“OUT THERE”
(Somewhere in France)

Out where the bullets were flying fast, under the roar of the guns;
Over the top thru the sleet and rain, march'd forth our true Mothers Sons,
On to the fight for Democracy hurling themselves at the foe;
In battle array they fought night and day, our boys whom we all love so.

Chorus:

Out There our boys fought for Freedom, under the Red, White and Blue,
Fought for our good name and honor, with Allies so steady and true—
Brave hearts who knew no surrender Veteran sons are you,
Boys of the army and navy, we take our hats off to you.

Back from the Front they're returning now back to their sweethearts and wives,
Back to the Land of the brave and free under the blue Western skies,
Never forget how they march'd away when duty bade them all go,
In Belgium and France they fought side by side, our boys whom we all love so.
