The Queen's Plate will be run for on Saturday, May 21st, at the Woodbine Park.

A boy in a country school reading the following sentence: "The lighthouse is a landmark by day and a beacon by night," and he rendered it thus: The lighthouse is a landlady by day and a deacon by night."

"They asked him if he was the best man at the wedding. "No," he said; "I don't know as I was the best, but he jabsers I was as good as any of 'em."

"John," said the teacher, "I'm very sorry to have to punish you. "They don't," I'll let you off this time," responded John.

Foyer Chit-Chat.

The Queen's Plate will be run for on Saturday, May 21st, at the Woodbine Park.

"Pat," said a coarse, conceited fellow, "tell the biggest lie you can, and here are two shillings for you." "Faith," said Pat, "yer honor's a gentl'man."

Nano—"Come, Willie, didn't you hear your mother tell you to come right into the house?" "Willie—" Stop minding me of it; I'm trying to forget it."

The grocer who is dishonest in the use of his scales lies in weight to deceive. Why does a society lady never shed tears? Because she wants to keep her powder dry.

"Is your father a christian?" said a gentleman to a little boy on one occasion. "Yes sir," said the little boy; "but I believe he has not worked much at it lately."

A school teacher asked: "What bird is large enough to carry off a man?" Nobody knew; but one little girl suggested, "a lark," and then she exclaimed: "Mamma said papa wouldn't be home until Monday, because he had gone off on a lark."

The Queen's Plate will be run for on Saturday, May 21st, at the Woodbine Park.

"CHATTERTON"

I thought of Chatterton, the marvelous boy. The sleepless soul that perished in his pride, Dying, alone and friendless, in a garret, But living again, to-night, in clever Wilson Barrett.

Who, with "The Color Sergeant," has dared the Atlantic's terror, And carries us back to London to laugh at "A Clerical Error."

This is not so much the matter to which we wish to draw your attention, as it is to the fact that with their ten the Li-Qui Tea Co., 295 Yonge St., are actually and positively giving free Accident Insurance Policies, covering substantial amounts, and guaranteed by one of the oldest and most wealthy insurance companies in the Dominion. O! ye deities and minute picaresque specimens, etc., is this not unique! But highly practicable and excellent, as you will find if you will just call and get for an explanatory circular.
