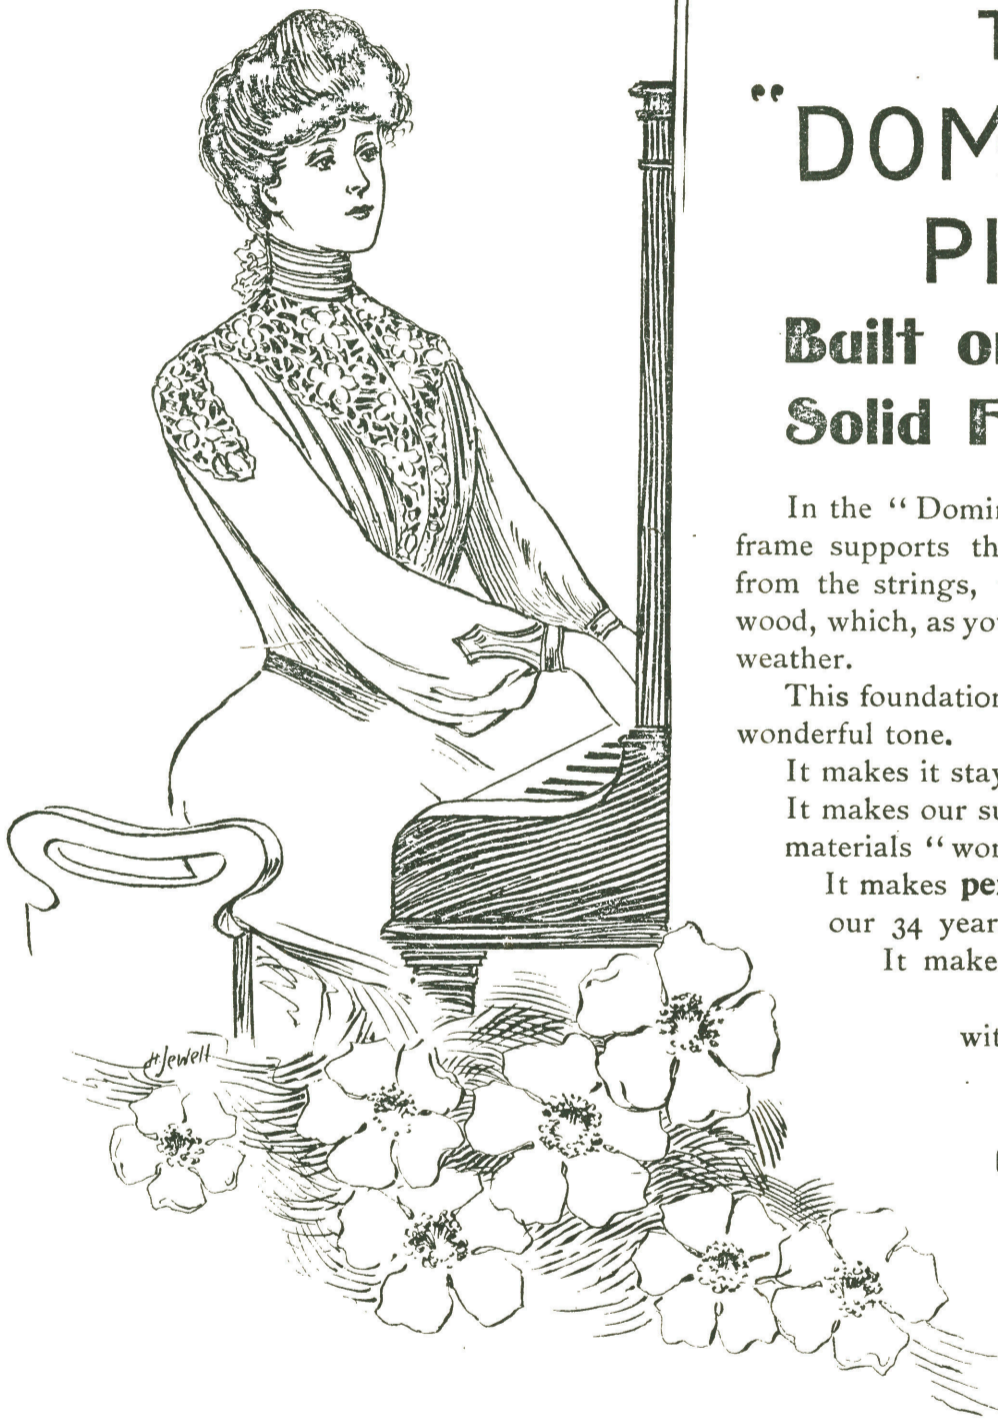

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece with similar complex textures and phrasing.

Third system of musical notation, showing further development of the musical themes.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a rit. (ritardando) marking in the middle and an a tempo marking towards the end of the system.

Fifth system of musical notation, continuing the piece with complex textures.

Sixth system of musical notation, concluding the page with a Ped. (pedal) marking and a decorative flourish.

THE "DOMINION" PIANO

Built on a
Solid Foundation

In the "Dominion" Piano, a solid iron frame supports the twenty tons of strain from the strings, where other pianos have wood, which, as you know, is affected by the weather.

This foundation gives, and preserves, its wonderful tone.

It makes it stay in tune.

It makes our superior workmanship and materials "worth while."

It makes permanent the benefits of our 34 years experience.

It makes it worth your while to
