

Dedicated to the 208th Battalion—Canadian Irish—

THE IRISH LADDIES

TO THE WAR HAVE GONE

LIEUT.-COLONEL
T. HERBERT LENNOX

OFFICER
COMMANDING

Words and Music
by
FRANK O. MADDEN

Arranged by Jules Brazil

THE ANGLO CANADIAN MUSIC PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION
LIMITED
TORONTO - CANADA

THE IRISH LADDIES

Words & Music
by
FRANK O. MADDEN
Arr. by Jules Brazil

Marcia

VOICE

PIANO

ff

mf

Now Pad - dy dear and did you hear the
Do you know of an - y de - cent fight in

mf

mf

mf

talk that's go - ing round, That ould Ire - land's sons aren't loy - al to the all of his - to - ry, Where the I - rish were not fore - most in the core _____ And they're mur-mur-ing that still there are some fray _____ Have you heard of a - ny bat - tles on the

I - rish to be found, - Who — have not yet en - list - ed for the land or on the sea, . Where the I - rish did not fight and win the war, _____ Sure and Pad - dy dear its us that knows the day, _____ Sure you'll find our I - rish fight-ing men in fol - ly of such talk, And how all her sons have gone to meet the ev - ery fight - ing force Where they know they fight for lib - er - ty and foe Faith theres no one left but chil - der' and gos - right Faith they'd ra - ther fight than eat al - though they sons too young to walk, But — ev - en they are drill - ing for to go.

 some - times eat of course, But its on - ly for to fit them for the fight.

Chorus p-f
 Faith and who — can be de - ny - ing that our I - rish lads are there — Sure they're figh - - tin' and they're dy - ing — but they are out to do their share

Ar-rah! when — the war is o - ver, — then the sto - ry will be told — How our I - rish lad-dies to the war have gone, as their dad-dies did in days of old. — Faith and old. —

1. 2. D.S.

D.S. 