WE'LL FIGHT FOR THE GRAND OLD FLAG.

4th Verse. (ad lib.)

There's a call from the dear old Island,
And we hear the roll of the drum,
And the echo of thousands of voices,
Crying "Mother, we come, we come!"
And our boys went out to the Transvaal,
Our boys so brave and true,
And they shewed the Boers at Paardeberg
What Canadian boys could do.

CHORUS:

And they fought for the grand old flag, etc.

5th Verse. (ad lib.)

But there's grief in many a household—
And many a heart is sore
And Canada mourns the hero lads
Who can never come back any more.
In their graves on the veldt they are sleeping
'Neath the stars of the southern sky [whole world
But our hearts thrill with pride that they shewed the
How Canadian boys could die.

With feeling.

CHORUS:

And they died for the grand old flag my boys, etc.
