Tempo di marcia

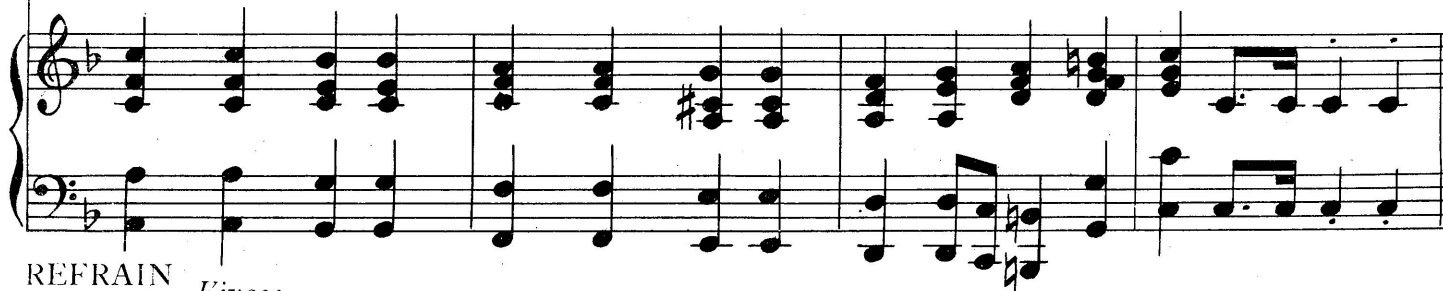

1. Lis - ten to the march-ing feet,
2. Hear the drum-ming in the air,
3. And the men that sail the sea

You can hear them in the street,
Hark, it ech - oes ev - 'ry - where,
Right on guard they love to be,

Ev - er on they go, for they're out to meet the foe And keep our Em - pire free.
For our men who fly have gone out to do or die, And they will nev - er fail.
They'll not let us down for they're out to save the crown And fight for li - ber - ty.

REFRAIN Vivace

What can we do for men so true? The war must be won. We'll sure-ly all do our bit to keep them fit. The war must be won, ——— So we will fight for the right, And give of our might 'Till all our foes are done.

When they need more we'll all help, for The war must be won.

The musical score is written for a single melodic line and piano accompaniment. The melody is on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The piano accompaniment is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat. The tempo and meter are not explicitly stated, but the notation suggests a march-like rhythm. The lyrics are written below the melody line.
